102. No second appeal shall lie in any suit of the nature cognizable by Courts of Small Causes, when the amount or value of the subject-matter of the original suit does not exceed five hundred rupees. [S. 585.]

103. In any second appeal, the High Court may, if the evidence on the record is sufficient, determine any issue of fact necessary for the disposal of the appeal but not determined by the lower appellate Court. [New.]

APPEALS FROM ORDERS.

104. (1) An appeal shall lie from the following orders, and save as otherwise expressly provided in the body of this Code or by any law for the time being in force from no other orders:— [36 & 37 Vict., c. 66, s. 19, s. 588, second para.]

(a) an order superseding an arbitration where the award has not been completed within the period allowed by the Court;

(b) an order on an award stated in the form of a special case;

(c) an order modifying or correcting an award;

(d) an order filing or refusing to file an agreement to refer to arbitration;

(e) an order staying or refusing to stay a suit where there is an agreement to refer to arbitration;

(f) an order filing or refusing to file an award in an arbitration without the intervention of the Court;

(g) an order under section 95;

(h) an order under any of the provisions of this Code imposing a fine or directing the arrest or detention in the civil prison of any person except where such arrest or detention is in execution of a decree;

(i) any order made under rules from which an appeal is expressly allowed by rules.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(Part VII.—Appeals.)

(2) No appeal shall lie from any order passed in appeal under this section.

[S. 591.] 105. (1) Save as otherwise expressly provided, no appeal shall lie from any order made by a Court in the exercise of its original or appellate jurisdiction; but, where a decree is appealed from, any error, defect or irregularity in any order, affecting the decision of the case, may be set forth as a ground of objection in the memorandum of appeal.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any party aggrieved by an order of remand made after the commencement of this Code from which an appeal lies does not appeal therefrom, he shall thereafter be precluded from disputing its correctness.

[S. 589.] 106. Where an appeal from any order is allowed, it shall lie to the Court to which an appeal would lie from the decree in the suit in which such order was made, or where such order is made by a Court (not being a High Court) in the exercise of appellate jurisdiction, then to the High Court.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO APPEALS.

107. (1) Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, an Appellate Court shall have power—

- (a) to determine a case finally;
- (b) to remand a case;
- (c) to frame issues and refer them for trial;
- (d) to take additional evidence or to require such evidence to be taken.

[S. 582, first part.] (2) Subject as aforesaid, the Appellate Court shall have the same powers and shall perform as nearly as may be the same duties as are conferred and imposed by this Code on Courts of original jurisdiction in respect of suits instituted therein.

[Ss 587, 590.] 108. The provisions of this Part relating to appeals from original decrees shall, so far as may be, apply to appeals—

- (a) from appellate decrees, and
- (b) from orders made under this Code or under any special or local law in which a different procedure is not provided.

APPEALS TO THE KING IN COUNCIL.

[S. 595.] 109. Subject to such rules as may, from time to time, be made by His Majesty in Council regarding appeals from the Courts of British India, and to the provisions hereinafter contained, an appeal shall lie to His Majesty in Council—

- (a) from any decree or final order passed on appeal by a High Court or by any other Court of final appellate jurisdiction;
- (b) from any decree or final order passed by a High Court in the exercise of original civil jurisdiction; and
- (c) from any decree or order, when the case as hereinafter provided, is certified to be a fit one for appeal to His Majesty in Council.

110. In each of the cases mentioned in [S. 596.]

Value of subject-matter. clauses (a) and (b) of section 109, the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit in the Court of first instance must be ten thousand rupees or upwards, and the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute on appeal to His Majesty in Council must be the same sum or upwards, or the decree or final order must involve, directly or indirectly, some claim or question to or respecting property of like amount or value, and where the decree or final order appealed from affirms the decision of the Court immediately below the Court passing such decree or final order, the appeal must involve some substantial question of law.

111. Notwithstanding anything contained in [S. 597.]

Bar of certain appeals. section 109, no appeal shall lie to His Majesty in Council—

- (a) from the decree or order of one Judge of a High Court established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, or of one Judge of a Division Court, or of two or more Judges of such High Court, or of a Division Court constituted by two or more Judges of such High Court, where such Judges are equally divided in opinion, and do not amount in number to a majority of the whole of the Judges of the High Court at the time being; or
- (b) from any decree from which under section 102 no second appeal lies.

Savings. 112. (1) Nothing contained in this Code shall be deemed— [S. 616.]

- (a) to bar the full and unqualified exercise of His Majesty's pleasure in receiving or rejecting appeals to His Majesty in Council, or otherwise howsoever, or
- (b) to interfere with any rules made by the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council, and for the time being in force, for the presentation of appeals to His Majesty in Council, or their conduct before the said Judicial Committee.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.

(Part VIII.—Reference, Review and Revision. Part IX.—Special Provisions relating to the Chartered High Courts.) (Part X.—Rules.)

(2) Nothing herein contained applies to any matter of criminal or admiralty or vice-admiralty jurisdiction, or to appeals from orders and decrees of Prize Courts.

PART VIII.REFERENCE, REVIEW AND REVISION.

[S. 617.] 113. Subject to such conditions and limitations as may be prescribed, any Court may state a case and refer the same for the opinion of the High Court, and the High Court may make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

[S. 623.] 114. Subject as aforesaid, any person considering himself aggrieved—

(a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed by this Code, but from which no appeal has been preferred,

(b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed by this Code, or

(c) by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, may apply for a review of judgment to the Court which passed the decree or made the order, and the Court may make such order thereon as it thinks fit.

[S. 622.] 115. The High Court may call for the record of any case which has been decided by any Court subordinate to such High Court and in which no appeal lies thereto, and if such subordinate Court appears—

(a) to have exercised a jurisdiction not vested in it by law, or

(b) to have failed to exercise a jurisdiction so vested, or

(c) to have acted in the exercise of its jurisdiction illegally or with material irregularity, the High Court may make such order in the case as it thinks fit.

PART IX.SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE CHARTERED HIGH COURTS.

[S. 631.] 116. This Part applies only to High Courts Part to apply only to which are or may hereafter be established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861.

[S. 632.] 117. Save as provided in this Part, the provisions of this Code shall apply to the High Courts.

[S. 634.] 118. Where any such High Court considers it necessary that a decree passed in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction should be executed before the amount of the costs incurred in the suit can be ascertained by taxation, the Court may order that the decree shall be executed forthwith, except as to so much thereof as relates to the costs ; and, as to so much thereof as relates to the costs, that the decree may be executed as soon as the amount of the costs shall be ascertained by taxation.

119. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to authorize any person on behalf of another to address the Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction, or to examine witnesses, except where the Court shall have in the exercise of the power conferred by its charter authorized him so to do, or to interfere with the power of the High Court to make rules concerning advocates, vakils and attorneys.

120. (1) The following provisions shall not apply to the High Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction, namely, sections 16, 17 and 20.

(2) Nothing in this Code shall extend or apply to any Judge of a High Court in the exercise of jurisdiction as an Insolvent Court.

PART X.RULES.

121. The rules in the First Schedule shall have effect as if enacted in the body of this Code until annulled or altered in accordance with the provisions of this Part.

122. High Courts established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, and the Chief Courts of the Punjab and Lower Burma, may, from time to time after previous publication make rules regulating their own procedure and the procedure of the Civil Courts subject to their superintendence, and may by such rules annul, alter or add to all or any of the rules in the First Schedule.

123. (1) A Committee, to be called the Rule Committee, shall be constituted at each of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay, Allahabad, Lahore and Rangoon.

(2) Each such Committee shall consist of the following persons, namely:—

(a) three Judges of the High Court established at the town at which such Committee is constituted, one of whom at least has served as a District Judge or (in the Punjab or Burma) a Divisional Judge for three years.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(Part X.—Rules.)

- (b) a barrister practising in that Court,
- (c) an advocate (not being a barrister) or vakil or pleader enrolled in that Court,
- (d) a Subordinate Judge, and
- (e) in the towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, an attorney.

(3) The members of each such Committee shall be appointed by the Chief Justice or Chief Judge, who shall also nominate one of their number to be president :

Provided that, if the Chief Justice or Chief Judge elects to be himself a member of a Committee, the number of other Judges appointed to be members shall be two, and the Chief Justice or Chief Judge shall be the President of the Committee.

(4) Each member of any such Committee shall hold office for such period as may be prescribed by the Chief Justice or Chief Judge in this behalf ; and whenever any member retires, resigns, dies or ceases to reside in the province in which the Committee was constituted, or becomes incapable of acting as a member of the Committee, the said Chief Justice or Chief Judge may appoint another person to be a member in his stead.

(5) There shall be a Secretary to each such Committee, who shall be appointed by the Chief Justice or Chief Judge and shall receive such remuneration as may be provided in this behalf by the Governor General in Council or by the Local Government, as the case may be.

[New.] 124. Every Rule Committee shall make a Committee to report to report to the High Court High Court. established at the town at which it is constituted on any proposal to annul, alter or add to the rules in the First Schedule or to make new rules, and before making any rules under section 122 the High Court shall take such report into consideration.

[New.] 125. High Courts, other than the Courts specified in section 122, may exercise the powers conferred by that section in such manner and subject to such conditions as the Governor General in Council may determine :

Provided that any such High Court may, after previous publication, make a rule extending within the local limits of its jurisdiction any rules which have been made under the provisions of this Part by any other High Court.

[New.] 126. Rules made under the foregoing provisions shall be subject to the previous sanction of the following authorities, namely :—

- (a) if the rule is made by a High Court established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, to the sanction of the authority prescribed by section 15 of that Act for rules made under that section ;

- (b) if the rule is made by any other High Court, to the sanction of the Local Government.

127. Rules so made and sanctioned shall be published in the Gazette of India or in the local official Gazette, as the case may be, and shall from the date of publication or from such other date as may be specified have the same force and effect, within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the High Court which made them, as if they had been contained in the First Schedule.

128. (1) Such rules shall be not inconsistent with the provisions in the body of this Code, but, subject thereto, may provide for any matters relating to the procedure of Civil Courts.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the powers conferred by sub-section (1), such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely :—

- (a) the service of summonses, notices and other processes by post or in any other manner either generally or in any specified areas, and the proof of such service ;
- (b) the maintenance and custody, while under attachment, of live-stock and other moveable property, the fees payable for such maintenance and custody, the sale of such live-stock and property and the proceeds of such sale ;
- (c) procedure in suits by way of counter-claim, and the valuation of such suits for the purposes of jurisdiction ;
- (d) procedure in garnishee and charging orders either in addition to, or in substitution for, the attachment and sale of debts ;
- (e) procedure where the defendant claims to be entitled to contribution or indemnity over against any person whether a party to the suit or not ;
- (f) summary procedure in suits in which the plaintiff seeks only to recover a debt or liquidated demand in money payable by the defendant, with or without interest, arising—
 - (i) on a contract express or implied ; or
 - (ii) on an enactment where the sum sought to be recovered is a fixed sum of money or in the nature of a debt other than a penalty ; or
 - (iii) on a guarantee, where the claim against the principal is in respect of a debt or a liquidated demand only ; or
 - (iv) on a trust ; or

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(Part XI.—Miscellaneous.)

(v) in suits for the recovery of immovable property, with or without a claim for rent or mesne profits, by a landlord against a tenant whose term has expired or has been duly determined by notice to quit, or has become liable to forfeiture for non-payment of rent, or against persons claiming under such tenant;

(g) procedure by way of originating summons;

(h) consolidation of suits, appeals and other proceedings;

(i) delegation to any Registrar, Prothonotary or Master or other official of the Court of any judicial, quasi-judicial and non-judicial duties; and

(j) all forms, registers, books, entries and accounts which may be necessary or desirable for the transaction of the business of Civil Courts.

[S. 652,
third para.]
24 & 25
Vict., c. 104.

129. Notwithstanding anything in this Code, any High Court established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, may make such rules not inconsistent with the Letters Patent establishing it to regulate its own procedure in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction as it shall think fit, and nothing herein contained shall affect the validity of any such rules in force at the commencement of this Code.

Power of Chartered High Courts to make rules as to their original civil procedure.

second para.]
Vict., c. 104.

130. A High Court not established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, may, with the previous sanction of the Local Government, make, with respect to any matter other than procedure, any rule which any High Court so established might, under section 15 of that Act, make with respect to any such matter for any part of the territories under its jurisdiction which is not included within the limits of a Presidency-town.

Power of other High Courts to make rules as to matters other than procedure.

fourth para.]

131. Rules made in accordance with section 129 or section 130 shall be published in the Gazette of India or in the local official Gazette, as the case may be, and shall from the date of publication or from such other date as may be specified have the force of law.

Publication of rules.

PART XI.MISCELLANEOUS.

[S. 640.]

132. (1) Women who, according to the customs and manners of the country, ought not to be compelled to appear in public shall be exempt from personal appearance in Court.

Exemption of certain women from personal appearance.

(2) Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to exempt such women from arrest in execution of civil process in any case in which the arrest of women is not prohibited by this Code.

133. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, exempt from personal appearance in Court any person whose rank, in the opinion of such Government, entitles him to the privilege of exemption.

(2) The names and residences of the persons so exempted shall, from time to time, be forwarded to the High Court by the Local Government and a list of such persons shall be kept in such Court, and a list of such persons as reside within the local limits of the jurisdiction of each Court subordinate to the High Court shall be kept in such subordinate Court.

(3) Where any person so exempted claims the privilege of such exemption, and it is consequently necessary to examine him by commission, he shall pay the costs of that commission, unless the party requiring his evidence pays such costs.

134. The provisions of sections 55, 57 and 59 shall apply, so far as may be, to all persons arrested under this Code.

Arrest other than in execution of decree.

135. (1) No Judge, Magistrate or other judicial officer shall be liable to arrest under civil process while going to, presiding in, or returning from, his Court.

(2) Where any matter is pending before a tribunal having jurisdiction therein, or believing in good faith that it has such jurisdiction, the parties thereto, their pleaders, mukhtars, revenue-agents and recognized agents, and their witnesses acting in obedience to a summons, shall be exempt from arrest under civil process other than process issued by such tribunal for contempt of Court while going to or attending such tribunal for the purpose of such matter, and while returning from such tribunal.

(3) Nothing in sub-section (2) shall enable a judgment-debtor to claim exemption from arrest under an order for immediate execution or where such judgment-debtor attends to show cause why he should not be committed to prison in execution of a decree.

136. (1) Where an application is made that any person shall be arrested or that any property shall be attached under any provision of this Code not relating to the execution of decrees, and such person resides or such property is situate outside the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court to which the application is made, the Court may, in its discretion, issue a warrant of arrest or make an order of attachment, and send to the District Court within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such person or property resides or is situate a copy of the warrant or order, together with the probable amount of the costs of the arrest or attachment.

(2) The District Court shall, on receipt of such copy and amount, cause the arrest or attachment to be made by its own officers, or by a Court subordinate to itself, and shall inform the Court which issued or made such warrant or order of the arrest or attachment.

(3) The Court making an arrest under this section shall send the person arrested to the Court by which the warrant of arrest was issued, unless he shows cause to the satisfaction of the former Court why he should not be sent to the latter Court, or unless he furnishes sufficient security for his appearance before the latter Court or for satisfying any decree that may be passed against him by that Court, in either of which cases the Court making the arrest shall release him.

(4) Where a person to be arrested or moveable property to be attached under this section is within the local limits of the ordinary original civil jurisdiction of the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal or at Madras or at Bombay, or of the Chief Court of Lower Burma, the copy of the warrant of arrest or of the order of attachment, and the probable amount of the costs of the arrest or attachment, shall be sent to the Court of Small Causes of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay or Rangoon, as the case may be, and that Court, on receipt of the copy and amount, shall proceed as if it were the District Court.

137. (1) The language which, on the commencement of this Code, is the language of any Court subordinate to a High Court shall continue to be the language of such subordinate Court until the Local Government otherwise directs.

(2) The Local Government may declare what shall be the language of any such Court and in what character applications to and proceedings in such Court shall be written.

[New]

(3) Where this Code requires or allows anything other than the recording of evidence to be done in writing in any such Court, such writing may be in English; but if any party or his pleader is unacquainted with English a translation into the language of the Court shall, at his request, be supplied to him; and the Court shall make such order as it thinks fit in respect of the payment of the costs of such translation.

[S. 185A.]

138. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the local official Gazette, direct with respect to any Judge specified in the notification, or falling under a description set forth therein, that evidence in cases in which an appeal is allowed shall be taken down by him in the English language and in manner prescribed.

(2) Where a Judge is prevented by any sufficient reason from complying with a direction under sub-section (1), he shall record the reason and cause the evidence to be taken down in writing from his dictation in open Court.

S. 197.]

Oath on affidavit by whom to be administered.

(a) any Court or Magistrate, or

(b) any officer or other person whom a High Court may appoint in this behalf, or

(c) any officer appointed by any other Court which the Local Government has generally or specially empowered in this behalf, may administer the oath to the deponent.

140. (1) In any Admiralty or Vice-Admiralty [S. 645A.]

Assessors in causes of salvage, etc. cause of salvage, towage or collision, the Court, whether it be exercising its original or its appellate jurisdiction, may, if it thinks fit, and shall upon request of either party to such cause, summon to its assistance, in such manner as it may direct or as may be prescribed, two competent assessors; and such assessors shall attend and assist accordingly.

(2) Every such assessor shall receive such fees for his attendance, to be paid by such of the parties as the Court may direct or as may be prescribed.

141. The procedure provided in this Code in Miscellaneous proceedings, regard to suits shall be followed, as far as it can be made applicable, in all proceedings in any Court of civil jurisdiction. [S. 647.]

142. All orders and notices served on or given to any person under the provisions of this Code shall be in writing. [S. 94.]

143. Postage, where chargeable on a notice, summons, or letter issued under this Code and forwarded by post, and the fee for registering the same, shall be paid within a time to be fixed before the communication is made: [S. 95.]

Provided that the Local Government, with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, may remit such postage, or fee, or both, or may prescribe a scale of court-fees to be levied in lieu thereof.

144. (1) Where and in so far as a decree is varied or reversed, the Court of first instance shall, on the application of any party entitled to any benefit by way of restitution or otherwise, cause such restitution to be made as will, so far as may be, place the parties in the position which they would have occupied but for such decree or such part thereof as has been varied or reversed; and, for this purpose, the Court may make any orders, including orders for the refund of costs and for the payment of interest, damages, compensation and mesne profits, which are properly consequential on such variation or reversal. [S. 583.]

(2) No suit shall be instituted for the purpose of obtaining any restitution or other relief which could be obtained by application under sub-section (1).

(2) No suit shall be instituted for the purpose of obtaining any restitution or other relief which could be obtained by application under sub-section (1).

145. Where any person has become liable as surety— [S. 253.]

Enforcement of liability of surety.

(a) for the performance of any decree or any part thereof, or

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(Part XI.—Miscellaneous.)

(b) for the restitution of any property taken in execution of a decree, or

(c) for the payment of any money, or for the fulfilment of any condition imposed on any person, under an order of the Court in any suit or in any proceeding consequent thereon, the decree or order may be executed against him, to the extent to which he has rendered himself personally liable, in the manner herein provided for the execution of decrees, and such person shall, for the purposes of appeal, be deemed a party within the meaning of section 47:

Provided that such notice as the Court in each case thinks sufficient has been given to the surety.

[New.] 146. Save as otherwise provided by this Code or by any law for the time being in force, where any proceeding may be taken or application made by or against any person, then the proceeding may be taken or the application may be made by or against any person claiming under him.

[New.] 147. In all suits to which any person under disability is a party any consent or agreement as to any proceeding shall, if given or made with the express leave of the Court by the next friend or guardian for the suit, have the same force and effect as if such person were under no disability and had given such consent or made such agreement.

[New.] 148. Where any period is fixed or granted by the Court for the doing of any act prescribed or allowed by this Code, the Court may, in its discretion, from time to time, enlarge such period, even though the period originally fixed or granted may have expired.

[New.] 149. Where the whole or any part of any fee prescribed for any document by the law for the time being in force relating to court-fees has not been paid, the Court may, in its discretion, at any stage, allow the person, by whom such fee is payable, to pay the whole or part, as the case may be, of such court-fee; and upon such payment the document, in respect of which such fee is payable, shall have the same force and effect as if such fee had been paid in the first instance.

[New.] 150. Save as otherwise provided, where the business of any Court is transferred to any other Court, the Court to which the business is so transferred shall have the same powers and shall perform the same duties as those respectively conferred and imposed by or under this Code upon the Court from which the business was so transferred.

151. Nothing in this Code shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the inherent power of the Court to make such orders as may be necessary for the ends of justice or to prevent abuse of the process of the Court [New]

152. Clerical or arithmetical mistakes in judgments, decrees or orders or errors arising therein from any accidental slip or omission may at any time be corrected by the Court either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties. [O. 28, r. 11.]

153. The Court may at any time, and on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it may think fit, amend any defect or error in any proceeding in a suit; and all necessary amendments shall be made for the purpose of determining the real question or issue raised by or depending on such proceeding. [O. 28, r. 12.]

154. Nothing in this Code shall affect any present right of appeal which shall have accrued to any party at its commencement. [S. 3, third para.]

155. The enactments mentioned in the Fourth Schedule are hereby amended to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof. [New]

156. The enactments mentioned in the Fifth Schedule are hereby repealed to the extent specified in the fourth column thereof. [S. 3, first sentence.]

157. Notifications published, declarations and rules made, places appointed, agreements filed, scales prescribed, forms framed, appointments made and powers conferred under Act VIII of 1859 or under any Code of Civil Procedure or any Act amending the same or under any other enactment hereby repealed shall, so far as they are consistent with this Code, have the same force and effect as if they had been respectively published, made, appointed, filed, prescribed, framed and conferred under this Code and by the authority empowered thereby in such behalf. [S. 3, second sentence.]

158. In every enactment or notification passed or issued before the commencement of this Code in which reference is made to or to any Chapter or section of Act VIII of 1859 or any Code of Civil Procedure or any Act amending the same or any other enactment hereby repealed, such reference shall, so far as may be practicable, be taken to be made to this Code or to its corresponding Part, Order, section or rule. [S. 3, second para.]

*The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order I.—Parties to Suits. Order II.—Frame of Suit.)The First Schedule.ORDER I.Parties to Suits.(The marginal references are to Orders of the English Rules.)

1. All persons may be joined in one suit as plaintiffs in whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, where, if such persons brought separate suits, any common question of law or fact would arise.

[New.]

2. Where it appears to the Court that any joinder of plaintiffs may embarrass or delay the trial of the suit, the Court may put the plaintiffs to their election or order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.

[S. 28; cf. O. 16, r. 4.]

3. All persons may be joined as defendants against whom any right to relief in respect of or arising out of the same act or transaction or series of acts or transactions is alleged to exist, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, where if separate suits were brought against such persons any common question of law or fact would arise.

[Ss. 26, 28; cf. O. 16, rr. 1 and 4.]

4. Judgment may be given Court may give judgment for or against one or more of joint parties.

(a) for such one or more of the plaintiffs as may be found to be entitled to relief, for such relief as he or they may be entitled to;

(b) against such one or more of the defendants as may be found to be liable, according to their respective liabilities.

[O. 16, r. 5.]

5. It shall not be necessary that every defendant shall be interested as to all the relief claimed in any suit against him.

[S. 29; cf. O. 16, r. 6.]

6. The plaintiff may, at his option, join as parties to the same suit all or any of the persons severally, or jointly and severally, liable on any one contract, including parties to bills of exchange, hundis and promissory notes.

[O. 16, r. 7.]

7. Where the plaintiff is in doubt as to the person from whom he is entitled to obtain redress, he may join two or more defendants in order that the question as to which of the defendants is liable, and to what extent, may be determined as between all parties.

[Ss. 30, 31; cf. O. 16, r. 9.]

8. (1) Where there are numerous persons having the same interest in one suit, one or more of such persons may, with the permission of the Court, sue or be sued, for such suit, on behalf of or for the benefit of all persons so interested. But the Court shall in such case give, at the plaintiff's expense, notice of the institution of the suit to all such persons either by personal service or, where from the number of persons or any other cause such service is not reasonably practicable, by public advertisement, as the Court in each case may direct.

(2) Any person on whose behalf or for whose benefit a suit is instituted or defended under sub-rule (1) may apply to the Court to be made a party to such suit.

9. No suit shall be defeated by reason of the misjoinder and non-joinder of parties, and the Court may in every suit deal with the matter in controversy so far as regards the rights and interests of the parties actually before it.

10. (1) Where a suit has been instituted in the name of the wrong person as plaintiff or where it is doubtful whether it has been instituted in the name of the right plaintiff, the Court may at any stage of the suit, if satisfied that the suit has been instituted through a bond fide mistake, and that it is necessary for the determination of the real matter in dispute so to do, order any other person to be substituted or added as plaintiff upon such terms as the Court thinks just.

(2) The Court may at any stage of the proceedings, either upon or without the application of either party, and on such terms as may appear to the Court to be just, order that the name of any party improperly joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, be struck out, and that the name of any person who ought to have been joined, whether as plaintiff or defendant, or whose presence before the Court may be necessary in order to enable the Court effectually and completely to adjudicate upon and settle all the questions involved in the suit, be added.

(3) No person shall be added as a plaintiff suing without a next friend or as the next friend of a plaintiff under any disability without his consent.

(4) Where a defendant is added, the plaintiff shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be amended in such manner as may be necessary, and amended copies of the summons and of the plaint shall be served on the new defendant and, if the Court thinks fit, on the original defendant.

(5) Subject to the provisions of the Indian Limitation Act, 1877, section 22, the proceedings as against any person added as defendant shall be deemed to have begun only on the service of the summons.

11. The Court may give the conduct of the suit to such person as it deems proper.

Conduct of suit.

12. (1) Where there are more plaintiffs than one, any one or more of them may be authorized by any other of them to appear, plead or act for such other in any proceeding; and in like manner, where there are more defendants than one, any one or more of them may be authorized by any other of them to appear, plead or act for such other in any proceeding.

(2) The authority shall be in writing signed by the party giving it and shall be filed in Court.

13. All objections on the ground of non-joinder or misjoinder of parties shall be taken at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen, and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived.

ORDER II.Frame of Suit.

1. Every suit shall as far as practicable be framed so as to afford ground for final decision upon the subjects in dispute and to prevent further litigation concerning them.

2. (1) Every suit shall include the whole of the claim which the plaintiff is entitled to make in respect of the cause of action; but a plaintiff may relinquish any portion of his claim in order to bring the suit within the jurisdiction of any Court.

(2) Where a plaintiff omits to sue in respect of, or intentionally relinquishes, any portion of his claim, he shall not afterwards sue in respect of the portion so omitted or relinquished.

(3) A person entitled to more than one relief in respect of the same cause of action may sue for all or any of such reliefs; but if he omits, except with the leave of the Court, to sue for all such reliefs, he shall not afterwards sue for any relief so omitted.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule an obligation and a collateral security for its performance and successive claims arising under the same obligation shall be deemed respectively to constitute but one cause of action.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)

Order IV.—Institution of Suits.)*

Illustration.

A lets a house to B at a yearly rent of Rs. 1,200. The rent for the whole of the years 1905, 1906 and 1907 is due and unpaid. A sues B in 1908 only for the rent due for 1906. A shall not afterwards sue B for the rent due for 1905 or 1907.

3. Save as otherwise provided, a plaintiff may unite in the same suit several causes of action against the same defendant, or the same defendants jointly; and any plaintiffs having causes of action in which they are jointly interested against the same defendant or the same defendants jointly may unite such causes of action in the same suit.

(2) Where causes of action are united, the jurisdiction of the Court as regards the suit shall depend on the amount or value of the aggregate subject-matters at the date of instituting the suit.

4. No cause of action shall, unless with the leave of the Court, be joined with a suit for the recovery of immovable property.

(a) claims for mesne profits or arrears of rent in respect of the property claimed or any part thereof;

(b) claims for damages for breach of any contract under which the property or any part thereof is held; and

(c) claims in which the relief sought is based on the same cause of action;

Provided that nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prevent any party in a suit for foreclosure or redemption from asking to be put into possession of the mortgaged property.

18, r. 3.]

5. No claim by or against an executor, administrator or heir, as such, shall be joined with claims by or against him personally, unless the last-mentioned claims are alleged to arise with reference to the estate in respect of which the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued as executor, administrator or heir, or are such as he was entitled to, or liable for, jointly with the deceased person whom he represents.

[Cf. Ss. 40, 47
& O. 18, r. 1.]

6. Where it appears to the Court that any causes of action joined in one suit cannot be conveniently tried or disposed of together, the Court may order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient.

[S. 46.]

7. All objections on the ground of misjoinder of causes of action shall be taken at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled, at or before such settlement unless the ground of objection has subsequently arisen, and any such objection not so taken shall be deemed to have been waived.

ORDER III.Recognized Agents and Pleadings.

[S. 36.]

1. Any appearance, application or act in or to any Court, required or authorized by law to be made or done by a party in such Court, may, except where otherwise expressly provided by any law for the time being in force, be made or done by the party in person, or by his recognized agent, or by a pleader duly appointed to act on his behalf:

Provided that any such appearance shall, if the Court so directs, be made by the party in person.

[S. 37.]

2. The recognized agents of parties by whom such appearances, applications and acts may be made or done are—

(a) persons holding powers-of-attorney, authorizing them to make and do such appearances, applications and acts on behalf of such parties;

(b) persons carrying on trade or business for and in the names of parties not resident within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court within which limits the appearance, application or act is made or done, in matters connected with such trade or business only, where no other agent is expressly authorized to make and do such appearances, applications and acts.

3. (1) Processes served on the recognized agent of a party shall be as effectual as service of process on the party in person, unless the Court otherwise directs. [S. 39.]

(2) The provisions for the service of process on a party to a suit shall apply to the service of process on his recognized agent.

4. (1) The appointment of a pleader to make or do any appearance, application or act for any person shall be in writing, and shall be signed by such person or by his recognized agent or by some other person duly authorized by power-of-attorney to act in this behalf. [S. 39.]

(2) Every such appointment, when accepted by a pleader, shall be filed in Court, and shall be considered to be in force until determined with the leave of the Court, by a writing signed by the client or the pleader, as the case may be, and filed in Court, or until the client or the pleader dies or until all proceedings in the suit are ended so far as regards the client.

(3) No advocate of any High Court established under the Indian High Courts Act, 1861, and no advocate of any other High Court who is a barrister shall be required to present any document empowering him to act. 24 & 25 Vict., c. 104

5. Any process served on the pleader of any party or left at the office or ordinary residence of such pleader, and whether the same is for the personal appearance of the party or not, shall be presumed to be duly communicated and made known to the party whom the pleader represents, and, unless the Court otherwise directs, shall be as effectual for all purposes as if the same had been given to or served on the party in person. [S. 40.]

6. (1) Besides the recognized agents described in rule 2 any person residing within the jurisdiction of the Court may be appointed an agent to accept service of process. [S. 41.]

(2) Such appointment may be special or general and shall be made by an instrument in writing signed by the principal, and such instrument or, if the appointment is general, a certified copy thereof shall be filed in Court.

ORDER IV.Institution of Suits.

1. (1) Every suit shall be instituted by presenting a plaint to the Court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf. [S. 48.]

(2) Every plaint shall comply with the rules contained in Orders VI and VII, so far as they are applicable.

2. The Court shall cause the particulars of every suit to be entered in a book to be kept for the purpose and called the register of civil suits. Such entries shall be numbered in every year according to the order in which the plaints are admitted. [S. 50.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order V.—Issue and Service of Summons.)

ORDER V.

Issue and Service of Summons.Issue of Summons.

[S. 64.] 1. (1) When a suit has been duly instituted a summons may be issued to the defendant to appear and answer the claim on a day to be therein specified:

Provided that no such summons shall be issued when the defendant has appeared at the presentation of the plaint and admitted the plaintiff's claim.

(2) A defendant to whom a summons has been issued under sub-rule (1) may appear—

(a) in person, or

(b) by a pleader duly instructed and able to answer all material questions relating to the suit, or

(c) by a pleader accompanied by some person able to answer all such questions.

(3) Every such summons shall be signed by the Judge or such officer as he appoints, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Court.

[S. 65.] 2. Every summons shall be accompanied by a copy of the plaint or, if so permitted, by a concise statement.

[S. 66.] 3. (1) Where the Court sees reason to require the personal appearance of the defendant or plaintiff to appear in person, the summons shall order him to appear in person in Court on the day therein specified.

(2) Where the Court sees reason to require the personal appearance of the plaintiff on the same day, it shall make an order for such appearance.

[S. 67.] 4. No party shall be ordered to appear in person unless he resides—

(a) within the local limits of the Court's ordinary original jurisdiction, or

(b) without such limits but at a place less than fifty or (where there is railway or steamer communication or other established public conveyance for five sixths of the distance between the place where he resides and the place where the Court is situate), less than two hundred miles distance from the court-house.

[S. 68.] 5. The Court shall determine, at the time of issuing Summons to be either the summons, whether it shall be for the settlement of issues only, or for the final disposal of the suit; and the summons shall contain a direction accordingly:

Provided that, in every suit heard by a Court of Small Causes, the summons shall be for the final disposal of the suit.

[S. 69.] 6. The day for the appearance of the defendant shall be fixed with reference to the current business of the Court, the place of residence of the defendant and the time necessary for the service of the summons; and the day shall be so fixed as to allow the defendant sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer on such day.

7. The summons to appear and answer shall order the defendant to produce all documents in his possession or power upon which he intends to rely in support of his case. [S. 70.]

8. Where the summons is for the final disposal of the suit, it shall also direct the defendant to produce, on the day fixed for his appearance, all witnesses upon whose evidence he intends to rely in support of his case. [S. 71.]

On issue of summons for final disposal, defendant to be directed to produce his witnesses.

Service of Summons.

9. (1) Where the defendant resides within the jurisdiction of the Court in which the suit is instituted, or has an agent resident within that jurisdiction who is empowered to accept the service of the summons, the summons shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, be delivered or sent to the proper officer to be served by him or one of his subordinates. [S. 72.]

Delivery or transmission of summons for service.

(2) The proper officer may be an officer of a Court other than that in which the suit is instituted, and, where he is such an officer, the summons may be sent to him by post or in such other manner as the Court may direct.

10. Service of the summons shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof signed by the Judge or such officer as he appoints in this behalf, and sealed with the seal of the Court. [S. 73.]

11. Save as otherwise prescribed, where there are more defendants than one, service of the summons shall be made on each defendant. [S. 74.]

12. Wherever it is practicable, service shall be made on the defendant in person, unless he has an agent empowered to accept service, in which case service on such agent shall be sufficient. [S. 75.]

13. (1) In a suit relating to any business or work against a person who does not reside within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court from which the summons is issued, service on any manager or agent, who, at the time of service, personally carries on such business or work for such person within such limits, shall be deemed good service. [S. 76.]

(2) For the purpose of this rule the master of a ship shall be deemed to be the agent of the owner or charterer.

14. Where in a suit to obtain relief respecting, or compensation for wrong to, immoveable property, service cannot be made on the defendant in person, and the defendant has no agent empowered to accept the service, it may be made on any agent of the defendant in charge of the property. [S. 77.]

15. Where in any suit the defendant cannot be found and has no agent empowered to accept service of the summons on his behalf, service may be made on any adult male member of the family of the defendant who is residing with him. [S. 78.]

Explanation.—A servant is not a member of the family within the meaning of this rule.

16. Where the serving officer delivers or tenders a copy of the summons to the defendant personally, or to an agent or other person on his behalf, he shall require the signature of the person to [S. 79.]

Person served to sign acknowledgment.

whom the copy is so delivered or tendered to an acknowledgment of service endorsed on the original summons.

[S. 80.]

17. Where the defendant or his agent or such other person as aforesaid refuses to sign the acknowledgment, or where the serving officer, after using all due and reasonable diligence, cannot find the defendant, and there is no agent empowered to accept service of the summons on his behalf, nor any other person on whom service can be made, the serving officer shall affix a copy of the summons on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house in which the defendant ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain and shall then return the original to the Court from which it was issued, with a report endorsed thereon or annexed thereto stating that he has so affixed the copy, the circumstances under which he did so, and the name and address of the person (if any) by whom the house was identified and in whose presence the copy was affixed.

[S. 81.]

18. The serving officer shall, in all cases in which the summons has been served under rule 16, endorse or annex, or cause to be endorsed or annexed, on or to the original summons, a return stating the time when and the manner in which the summons was served, and the name and address of the person (if any) identifying the person served and witnessing the delivery or tender of the summons.

[S. 82.]

19. Where a summons is returned under rule 17, the Court shall, if the return under that rule has not been verified by the affidavit of the serving officer, and may, if it has been so verified, examine the serving officer on oath, or cause him to be so examined by another Court, touching his proceedings, and may make such further inquiry in the matter as it thinks fit; and shall either declare that the summons has been duly served or order such service as it thinks fit.

[S. 82, second para.]

20. (1) Where the Court is satisfied that there is reason to believe that the defendant is keeping out of the way for the purpose of avoiding service, or that for any other reason the summons cannot be served in the ordinary way, the Court shall order the summons to be served by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the Court-house, and also upon some conspicuous part of the house (if any) in which the defendant is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain, or in such other manner as the Court thinks fit.

[S. 83.]

(2) Service substituted by order of the Court shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the defendant personally.

[S. 84.]

(3) Where service is substituted by order of the Court, the Court shall fix such time for the appearance of the defendant as the case may require.

[S. 85.]

21. A summons may be sent by the Court by which it is issued, whether within or without the province, either by one of its officers or by post to any Court (not being the High Court) having jurisdiction in the place where the defendant resides.

[S. 86.]

22. Where a summons issued by any Court established beyond the limits of the towns of Calcutta, Madras, Bombay and Rangoon is to be served within any such limits, it shall be sent to the Court of Small Causes within whose jurisdiction it is to be served.

23. The Court to which a summons is sent under rule 21 or rule 22 shall, upon receipt thereof, proceed as if it had been issued by such Court and shall then return the summons to the Court of issue, together with the record (if any) of its proceedings with regard thereto.

24. Where the defendant is confined in a prison, the Service on defendant summons shall be delivered or sent by post or otherwise to the officer in charge of the prison for service on the defendant.

[S. 87, 88.]

25. Where the defendant resides out of British India and has no agent in British India empowered to accept service, the summons shall be addressed to the defendant at the place where he is residing and sent to him by post, if there is postal communication between such place and the place where the Court is situate.

[S. 89.]

Service in foreign territory through Political Agent or Court.

26. Where—

[S. 90.]

(a) in the exercise of any foreign jurisdiction vested in His Majesty or in the Governor General in Council, a Political Agent has been appointed, or a Court has been established or continued, with power to serve a summons issued by a Court under this Code in any foreign territory in which the defendant resides, or

(b) the Governor General in Council has, by notification in the Gazette of India, declared that any summons so issued may be served by any Court situate in any such territory and not established or continued in the exercise of any such jurisdiction as aforesaid, the summons may be sent to such Political Agent or Court, by post or otherwise, for the purpose of being served upon the defendant; and, if the Political Agent or Court returns the summons with an endorsement signed by such Political Agent or by the Judge or other officer of the Court that the summons has been served on the defendant in manner hereinbefore directed, such endorsement shall be deemed to be evidence of service.

27. Where the defendant is a public officer (not belonging to His Majesty's military or naval forces or His Majesty's Indian Marine Service), or is the servant of a railway company or local authority, the Court may, if it appears to it that the summons may be most conveniently so served, send it for service on the defendant to the head of the office in which he is employed, together with a copy to be retained by the defendant.

28. Where the defendant is a soldier, the Court shall send the summons for service to his commanding officer together with a copy to be retained by the defendant.

[S. 468.]

29. (1) Where a summons is delivered or sent to any person for service under rule 24, rule 27 or rule 28, such person shall be bound to serve it, if possible, and to return it under his signature, with the written acknowledgment of the defendant, and such signature shall be deemed to be evidence of service.

[S. 468.]

(2) Where from any cause service is impossible, the summons shall be returned to the Court with a full statement of such cause and of the steps taken to procure service, and such statement shall be deemed to be evidence of non-service.

30. (1) The Court may, notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, substitute for a summons a letter signed by the Judge or such officer as he may appoint in this behalf, where the defendant is, in the opinion of the Court, of a rank entitling him to such mark of consideration,

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order V.—Issue and Service of Summons. Order VI.—Pleadings generally. Order VII.—Plaint.)

(2) A letter substituted under sub-rule (1) shall contain all the particulars required to be stated in a summons, and, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3), shall be treated in all respects as a summons.

(3) A letter so substituted may be sent to the defendant by post or by a special messenger selected by the Court, or in any other manner which the Court thinks fit; and, where the defendant has an agent empowered to accept service, the letter may be delivered or sent to such agent.

ORDER VI.

Pleadings generally.

[New.]

Pleading.

1. "Pleading" shall mean plaint or written statement.

[O. 19, r. 4.]

2. Every pleading shall contain, and contain only, a statement in a concise form of the material facts on which the party pleading relies for his claim or defence, as the case may be, but not the evidence by which they are to be proved, and shall, when necessary, be divided into paragraphs, numbered consecutively. Dates, sums and numbers shall be expressed in figures.

[O. 19, r. 5.]

3. The forms in Appendix A when applicable, and where they are not applicable forms of the like character, as nearly as may be, shall be used for all pleadings.

[O. 19, r. 6.]

4. In all cases in which the party pleading relies on any misrepresentation, fraud, breach of trust, wilful default, or undue influence, and in all other cases in which particulars may be necessary beyond such as are exemplified in the forms aforesaid, particulars (with dates and items if necessary) shall be stated in the pleading.

[O. 19, r. 7.]

5. A further and better statement of the nature of the claim or defence, or further and better particulars of any matter stated in any pleading, may in all cases be ordered, upon such terms, as to costs and otherwise, as may be just.

[O. 19, r. 14.]

6. Any condition precedent, the performance or occurrence of which is intended to be contested, shall be distinctly specified in his pleading by the plaintiff or defendant, as the case may be; and, subject thereto, an averment of the performance or occurrence of all conditions precedent necessary for the case of the plaintiff or defendant shall be implied in his pleading.

[O. 19, r. 16.]

7. No pleading shall, except by way of amendment, raise any new ground of claim or contain any allegation of fact inconsistent with the previous pleadings of the party pleading the same.

[O. 19, r. 20.]

8. Where a contract is alleged in any pleading, a bare denial, of the same by the opposite party shall be construed only as a denial in fact of the express contract alleged or of the matters of fact from which the same may be implied, and not as a denial of the legality or sufficiency in law of such contract.

[O. 19, r. 21.]

9. Wherever the contents of any document are material, it shall be sufficient in any pleading to state the effect thereof as briefly as possible, without setting out the whole or any part thereof, unless the precise words of the document or any part thereof are material.

[O. 19, r. 22.]

10. Wherever it is material to allege malice, fraudulent intention, knowledge or other condition of the mind of any person, it shall be sufficient to allege the same as a fact without setting out the circumstances from which the same is to be inferred.

11. Wherever it is material to allege notice to any person of any fact, matter or thing, it shall be sufficient to allege such notice as a fact, unless the form or the precise terms of such notice, or the circumstances from which such notice is to be inferred, are material.

12. Whenever any contract or any relation between any persons is to be implied from relation, or a series of letters or conversations or otherwise from a number of circumstances, it shall be sufficient to allege such contract or relation as a fact, and to refer generally to such letters, conversations or circumstances without setting them out in detail. And if in such case the person so pleading desires to rely in the alternative upon more contracts or relations than one as to be implied from such circumstances, he may state the same in the alternative.

13. Neither party need in any pleading allege any matter of fact which the law

Presumptions of law. presumes in his favour or as to which the burden of proof lies upon the other side unless the same has first been specifically denied, (e.g., consideration for a bill of exchange where the plaintiff sues only on the bill, and not for the consideration as a substantive ground of claim).

14. Every pleading shall be signed by the party and his pleader (if any): Provided that

Pleading to be signed. where a party pleading is, by reason of absence or for other good cause, unable to sign the pleading, it may be signed by any person duly authorized by him to sign the same or to sue or defend on his behalf.

15. (1) Save as otherwise provided by any law for the Verification of pleadings. time being in force, every pleading shall be verified at the foot by the party or by one of the parties pleading or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be acquainted with the facts of the case.

(2) The person verifying shall specify, by reference to the numbered paragraphs of the pleading, what he verifies of his own knowledge and what he verifies upon information received and believed to be true.

(3) The verification shall be signed by the person making it and shall state the date on which and the place at which it was signed.

16. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings

Striking out pleadings. order to be struck out or amended any matter in any pleading which may be unnecessary or scandalous or which may tend to prejudice, embarrass or delay the fair trial of the suit.

17. The Court may at any stage of the proceedings

Amendment of pleadings. allow either party to alter or amend his pleadings in such manner and on such terms as may be just, and all such amendments shall be made as may be necessary for the purpose of determining the real questions in controversy between the parties.

18. If a party who has obtained an order for leave to

Failure to amend after order. amend does not amend accordingly within the time limited for that purpose by the order, or if no time is thereby limited then within fourteen days from the date of the order, he shall not be permitted to amend after the expiration of such limited time as aforesaid or of such fourteen days, as the case may be, unless the time is extended by the Court.

ORDER VII.

Plaint.

1. The plaintiff shall contain the following particulars:—

(a) the name of the Court in which the suit is brought;

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order VII.—Plaint.)

(b) the name, description and place of residence of the plaintiff ;

(c) the name, description and place of residence of the defendant, so far as they can be ascertained ;

(d) where the plaintiff or the defendant is a minor or a person of unsound mind, a statement to that effect ;

(e) the facts constituting the cause of action and when it arose ;

(f) the facts showing that the Court has jurisdiction ;

(g) the relief which the plaintiff claims ;

(h) where the plaintiff has allowed a set-off or relinquished a portion of his claim, the amount so allowed or relinquished ; and

(i) a statement of the value of the subject-matter of the suit for the purposes of jurisdiction and of court-fees, so far as the case admits.

[S. 50.] 2. Where the plaintiff seeks the recovery of money in money suits, the plaintiff shall state the precise amount claimed :

But where the plaintiff sues for mesne profits, or for an amount which will be found due to him on taking unsettled accounts between him and the defendant, the plaintiff shall state approximately the amount sued for.

[S. 50, para. 3.] 3. Where the subject-matter of the suit is immoveable property, the plaintiff shall contain a description of the property sufficient to identify it, and, in case such property can be identified by boundaries or numbers in a record of settlement or survey, the plaintiff shall specify such boundaries or numbers.

[S. 50, para. 4.] 4. Where the plaintiff sues in a representative character, the plaintiff shall show not only that he has an actual existing interest in the subject-matter, but that he has taken the steps (if any) necessary to enable him to institute a suit concerning it.

[S. 50, para. 5.] 5. The plaintiff shall show that the defendant is or claims to be interested in the subject-matter, and that he is liable to be called upon to answer the plaintiff's demand.

[S. 50, para. 6.] 6. Where the suit is instituted after the expiration of the period prescribed by the law of limitation, the plaintiff shall show the ground upon which exemption from such law is claimed.

[O. 20, r. 6.] 7. Every plaintiff shall state specifically the relief which the plaintiff claims either simply or in the alternative, and it shall not be necessary to ask for general or other relief which may always be given as the Court may think just to the same extent as if it had been asked for. And the same rule shall apply to any relief claimed by the defendant in his written statement.

[O. 20, r. 7.] 8. Where the plaintiff seeks relief in respect of several distinct claims or causes of action founded upon separate and distinct grounds, they shall be stated as far as may be separately and distinctly.

[S. 58.] 9. (1) The plaintiff shall endorse on the plaint, or annex thereto, a list of the documents (if any) which he has produced along with it ; and, if the plaint is admitted, shall present as many copies on plain paper of the plaint as there are defendants, unless the Court by reason of the length of the plaint or the number of the defendants, or for any other sufficient reason, permits him to present a like number of concise statements of the nature of the claim made, or of the relief claimed in the suit, in which case he shall present such statements.

(2) Where the plaintiff sues, or the defendant or any of the defendants is sued, in a representative capacity, such statements shall show in what capacity the plaintiff or defendant sues or is sued.

(3) The plaintiff may, by leave of the Court, amend such statements so as to make them correspond with the plaint.

(4) The chief ministerial officer of the Court shall sign such list and copies or statements if, on examination, he finds them to be correct.

10. (1) The plaint shall at any stage of the suit be returned to be presented to the Court in which the suit should have been instituted. [S. 57.]

Return of plaint. Court in which the suit should have been instituted.

(2) On returning a plaint the Judge shall endorse thereon the date of its presentation and return, the name of the party presenting it, and a brief statement of the reasons for returning it.

11. The plaint shall be rejected in the following cases :— [Ss. 53, 54.]

(a) where it does not disclose a cause of action ;

(b) where the relief claimed is undervalued, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to correct the valuation within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so ;

(c) where the relief claimed is properly valued, but the plaint is written upon paper insufficiently stamped, and the plaintiff, on being required by the Court to supply the requisite stamp-paper within a time to be fixed by the Court, fails to do so ;

(d) where the suit appears from the statement in the plaint to be barred by any law.

12. Where a plaint is rejected the Judge shall record an order to that effect with the reasons for such order. [S. 55.]

13. The rejection of the plaint on any of the grounds hereinbefore mentioned shall not of its own force preclude the plaintiff from presenting a fresh plaint in respect of the same cause of action. [S. 56.]

Documents relied on in plaint.

14. (1) Where a plaintiff sues upon a document in his possession or power, he shall produce it in Court when the plaint is presented, and shall at the same time deliver the document or a copy thereof to be filed with the plaint. [S. 59.]

(2) Where he relies on any other documents (whether in his possession or power or not) as evidence in support of his claim, he shall enter such documents in a list to be added or annexed to the plaint.

15. Where any such document is not in the possession or power of the plaintiff, he shall, if possible, state in whose possession or power it is. [S. 60.]

16. Where the suit is founded upon a negotiable instrument, and it is proved that the instrument is lost, and an indemnity is given by the plaintiff, to the satisfaction of the Court, against the claims of any other person upon such instrument, the Court may pass such decree as it would have passed if the plaintiff had produced the instrument in Court when the plaint was presented, and had at the same time delivered a copy of the instrument to be filed with the plaint. [S. 61.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order VII.—Plaint.—Order VIII.—Written Statement and Set-off.)

[S. 62.] 17. (1) Save in so far as is otherwise provided by the Bankers' Books Evidence Act, 1891, where the document on which the plaintiff sues is an entry in a shop-book or other account in his possession or power, the plaintiff shall produce the book or account at the time of filing the plaint, together with a copy of the entry on which he relies.

(2) The Court, or such officer as it appoints in this behalf, shall forthwith mark the document for the purpose of identification; and, after examining and comparing the copy with the original, shall, if it is found correct, certify it to be so and return the book to the plaintiff and cause the copy to be filed.

[S. 63.] 18. (1) A document which ought to be produced in Court by the plaintiff when the plaint is presented, or to be entered in the list to be added or annexed to the plaint, and which is not produced or entered accordingly, shall not, without the leave of the Court, be received in evidence on his behalf at the hearing of the suit.

(2) Nothing in this rule applies to documents produced for cross-examination of the defendant's witnesses, or in answer to any case set up by the defendant or handed to a witness merely to refresh his memory.

ORDER VIII.

Written Statement and Set-off.

[S. 110.] 1. The defendant may, and, if so required by the Court, shall, at or before the first hearing or within such time as the Court may permit, present a written statement of his defence.

[S. 19, r. 15.] 2. The defendant must raise by his pleading all matters which show the suit not to be maintainable, or that the transaction is either void or voidable in point of law, and all such grounds of defence, as if not raised, would be likely to take the opposite party by surprise, or would raise issues of fact not arising out of the plaint, as, for instance, fraud, limitation, release, payment, performance, or facts showing illegality.

[S. 19, r. 17.] 3. It shall not be sufficient for a defendant in his written statement to deny generally the grounds alleged by the plaintiff, but the defendant must deal specifically with each allegation of fact of which he does not admit the truth, except damages.

[S. 19, r. 19.] 4. Where a defendant denies an allegation of fact in the plaint, he must not do so evasively, but answer the point of substance. Thus, if it is alleged that he received a certain sum of money, it shall not be sufficient to deny that he received that particular amount, but he must deny that he received that sum or any part thereof, or else set out how much he received. And if an allegation is made with divers circumstances, it shall not be sufficient to deny it along with those circumstances.

[S. 19, r. 13.] 5. Every allegation of fact in the plaint, if not denied specifically or by necessary implication, or stated to be not admitted in the pleading of the defendant, shall be taken to be admitted except as against a person under disability.

[S. 19, r. 13.] Provided that the Court may in its discretion require any fact so admitted to be proved otherwise than by such admission.

[S. 111.] 6. (1) Where in a suit for the recovery of money the defendant claims to set off against the plaintiff's demand any ascertained sum of money legally recoverable by him from the plaintiff, not exceeding the pecuniary limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, and both parties fill the same character as they fill in the plaintiff's suit, the defendant may, at the first hearing of the suit, but not afterwards unless permitted by the Court, present a written statement containing the particulars of the debt sought to be set off.

(2) The written statement shall have the same effect as a plaint in a cross-suit so as to enable the Court to pronounce a final judgment in respect both of the original claim and of the set-off: but this shall not affect the lien, upon the amount decreed, of any pleader in respect of the costs payable to him under the decree.

(3) The rules relating to a written statement by a defendant apply to a written statement in answer to a claim of set-off.

Illustrations.

(a) A bequeaths Rs. 2,000 to B and appoints C his executor and residuary legatee. B dies and D takes out administration to B's effects. C pays Rs. 1,000 as surety for D; then D sues C for the legacy. C cannot set off the debt of Rs. 1,000 against the legacy, for neither C nor D fills the same character with respect to the legacy as they fill with respect to the payment of the Rs. 1,000.

(b) A dies intestate and in debt to B. C takes out administration to A's effects and B buys part of the effects from C. In a suit for the purchase-money by C against B, the latter cannot set off the debt against the price, for C fills two different characters, one as the vendor to B, in which he sues B, and the other as representative to A.

(c) A sues B on a bill of exchange. B alleges that A has wrongfully neglected to insure B's goods and is liable to him in compensation which he claims to set off. The amount not being ascertained cannot be set off.

(d) A sues B on a bill of exchange for Rs. 500. B holds a judgment against A for Rs. 1,000. The two claims being both definite pecuniary demands may be set off.

(e) A sues B for compensation on account of trespass. B holds a promissory note for Rs. 1,000 from A and claims to set off that amount against any sum that A may recover in the suit. B may do so, for, as soon as A recovers, both sums are definite pecuniary demands.

(f) A and B sue C for Rs. 1,000. C cannot set off a debt due to him by A alone.

(g) A sues B and C for Rs. 1,000. B cannot set off a debt due to him alone by A.

(h) A owes the partnership firm of B and C Rs. 1,000. B dies, leaving C surviving. A sues C for a debt of Rs. 1,500 due in his separate character. C may set off the debt of Rs. 1,000.

7. Where the defendant relies upon several distinct grounds of defence or set-off founded on separate and distinct facts, they shall be stated, as far as may be, separately and distinctly. [O. 20, r. 7.]

8. Any ground of defence which has arisen after the institution of the suit or the presentation of a written statement claiming a set-off may be raised by the defendant or plaintiff, as the case may be, in his written statement. [New.]

9. No pleading subsequent to the written statement of a defendant other than by way of defence to a set-off shall be presented except by the leave of the Court and upon such terms as the Court thinks fit, but the Court may at any time require a written statement or additional written statement from any of the parties and fix a time for presenting the same. [S. 112.]

10. Where any party from whom a written statement is so required fails to present the same within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may pronounce judgment against him, or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit. [S. 113.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order IX.—Appearance of Parties and Consequence of Non-appearance.)

ORDER IX.

Appearance of Parties and Consequence of Non-appearance.

[S. 95.]

1. On the day fixed in the summons for the defendant Parties to appear on to appear and answer, the parties shall be in attendance at the Court-house in person or by their respective pleaders, and the suit shall then be heard unless the hearing is adjourned to a future day fixed by the Court.

[S. 96.]

2. Where on the day so fixed it is found that the summons has not been served upon the defendant in consequence of the failure of the plaintiff to pay the court-fee or postal charges (if any) chargeable for such service, the Court may make an order that the suit be dismissed.

Provided that no such order shall be made although the summons has not been served upon the defendant, if on the day fixed for him to appear and answer he attends in person or by agent when he is allowed to appear by agent.

3. Where neither party appears when the suit is called on for hearing, the Court may make an order that the suit be dismissed.

[S. 98.]

4. Where a suit is dismissed under rule 2 or rule 3, the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit; or he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside and if he satisfies the Court that there was sufficient cause for his not paying the court-fee and postal charges (if any) required within the time fixed before the issue of the summons, or for his non-appearance, as the case may be, the Court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

5. (1) Where, after a summons has been issued to the defendant, or to one of several defendants, and returned unserved, the plaintiff fails for a period of one year from the date of the return made to the Court by the officer ordinarily certifying to the Court returns made by the serving officers, to apply for the issue of a fresh summons and to satisfy the Court that he has used his best endeavours to discover the residence of the defendant who has not been served, or that such defendant is avoiding service of process, the Court may make an order that the suit be dismissed as against such defendant.

(2) In such case the plaintiff may (subject to the law of limitation) bring a fresh suit.

6. (1) Where the plaintiff appears and the defendant does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, then—

(a) if it is proved that the summons was duly served, the Court may proceed ex parte;

(b) if it is not proved that the summons was duly served, the Court shall direct a second summons to be issued and served on the defendant;

(c) if it is proved that the summons was served on the defendant, but not in sufficient time to enable him to appear and answer on the day fixed in the summons, the Court shall postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day to be fixed by the Court, and shall direct notice of such day to be given to the defendant.

(2) Where it is owing to the plaintiff's default that the summons was not duly served or was not served in sufficient time, the Court shall order the plaintiff to pay the costs occasioned by the postponement.

7. Where the Court has adjourned the hearing of the suit ex parte, and the defendant appears on day of adjourned hearing and assigns good cause for previous non-appearance, he may, upon such terms as the Court directs as to costs or otherwise, be heard in answer to the suit as if he had appeared on the day fixed for his appearance.

[S. 102.]

8. Where the defendant appears and the plaintiff does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order that the suit be dismissed, unless the defendant admits the claim, or part thereof, in which case the Court shall pass a decree against the defendant upon such admission, and, where part only of the claim has been admitted, shall dismiss the suit so far as it relates to the remainder.

[S. 103.]

9. (1) Where a suit is wholly or partly dismissed under rule 8, the plaintiff shall be precluded from bringing a fresh suit in respect of the same cause of action. But he may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and if he satisfies the Court that there was sufficient cause for his non-appearance when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order setting aside the dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

(2) No order shall be made under this rule unless notice of the application has been served on the opposite party.

10. Where there are more plaintiffs than one, and one or more of them appear, and the others do not appear, the Court may, at the instance of the plaintiff or plaintiffs appearing, permit the suit to proceed in the same way as if all the plaintiffs had appeared, or make such order as it thinks fit.

[S. 106.]

11. Where there are more defendants than one, and one or more of them appear, and the others do not appear, the suit shall proceed, and the Court shall, at the time of pronouncing judgment, make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the defendants who do not appear.

[S. 107.]

12. Where a plaintiff or defendant, who has been ordered to appear in person, does not appear in person, or show sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the Court for failing so to appear, he shall be subject to all the provisions of the foregoing rules applicable to plaintiffs and defendants, respectively, who do not appear.

Setting aside Decrees ex parte.

13. In any case in which a decree is passed ex parte against a defendant, he may apply to the Court by which the decree was passed for an order to set it aside; and if he satisfies the Court that the summons was not duly served, or that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the suit was called on for hearing, the Court shall make an order setting aside the decree as against him upon such terms as to costs, payment into Court or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

Provided that where the decree is of such a nature that it cannot be set aside as against such defendant only it may be set aside as against all or any of the other defendants also.

14. No decree shall be set aside on any such application as aforesaid unless notice thereof has been served on the opposite party.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order X.—Examination of Parties by the Court. Order XI.—Discovery and Inspection.)

ORDER X.

Examination of Parties by the Court.

- [S. 117.] 1. At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall ascertain from each party or his pleader whether he admits or denies such allegations of fact as are made in the plaint or written statement (if any) of the opposite party, and as are not expressly or by necessary implication admitted or denied by the party against whom they are made. The Court shall record such admissions and denials.

Ascertainment whether allegations in pleadings are admitted or denied.

- [S. 118.] 2. At the first hearing of the suit, or at any subsequent hearing, any party appearing in person or present in Court, or any person able to answer any material questions relating to the suit by whom such party or his pleader is accompanied, may be examined orally by the Court: and the Court may, if it thinks fit, put in the course of such examination questions suggested by either party.

Oral examination of party, or companion of party.

- [S. 119.] 3. The substance of the examination shall be reduced to writing by the Judge, and shall form part of the record.

Substance of examination to be written.

- [S. 120.] 4. (1) Where the pleader of any party who appears by a pleader or any such person accompanying a pleader as is referred to in rule 2, refuses or is unable to answer any material question relating to the suit which the Court is of opinion that the party whom he represents ought to answer, and is likely to be able to answer if interrogated in person, the Court may postpone the hearing of the suit to a future day and direct that such party shall appear in person on such day.

Consequence of refusal or inability of pleader to answer.

(2) If such party fails without lawful excuse to appear in person on the day so appointed, the Court may pronounce judgment against him, or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit.

ORDER XI.

Discovery and Inspection.

- [O. 31, r. 1.] 1. In any suit the plaintiff or defendant by leave of the Court may deliver interrogatories in writing for the examination of the opposite parties or any one or more of such parties, and such interrogatories when delivered shall have a note at the foot thereof stating which of such interrogatories each of such persons is required to answer: Provided that no party shall deliver more than one set of interrogatories to the same party without an order for that purpose: Provided also that interrogatories which do not relate to any matters in question in the suit shall be deemed irrelevant, notwithstanding that they might be admissible on the oral cross-examination of a witness.

Discovery by interrogatories.

- [O. 31, r. 2.] 2. On an application for leave to deliver interrogatories, the particular interrogatories proposed to be delivered shall be submitted to the Court. In deciding upon such application, the Court shall take into account any offer, which may be made by the party sought to be interrogated to deliver particulars, or to make admissions, or to produce documents relating to the matters in question, or any of them, and leave shall be given as to such only of the interrogatories submitted as the Court shall consider necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

Particular interrogatories to be submitted.

- [O. 31, r. 3.] 3. In adjusting the costs of the suit inquiry shall at the instance of any party be made into the propriety of exhibiting such interrogatories, and if it is the opinion of the taxing officer or of the Court, either with or without an application for inquiry, that such interrogatories have been exhibited unreasonably, vexatiously, or at improper length, the costs occasioned by the said interrogatories and the answers thereto shall be paid in any event by the party in fault.

4. Interrogatories shall be in Form No. 2 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require. [O. 31, r. 4.]

Form of interrogatories.

5. Where any party to a suit is a corporation or a body of persons, whether incorporated or not, empowered by law to sue or be sued, whether in its own name or in the name of any officer or other person, any opposite party may apply for an order allowing him to deliver interrogatories to any member or officer of such corporation or body, and an order may be made accordingly. [O. 31, r. 5; S. 124.]

Corporations.

6. Any objection to answering any interrogatory on the ground that it is scandalous, irrelevant or not exhibited bond fide for the purpose of the suit, or that the matters inquired into are not sufficiently material at that stage, or on any other ground, may be taken in the affidavit in answer. [O. 31, r. 6; S. 125.]

Objections to interrogatories by answer.

7. Any interrogatories may be set aside on the ground that they have been exhibited unreasonably or vexatiously, or struck out on the ground that they are prolix, oppressive, unnecessary or scandalous; and any application for this purpose may be made within seven days after service of the interrogatories. [O. 31, r. 7.]

Setting aside and striking out interrogatories.

8. Interrogatories shall be answered by affidavit to be filed within ten days, or such other time as the Court may allow. [O. 31, r. 8; S. 126.]

Affidavit in answer, filing.

9. An affidavit in answer to interrogatories shall be in Form No. 3 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require. [O. 31, r. 9.]

Form of affidavit in answer.

10. No exceptions shall be taken to any affidavit in answer, but the sufficiency or otherwise of any such affidavit objected to as insufficient shall be determined by the Court. [O. 31, r. 10.]

No exception to be taken.

11. Where any person interrogated omits to answer, or answers insufficiently, the party interrogating may apply to the Court for an order requiring him to answer, or to answer further, as the case may be. And an order may be made requiring him to answer or answer further, either by affidavit or by viva voce examination, as the Court may direct. [O. 31, r. 11; S. 127.]

Order to answer or answer further.

12. Any party may, without filing any affidavit, apply to the Court for an order directing any other party to any suit to make discovery on oath of the documents which are or have been in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question therein. On the hearing of such application the Court may either refuse or adjourn the same, if satisfied that such discovery is not necessary, or not necessary at that stage of the suit, or make such order, either generally or limited to certain classes of documents, as may, in its discretion, be thought fit: Provided that discovery shall not be ordered when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs. [O. 31, r. 12; S. 129.]

Application for discovery of documents.

13. The affidavit to be made by a party against whom such order as is mentioned in the last preceding rule has been made, shall specify which (if any) of the documents therein mentioned he objects to produce, and it shall be in Form No. 5 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require. [O. 31, r. 13.]

Affidavit of documents.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.
(The First Schedule.)
(Order XI.—Discovery and Inspection.)

- [O. 31, r. 14; S. 130.] 14. It shall be lawful for the Court, at any time during the pendency of any suit, to order the production by any party thereto, upon oath, of such of the documents in his possession or power, relating to any matter in question in such suit, as the Court shall think right; and the Court may deal with such documents, when produced, in such manner as shall appear just.
- [O. 31, r. 15; S. 131.] 15. Every party to a suit shall be entitled, at any time to give notice to any other party, in whose pleadings or affidavits reference is made to any document, to produce such document for the inspection of the party giving such notice, or of his pleader, and to permit him or them to take copies thereof; and any party not complying with such notice shall not afterwards be at liberty to put any such document in evidence on his behalf in such suit unless he shall satisfy the Court that such document relates only to his own title, he being a defendant to the suit, or that he had some other cause or excuse which the Court shall deem sufficient for not complying with such notice, in which case the Court may allow the same to be put in evidence on such terms as to costs and otherwise as the Court shall think fit.
- [O. 31, r. 16.] 16. Notice to any party to produce any documents referred to in his pleading or affidavits shall be in Form No. 7 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.
- [O. 31, r. 17; S. 132.] 17. The party to whom such notice is given shall, within ten days from the receipt of such notice, deliver to the party giving the same a notice stating a time within three days from the delivery thereof at which the documents, or such of them as he does not object to produce, may be inspected at the office of his pleader, or in the case of bankers' books or other books of account or books in constant use for the purposes of any trade or business, at their usual place of custody, and stating which (if any) of the documents he objects to produce, and on what ground. Such notice shall be in Form No. 8 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.
- [O. 31, r. 18; S. 133.] 18. (1) Where the party served with notice under rule 15 omits to give such notice or objects to give inspection, or offers inspection elsewhere than at the office of his pleader, the Court may, on the application of the party desiring it, make an order for inspection in such place and in such manner as it may think fit: Provided that the order shall not be made when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.
- [O. 31, r. 19A.] 19. (2) Where inspection of any business books is applied for, the Court may, if it thinks fit, instead of ordering inspection of the original books, order a copy of any entries therein to be furnished and verified by the affidavit of some person who has examined the copy with the original entries, and such affidavit shall state whether or not there are in the original book any and what erasures, interlineations or alterations: Provided that, notwithstanding that such copy has been supplied, the Court may order inspection of the book from which the copy was made.
- (2) Where on an application for an order for inspection privilege is claimed for any document, it shall be lawful for the Court to inspect the document for the purpose of deciding as to the validity of the claim of privilege.
- (3) The Court may, on the application of any party to a suit at any time, and whether an affidavit of documents shall or shall not have already been ordered or made, make an order requiring any other party to state by affidavit whether any one or more specific documents, to be specified in the application, is or are, or has or have at any time been, in his possession or power; and, if not then in his possession, when he parted with the same and what has become thereof. Such application shall be made on an affidavit stating that in the belief of the deponent the party against whom the application is made has, or has at some time had, in his possession or power the document or documents specified in the application, and that they relate to the matters in question in the suit, or to some of them.
- [O. 31, r. 20; S. 135.] 20. Where the party from whom discovery of any kind or inspection is sought objects to the same, or any part thereof, the Court may, if satisfied that the right to the discovery or inspection sought depends on the determination of any issue or question in dispute in the suit, or that for any other reason it is desirable that any issue or question in dispute in the suit should be determined before deciding upon the right to the discovery or inspection, order that such issue or question be determined first, and reserve the question as to the discovery or inspection.
- [O. 31, r. 21; S. 136.] 21. Where any party fails to comply with any order to answer interrogatories, or for discovery or inspection of documents, he shall, if a plaintiff, be liable to have his suit dismissed for want of prosecution, and, if a defendant, to have his defence, if any, struck out, and to be placed in the same position as if he had not defended, and the party interrogating or seeking discovery or inspection may apply to the Court for an order to that effect, and an order may be made accordingly.
- [O. 31, r. 24.] 22. Any party may, at the trial of a suit, use in evidence any one or more of the answers or any part of an answer of the opposite party to interrogatories without putting in the others or the whole of such answer: Provided always that in such case the Court may look at the whole of the answers, and if it shall be of opinion that any others of them are so connected with those put in that the last-mentioned answers ought not to be read without them, it may direct them to be read.
- [O. 31, r. 29.] 23. This Order shall apply to minor plaintiffs, and defendants, and to the next friends and guardians for the suit of persons under disability.
- [O. 31, r. 134.] (2) Any application to inspect documents, except such as are referred to in the pleadings, particulars or affidavits of the party against whom the application is made or disclosed in his affidavit of documents, shall be founded upon an affidavit showing of what documents inspection is sought, that the party applying is entitled to inspect them, and that they are in the possession or power of the other party. The Court shall not make such order for inspection of such documents when and so far as the Court shall be of opinion that it is not necessary either for disposing fairly of the suit or for saving costs.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XII.—Admissions. Order XIII.—Production, Impounding and Return of Documents.)

ORDER XII.

Admissions.

- [O. 32, r. 1.] 1. Any party to a suit may give notice, by his pleading, or otherwise in writing, that he admits the truth of the whole or any part of the case.
- [O. 32, r. 2; S. 138.] 2. Either party may call upon the other party to admit any document, saving all just exceptions; and in case of refusal or neglect to admit, after such notice, the costs of proving any such document shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the Court otherwise directs; and no costs of proving any document shall be allowed unless such notice is given, except where the omission to give the notice is, in the opinion of the Court, a saving of expense.
- [O. 32, r. 3.] 3. A notice to admit documents shall be in Form No. 9 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.
- [O. 32, r. 4.] 4. Any party may, by notice in writing, at any time not later than nine days before the day fixed for the hearing, call on any other party to admit, for the purposes of the suit only, any specific fact or facts mentioned in such notice. And in case of refusal or neglect to admit the same within six days after service of such notice, or within such further time as may be allowed by the Court, the costs of proving such fact or facts shall be paid by the party so neglecting or refusing, whatever the result of the suit may be, unless the Court otherwise directs: Provided that any admission made in pursuance of such notice is to be deemed to be made only for the purposes of the particular suit, and not as an admission to be used against the party on any other occasion or in favour of any person other than the party giving the notice: Provided also that the Court may at any time allow any party to amend or withdraw any admission so made on such terms as may be just.
- [O. 32, r. 5.] 5. A notice to admit facts shall be in Form No. 10 in Appendix C, and admissions of facts shall be in Form No. 11 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require.
- [O. 32, r. 6.] 6. Any party may at any stage of a suit, where admissions of fact have been made, either on the pleadings, or otherwise, apply to the Court for such judgment or order as upon such admissions he may be entitled to, without waiting for the determination of any other question between the parties; and the Court may upon such application make such order, or give such judgment, as the Court may think just.
- [O. 32, r. 7.] 7. An affidavit of the pleader or his clerk, of the due signature of any admissions made in pursuance of any notice to admit documents or facts, shall be sufficient evidence of such admissions, if evidence thereof is required.
- [O. 32, r. 8.] 8. Notice to produce documents shall be in Form No. 12 in Appendix C, with such variations as circumstances may require. An affidavit of the pleader, or his clerk, of the service of any notice to produce, and of the time when it was served, with a copy of the notice to produce, shall in all cases be sufficient evidence of the service of the notice, and of the time when it was served.
- [O. 32, r. 9.] 9. If a notice to admit or produce specifies documents which are not necessary, the costs occasioned thereby shall be borne by the party giving such notice.

ORDER XIII.

Production, Impounding and Return of Documents.

- [S. 139, 140.] 1. (1) The parties or their pleaders shall produce, at the first hearing of the suit, all the documentary evidence of every description in their pos-

Court, and all documents which the Court has ordered to be produced.

(2) The Court shall receive the documents so produced: provided that they are accompanied by an accurate list thereof prepared in such form as the High Court directs.

2. No documentary evidence in the possession or power of any party which should have been but has not been produced in accordance with the requirements of rule 1 shall be received at any subsequent stage of the proceedings unless good cause is shown to the satisfaction of the Court for the non-production thereof; and the Court receiving any such evidence shall record the reasons for so doing. [S. 139.]

3. The Court may at any stage of the suit reject any document which it considers irrelevant or otherwise inadmissible, recording the grounds of such rejection. [S. 140.]

4. (1) Subject to the provisions of the next following sub-rule, there shall be endorsed on every document which has been admitted in evidence in the suit the following particulars, namely:— [S. 141.]

- the number and title of the suit,
- the name of the person producing the document,
- the date on which it was produced, and
- a statement of its having been so admitted; and the endorsement shall be signed or initialled by the Judge.

(2) Where a document so admitted is an entry in a book, account or record, and a copy thereof has been substituted for the original under the next following rule, the particulars aforesaid shall be endorsed on the copy and the endorsement thereon shall be signed or initialled by the Judge.

5. (1) Save in so far as is otherwise provided by the Bankers' Books Evidence Act, 1891, where a document admitted in evidence in the suit is an entry in a letter-book or a shop-book or other account in current use, the party on whose behalf the book or account is produced may furnish a copy of the entry. [S. 141A.]

(2) Where such a document is an entry in a public record produced from a public office or by a public officer, or an entry in a book or account belonging to a person other than a party on whose behalf the book or account is produced, the Court may require a copy of the entry to be furnished—

- where the record, book or account is produced on behalf of a party, then by that party, or
- where the record, book or account is produced in obedience to an order of the Court acting of its own motion, then by either or any party.

(3) Where a copy of an entry is furnished under the foregoing provisions of this rule, the Court shall, after causing the copy to be examined, compared and certified in manner mentioned in rule 17 of Order VII, mark the entry and cause the book, account or record in which it occurs to be returned to the person producing it.

6. Where a document relied on as evidence by either party is considered by the Court to be inadmissible in evidence, there shall be endorsed thereon the particulars mentioned in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of rule 4, sub-rule (1), together with a statement of its having been rejected, and the endorsement shall be signed or initialled by the Judge. [S. 142.]

7. (1) Every document which has been admitted in evidence, or a copy thereof where a copy has been substituted for the original under rule 5, shall form part of the record of the suit. [S. 142A.]

(2) Documents not admitted in evidence shall not

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XIII.—Production, Impounding and Return of Documents. Order XIV.—Settlement of Issues and Determination of Suit on Issues of Law or on Issues agreed upon.)

[S. 143.]

8. Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 5 or rule 7 of this Order or in rule 17 of Order VII, the Court may, if it sees sufficient cause, direct any document or book produced before it in any suit to be impounded and kept in the custody of an officer of the Court, for such period and subject to such conditions as the Court thinks fit.

[S. 144.]

9. (1) Any person, whether a party to the suit or not, desirous of receiving back any document produced by him in the suit and placed on the record shall, unless the document is impounded under rule 8, be entitled to receive back the same,—

(a) where the suit is one in which an appeal is not allowed, when the suit has been disposed of, and

(b) where the suit is one in which an appeal is allowed, when the Court is satisfied that the time for preferring an appeal has elapsed and that no appeal has been preferred or, if an appeal has been preferred, when the appeal has been disposed of:

Provided that a document may be returned at any time earlier than that prescribed by this rule if the person applying therefor delivers to the proper officer a certified copy to be substituted for the original and undertakes to produce the original if required to do so:

Provided also that no document shall be returned which, by force of the decree, has become wholly void or useless.

(2) On the return of a document admitted in evidence, a receipt shall be given by the person receiving it.

10. (1) The Court may of its own motion, and may in its discretion upon the application of any of the parties to a suit, send for, either from its own records or from any other Court, the record of any other suit or proceeding, and inspect the same.

(2) Every application made under this rule shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be supported by an affidavit showing how the record is material to the suit in which the application is made, and that the applicant cannot without unreasonable delay or expense obtain a duly authenticated copy of the record or of such portion thereof as the applicant requires, or that the production of the original is necessary for the purposes of justice.

(3) Nothing contained in this rule shall be deemed to enable the Court to use in evidence any document which under the law of evidence would be inadmissible in the suit.

11. The provisions herein contained as to documents shall, so far as may be, apply to all other material objects producible as evidence.

ORDER XIV.Settlement of Issues and Determination of Suit on Issues of Law or on Issues agreed upon.

1. (1) Issues arise when a material proposition of fact or law is affirmed by one party and denied by the other.

(2) Material propositions are those propositions of law or fact which a plaintiff must allege in order to show a right to sue or a defendant must allege in order to constitute his defence.

(3) Each material proposition affirmed by one party and denied by the other shall form the subject of a distinct issue.

(4) Issues are of two kinds: (a) issues of fact, (b) issues of law.

(5) At the first hearing of the suit the Court shall, after reading the plaint and the written statements, if any, and after such examination of the parties as may appear necessary, ascertain upon what material propositions of fact or of law the parties are at variance, and shall thereupon proceed to frame and record the issues on which the right decision of the case appears to depend.

(6) Nothing in this rule requires the Court to frame and record issues where the defendant at the first hearing of the suit makes no defence.

2. Where issues both of law and of fact arise in the same suit, and the Court is of opinion that the case or any part thereof may be disposed of on the issues of law only, it shall try those issues first, and for that purpose may, if it thinks fit, postpone the settlement of the issues of fact until after the issues of law have been determined.

3. The Court may frame the issues from all or any Materials from which of the following materials:—

(a) allegations made on oath by the parties, or by any persons present on their behalf, or made by the pleaders of such parties;

(b) allegations made in the pleadings or in answers to interrogatories delivered in the suit;

(c) the contents of documents produced by either party.

4. Where the Court is of opinion that the issues cannot be correctly framed without the examination of some person not before framing issues, before the Court or without the inspection of some document not produced in the suit, it may adjourn the framing of the issues to a future day, and may (subject to any law for the time being in force) compel the attendance of any person or the production of any document by the person in whose possession or power it is by summons or other process.

5. (1) The Court may at any time before passing a decree amend the issues or frame additional issues on such terms as it thinks fit, and all such amendments or additional issues as may be necessary for determining the matters in controversy between the parties shall be so made or framed.

(2) The Court may also, at any time before passing a decree, strike out any issues that appear to it to be wrongly framed or introduced.

6. Where the parties to a suit are agreed as to the question of fact or of law to be decided between them, they may by agreement be stated in form of issues, of an issue, and enter into an agreement in writing that, upon the finding of the Court in the affirmative or the negative of such issue,—

(a) a sum of money specified in the agreement or to be ascertained by the Court, or in such manner as the Court may direct, shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them, or that one of them be declared entitled to some right or subject to some liability specified in the agreement;

(b) some property specified in the agreement and in dispute in the suit shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them, or as that other may direct; or

(c) one or more of the parties shall do or abstain from doing some particular act specified in the agreement and relating to the matter in dispute.

7. Where the Court is satisfied that an agreement was executed in good faith, may pronounce judgment, inquiry as it deems proper,—

(a) that the agreement was duly executed by the parties,

(c) that the same is fit to be tried and decided, it shall proceed to record and try the issue and state its finding or decision thereon in the same manner as if the issue had been framed by the Court; and shall, upon the finding or decision on such issue, pronounce judgment according to the terms of the agreement; and, upon the judgment so pronounced, a decree shall follow.

ORDER XV.

Disposal of the Suit at the first hearing.

- [S. 152.] 1. Where at the first hearing of a suit it appears that the parties are not at issue Parties not at issue. on any question of law or of fact, the Court may at once pronounce judgment.

- [S. 153.] 2. Where there are more defendants than one, and any one of the defendants is not at issue with the plaintiff on any question of law or of fact, the Court may at once pronounce judgment for or against such defendant and the suit shall proceed only against the other defendants. One of several defendants not at issue.

- [S. 154.] 3. (1) Where the parties are at issue on some question of law or of fact, and issues have been framed by the Court as hereinbefore provided, if the Court is satisfied that no further argument or evidence than the parties can at once adduce is required upon such of the issues as may be sufficient for the decision of the suit, and that no injustice will result from proceeding with the suit forthwith, the Court may proceed to determine such issues, and, if the finding thereon is sufficient for the decision, may pronounce judgment accordingly, whether the summons has been issued for the settlement of issues only or for the final disposal of the suit:

Provided that, where the summons has been issued for the settlement of issues only, the parties or their pleaders are present and none of them objects.

(2) Where the finding is not sufficient for the decision, the Court shall postpone the further hearing of the suit, and shall fix a day for the production of such further evidence, or for such further argument as the case requires.

- [S. 155.] 4. Where the summons has been issued for the final disposal of the suit and either party fails without sufficient cause to produce the evidence on which he relies, the Court may at once pronounce judgment, or may, if it thinks fit, after framing and recording issues, adjourn the suit for the production of such evidence as may be necessary for its decision upon such issues. Failure to produce evidence.

ORDER XVI.

Summoning and Attendance of Witnesses.

- [S. 159.] 1. At any time after the suit is instituted, the parties may obtain, on application to the Court, an order requiring any person summoned to persons whose attendance is required either to give evidence or to produce documents. Summons to attend to give evidence or produce documents.

- [S. 160.] 2. (1) The party applying for a summons shall, before the summons is granted and to be paid into Court on applying for summons, pay into Court such a sum of money as appears to the Court to be sufficient to defray the travelling and other expenses of the person summoned in passing to and from the Court in which he is required to attend, and for one day's attendance. Expenses of witness.

(2) In determining the amount payable under this rule, the Court may, in the case of any person summoned to give evidence as an expert, allow reasonable remuneration for the time occupied both in giving evidence and in performing any work of an expert character necessary for the case. Experts.

- (3) Where the Court is subordinate to a High Court regard shall be had, in fixing the scale of such expenses, to any rules made in that behalf. Scale of expenses.

3. The sum so paid into Court shall be tendered to the person summoned, at the time of serving the summons, if it can be served personally. [S. 161.] Tender of expenses to witness.

4. (1) Where it appears to the Court or to such officer as it appoints in this behalf that the sum paid into Court is not sufficient to cover such expenses or reasonable remuneration, the Court may direct such further sum to be paid to the person summoned as appears to be necessary on that account, and, in case of default in payment, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the moveable property of the party obtaining the summons; or the Court may discharge the person summoned without requiring him to give evidence; or may both order such levy and discharge such person as aforesaid. [S. 162.] Procedure where insufficient sum paid in.

- (2) Where it is necessary to detain the person summoned for a longer period than one day, the Court may, from time to time, order the party at whose instance he was summoned to pay into Court such sum as is sufficient to defray the expenses of his detention for such further period, and, in default of such deposit being made, may order such sum to be levied by attachment and sale of the moveable property of such party; or the Court may discharge the person summoned without requiring him to give evidence; or may both order such levy and discharge such person as aforesaid. Expenses of witnesses detained more than one day.

5. Every summons for the attendance of a person to give evidence or to produce a document shall specify the time and place at which he is required to attend, and also whether his attendance is required for the purpose of giving evidence or to produce a document, or for both purposes; and any particular document, which the person summoned is called on to produce, shall be described in the summons with reasonable accuracy. [S. 163.] Time, place and purpose of attendance to be specified in summons.

6. Any person may be summoned to produce a document, without being summoned to give evidence; and any person summoned merely to produce a document shall be deemed to have complied with the summons if he causes such document to be produced instead of attending personally to produce the same. [S. 164.] Summons to produce document.

7. Any person present in Court may be required by the Court to give evidence or to produce any document then and there in his possession or power. [S. 165.] Power to require persons present in Court to give evidence or produce document.

8. Every summons under this Order shall be served as nearly as may be in the same manner as a summons to a defendant, and the rules in Order V as to proof of service shall apply in the case of all summonses served under this rule. [S. 166.] Summons how served.

9. Service shall in all cases be made a sufficient time before the time specified in the summons for the attendance of the person summoned, to allow him a reasonable time for preparation and for travelling to the place at which his attendance is required. [S. 167.] Time for serving summons.

10. (1) Where a person to whom a summons has been issued either to attend to give evidence or to produce a document fails to attend or to produce the document in compliance with such summons, the Court shall, if the certificate of the serving-officer has not been verified by affidavit, and may, if it has been so verified, examine the serving-officer on oath, or cause him to be so examined by another Court, touching the service or non-service of the summons. [S. 168.] Procedure where witness fails to comply with summons.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XVI.—Summoning and Attendance of Witnesses.—Order XVII.—Adjournments.)

(2) Where the Court sees reason to believe that such evidence or production is material, and that such person has, without lawful excuse, failed to attend or to produce the document in compliance with such summons or has intentionally avoided service, it may issue a proclamation requiring him to attend to give evidence or to produce the document at a time and place to be named therein; and a copy of such proclamation shall be affixed on the outer door or other conspicuous part of the house in which he ordinarily resides.

(3) In lieu of or at the time of issuing such proclamation, or at any time afterwards, the Court may, in its discretion, issue a warrant, either with or without bail, for the arrest of such person, and may make an order for the attachment of his property to such amount as it thinks fit, not exceeding the amount of the costs of attachment and of any fine which may be imposed under rule 12:

Provided that no Court of Small Causes shall make an order for the attachment of immoveable property.

11. Where, at any time after the attachment of his property, such person appears, and satisfies the Court,—

(a) that he did not, without lawful excuse, fail to comply with the summons or intentionally avoid service, and,

(b) where he has failed to attend at the time and place named in a proclamation issued under the last preceding rule, that he had no notice of such proclamation in time to attend, the Court shall direct that the property be released from attachment, and shall make such order as to the costs of the attachment as it thinks fit.

12. The Court may, where such person does not appear, or appears but fails so to satisfy the Court, impose upon him such fine not exceeding five hundred rupees as it thinks fit, having regard to his condition in life and all the circumstances of the case, and may order his property, or any part thereof, to be attached and sold or, if already attached under rule 10, to be sold for the purpose of satisfying all costs of such attachment, together with the amount of the said fine, if any:

Provided that, if the person whose attendance is required pays into Court the costs and fine aforesaid, the Court shall order the property to be released from attachment.

[New.]

13. The provisions with regard to the attachment and sale of property in the execution of a decree shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to any attachment and sale under this Order as if the person whose property is so attached were a judgment-debtor.

Mode of attachment.

14. Subject to the provisions of this Code as to attendance and appearance and to any law for the time being in force, where the Court at any time thinks it necessary to examine any person other than a party to the suit and not called as a witness by a party to the suit, the Court may, of its own motion, cause such person to be summoned as a witness to give evidence, or to produce any document in his possession, on a day to be appointed, and may examine him as a witness or require him to produce such document.

Court may of its own accord summon as witnesses strangers to suit.

15. Subject as last aforesaid, whoever is summoned to appear and give evidence in a suit shall attend at the time and place named in the summons for that purpose, and whoever is summoned to produce a document shall either attend to produce it, or cause it to be produced, at such time and place.

16. (1) A person so summoned and attending shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, attend at each hearing until the suit has been disposed of.

When they may depart.

(2) On the application of either party and the payment through the Court of all necessary expenses (if any), the Court may require any person so summoned and attending to furnish security to attend at the next or any other hearing or until the suit is disposed of and, in default of his furnishing such security, may order him to be detained in the civil prison.

17. The provisions of rules 10 to 13 shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to any person who having attended in compliance with a summons departs, without lawful excuse, in contravention of rule 16.

[Ss. 174, first para., and 175.]

18. Where any person arrested under a warrant is brought before the Court in custody and cannot, owing to the absence of the parties or any of them, give the evidence or produce the document which he has been summoned to give or produce, the Court may require him to give reasonable bail or other security for his appearance at such time and place as it thinks fit, and, on such bail or security being given, may release him, and, in default of his giving such bail or security, may order him to be detained in the civil prison.

[S. 174.]

19. No one shall be ordered to attend in person to give evidence unless he resides—

[S. 176.]

No witness to be ordered to attend in person unless resident within certain limits.

(a) within the local limits of the Court's ordinary original jurisdiction, or

(b) without such limits but at a place less than fifty or (where there is railway or steamer communication or other established public conveyance for five-sixths of the distance between the place where he resides and the place where the Court is situate) less than two hundred miles distance from the Court-house.

20. Where any party to a suit present in Court refuses, without lawful excuse, when required by the Court, to give evidence or to produce any document then and there in his possession or power, the Court may pronounce judgment against him or make such order in relation to the suit as it thinks fit.

21. Where any party to a suit is required to give evidence or to produce a document, the provisions as to witnesses shall apply to him so far as they are applicable.

[S. 178.]

Rules as to witnesses to apply to parties summoned.

ORDER XVII.Adjournments.

1. (1) The Court may, if sufficient cause is shown, at any stage of the suit grant time to the parties or to any of them, and may from time to time adjourn the hearing of the suit.

[S. 150.]

(2) In every case the Court shall fix a day for the further hearing of the suit, and may make such order as it thinks fit with respect to the costs occasioned by the adjournment:

Provided that, when the hearing of evidence has once begun, the hearing of the suit shall be continued from day to day until all the witnesses in attendance have been examined, unless the Court finds the adjournment of the hearing beyond the following day to be necessary for reasons to be recorded.

2. Where, on any day to which the hearing of the suit is adjourned, the parties or any of them fail to appear, the Court may proceed to dispose of the suit in one of the modes directed in that behalf by Order IX or make such other order as it thinks fit.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XVII.—Adjournments. Order XVIII.—Hearing of the Suit and Examination of Witnesses.)

[S. 158.] 3. Where any party to a suit to whom time has been granted fails to produce his evidence, or to cause the attendance of his witnesses, or to perform any other act necessary to the further progress of the suit, for which time has been allowed, the Court may, notwithstanding such default, proceed to decide the suit forthwith.

Court may proceed notwithstanding either party fails to produce evidence, etc.

ORDER XVIII.

Hearing of the Suit and Examination of Witnesses.

[S. 179, expln.] 1. The plaintiff has the right to begin unless the defendant admits the facts alleged by the plaintiff and contends that either in point of law or on some additional facts alleged by the defendant the plaintiff is not entitled to any part of the relief which he seeks, in which case the defendant has the right to begin.

Right to begin.

[S. 179.] 2. (1) On the day fixed for the hearing of the suit or on any other day to which the hearing is adjourned, the party having the right to begin shall state his case and produce his evidence in support of the issues which he is bound to prove.

Statement and production of evidence.

[S. 180.] (2) The other party shall then state his case and produce his evidence (if any) and may then address the Court generally on the whole case.

(3) The party beginning may then reply generally on the whole case.

[S. 180.] 3. Where there are several issues, the burden of proving some of which lies on the other party, the party beginning may, at his option, either produce his evidence on those issues or reserve it by way of answer to the evidence produced by the other party; and, in the latter case, the party beginning may produce evidence on those issues after the other party has produced all his evidence, and the other party may then reply specially on the evidence so produced by the party beginning; but the party beginning will then be entitled to reply generally on the whole case.

Evidence where several issues.

[S. 181.] 4. The evidence of the witnesses in attendance shall be taken orally in open Court in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge.

Witnesses to be examined in open Court.

[S. 182.] 5. In cases in which an appeal is allowed the evidence of each witness shall be taken down in writing, in the language of the Court, by or in the presence and under the personal direction and superintendence of the Judge, not ordinarily in the form of question and answer, but in that of a narrative, and, when completed, shall be read over in the presence of the Judge and of the witness, and the Judge shall, if necessary, correct the same, and shall sign it.

How evidence shall be taken in appealable cases.

[S. 183.] 6. Where the evidence is taken down in a language different from that in which it is given, and the party does not understand the language in which it is taken down, the evidence as taken down in writing shall be interpreted to him in the language in which it is given.

When deposition to be interpreted.

[S. 185A(3).] 7. Evidence taken down under section 138 shall be in the form prescribed by rule 5 and shall be read over and signed and, as occasion may require, interpreted and corrected as if it were evidence taken down under that rule.

Evidence under section 138.

[S. 184.] 8. Where the evidence is not taken down in writing by the Judge, he shall be bound, as the examination of each witness proceeds, to make a memorandum of the substance of what each witness deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge and shall form part of the record.

Memorandum when evidence not taken down by Judge.

[S. 185.] 9. Where English is not the language of the Court, When evidence may be taken in English, but all the parties to the suit who appear in person, and the pleaders of such as appear by pleaders, do not object to have such evidence as is given in English taken down in English, the Judge may so take it down.

[S. 186.] 10. The Court may, of its own motion or on the application of any party or his pleader, take down any particular question and answer, or any objection to any question, if there appears to be any special reason for so doing.

[S. 187.] 11. Where any question put to a witness is objected to by a party or his pleader, and the Court allows the same to be put, the Judge shall take down the question, the answer, the objection and the name of the person making it, together with the decision of the Court thereon.

[S. 188.] 12. The Court may record such remarks as it thinks material respecting the demeanour of any witness while under examination.

[S. 189.] 13. In cases in which an appeal is not allowed, it shall not be necessary to take down the evidence of the witnesses in writing at length; but the Judge, as the examination of each witness proceeds, shall make a memorandum of the substance of what he deposes, and such memorandum shall be written and signed by the Judge and shall form part of the record.

[S. 190.] 14. (1) Where the Judge is unable to make a memorandum as required by this Order, he shall cause the reason of such inability to be recorded, and shall cause the memorandum to be made in writing from his dictation in open Court.

(2) Every memorandum so made shall form part of the record.

[S. 191.] 15. (1) Where a Judge is prevented by death, transfer or other cause from concluding the trial of a suit, his successor may deal with any evidence or memorandum taken down or made under the foregoing rules as if such evidence or memorandum had been taken down or made by him or under his direction under the said rules and may proceed with the suit from the stage at which his predecessor left it.

(2) The provisions of sub-rule (1) shall, so far as they are applicable, be deemed to apply to evidence taken in a suit transferred under section 24.

[S. 192.] 16. (1) Where a witness is about to leave the jurisdiction of the Court, or other sufficient cause is shown to the satisfaction of the Court why his evidence should be taken immediately, the Court may, upon the application of any party or of the witness, at any time after the institution of the suit, take the evidence of such witness in manner hereinbefore provided.

(2) Where such evidence is not taken forthwith and in the presence of the parties, such notice as the Court thinks sufficient, of the day fixed for the examination, shall be given to the parties.

(3) The evidence so taken shall be read over to the witness, and, if he admits it to be correct, shall be signed by him, and the Judge shall, if necessary, correct the same, and shall sign it, and it may then be read at any hearing of the suit.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XVIII.—Hearing of the Suit and Examination of Witnesses. Order XIX.—Affidavits. Order XX.—Judgment and Decree.)

[S. 193.] 17. The Court may at any stage of a suit recall any witness who has been examined and may (subject to the law of evidence for the time being in force) put such questions to him as the Court thinks fit.

[New.] 18. The Court may at any stage of a suit inspect any property or thing concerning which any question may arise.

Power of Court to inspect.

ORDER XIX.Affidavits.

[S. 194.] 1. Any Court may at any time for sufficient reason order that any particular fact or facts may be proved by affidavit, or that the affidavit of any witness may be read at the hearing, on such conditions as the Court thinks reasonable:

Provided that where it appears to the Court that either party bona fide desires the production of a witness for cross-examination, and that such witness can be produced, an order shall not be made authorizing the evidence of such witness to be given by affidavit.

[S. 195.] 2. (1) Upon any application evidence may be given by affidavit, but the Court may, at the instance of either party, order the attendance for cross-examination of the deponent.

Power to order attendance of deponent for cross-examination.

[O. 38, r. 1.] (2) Such attendance shall be in Court, unless the deponent is exempted from personal appearance in Court, or the Court otherwise directs.

[S. 196.] 3. (1) Affidavits shall be confined to such facts as the deponent is able of his own knowledge to prove, except on interlocutory applications, on which statements of his belief may be admitted: provided that the grounds thereof are stated.

Matters to which affidavits shall be confined.

(2) The costs of every affidavit which shall unnecessarily set forth matters of hearsay or argumentative matter, or copies of or extracts from documents, shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be paid by the party filing the same.

ORDER XX.Judgment and Decree.

[S. 198.] 1. The Court, after the case has been heard, shall pronounce judgment in open Court, either at once or on some future day, of which due notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

Judgment when pronounced.

[S. 199.] 2. A Judge may pronounce a judgment written but not pronounced by his predecessor.

Power to pronounce judgment written by Judge's predecessor.

[S. 202.] 3. The judgment shall be dated and signed by the Judge in open Court at the time of pronouncing it and, when once signed, shall not afterwards be altered or added to, save as provided by section 152 or on review.

Judgment to be signed.

[S. 203.] 4. (1) Judgments of a Court of Small Causes need not contain more than the points for determination and the decision thereon.

Judgments of Small Cause Courts.

(2) Judgments of other Courts shall contain a concise statement of the case, the points for determination, the decision thereon, and the reasons for such decision.

Judgments of other Courts.

5. In suits in which issues have been framed, the Court shall state its finding or decision, with the reasons therefor, upon each separate issue, unless the finding upon any one or more of the issues is sufficient for the decision of the suit.

[S. 204.]

6. (1) The decree shall agree with the judgment: it shall contain the number of the suit, the names and descriptions of the parties, and particulars of the claim, and shall specify clearly the relief granted or other determination of the suit.

[Ss. 206, 221.]

(2) The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the suit, and by whom or out of what property and in what proportions such costs are to be paid.

(3) The Court may direct that the costs payable to one party by the other shall be set off against any sum which is admitted or found to be due from the former to the latter.

7. The decree shall bear date the day on which the judgment was pronounced, and, when the Judge has satisfied himself that the decree has been drawn up in accordance with the judgment, he shall sign the decree.

[S. 205.]

8. Where a Judge has vacated office after pronouncing judgment but without signing the decree, a decree drawn up in accordance with such judgment may be signed by his successor or, if the Court has ceased to exist, by the Judge of any Court to which such Court was subordinate.

[New.]

9. Where the subject-matter of the suit is immovable property, the decree shall contain a description of such property sufficient to identify the same, and where such property can be identified by boundaries or by numbers in a record of settlement or survey, the decree shall specify such boundaries or numbers.

[S. 207.]

10. Where the suit is for moveable property, and the decree is for the delivery of such property, the decree shall also state the amount of money to be paid as an alternative if delivery cannot be had.

[S. 208.]

11. (1) Where and in so far as a decree is for the payment of money, the Court may for any sufficient reason at the time of passing the decree order that payment of the amount decreed shall be postponed or shall be made by instalments, with or without interest, notwithstanding anything contained in the contract under which the money is payable.

[S. 210.]

(2) After the passing of any such decree the Court may, on the application of the judgment-debtor and with the consent of the decree-holder, order that payment of the amount decreed shall be postponed or shall be made by instalments on such terms as to the payment of interest, the attachment of the property of the judgment-debtor, or the taking of security from him, or otherwise, as it thinks fit.

12. (1) Where a suit is for the recovery of possession of immovable property and for rent or mesne profits, the Court may pass a decree—

[Ss. 211 and 212.]

- for the possession of the property;
- for the rent or mesne profits which have accrued on the property during a period prior to the institution of the suit or directing an inquiry as to such rent or mesne profits;
- directing an inquiry as to rent or mesne profits from the institution of the suit until—
 - the delivery of possession to the decree-holder,
 - the relinquishment of possession by the judgment-debtor with notice to the decree-holder through the Court, or
 - the expiration of three years from the date of the decree, whichever event first occurs.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XX.—Judgment and Decree. Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

(2) Where an inquiry is directed under clause (b) or clause (c) a final decree in respect of the rent or mesne profits shall be passed in accordance with the result of such inquiry.

13. (1) Where a suit is for an account of any property and for its due administration under the decree of the Court, the Court shall, before passing the final decree, pass a preliminary decree ordering such accounts and inquiries to be taken and made, and giving such other directions as it thinks fit.

(2) In the administration by the Court of the property of any deceased person, if such property proves to be insufficient for the payment in full of his debts and liabilities, the same rules shall be observed as to the respective rights of secured and unsecured creditors and as to debts and liabilities proveable, and as to the valuation of annuities and future and contingent liabilities respectively, as may be in force for the time being, within the local limits of the Court in which the administration-suit is pending with respect to the estates of persons adjudged or declared insolvent; and all persons who in any such case would be entitled to be paid out of such property, may come in under the preliminary decree, and make such claims against the same as they may respectively be entitled to by virtue of this Code.

14. (1) Where the Court decrees a claim to pre-emption in respect of a particular sale of property and the purchase-money has not been paid into Court, the decree shall—

(a) specify a day on or before which the purchase-money shall be so paid, and

(b) direct that on payment into Court of such purchase-money, together with the costs (if any) decreed against the plaintiff, on or before the day referred to in clause (a), the defendant shall deliver possession of the property to the plaintiff, whose title thereto shall be deemed to have accrued from the date of such payment, but that, if the purchase-money and the costs (if any) are not so paid, the suit shall be dismissed with costs.

(2) Where the Court has adjudicated upon rival claims to pre-emption, the decree shall direct—

(a) if and in so far as the claims decreed are equal in degree, that the claim of each pre-emptor complying with the provisions of sub-rule (1) shall take effect in respect of a proportionate share of the property including any proportionate share in respect of which the claim of any pre-emptor failing to comply with the said provisions would, but for such default, have taken effect; and,

(b) if and in so far as the claims decreed are different in degree, that the claim of the inferior pre-emptor shall not take effect unless and until the superior pre-emptor has failed to comply with the said provisions.

[S. 215.]

15. Where a suit is for the dissolution of a partnership, the Court, before passing a final decree, may pass a preliminary decree declaring the proportionate shares of the parties, fixing the day on which the partnership shall stand dissolved or be deemed to have been dissolved, and directing such accounts to be taken, and other acts to be done, as it thinks fit.

[S. 215A.]

16. In a suit for an account of pecuniary transactions between a principal and an agent, and in any other suit not hereinbefore provided for, where it is necessary, in order to ascertain the amount of money due to or from any party, that an account should be taken, the Court shall, before passing its final decree, pass a preliminary decree directing such accounts to be taken as it thinks fit.

[New.]

17. The Court may either by the decree directing an account to be taken or by any subsequent order give special directions with regard to the mode in which the account is to be taken or vouched and in particular may direct that in taking the account the books of account in which the accounts in question have been kept shall be taken as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters therein contained with liberty to the parties interested to take such objection thereto as they may be advised.

18. Where the Court passes a decree for the partition of property or for the separate possession of a share therein, then,—

[New.]

(1) if and in so far as the decree relates to an estate assessed to the payment of revenue to the Government the decree shall declare the rights of the several parties interested in the property, but shall direct such partition or separation to be made by the Collector, or any gazetted subordinate of the Collector deputed by him in this behalf, in accordance with such declaration and with the provisions of section 54;

(2) if and in so far as such decree relates to any other immoveable property or to moveable property, the Court may, if the partition or separation cannot be conveniently made without further inquiry, pass a preliminary decree declaring the rights of the several parties interested in the property and giving such further directions as may be required.

19. (1) Where the defendant has been allowed a set-off against the claim of the plaintiff, the decree shall state what amount is due to the plaintiff and what amount is due to the defendant, and shall be for the recovery of any sum which appears to be due to either party.

(2) Any decree passed in a suit in which a set-off is claimed shall be subject to the same provisions in respect of appeal to which it would have been subject if no set-off had been claimed.

(3) The provisions of this rule shall apply whether the set-off is admissible under rule 6 of Order VIII or otherwise.

20. Certified copies of the judgment and decree shall be furnished to the parties on application to the Court, and at their expense.

[S. 217.]

ORDER XXI.Execution of Decrees and Orders.Payment under Decree.

1. (1) All money payable under a decree shall be paid as follows, namely:—

[S. 257.]

(a) into the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree; or

(b) out of Court to the decree-holder; or

(c) otherwise as the Court which made the decree directs.

(2) Where any payment is made under clause (a) of sub-rule (1) notice of such payment shall be given to the decree-holder.

2. (1) Where any money payable under a decree of any kind is paid out of Court, or the decree is otherwise adjusted in whole or in part to the satisfaction of the decree-holder, the decree-holder shall certify such payment or adjustment to the Court whose duty it is to execute the decree, and the Court shall record the same accordingly.

(2) The judgment-debtor also may inform the Court of such payment or adjustment, and apply to the Court to issue a notice to the decree-holder to show cause, on a day to be fixed by the Court, why such payment or adjustment should not be recorded as certified; and if, after service of such notice, the decree-holder fails to show cause why the payment or adjustment should not be recorded as certified, the Court shall record the same accordingly.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

(3) A payment or adjustment, which has not been certified or recorded as aforesaid, shall not be recognized by any Court executing the decree.

Courts executing Decrees.

[New.]

3. Where immovable property forms one estate or tenure situate within the local limits of the jurisdiction of two or more Courts, any one of such Courts may attach and sell the entire estate or tenure.

[S. 223, fifth para.]

4. Where a decree has been passed in a suit of which the value as set forth in the plaint did not exceed two thousand rupees and which, as regards its subject-matter, is not excepted by the law for the time being in force from the cognizance of either a Presidency or a Provincial Court of Small Causes, and the Court which passed it wishes it to be executed in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay or Rangoon, such Court may send to the Court of Small Causes in Calcutta, Madras, Bombay or Rangoon, as the case may be, the copies and certificates mentioned in rule 6; and such Court of Small Causes shall thereupon execute the decree as if it had been passed by itself.

[S. 223, sixth para.]

5. Where the Court to which a decree is to be sent for execution is situate within the same district as the Court which passed such decree, such Court shall send the same directly to the former Court. But, where the Court to which the decree is to be sent for execution is situate in a different district, the Court which passed it shall send it to the District Court of the district in which the decree is to be executed.

[S. 224.]

6. The Court sending a decree shall be executed by another Court.

(a) a copy of the decree;

(b) a certificate setting forth that satisfaction of the decree has not been obtained by execution within the jurisdiction of the Court by which it was passed, or, where the decree has been executed in part, the extent to which satisfaction has been obtained and what part of the decree remains unsatisfied; and

(c) a copy of any order for the execution of the decree, or, if no such order has been made, a certificate to that effect.

[S. 225.]

7. The Court to which a decree is so sent shall cause such copies and certificates to be filed, without any further proof of the decree or order for execution, or of the copies thereof, unless the Court, for any special reasons to be recorded under the hand of the Judge, requires such proof.

[S. 226.]

8. Where such copies are so filed, the decree or order may, if the Court to which it is sent is the District Court, be executed by such Court or be transferred for execution to any subordinate Court of competent jurisdiction.

[S. 227.]

9. Where the Court to which the decree is sent for execution is a High Court, the decree shall be executed by such Court in the same manner as if it had been passed by such Court in the exercise of its ordinary original civil jurisdiction.

Application for execution.

[S. 230, first para.]

10. Where the holder of a decree desires to execute it, he shall apply to the Court which passed the decree or to the officer (if any) appointed in this behalf, or if the decree has been sent under the provisions hereinbefore contained to another Court then to such Court or to the proper officer thereof.

11. (1) Where a decree is for the payment of money [S. 236.]

Oral application. the Court may, on the oral application of the decree-holder at the time of the passing of the decree, order immediate execution thereof by the arrest of the judgment-debtor, prior to the preparation of a warrant if he is within the precincts of the Court.

(2) Save as otherwise provided by sub-rule (1), every [S. 235.]

Written application. of a decree shall be in writing, signed and verified by the applicant or by some other person proved to the satisfaction of the Court to be acquainted with the facts of the case, and shall contain in a tabular form the following particulars, namely:—

(a) the number of the suit;

(b) the names of the parties;

(c) the date of the decree;

(d) whether any appeal has been preferred from the decree;

(e) whether any, and (if any) what, payment or other adjustment of the matter in controversy has been made between the parties subsequently to the decree;

(f) whether any, and (if any) what, previous applications have been made for the execution of the decree, the dates of such applications and their results;

(g) the amount with interest (if any) due upon the decree, or other relief granted thereby, together with particulars of any cross-decree, whether passed before or after the date of the decree sought to be executed;

(h) the amount of the costs (if any) awarded;

(i) the name of the person against whom execution of the decree is sought; and

(j) the mode in which the assistance of the Court is required, whether—

(i) by the delivery of any property specifically decreed;

(ii) by the attachment and sale, or by the sale without attachment, of any property;

(iii) by the arrest and detention in prison of any person;

(iv) by the appointment of a receiver;

(v) otherwise, as the nature of the relief granted may require.

(3) The Court to which an application is made under sub-rule (2) may require the applicant to produce a certified copy of the decree.

12. Where an application is made for the attachment of [S. 236.]

any moveable property belonging to a judgment-debtor but not in his possession, the decree-holder shall annex to the application an inventory of the property to be attached, containing a reasonably accurate description of the same.

13. Where an application is made for the attach- [S. 237.]

ment of any immovable property belonging to a judgment-debtor, it shall contain at the foot—

(a) a description of such property sufficient to identify the same and, in case such property can be identified by boundaries or numbers in a record of settlement or survey, a specification of such boundaries or numbers; and

(b) a specification of the judgment-debtor's share or interest in such property to the best of the belief of the applicant, and so far as he has been able to ascertain the same.

14. Where an application is made for the attachment [S. 238.]

of any land which is registered in the office of the Collector, the Court may require the applicant to produce a certified extract from the register of such office, specifying the persons registered as proprietors of, or as possessing any transferable interest in, the land or its revenue, or as liable to pay revenue for the land, and the shares of the registered proprietors.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

[S. 231.]

15. (1) Where a decree has been passed jointly in favour of more persons than one, any one or more of such persons may, unless the decree imposes any condition to the contrary, apply for the execution of the whole decree for the benefit of them all, or, where any of them has died, for the benefit of the survivors and the legal representatives of the deceased.

(2) Where the Court sees sufficient cause for allowing the decree to be executed on an application made under this rule it shall make such order as it deems necessary for protecting the interests of the persons who have not joined in the application.

16. Where a decree or, if a decree has been passed jointly in favour of two or more persons, the interest of any decree-holder in the decree is transferred by assignment in writing or by operation of law, the transferee may apply for execution of the decree to the Court which passed it; and the decree may be executed in the same manner and subject to the same conditions as if the application were made by such decree-holder:

Provided that, where the decree, or such interest as aforesaid, has been transferred by assignment, notice of such application shall be given to the transferor and the judgment-debtor, and the decree shall not be executed until the Court has heard their objections (if any) to its execution:

Provided also that, where a decree for the payment of money against two or more persons has been transferred to one of them, it shall not be executed against the others.

[S. 245.]

17. (1) On receiving an application for the execution of a decree as provided by rule 11, sub-rule (2), the Court shall ascertain whether such of the requirements of rules 11 to 14 as may be applicable to the case have been complied with; and, if they have not been complied with, the Court may reject the application, or may allow the defect to be remedied then and there or within a time to be fixed by it.

(2) Where an application is amended under the provisions of sub-rule (1), it shall be deemed to have been an application in accordance with law and presented on the date when it was first presented.

(3) Every amendment made under this rule shall be signed or initialled by the Judge.

(4) When the application is admitted, the Court shall enter in the proper register a note of the application and the date on which it was made, and shall, subject to the provisions hereinafter contained, order execution of the decree according to the nature of the application:

Provided that, in the case of a decree for the payment of money, the value of the property attached shall, as nearly as may be, correspond with the amount due under the decree.

[S. 246.]

18. (1) Where applications are made to a Court for the execution of cross-decrees in separate suits for the payment of two sums of money passed between the same parties and capable of execution at the same time by such Court, then—

(a) if the two sums are equal, satisfaction shall be entered upon both decrees; and

(b) if the two sums are unequal, execution may be taken out only by the holder of the decree for the larger sum and for so much only as remains after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the smaller sum shall be entered on the decree for the larger sum as well as satisfaction on the decree for the smaller sum.

(2) This rule shall be deemed to apply where either party is an assignee of one of the decrees and as well in respect of judgment-debts due by the original assignor as in respect of judgment-debts due by the assignee himself.

(3) This rule shall not be deemed to apply unless—

(a) the decree-holder in one of the suits in which the decrees have been made is the judgment-debtor in the other and each party fills the same character in both suits; and

(b) the sums due under the decrees are definite.

(4) The holder of a decree passed against several persons jointly and severally may treat it as a cross-decree in relation to a decree passed against him singly in favour of one or more of such persons.

Illustrations.

(a) A holds a decree against B for Rs. 1,000. B holds a decree against A for the payment of Rs. 1,000 in case A fails to deliver certain goods at a future day. B cannot treat his decree as a cross-decree under this rule.

(b) A and B, co-plaintiffs, obtain a decree for Rs. 1,000 against C, and C obtains a decree for Rs. 1,000 against B. C cannot treat his decree as a cross-decree under this rule.

(c) A obtains a decree against B for Rs. 1,000. C, who is a trustee for B, obtains a decree on behalf of B against A for Rs. 1,000. B cannot treat C's decree as a cross-decree under this rule.

(d) A, B, C, D and E are jointly and severally liable for Rs. 1,000 under a decree obtained by F. A obtains a decree for Rs. 100 against F singly and applies for execution to the Court in which the joint-decree is being executed. F may treat his joint-decree as a cross-decree under this rule.

19. Where application is made to a Court for the execution of a decree under which two parties are entitled to recover sums of money from each other, then,—

(a) if the two sums are equal, satisfaction for both shall be entered upon the decree; and

(b) if the two sums are unequal, execution may be taken out only by the party entitled to the larger sum and for so much only as remains after deducting the smaller sum, and satisfaction for the smaller sum shall be entered upon the decree.

20. The provisions contained in rules 18 and 19 shall apply to decrees for sale in cross-decrees and cross-claims in mortgage suits, enforcement of a mortgage or charge.

21. The Court may, in its discretion, refuse execution at the same time against the person and property of the judgment-debtor.

22. (1) Where an application for execution is made—

(a) more than one year after the date of the decree, or

(b) against the legal representative of a party to the decree, the Court executing the decree shall issue a notice to the person against whom execution is applied for requiring him to show cause, on a date to be fixed, why the decree should not be executed against him:

Provided that no such notice shall be necessary in consequence of more than one year having elapsed between the date of the decree and the application for execution if the application is made within one year from the date of the last order against the party against whom execution is applied for, made on any previous application for execution, or in consequence of the application being made against the legal representative of the judgment-debtor, if upon a previous application for execution against the same person the Court has ordered execution to issue against him.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-rule shall be deemed to preclude the Court from issuing any process in execution of a decree without issuing the notice thereby prescribed, if, for reasons to be recorded, it considers that the issue of such notice would cause unreasonable delay or would defeat the ends of justice.

23. (1) Where the person to whom notice is issued under the last preceding rule does not appear or does not show cause to the satisfaction of the Court why the decree should not be executed, the Court shall order the decree to be executed.

(2) Where such person offers any objection to the execution of the decree, the Court shall consider such objection and make such order as it thinks fit.

Process for execution.

24. (1) When the preliminary measures (if any) required by the foregoing rules have been taken, the Court shall, unless it sees cause to the contrary, issue its process for the execution of the decree.

(2) Every such process shall bear date the day on which it is issued, and shall be signed by the Judge or such officer as the Court may appoint in this behalf, and shall be sealed with the seal of the Court and delivered to the proper officer to be executed.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

(b) the transfer, concealment or removal by the judgment-debtor of any part of his property after the date of the institution of the suit in which the decree was passed, or the commission by him after that date of any other act of bad faith in relation to his property, with the object or effect of obstructing or delaying the decree-holder in the execution of the decree;

(c) any undue preference given by the judgment-debtor to any of his other creditors;

(d) refusal or neglect on the part of the judgment-debtor to pay the amount of the decree or some part thereof when he has, or since the date of the decree has had, the means of paying it;

(e) the likelihood of the judgment-debtor absconding or leaving the jurisdiction of the Court with the object or effect of obstructing or delaying the decree-holder in the execution of the decree.

(3) While any of the matters mentioned in sub-rule (a) are being considered, the Court may, in its discretion, order the judgment-debtor to be detained in the civil prison, or leave him in the custody of an officer of the Court, or release him on his furnishing security, to the satisfaction of the Court, for his appearance when required by the Court.

(4) A judgment-debtor released under this rule may be re-arrested.

(5) Where the Court does not make an order under sub-rule (1), it shall cause the judgment-debtor to be arrested if he has not already been arrested and, subject to the other provisions of this Code, commit him to the civil prison.

Attachment of property.

[C. S. 267.] 42. Where a decree is for the payment of money the Examination of judgment-debtor as to his property may apply to the Court for an order that—

(a) the judgment-debtor, or

(b) in the case of a corporation, any officer thereof, or

(c) any other person,

be orally examined as to whether any or what debts are owing to the judgment-debtor and whether the judgment-debtor has any and what other property or means of satisfying the decree; and the Court may make an order for the attendance and examination of such judgment-debtor, or officer or other person, and for the production of any books or documents.

[S. 255.] 43. Where a decree directs an inquiry as to rent or mesne profits or any other matter, the property of the judgment-debtor may, before the amount due from him has been ascertained, be attached, as in the case of an ordinary decree for the payment of money.

[S. 256.] 43. Where the property to be attached is moveable property, other than agricultural produce, in the possession of the judgment-debtor, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the attaching officer shall keep the property in his own custody or in the custody of one of his subordinates, and shall be responsible for the due custody thereof:

Provided that, when the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody is likely to exceed its value, the attaching officer may sell it at once.

[New] 44. Where the property to be attached is agricultural produce, the attachment shall be made by affixing a copy of the warrant of attachment,—

(a) where such produce is a growing crop, on the land on which such crop has grown, or

(b) where such produce has been cut or gathered, on the threshing-floor or place for treading out grain or the like or fodder-stack on or in which it is deposited, and another copy on the outer door or on some other conspicuous part of the house in which the judgment-debtor ordinarily resides or, with the leave of the Court, on the outer door or on some other conspicuous part of the house in which he carries on business or personally works for gain or in which he is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain; and the produce shall thereupon be deemed to have passed into the possession of the Court.

45. (1) Where agricultural produce is attached, the Court shall make such arrangements for the custody thereof as it may deem sufficient and, for the purpose of enabling the Court to make such arrangements, every application for the attachment of a growing crop shall specify the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

(2) Subject to such conditions as may be imposed by the Court in this behalf either in the order of attachment or in any subsequent order, the judgment-debtor may tend, cut, gather and store the produce and do any other act necessary for maturing or preserving it; and if the judgment-debtor fails to do all or any of such acts, the decree-holder may, with the permission of the Court and subject to the like conditions, do all or any of them either by himself or by any person appointed by him in this behalf, and the costs incurred by the decree-holder shall be recoverable from the judgment-debtor as if they were included in, or formed part of, the decree.

(3) Agricultural produce attached as a growing crop shall not be deemed to have ceased to be under attachment or to require re-attachment merely because it has been severed from the soil.

(4) Where an order for the attachment of a growing crop has been made at a considerable time before the crop is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered, the Court may suspend the execution of the order for such time as it thinks fit, and may, in its discretion, make a further order prohibiting the removal of the crop pending the execution of the order of attachment.

(5) A growing crop which from its nature does not admit of being stored shall not be attached under this rule at any time less than twenty days before the time at which it is likely to be fit to be cut or gathered.

Attachment of debt, share and other property not in possession of judgment-debtor.

46. (1) In the case of—

[S. 268.]

(a) a debt not secured by a negotiable instrument,

(b) a share in the capital of a corporation,

(c) other moveable property not in the possession of the judgment-debtor, except property deposited in, or in the custody of, any Court, the attachment shall be made by a written order prohibiting,—

(i) in the case of the debt, the creditor from recovering the debt and the debtor from making payment thereof until the further order of the Court;

(ii) in the case of the share, the person in whose name the share may be standing from transferring the same or receiving any dividend thereon;

(iii) in the case of the other moveable property except as aforesaid, the person in possession of the same from giving it over to the judgment-debtor.

(2) A copy of such order shall be affixed on some conspicuous part of the court-house, and another copy shall be sent, in the case of the debt, to the debtor, in the case of the share, to the proper officer of the corporation, and, in the case of the other moveable property (except as aforesaid), to the person in possession of the same.

(3) A debtor prohibited under clause (i) of sub-rule (1) may pay the amount of his debt into Court, and such payment shall discharge him as effectually as payment to the party entitled to receive the same.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

- [New.] 47. Where the property to be attached consists of the share or interest of the judgment-debtor in moveable property belonging to him and another as co-owners, the attachment shall be made by a notice to the judgment-debtor prohibiting him from transferring the share or interest or charging it in any way.
- [New.] 48. (1) Where the property to be attached is the salary or allowances of a public officer or of a servant of a railway company or local authority, the Court, whether the judgment-debtor or the disbursing officer is or is not within the local limits of the Court's jurisdiction, may order that the amount shall, subject to the provisions of section 60, be withheld from such salary or allowances either in one payment or by monthly instalments as the Court may direct; and, upon notice of the order to such officer as the Government may by notification in the Gazette of India or in the local official Gazette, as the case may be, appoint in this behalf, the officer or other person whose duty it is to disburse such salary or allowances shall withhold and remit to the Court the amount due under the order, or the monthly instalments, as the case may be.
- (2) Where the attachable proportion of such salary or allowances is already being withheld and remitted to a Court in pursuance of a previous and unsatisfied order of attachment, the officer appointed by the Government in this behalf shall forthwith return the subsequent order to the Court issuing it with a full statement of all the particulars of the existing attachment.
- (3) Every order made under this rule, unless it is returned in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (2), shall, without further notice or other process, bind the Government or the railway company or local authority, as the case may be, while the judgment-debtor is within the local limits to which this Code for the time being extends and while he is beyond those limits if he is in receipt of any salary or allowances payable out of His Majesty's Indian revenues or the funds of a railway company carrying on business in any part of British India or local authority in British India; and the Government or the railway company or local authority, as the case may be, shall be liable for any sum paid in contravention of this rule.
- [S. 53 & 54, Vict., c. 39, s. 23.] 49. (1) Save as otherwise provided by this rule, Attachment of partnership property. property belonging to a partnership shall not be attached or sold in execution of a decree other than a decree passed against the firm or against the partners in the firm as such.
- (2) The Court may, on the application of the holder of a decree against a partner, make an order charging the interest of such partner in the partnership property and profits with payment of the amount due under the decree, and may, by the same or a subsequent order, appoint a receiver of the share of such partner in the profits (whether already declared or accruing) and of any other money which may be coming to him in respect of the partnership, and direct accounts and inquiries and make an order for the sale of such interest or other orders as might have been directed or made if a charge had been made in favour of the decree-holder by such partner, or as the circumstances of the case may require.
- (3) The other partner or partners shall be at liberty at any time to redeem the interest charged or, in the case of a sale being directed, to purchase the same.
- [Cf. O. 46, r. 1a.] (4) Every application for an order under sub-rule (2) shall be served on the judgment-debtor and on his partners or such of them as are within British India.
- [Cf. ibid., r. 1b.] (5) Every application made by any partner of the judgment-debtor under sub-rule (3) shall be served on the decree-holder and on the judgment-debtor, and on such of the other partners as do not join in the application and as are within British India.
- (6) Service under sub-rule (4) or sub-rule (5) shall be deemed to be service on all the partners, and all orders made on such applications shall be similarly served.
- Execution of decree against firm. 50. (1) Where a decree has been passed against a firm execution may be granted—
- against any property of the partnership;
 - against any person who has appeared in his own name under rule 6 or rule 7 of Order XXX or who has admitted on the pleadings that he is, or who has been adjudged to be, a partner;
 - against any person who has been individually served as a partner with a summons and has failed to appear:
- Provided that nothing in this sub-rule shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect the provisions of section 247 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872.
- (2) Where the decree-holder claims to be entitled to cause the decree to be executed against any person other than such a person as is referred to in sub-rule (1), clauses (b) and (c), as being a partner in the firm, he may apply to the Court which passed the decree for leave, and where the liability is not disputed, such Court may grant such leave, or, where such liability is disputed, may order that the liability of such person be tried and determined in any manner in which any issue in a suit may be tried and determined.
- (3) Where the liability of any person has been tried and determined under sub-rule (2), the order made thereon shall have the same force and be subject to the same conditions as to appeal or otherwise as if it were a decree.
- (4) Save as against any property of the partnership, a decree against a firm shall not release, render liable or otherwise affect any partner therein unless he has been served with a summons to appear and answer.
- [S. 270.] 51. Where the property is a negotiable instrument not deposited in a Court, nor in the custody of a public officer, the attachment shall be made by actual seizure, and the instrument shall be brought into Court and held subject to further orders of the Court.
- [S. 271.] 52. Where the property to be attached is in the custody of any Court or public officer, the attachment shall be made by a notice to such Court or officer, requesting that such property, and any interest or dividend becoming payable thereon, may be held subject to the further orders of the Court from which the notice is issued:
- Provided that, where such property is in the custody of a Court, any question of title or priority arising between the decree-holder and any other person, not being the judgment-debtor, claiming to be interested in such property by virtue of any assignment, attachment or otherwise, shall be determined by such Court.
- [S. 273.] 53. (1) Where the property to be attached is a decree, either for the payment of money or for sale in enforcement of a mortgage or charge, the attachment shall be made,—
- if the decrees were passed by the same Court, then by order of such Court, and,
 - if the decree sought to be attached was passed by another Court, then by the issue to such other Court of a notice by the Court which passed the decree sought to be executed, requesting such other Court to stay the execution of its decree unless and until—
- the Court which passed the decree sought to be executed cancels the notice, or
 - the holder of the decree sought to be executed or his judgment-debtor applies to the Court receiving such notice to execute its own decree.
- (2) Where a Court makes an order under clause (a) of sub-rule (1), or receives an application under sub-head (ii) of clause (b) of the said sub-rule, it shall, on the application of the creditor who has attached the decree or his judgment-debtor, proceed to execute the attached decree and apply the net proceeds in satisfaction of the decree sought to be executed.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

(3) The holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree of the nature specified in sub-rule (1) shall be deemed to be the representative of the holder of the attached decree and to be entitled to execute such attached decree in any manner lawful for the holder thereof.

(4) Where the property to be attached in the execution of a decree is a decree other than a decree of the nature referred to in sub-rule (1), the attachment shall be made, by a notice by the Court which passed the decree sought to be executed, to the holder of the decree sought to be attached, prohibiting him from transferring or charging the same in any way; and, where such decree has been passed by any other Court, also by sending to such other Court a notice to abstain from executing the decree sought to be attached until such notice is cancelled by the Court from which it was sent.

(5) The holder of a decree attached under this rule shall give the Court executing the decree such information and aid as may reasonably be required.

(6) On the application of the holder of a decree sought to be executed by the attachment of another decree, the Court making an order of attachment under this rule shall give notice of such order to the judgment-debtor bound by the decree attached; and no payment or adjustment of the attached decree made by the judgment-debtor in contravention of such order after receipt of notice thereof, either through the Court or otherwise, shall be recognized by any Court so long as the attachment remains in force.

54. (1) Where the property is immoveable, the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the judgment-debtor from transferring or charging the property in any way, and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge.

(2) The order shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to such property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be affixed on a conspicuous part of the property and then upon a conspicuous part of the court-house, and also, where the property is land paying revenue to the Government, in the office of the Collector of the district in which the land is situate.

[S. 275.]

Removal of attachment after satisfaction of decree.

55. Where—

(a) the amount decreed with costs and all charges and expenses resulting from the attachment of any property are paid into Court, or

(b) satisfaction of the decree is otherwise made through the Court or certified to the Court, or

(c) the decree is set aside or reversed, the attachment shall be deemed to be withdrawn, and, in the case of immoveable property, the withdrawal shall, if the judgment-debtor so desires, be proclaimed at his expense, and a copy of the proclamation shall be affixed in the manner prescribed by the last preceding rule.

[S. 277.]

56. Where the property attached is current coin or currency notes, the Court may, at any time during the continuance of the attachment, direct that such coin or notes, or a part thereof sufficient to satisfy the decree, be paid over to the party entitled under the decree to receive the same.

[Now.]

57. Where any property has been attached in execution of a decree but by reason of the decree-holder's default the Court is unable to proceed further with the application for execution, it shall either dismiss the application or for any sufficient reason adjourn the proceedings to a future date. Upon the dismissal of such application the attachment shall cease.

Investigation of claims and objections.

[S. 278.]

58. (1) Where any claim is preferred to, or any objection is made to the attachment of, any property attached in execution of a decree on the ground that such property is not liable to such attachment, the Court shall proceed to investigate the claim or objection with the like power as regards the examination of the claimant or objector, and in all other respects, as if he was a party to the suit.

Provided that no such investigation shall be made where the Court considers that the claim or objection was designedly or unnecessarily delayed.

(2) Where the property to which the claim or objection applies has been advertised for sale, the Court ordering the sale may postpone it pending the investigation of the claim or objection.

59. The claimant or objector must adduce evidence to show that at the date of the attachment he had some interest in, or was possessed of, the property attached.

[S. 279.]

60. Where upon the said investigation the Court is satisfied that for the reason stated in the claim or objection such property was not, when attached, in the possession of the judgment-debtor or of some person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, or that, being in the possession of the judgment-debtor at such time, it was so in his possession, not on his own account or as his own property, but on account of or in trust for some other person, or partly on his own account and partly on account of some other person, the Court shall make an order releasing the property, wholly or to such extent as it thinks fit, from attachment.

[S. 280.]

61. Where the Court is satisfied that the property was, at the time it was attached, in the possession of the judgment-debtor as his own property and not on account of any other person, or was in the possession of some other person in trust for him, or in the occupancy of a tenant or other person paying rent to him, the Court shall disallow the claim.

[S. 281.]

62. Where the Court is satisfied that the property is subject to a mortgage or charge in favour of some person not in possession, and thinks fit to continue the attachment, it may do so, subject to such mortgage or charge.

[S. 282.]

63. Where a claim or an objection is preferred, the party against whom an order is made may institute a suit to establish the right which he claims to the property in dispute, but, subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

[S. 283.]

Sale generally.

64. Any Court executing a decree may order that any property attached by it and liable to sale, or such portion thereof as may seem necessary to satisfy the decree, shall be sold, and that the proceeds of such sale, or a sufficient portion thereof, shall be paid to the party entitled under the decree to receive the same.

[S. 284.]

65. Save as otherwise prescribed, every sale in execution of a decree shall be conducted by an officer of the Court or by such other person as the Court may appoint in this behalf, and shall be made by public auction in manner prescribed.

[S. 286.]

66. (1) Where any property is ordered to be sold by public auction in execution of a decree, the Court shall cause a proclamation of the intended sale to be made in the language of such Court.

[S. 287.]

(2) Such proclamation shall be drawn up after notice to the decree-holder and the judgment-debtor and shall state the time and place of sale, and specify as fairly and accurately as possible—

- the property to be sold;
- the revenue assessed upon the estate or part of the estate, where the property to be sold is an interest in an estate or in part of an estate paying revenue to the Government;
- any incumbrance to which the property is liable;
- the amount for the recovery of which the sale is ordered; and
- every other thing which the Court considers material for a purchaser to know in order to judge of the nature and value of the property.

(3) Every application for an order for sale under this rule shall be accompanied by a statement signed and verified in the manner hereinbefore prescribed for the signing and verification of pleadings and containing, so far as they are known to or can be ascertained by the person making the verification, the matters required by sub-rule (2) to be specified in the proclamation.

[S. 237, last para.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

[S. 287, last para.]

(4) For the purpose of ascertaining the matters to be specified in the proclamation, the Court may summon any person whom it thinks necessary to summon and may examine him in respect to any such matters and require him to produce any document in his possession or power relating thereto.

[S. 289.]

67. (1) Every proclamation shall be made and published, as nearly as may be, in the manner prescribed by rule 54, sub-rule (2).

(2) Where the Court so directs, such proclamation shall also be published in the local official Gazette or in a local newspaper, or in both, and the costs of such publication shall be deemed to be costs of the sale.

(3) Where property is divided into lots for the purpose of being sold separately, it shall not be necessary to make a separate proclamation for each lot, unless proper notice of the sale cannot, in the opinion of the Court, otherwise be given.

[S. 290.]

68. Save in the case of property of the kind described in the proviso to rule 43, no sale hereunder shall, without the consent in writing of the judgment-debtor, take place until after the expiration of at least thirty days in the case of immoveable property, and of at least fifteen days in the case of moveable property, calculated from the date on which the copy of the proclamation has been affixed on the court-house of the Judge ordering the sale.

[S. 291.]

69. (1) The Court may, in its discretion, adjourn any sale hereunder to a specified day and hour, and the officer conducting any such sale may in his discretion adjourn the sale, recording his reasons for such adjournment:

Provided that, where the sale is made in, or within the precincts of, the court-house, no such adjournment shall be made without the leave of the Court.

(2) Where a sale is adjourned under sub-rule (1) for a longer period than seven days, a fresh proclamation under rule 67 shall be made, unless the judgment-debtor consents to waive it.

(3) Every sale shall be stopped if, before the lot is knocked down, the debt and costs (including the costs of the sale) are tendered to the officer conducting the sale, or proof is given to his satisfaction that the amount of such debt and costs has been paid into the Court which ordered the sale.

[S. 287, last para.]

70. Nothing in rules 66 to 69 shall be deemed to apply to any case in which the execution of a decree has been transferred to the Collector.

[S. 293.]

71. Any deficiency of price which may happen on a re-sale by reason of the purchaser's default, and all expenses attending such re-sale, shall be certified to the Court or to the Collector or subordinate of the Collector, as the case may be, by the officer or other person holding the sale, and shall, at the instance of either the decree-holder or the judgment-debtor, be recoverable from the defaulting purchaser under the provisions relating to the execution of a decree for the payment of money.

[S. 294.]

72. (1) No holder of a decree in execution of which property is sold shall, without the express permission of the Court, bid for or purchase the property.

(a) Where a decree-holder purchases with such permission, the purchase-money and the amount due on the decree may, subject to the provisions of section 73, be set off against one another, and the Court executing the decree shall enter up satisfaction of the decree in whole or in part accordingly.

(3) Where a decree-holder purchases, by himself or through another person, without such permission, the Court may, if it thinks fit, on the application of the judgment-debtor or any other person whose interests are affected by the sale, by order set aside the sale; and the costs of such application and order, and any deficiency of price which may happen on the re-sale and all expenses attending it, shall be paid by the decree-holder.

73. No officer or other person having any duty to perform in connection with any sale shall, either directly or indirectly, bid for, acquire or attempt to acquire any interest in the property sold.

[S. 292.]

74. (1) Where the property to be sold is agricultural produce, the sale shall be held,—

(a) if such produce is a growing crop, on or near the land on which such crop has grown, or

(b) if such produce has been cut or gathered, at or near the threshing-floor or place for treading out grain or the like or fodder-stack on or in which it is deposited:

Provided that the Court may direct the sale to be held at the nearest place of public resort, if it is of opinion that the produce is thereby likely to sell to greater advantage.

[New.]

(2) Where, on the produce being put up for sale,—

(a) a fair price, in the estimation of the person holding the sale, is not offered for it, and

(b) the owner of the produce or a person authorized to act in his behalf applies to have the sale postponed till the next day or, if a market is held at the place of sale, the next market-day, the sale shall be postponed accordingly and shall be then completed, whatever price may be offered for the produce.

75. (1) Where the property to be sold is a growing crop and the crop from its nature admits of being stored but has not yet been stored, the day of the sale shall be so fixed as to admit of its being made ready for storing before the arrival of such day, and the sale shall not be held until the crop has been cut or gathered and is ready for storing.

[New.]

(2) Where the crop from its nature does not admit of being stored, it may be sold before it is cut and gathered, and the purchaser shall be entitled to enter on the land, and to do all that is necessary for the purpose of tending and cutting or gathering it.

76. Where the property to be sold is a negotiable instrument or a share in a corporation, the Court may, instead of directing the sale to be made by public auction, authorize the sale of such instrument or share through a broker.

77. (1) Where moveable property is sold by public auction the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer or other person holding the sale directs, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be re-sold.

[S. 297.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI.—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

(2) On payment of the purchase money, the officer or other person holding the sale shall grant a receipt for the same, and the sale shall become absolute.

[New.]

(3) Where the moveable property to be sold is a share in goods belonging to the judgment-debtor and a co-owner, and two or more persons, of whom one is such co-owner, respectively bid the same sum for such property or for any lot, the bidding shall be deemed to be the bidding of the co-owner.

[S. 298.]

78. No irregularity in publishing or conducting the sale of moveable property shall vitiate the sale; but any person sustaining any injury by reason of such irregularity at the hand of any other person may institute a suit against him for compensation, or (if such other person is the purchaser) for the recovery of the specific property and for compensation in default of such recovery.

[S. 299.]

79. (1) Where the property sold is moveable property of which actual seizure has been made, it shall be delivered to the purchaser.

[S. 300.]

(2) Where the property sold is moveable property in the possession of some person other than the judgment-debtor, the delivery thereof to the purchaser shall be made by giving notice to the person in possession prohibiting him from delivering possession of the property to any person except the purchaser.

[S. 301.]

(3) Where the property sold is a debt not secured by a negotiable instrument, or is a share in a corporation, the delivery thereof shall be made by a written order of the Court prohibiting the creditor from receiving the debt or any interest thereon, and the debtor from making payment thereof to any person except the purchaser, or prohibiting the person in whose name the share may be standing from making any transfer of the share to any person except the purchaser, or receiving payment of any dividend or interest thereon, and the manager, secretary or other proper officer of the corporation from permitting any such transfer or making any such payment to any person except the purchaser.

[S. 302.]

80. (1) Where the execution of a document, or the endorsement of the party in whose name a negotiable instrument or a share in a corporation is standing is required to transfer such negotiable instrument or share, the Judge or such officer as he may appoint in this behalf may execute such document or make such endorsement as may be necessary, and such execution or endorsement shall have the same effect as an execution or endorsement by the party.

(2) Such execution or endorsement may be in the following form, namely:—

A. B. by C. D., Judge of the Court of (or as the case may be), in a suit by E. F. against A. B.

(3) Until the transfer of such negotiable instrument or share, the Court may, by order, appoint some person to receive any interest or dividend due thereon and to sign a receipt for the same; and any receipt so signed shall be as valid and effectual for all purposes as if the same had been signed by the party himself.

[S. 303.]

81. In the case of any moveable property not hereinbefore provided for, the Court may make an order vesting such property in the purchaser or as he may direct; and such property shall vest accordingly.

Sale of immoveable property.

82. Sales of immoveable property in execution of decrees may be ordered by any Court other than a Court of Small Causes.

83. (1) Where an order for the sale of immoveable property has been made, if the judgment-debtor can satisfy the Court that there is reason to believe that the amount of the decree may be raised by the mortgage or lease or private sale, of such property, or some part thereof, or of any other immoveable property of the judgment-debtor, the Court may, on his application, postpone the sale of the property comprised in the order for sale on such terms and for such period as it thinks proper, to enable him to raise the amount.

(2) In such case the Court shall grant a certificate to the judgment-debtor authorizing him within a period to be mentioned therein, and notwithstanding anything contained in section 64, to make the proposed mortgage, lease or sale:

Provided that all monies payable under such mortgage, lease or sale shall be paid, not to the judgment-debtor, but, save in so far as a decree-holder is entitled to set off such money under the provisions of rule 72, into Court:

Provided also that no mortgage, lease or sale under this rule shall become absolute until it has been confirmed by the Court.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to apply to a sale of property directed to be sold in execution of a decree for sale in enforcement of a mortgage of, or charge on, such property.

84. (1) On every sale of immoveable property the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of twenty-five per cent, on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer or other person conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit, the property shall forthwith be re-sold.

[S. 306.]

(2) Where the decree-holder is the purchaser and is entitled to set off the purchase-money under rule 72, the Court may dispense with the requirements of this rule.

85. The full amount of purchase-money payable shall be paid by the purchaser into Court before the Court closes on the fifteenth day from the sale of the property:

[S. 307.]

Provided that, in calculating the amount to be so paid into Court, the purchaser shall have the advantage of any set-off to which he may be entitled under rule 72.

86. In default of payment within the period mentioned in the last preceding rule, the deposit may, if the Court thinks fit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, be forfeited to the Government, and the property shall be re-sold, and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may subsequently be sold.

87. Every re-sale of immoveable property, in default of payment of the purchase-money within the period allowed for such payment, shall be made after the issue of a fresh proclamation in the manner and for the period hereinbefore prescribed for the sale.

[S. 309.]

88. Where the property sold is a share of undivided immoveable property and two or more persons, of whom one is a co-sharer, respectively bid the same sum for such property or for any lot, the bid shall be deemed to be the bid of the co-sharer.

[S. 310.]

89. (1) Where immoveable property has been sold in execution of a decree, any person, either owning such property or holding an interest therein by virtue of a title acquired before such sale,

[S. 310A.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXI—Execution of Decrees and Orders.)

may apply to have the sale set aside on his depositing in Court,—

(a) for payment to the purchaser, a sum equal to five per cent. of the purchase-money, and

(b) for payment to the decree-holder, the amount specified in the proclamation of sale as that for the recovery of which the sale was ordered, less any amount which may, since the date of such proclamation of sale, have been received by the decree-holder.

(2) Where a person applies under rule 90 to set aside the sale of his immoveable property, he shall not, unless he withdraws his application, be entitled to make or prosecute an application under this rule.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall relieve the judgment-debtor from any liability he may be under in respect of costs and interest not covered by the proclamation of sale.

90. (1) Where any immoveable property has been sold in execution of a decree, the decree-holder, or any person entitled to share in a rateable distribution of assets, or whose interests are affected by the sale, may apply to the Court to set aside the sale on the ground of a material irregularity or fraud in publishing or conducting it :

Application to set aside sale on ground of irregularity or fraud. Provided that no sale shall be set aside on the ground of irregularity or fraud unless upon the facts proved the Court is satisfied that the applicant has sustained substantial injury by reason of such irregularity or fraud

[S. 313.]

91. The purchaser at any such sale in execution of a decree may apply to the Court to set aside the sale, on the ground that the judgment-debtor had no saleable interest in the property sold.

Application by purchaser to set aside sale on ground of judgment-debtor having no saleable interest.

[Ss. 312, 314.]

92. (1) Where no application is made under rule 89, rule 90 or rule 91 or where such application is made and disallowed, the Court shall make an order confirming the sale, and thereupon the sale shall become absolute.

(2) Where such application is made and allowed, and where in the case of an application under rule 89, the deposit required by that rule is made within thirty days from the date of sale, the Court shall make an order setting aside the sale :

Provided that no order shall be made unless notice of the application has been given to all persons affected thereby.

(3) No suit to set aside an order made under this rule shall be brought by any person against whom such order is made.

[S. 315.]

93. Where a sale of immoveable property is set aside under rule 92, the purchaser shall be entitled to an order for repayment of his purchase-money, with or without interest as the Court may direct, against any person to whom it has been paid.

Return of purchase-money in certain cases.

94. Where a sale of immoveable property has become absolute, the Court shall grant a certificate specifying the property sold and the name of the person who at the time of sale is declared to be the purchaser. Such certificate shall bear date the day on which the sale became absolute. [S. 316.]

95. Where the immoveable property sold is in the occupancy of the judgment-debtor or of some person on his behalf or of some person claiming under a title created by the judgment-debtor subsequently to the attachment of such property and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under rule 94, the Court shall, on the application of the purchaser order delivery to be made by putting such purchaser or any person whom he may appoint to receive delivery on his behalf in possession of the property, and, if need be, by removing any person who refuses to vacate the same. [S. 318.]

96. Where the property sold is in the occupancy of a tenant or other person entitled to occupy the same and a certificate in respect thereof has been granted under rule 94, the Court shall, on the application of the purchaser, order delivery to be made by affixing a copy of the certificate of sale in some conspicuous place on the property, and proclaiming to the occupant by beat of drum or other customary mode, at some convenient place, that the interest of the judgment-debtor has been transferred to the purchaser. [S. 319.]

Resistance to delivery of possession to decree-holder or purchaser.

97. (1) Where the holder of a decree for the possession of immoveable property or the purchaser of any such property sold in execution of a decree is resisted or obstructed by any person in obtaining possession of the property, he may make an application to the Court complaining of such resistance or obstruction. [Ss. 328, 334.]

Resistance or obstruction to possession of immoveable property.

(2) The Court shall fix a day for investigating the matter and shall summon the party against whom the application is made to appear and answer the same.

98. Where the Court is satisfied that the resistance or obstruction was occasioned without any just cause by the judgment-debtor or by some other person at his instigation, it shall direct that the applicant be put into possession of the property, and where the applicant is still resisted or obstructed in obtaining possession, the Court may also, at the instance of the applicant, order the judgment-debtor, or any person acting at his instigation, to be detained in the civil prison for a term which may extend to thirty days. [Ss. 329, 330.]

99. Where the Court is satisfied that the resistance or obstruction was occasioned by any person (other than the judgment-debtor) claiming in good faith to be in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some person other than the judgment-debtor, the Court shall make an order dismissing the application. [Cf. Ss. 331, 335.]

Resistance or obstruction by bona fide claimant.

[S. 332.] 100. (1) Where any person other than the judgment-debtor is dispossessed of immovable property by the holder of a decree for the possession of such property or, where such property has been sold in execution of a decree by the purchaser thereof, he may make an application to the Court complaining of such dispossession.

(2) The Court shall fix a day for investigating the matter and shall summon the party against whom the application is made to appear and answer the same.

[Ss. 332, 335.] 101. Where the Court is satisfied that the applicant was in possession of the property on his own account or on account of some person other than the judgment-debtor it shall direct that the applicant be put into possession of the property.

[S. 333.] 102. Nothing in rules 90 and 101 shall apply to resiststance or obstruction in execution of a decree for the possession of immovable property by a person to whom the judgment-debtor has transferred the property after the institution of the suit in which the decree was passed or to the dispossession of any such person.

[Ss. 332, 335.] 103. Any party not being a judgment-debtor against whom an order is made under rule 98, rule 99 or rule 101 may institute a suit to establish the right which he claims to the present possession of the property; but, subject to the result of such suit, if any, the order shall be conclusive.

(Order XXII.—Death, Marriage and Insolvency of Parties. Order XXIII.—Withdrawal and Adjustment of suits. Order XXIV.—Payment into Court.)

(a) Where the assignee or receiver neglects or refuses to continue the suit and to give such security within the time so ordered, the defendant may apply for the dismissal of the suit on the ground of the plaintiff's insolvency, and the Court may make an order dismissing the suit and awarding to the defendant the costs which he has incurred in defending the same to be proved as a debt against the plaintiff's estate.

9. (1) Where a suit abates or is dismissed under this Order, no fresh suit shall be brought on the same cause of action.

(2) The plaintiff or the person claiming to be the legal representative of a deceased plaintiff or the assignee or the receiver in the case of an insolvent plaintiff may apply for an order to set aside the abatement or dismissal; and if it is proved that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from continuing the suit, the Court shall set aside the abatement or dismissal upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

10. (1) In other cases of an assignment, creation or devolution of any interest during the pendency of a suit, the suit may, by leave of the Court, be continued by or against the person to or upon whom such interest has come or devolved.

(2) The attachment of a decree pending an appeal therefrom shall be deemed to be an interest entitling the person who procured such attachment to the benefit of sub-rule (1).

[S. 582, last part.]

11. In the application of this Order to appeals, so far as may be, the word "plaintiff" shall be held to include an appellant, the word "defendant" a respondent, and the word "suit" an appeal.

[New.]

12. Nothing in rules 3, 4 and 8 shall apply to proceedings in execution of a decree or order.

ORDER XXIII.Withdrawal and Adjustment of Suits.

[S. 373.]

1. (1) At any time after the institution of a suit the plaintiff may, as against all or any of the defendants, withdraw his suit or abandon part of his claim.

(2) Where the Court is satisfied—

(a) that a suit must fail by reason of some formal defect, or

(b) that there are other sufficient grounds for allowing the plaintiff to institute a fresh suit for the subject-matter of a suit or part of a claim, it may, on such terms as it thinks fit, grant the plaintiff permission to withdraw from such suit or abandon such part of a claim with liberty to institute a fresh suit in respect of the subject-matter of such suit or such part of a claim.

(3) Where the plaintiff withdraws from a suit, or abandons part of a claim, without the permission referred to in sub-rule (2), he shall be liable for such costs as the Court may award and shall be precluded from instituting any fresh suit in respect of such subject-matter or such part of the claim.

(4) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to authorize the Court to permit one of several plaintiffs to withdraw without the consent of the others.

2. In any fresh suit instituted on permission granted under the last preceding rule, the plaintiff shall be bound by the law of limitation in the same manner as if the first suit had not been instituted.

[S. 374.]

3. Where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that a suit has been adjusted wholly or in part by any lawful agreement or compromise, or where the defendant satisfies the plaintiff in respect of the whole or any part of the subject-matter of the suit, the Court shall order such agreement, compromise or satisfaction to be recorded, and shall pass a decree in accordance therewith so far as it relates to the suit.

[S. 375.]

4. Nothing in this Order shall apply to any proceedings in execution of a decree or order.

[S. 375A.]

ORDER XXIV.Payment into Court.

1. The defendant in any suit to recover a debt or damages may, at any stage of the suit, deposit in Court such sum of money as he considers a satisfaction in full of the claim.

[S. 376.]

2. Notice of the deposit shall be given through the Court by the defendant to the plaintiff, and the amount of the deposit shall (unless the Court otherwise directs) be paid to the plaintiff on his application.

[S. 377.]

3. No interest shall be allowed to the plaintiff on any sum deposited by the defendant from the date of the receipt of such notice, whether the sum deposited is in full of the claim or falls short thereof.

[S. 378.]

4. (1) Where the plaintiff accepts such amount as satisfaction in part only of his claim, he may prosecute his suit for the balance; and, if the Court decides that the deposit by the defendant was a full satisfaction of the plaintiff's claim, the plaintiff shall pay the costs of the suit incurred after the deposit and the costs incurred previous thereto, so far as they were caused by excess in the plaintiff's claim.

[S. 379.]

(2) Where the plaintiff accepts such amount as satisfaction in full of his claim, he shall present to the Court a statement to that effect, and such statement shall be filed and the Court shall pronounce judgment accordingly; and, in directing by whom the costs of each party are to be paid, the Court shall consider which of the parties is most to blame for the litigation.

Illustrations.

(a) A owes B Rs. 100. B sues A for the amount, having made no demand for payment and having no reason to believe that the delay caused by making a demand would place him at a disadvantage. On the plaint being filed, A pays the money into Court. B accepts it in full satisfaction of his claim, but the Court should not allow him any costs, the litigation being presumably groundless on his part.

(b) B sues A under the circumstances mentioned in illustration (a). On the plaint being filed, A disputes the claim. Afterwards A pays the money into Court. B accepts it in full satisfaction of his claim. The Court should also give B his costs of suit, A's conduct having shown that the litigation was necessary.

(c) A owes B Rs. 100, and is willing to pay him that sum without suit. B claims Rs. 150 and sues A for that amount. On the plaint being filed A pays Rs. 100 into Court and disputes only his liability to pay the remaining Rs. 50. B accepts the Rs. 100 in full satisfaction of his claim. The Court should order him to pay A's costs.

ORDER XXV.

Security for Costs

[S. 380, first para.]

1. (1) Where, at any stage of a suit, it appears to the Court that a sole plaintiff is, or (when there are more plaintiffs than one) that all the plaintiffs are, residing out of British India, and that such plaintiff does not, or that no one of such plaintiffs does, possess any sufficient immoveable property within British India other than the property in suit, the Court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any defendant, order the plaintiff or plaintiffs, within a time fixed by it, to give security for the payment of all costs incurred and likely to be incurred by any defendant.

[S. 382.]

(2) Whoever leaves British India under such circumstances as to afford reasonable probability that he will not be forthcoming whenever he may be called upon to pay costs shall be deemed to be residing out of British India within the meaning of sub-rule (1).

[S. 380, second para.]

(3) On the application of any defendant in a suit for the payment of money, in which the plaintiff is a woman, the Court may at any stage of the suit make a like order if it is satisfied that such plaintiff does not possess any sufficient immoveable property within British India.

[S. 381.]

2. (1) In the event of such security not being furnished within the time fixed, the Court shall make an order dismissing the suit unless the plaintiff or plaintiffs are permitted to withdraw therefrom.

(2) Where a suit is dismissed under this rule, the plaintiff may apply for an order to set the dismissal aside, and, if it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from furnishing the security within the time allowed, the Court shall set aside the dismissal upon such terms as to security, costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for proceeding with the suit.

(3) The dismissal shall not be set aside unless notice of such application has been served on the defendant.

ORDER XXVI.

Commissions.Commissions to examine witnesses.

[S. 383.]

1. Any Court may in any suit issue a commission for the examination on interrogatories or otherwise of any person resident within the local limits of its jurisdiction who is exempted under this Code from attending the Court or who is from sickness or infirmity unable to attend it.

[S. 384.]

2. An order for the issue of a commission for the examination of a witness may be made by the Court either of its own motion or on the application, supported by affidavit or otherwise, of any party to the suit or of the witness to be examined.

[S. 385.]

3. A commission for the examination of a person who resides within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court issuing the same may be issued to any person whom the Court thinks fit to execute it.

[S. 386.]

4. (1) Any Court may in any suit issue a commission for the examination of—Persons for whose examination commission may issue.

(a) any person resident beyond the local limits of its jurisdiction;

(b) any person who is about to leave such limits before the date on which he is required to be examined in Court; and

(c) any civil or military officer of the Government who cannot, in the opinion of the Court attend without detriment to the public service.

(2) Such commission may be issued to any Court, not being a High Court, within the local limits of whose jurisdiction such person resides, or to any pleader or other person whom the Court issuing the commission may appoint.

(3) The Court on issuing any commission under this rule shall direct whether the commission shall be returned to itself or to any subordinate Court.

5. Where any Court to which application is made for the issue of a commission for the examination of a person residing at any place not within British India is satisfied that the evidence of such person is necessary, the Court may issue such commission or a letter of request. [S. 387.]

6. Every Court receiving a commission for the examination of any person shall examine him or cause him to be examined pursuant thereto. [S. 388.]

7. Where a commission has been duly executed, it shall be returned, together with the evidence taken under it, to the Court from which it was issued, unless the order for issuing the commission has otherwise directed, in which case the commission shall be returned in terms of such order; and the commission and the return thereto and the evidence taken under it shall (subject to the provisions of the next following rule) form part of the record of the suit. [S. 389.]

8. Evidence taken under a commission shall not be read as evidence in the suit without the consent of the party against whom the same is offered, unless—
When depositions may be read in evidence. [S. 390.]

(a) the person who gave the evidence is beyond the jurisdiction of the Court, or dead or unable from sickness or infirmity to attend to be personally examined, or exempted from personal appearance in Court, or is a civil or military officer of the Government who cannot, in the opinion of the Court, attend without detriment to the public service, or

(b) the Court in its discretion dispenses with the proof of any of the circumstances mentioned in clause (a), and authorizes the evidence of any person being read as evidence in the suit, notwithstanding proof that the cause for taking such evidence by commission has ceased at the time of reading the same.

Commissions for local investigations.

9. In any suit in which the Court deems a local Commission to make investigation to be requisite or proper for the purpose of elucidating any matter in dispute, or of ascertaining the market-value of any property, or the amount of any mesne profits or damages or annual net profits, the Court may issue a commission to such person as it thinks fit directing him to make such investigation and to report thereon to the Court. [S. 392.]

Provided that, where the Local Government has made rules as to the persons to whom such commission shall be issued, the Court shall be bound by such rules.

10. (1) The Commissioner, after such local inspection as he deems necessary and after reducing to writing the evidence taken by him, shall return such evidence, together with his report in writing signed by him to the Court. [S. 393.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.
(The First Schedule.)

(Order XXVI.—Commissions. Order XXVII.—Suits by or against the Government or Public Officers in their official capacity.)

(2) The report of the Commissioner and the evidence taken by him (but not the evidence without the report) shall be evidence in the suit and shall form part of the record; but the Court or, with the permission of the Court, any of the parties to the suit may examine the Commissioner personally in open Court touching any of the matters referred to him or mentioned in his report, or as to his report, or as to the manner in which he has made the investigation.

(3) Where the Court is for any reason dissatisfied with the proceedings of the Commissioner, it may direct such further inquiry to be made as it shall think fit.

Commissions to examine accounts.

394.] 11. In any suit in which an examination or adjustment of accounts is necessary, the Court may issue a commission to such person as it thinks fit directing him to make such examination or adjustment.

395.] 12. (1) The Court shall furnish the Commissioner with such part of the proceedings and such instructions as appear necessary, and the instructions shall distinctly specify whether the Commissioner is merely to transmit the proceedings which he may hold on the inquiry, or also to report his own opinion on the point referred for his examination.

(2) The proceedings and report (if any) of the Commissioner shall be evidence in the suit, but where the Court has reason to be dissatisfied with them, it may direct such further inquiry as it shall think fit.

Commissions to make partitions.

S. 396.] 13. Where a preliminary decree for partition has been passed, the Court may, in any case not provided for by section 54, issue a commission to such person as it thinks fit to make the partition or separation according to the rights as declared in such decree.

396, second third 15.] 14. (1) The Commissioner shall, after such inquiry as may be necessary, divide the property into as many shares as may be directed by the order under which the commission was issued, and shall allot such shares to the parties, and may, if authorized thereto by the said order, award sums to be paid for the purpose of equalizing the value of the shares.

(2) The Commissioner shall then prepare and sign a report or the Commissioners (where the commission was issued to more than one person and they cannot agree) shall prepare and sign separate reports appointing the share of each party and distinguishing each share (if so directed by the said order) by metes and bounds. Such report or reports shall be annexed to the commission and transmitted to the Court; and the Court, after hearing any objections which the parties may make to the report or reports, shall confirm, vary or set aside the same.

(3) Where the Court confirms or varies the report or reports it shall pass a decree in accordance with the same as confirmed or varied; but where the Court sets aside the report or reports it shall either issue a new commission or make such other order as it shall think fit.

General provisions.

S. 397.] 15. Before issuing any commission under this Order, the Court may order such sum (if any) as it thinks reasonable for the expenses of the commission to be, within a time to be fixed, paid into Court by the party at whose instance or for whose benefit the commission is issued.

16. Any Commissioner appointed under this Order may, unless otherwise directed by the order of appointment,—

(a) examine the parties themselves and any witness whom they or any of them may produce, and any other person whom the Commissioner thinks proper to call upon to give evidence in the matter referred to him;

(b) call for and examine documents and other things relevant to the subject of inquiry;

(c) at any reasonable time enter upon or into any land or building mentioned in the order.

17. (1) The provisions of this Code relating to the summoning, attendance and examination of witnesses, and to the remuneration of, and penalties to be imposed upon, witnesses, shall apply to persons required to give evidence or to produce documents under this Order whether the commission in execution of which they are so required has been issued by a Court situate within or by a Court situate beyond the limits of British India, and for the purposes of this rule the Commissioner shall be deemed to be a Civil Court.

(2) A Commissioner may apply to any Court (not being a High Court) within the local limits of whose jurisdiction a witness resides for the issue of any process which he may find it necessary to issue to or against such witness, and such Court may, in its discretion, issue such process as it considers reasonable and proper.

18. (1) Where a commission is issued under this Order, the Court shall direct that the parties to the suit shall appear before the Commissioner in person or by their agents or pleaders.

(2) Where all or any of the parties do not so appear, the Commissioner may proceed in their absence.

ORDER XXVII.

Suits by or against the Government or Public Officers in their official capacity.

1. In any suit by or against the Secretary of State for India in Council, the plaintiff or written statement shall be signed by such person as the Government may, by general or special order, appoint in this behalf, and shall be verified by any person whom the Government may so appoint and who is acquainted with the facts of the case.

2. Persons being ex-officio or otherwise authorized to act for the Government in respect of any judicial proceeding shall be deemed to be the recognized agents by whom appearances, acts and applications under this Code may be made or done on behalf of the Government.

3. In suits by or against the Secretary of State for India in Council, instead of inserting in the plaint the name and description and place of residence of the plaintiff or defendant, it shall be sufficient to insert the words "The Secretary of State for India in Council."

4. The Government pleader in any Court, or such other person as the Local Government may for any Court appoint in this behalf, shall be the agent of the Government for the purpose of receiving processes against the Secretary of State for India in Council issued by such Court.

5. The Court, in fixing the day for the Secretary of State for India in Council to answer to the plaint, shall allow a reasonable time for the necessary communication with the Government through the proper channel, and for the issue of instructions to the Government pleader to appear and answer on behalf of the said Secretary of State for India in Council or the Government, and may extend the time at its discretion.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)

(Order XXVII.—Suits by or against the Government or Public Officers in their official capacity. Order XXVIII.—Suits by or against Military Men. Order XXIX.—Suits by or against Corporations.—Order XXX.—Suits by or against Firms and Persons carrying on business in names other than their own.)

[S. 421.]

6. The Court may also, in any case in which the Government pleader is not accompanied by any person on the part of the Secretary of State for India in Council, who may be able to answer any material questions relating to the suit, direct the attendance of such a person.

Attendance of person able to answer questions relating to suit against Government.

[S. 423.]

7. Where the defendant is a public officer and, on receiving the summons, considers it proper to make a reference to the Government before answering the plaint, he may apply to the Court to grant such extension of the time fixed in the summons as may be necessary to enable him to make such reference and to receive orders thereon through the proper channel.

(2) Upon such application the Court shall extend the time for so long as appears to it to be necessary.

8. (1) Where the Government undertakes the defence of a suit against a public officer, the Government pleader, upon being furnished with authority to appear and answer the plaint, shall apply to the Court, and upon such application the Court shall cause a note of his authority to be entered in the register of civil suits.

(2) Where no application under sub-rule (1) is made by the Government pleader on or before the day fixed in the notice for the defendant to appear and answer, the case shall proceed as in a suit between private parties: Provided that the defendant shall not be liable to arrest, nor his property to attachment, otherwise than in execution of a decree.

[S. 427.]

ORDER XXVIII.Suits by or against Military Men.

1. (1) Where any officer or soldier actually serving the Government in a military capacity is a party to a suit, and cannot obtain leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person, he may authorize any person to sue or defend in his stead.

(2) The authority shall be in writing and shall be signed by the officer or soldier in the presence of (a) his commanding officer, or the next subordinate officer, if the party is himself the commanding officer, or (b) where the officer or soldier is serving in military staff employment, the head or other superior officer of the office in which he is employed. Such commanding or other officer shall countersign the authority, which shall be filed in Court.

(3) When so filed the countersignature shall be sufficient proof that the authority was duly executed, and that the officer or soldier by whom it was granted could not obtain leave of absence for the purpose of prosecuting or defending the suit in person.

Explanation.—In this Order the expression "commanding officer" means the officer in actual command for the time being of any regiment, corps, detachment or depot to which the officer or soldier belongs.

2. Any person authorized by an officer or a soldier to prosecute or defend a suit in his stead may prosecute or defend it in person in the same manner as the officer or soldier could do if present; or he may appoint a pleader to prosecute or defend the suit on behalf of such officer or soldier.

3. Processes served upon any person authorized by an officer or a soldier under rule 1 or upon any pleader appointed as aforesaid by such person shall be as effectual as if they had been served on the party in person.

ORDER XXIX.Suits by or against Corporations.

[S. 435.]

1. In suits by or against a corporation, any pleading may be signed and verified on behalf of the corporation by the secretary or by any director or other principal officer of the corporation who is able to depose to the facts of the case.

Subscription and verification of pleading.

2. Subject to any statutory provision regulating service of process, where the suit is against a corporation, the summons may be served—

[S. 436.]

(a) on the secretary, or on any director, or other principal officer of the corporation, or

(b) by leaving it or sending it by post addressed to the corporation at the registered office, or if there is no registered office then at the place where the corporation carries on business.

3. The Court may, at any stage of the suit, require the personal appearance of the secretary or of any director, or other principal officer of the corporation who may be able to answer material questions relating to the suit.

ORDER XXX.Suits by or against Firms and Persons carrying on business in names other than their own.

1. (1) Any two or more persons claiming or being liable as partners and carrying on business in British India may sue or be sued in the name of the firm (if any) of which such persons were partners at the time of the accruing of the cause of action, and any party to a suit may in such case apply to the Court for a statement of the names and addresses of the persons who were, at the time of the accruing of the cause of action, partners in such firm, to be furnished and verified in such manner as the Court may direct.

(2) Where persons sue or are sued as partners in the name of their firm under sub-rule (1), it shall, in the case of any pleading or other document required by or under this Code to be signed, verified or certified by the plaintiff or the defendant, suffice if such pleading or other document is signed, verified, or certified by any one of such persons.

2. (1) Where a suit is instituted by partners in the name of their firm, the plaintiffs or their pleader shall, on demand in writing by or on behalf of any defendant, forthwith declare in writing the names and places of residence of all the persons constituting the firm on whose behalf the suit is instituted.

(2) Where the plaintiffs or their pleader fail to comply with any demand made under sub-rule (1), all proceedings in the suit may, upon an application for that purpose, be stayed upon such terms as the Court may direct.

(3) Where the names of the partners are declared in the manner referred to in sub-rule (1), the suit shall proceed in the same manner, and the same consequences in all respects shall follow, as if they had been named as plaintiffs in the plaint.

Provided that all the proceedings shall nevertheless continue in the name of the firm.

3. Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, the summons shall be served either—

[Ibid., r. 3.]

(a) upon any one or more of the partners, or

(b) at the principal place at which the partnership business is carried on within British India upon any person having, at the time of service, the control or management of the partnership business there, as the Court may direct; and such service shall be deemed good service upon the firm so sued, whether all or any of the partners are within or without British India:

Provided that, in the case of a partnership which has been dissolved to the knowledge of the plaintiff before the institution of the suit, the summons shall be served upon every person within British India whom it is sought to make liable.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)

(Order XXX.—Suits by or against Firms and Persons carrying on business in names other than their own. Order XXXI.—Suits by or against Trustees, Executors and Administrators. Order XXXII.—Suits by or against Minors and Persons of Unsound Mind.)

[New.]
IX of 1872

4. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 45 of the Indian Contract Act, 1872, where two or more persons may sue or be sued in the name of a firm under the foregoing provisions and any of such persons dies, whether before the institution or during the pendency of any suit, it shall not be necessary to join the legal representative of the deceased as a party to the suit.

(2) Nothing in sub-rule (1) shall limit or otherwise affect any right which the legal representative of the deceased may have—

(a) to apply to be made a party to the suit, or

(b) to enforce any claim against the survivor or survivors.

[Cf. O. 48A,
r. 4.]

5. Where a summons is issued to a firm and is served in the manner provided by rule 3, every person upon whom it is served shall be informed by notice in writing given at the time of such service, whether he is served as a partner or as a person having the control or management of the partnership business, or in both characters, and, in default of such notice, the person served shall be deemed to be served as a partner.

[Ibid., r. 5.]

6. Where persons are sued as partners in the name of their firm, they shall appear individually in their own names, but all subsequent proceedings shall, nevertheless, continue in the name of the firm.

[Ibid., r. 6.]

7. Where a summons is served in the manner provided by rule 3 upon a person having the control or management of the partnership business, no appearance by him shall be necessary unless he is a partner of the firm sued.

[Ibid., r. 7.]

8. Any person served with summons as a partner under rule 3 may appear under protest, denying that he is a partner, but such appearance shall not preclude the plaintiff from otherwise serving a summons on the firm and obtaining a decree against the firm in default of appearance where no partner has appeared.

[Ibid., r. 10.]

9. This Order shall apply to suits between a firm and one or more of the partners therein and to suits between firms having one or more partners in common; but no execution shall be issued in such suits except by leave of the Court, and, on an application for leave to issue such execution, all such accounts and inquiries may be directed to be taken and made and directions given as may be just.

[Ibid., r. 11.]

10. Any person carrying on business in a name or style other than his own name, may be sued in such name or style, as if it were a firm name; and, so far as the nature of the case will permit, all rules under this Order shall apply.

ORDER XXXI.

Suits by or against Trustees, Executors and Administrators.

[S. 437.]

1. In all suits concerning property vested in a trustee, executor or administrator, where the contention is between the persons beneficially interested in such property and a third person, the trustee, executor or administrator shall represent the persons so interested, and it shall not ordinarily be necessary to make them parties to the suit. But the Court may, if it thinks fit, order them or any of them to be made parties.

[S. 438.]

2. Where there are several trustees, executors or administrators, they shall all be made parties to a suit against one or more of them:

Provided that the executors who have not proved their testator's will, and trustees, executors and administrators outside British India, need not be made parties.

[S. 439.]

3. Unless the Court directs otherwise, the husband of a married trustee, administrator or executrix shall not as such be a party to a suit by or against her.

ORDER XXXII.

Suits by or against Minors and Persons of Unsound Mind.

1. Every suit by a minor shall be instituted in his name by a person who in such suit shall be called the next friend of the minor.

[S. 440.]

2. (1) Where a suit is instituted by or on behalf of a minor without a next friend, the defendant may apply to have the plaint taken off the file, with costs to be paid by the pleader or other person by whom it was presented.

[S. 442.]

(2) Notice of such application shall be given to such person, and the Court, after hearing his objections (if any), may make such order in the matter as it thinks fit.

3. (1) Where the defendant is a minor, the Court, on being satisfied of the fact of his minority, shall appoint a proper person to be guardian for the suit for such minor.

[S. 443.]

(2) An order for the appointment of a guardian for the suit may be obtained upon application in the name and on behalf of the minor or by the plaintiff.

(3) Such application shall be supported by an affidavit verifying the fact that the proposed guardian has no interest in the matters in controversy in the suit adverse to that of the minor and that he is a fit person to be so appointed.

(4) No order shall be made on any application under this rule except upon notice to the minor and to any guardian of the minor appointed or declared by an authority competent in that behalf, or, where there is no such guardian, upon notice to the father or other natural guardian of the minor, or, where there is no father or other natural guardian, to the person in whose care the minor is, and after hearing any objection which may be urged on behalf of any person served with notice under this sub-rule.

[New.]

4. (1) Any person who is of sound mind and has attained majority may act as next friend of a minor or as his guardian for the suit:

[S. 445.]

Provided that the interest of such person is not adverse to that of the minor and that he is not, in the case of a next friend, a defendant, or, in the case of a guardian for the suit, a plaintiff.

(2) Where a minor has a guardian appointed or declared by competent authority, no person other than such guardian shall act as the next friend of the minor or be appointed his guardian for the suit unless the Court considers, for reasons to be recorded, that it is for the minor's welfare that another person be permitted to act or be appointed, as the case may be.

[Ss. 440, 443.]

(3) No person shall without his consent be appointed guardian for the suit.

[New.]

(4) Where there is no other person fit and willing to act as guardian for the suit, the Court may appoint any of its officers to be such guardian, and may direct that the costs to be incurred by such officer in the performance of his duties as such guardian shall be borne either by the parties or by any one or more of the parties to the suit, or out of any fund in Court in which the minor is interested, and may give directions for the repayment or allowance of such costs as justice and the circumstances of the case may require.

[S. 454.
Cf. O. 65
r. 13.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.

(The First Schedule.)

(Order XXXII.—Suits by or against Minors and Persons of Unsound Mind.)

Order XXXIII.—Suits by Paupers.)

- [S. 441.] 5. (1) Every application to the Court on behalf of a minor, other than an application under rule 10, sub-rule (2), shall be made by his next friend or by his guardian for the suit.
- [S. 444.] (2) Every order made in a suit or on any application, before the Court in or by which a minor is in any way concerned or affected, without such minor being represented by a next friend or guardian for the suit, as the case may be, may be discharged, and, where the pleader of the party at whose instance such order was obtained knew, or might reasonably have known, the fact of such minority, with costs to be paid by such pleader.
- [S. 461.]^a 6. (1) A next friend or guardian for the suit shall not, without the leave of the Court, receive any money or other moveable property on behalf of a minor either—
- (a) by way of compromise before decree or order, or
- (b) under a decree or order in favour of the minor.
- (2) Where the next friend or guardian for the suit has not been appointed or declared by competent authority to be guardian of the property of the minor, or, having been so appointed or declared, is under any disability known to the Court to receive the money or other moveable property, the Court shall, if it grants him leave to receive the property, require such security and give such directions as will, in its opinion, sufficiently protect the property from waste and ensure its proper application.
- [S. 461.] 7. (1) No next friend or guardian for the suit shall, without the leave of the Court, expressly recorded in the proceedings, enter into any agreement or compromise on behalf of a minor with reference to the suit in which he acts as next friend or guardian.
- (2) Any such agreement or compromise entered into without the leave of the Court so recorded shall be voidable against all parties other than the minor.
- [S. 447.] 8. (1) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, a next friend shall not retire without first procuring a fit person to be put in his place and giving security for the costs already incurred.
- (2) The application for the appointment of a new next friend shall be supported by an affidavit showing the fitness of the person proposed, and also that he has no interest adverse to that of the minor.
- [S. 446.] 9. (1) Where the interest of the next friend of a minor is adverse to that of the minor or where he is so connected with a defendant whose interest is adverse to that of the minor as to make it unlikely that the minor's interest will be properly protected by him, or where he does not do his duty, or, during the pendency of the suit, ceases to reside within British India, or for any other sufficient cause, application may be made on behalf of the minor or by a defendant for his removal; and the Court, if satisfied of the sufficiency of the cause assigned, may order the next friend to be removed accordingly, and make such other order as to costs as it thinks fit.
- (2) Where the next friend is not a guardian appointed or declared by an authority competent in this behalf, and an application is made by a guardian so appointed or declared, who desires to be himself appointed in the place of the next friend, the Court shall remove the next friend unless it considers, for reasons to be recorded by it, that the guardian ought not to be appointed the next friend of the minor, and shall thereupon appoint the applicant to be next friend in his place upon such terms as to the costs already incurred in the suit as it thinks fit.
- [S. 448.] 10. (1) On the retirement, removal or death of the next friend of a minor, further proceedings shall be stayed until the appointment of a next friend in his place.
- (2) Where the pleader of such minor omits, within a reasonable time, to take steps to get a new next friend appointed, any person interested in the minor or in the matter in issue may apply to the Court for the appointment of one, and the Court may appoint such person as it thinks fit.
11. (1) Where the guardian for the suit desires to retire or does not do his duty, or where other sufficient ground is made to appear, the Court may permit such guardian to retire or may remove him, and may make such order as to costs as it thinks fit.
- (2) Where the guardian for the suit retires, dies or is removed by the Court during the pendency of the suit, the Court shall appoint a new guardian in his place.
- [S. 450.] 12. (1) A minor plaintiff or a minor not a party to a suit on whose behalf an application is pending shall, on attaining majority, elect whether he will proceed with the suit or application.
- (2) Where he elects to proceed with the suit or application, he shall apply for an order discharging the next friend and for leave to proceed in his own name.
- (3) The title of the suit or application shall in such case be corrected so as to read thenceforth thus:—
"A. B., late a minor, by C. D., his next friend, but now having attained majority."
- (4) Where he elects to abandon the suit or application, he shall, if a sole plaintiff or sole applicant, apply for an order to dismiss the suit or application on repayment of the costs incurred by the defendant or opposite party or which may have been paid by his next friend.
- [S. 453.] (5) Any application under this rule may be made ex parte: but no order discharging a next friend and permitting a minor plaintiff to proceed in his own name shall be made without notice to the next friend.
- [S. 454.] 13. (1) Where a minor co-plaintiff on attaining majority desires to repudiate the suit, he shall apply to have his name struck out as co-plaintiff; and the Court, if it finds that he is not a necessary party, shall dismiss him from the suit on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.
- (2) Notice of the application shall be served on the next friend, on any co-plaintiff and on the defendant.
- (3) The costs of all parties of such application, and of all or any proceedings theretofore had in the suit, shall be paid by such persons as the Court directs.
- (4) Where the applicant is a necessary party to the suit, the Court may direct him to be made a defendant.
- [S. 455.] 14. (1) A minor on attaining majority may, if a sole plaintiff, apply that a suit instituted in his name by a next friend be dismissed on the ground that it was unreasonable or improper.
- (2) Notice of the application shall be served on all the parties concerned; and the Court, upon being satisfied of such unreasonableness or impropriety, may grant the application and order the next friend to pay the costs of all parties in respect of the application and of anything done in the suit, or make such other order as it thinks fit.
- [Ss. 460, 463.] 15. The provisions contained in rules 1 to 14, so far as they are applicable, shall extend to persons adjudged to be of unsound mind and to persons who though not so adjudged are found by the Court on inquiry, by reason of unsoundness of mind or mental infirmity, to be incapable of protecting their interests when suing or being sued.
- [S. 464.] 16. Nothing in this Order shall apply to a Sovereign Prince or Ruling Chief suing or being sued in the name of his State, or being sued by direction of the Governor General in Council or a Local Government in the name of an agent or in any other name, or shall be construed to affect or in any way derogate from the provisions of any local law for the time being in force relating to suits by or against minors or by or against lunatics or other persons of unsound mind.
- ORDER XXXIII.
- Suits by Paupers.*
1. Subject to the following provisions, any suit may be instituted by a pauper.
- Suits may be instituted by formid pauperis.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXXIII.—Suits by Paupers. Order XXXIV.—Suits relating to Mortgages of Immoveable Property.)

Explanation.—A person is a "pauper" when he is not possessed of sufficient means to enable him to pay the fee prescribed by law for the plaint in such suit, or, where no such fee is prescribed, when he is not entitled to property worth one hundred rupees other than his necessary wearing-apparel and the subject-matter of the suit.

[S. 103.]

2. Every application for permission to sue as a pauper shall contain the particulars required in regard to plaintiffs in suits: a schedule of any moveable or immoveable property belonging to the applicant, with the estimated value thereof, shall be annexed thereto; and it shall be signed and verified in the manner prescribed for the signing and verification of pleadings.

[S. 104.]

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the application shall be presented to the Court by the applicant in person, unless he is exempted from appearing in Court, in which case the application may be presented by an authorized agent who can answer all material questions relating to the application, and who may be examined in the same manner as the party represented by him might have been examined had such party attended in person.

[S. 406.]

4. (1) Where the application is in proper form and duly presented, the Court may, if it thinks fit, examine the applicant, or his agent when the applicant is allowed to appear by agent, regarding the merits of the claim and the property of the applicant.

(a) Where the application is presented by an agent, the Court may, if it thinks fit, order that the applicant be examined by a commission in the manner in which the examination of an absent witness may be taken.

5. The Court shall reject an application for permission to sue as a pauper—

[S. 407.]

(a) where it is not framed and presented in the manner prescribed by rules 2 and 3, or

[S. 405.]

(b) where the applicant is not a pauper, or

(c) where he has, within two months next before the presentation of the application, disposed of any property fraudulently or in order to be able to apply for permission to sue as a pauper, or

(d) where his allegations do not show a cause of action, or

(e) where he has entered into any agreement with reference to the subject-matter of the proposed suit under which any other person has obtained an interest in such subject-matter.

[S. 408.]

6. Where the Court sees no reason to reject the application on any of the grounds stated in rule 5, it shall fix a day (of which at least ten days' clear notice shall be given to the opposite party and the Government pleader) for receiving such evidence as the applicant may adduce in proof of his pauperism, and for hearing any evidence which may be adduced in disproof thereof.

[S. 109.]

7. (1) On the day so fixed or as soon thereafter as may be convenient, the Court shall examine the witnesses (if any) produced by either party, and may examine the applicant or his agent, and shall make a memorandum of the substance of their evidence.

(2) The Court shall also hear any argument which the parties may desire to offer on the question whether, on the face of the application and of the evidence (if any) taken by the Court as herein provided, the applicant is or is not subject to any of the prohibitions specified in rule 5.

(3) The Court shall then either allow or refuse to allow the applicant to sue as a pauper.

8. Where the application is granted, it shall be numbered and registered, and shall be deemed the plaint in the suit, and the suit shall proceed in all other respects as a suit instituted in the ordinary manner, except that the plaintiff shall not be liable to pay any court-fee (other than fees payable for service of process) in respect of any petition, appointment of a pleader or other proceeding connected with the suit.

9. The Court may, on the application of the defendant, or of the Government pleader, of which seven days' clear notice in writing has been given to the plaintiff, order the plaintiff to be dispaupered—

(a) if he is guilty of vexatious or improper conduct in the course of the suit;

(b) if it appears that his means are such that he ought not to continue to sue as a pauper; or

(c) if he has entered into any agreement with reference to the subject-matter of the suit, under which any other person has obtained an interest in such subject-matter.

10. Where the plaintiff succeeds in the suit, the Court shall calculate the amount of court-fees which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper; such amount shall be recoverable by the Government from any party ordered by the decree to pay the same, and shall be a first charge on the subject-matter of the suit.

Costs where pauper succeeds.

11. Where the plaintiff fails in the suit or is dispaupered, or where the suit is withdrawn or dismissed,—

(a) because the summons for the defendant to appear and answer has not been served upon him in consequence of the failure of the plaintiff to pay the court-fee or postal charges (if any) chargeable for such service, or

(b) because the plaintiff does not appear when the suit is called on for hearing, the Court shall order the plaintiff, or any person added as a co-plaintiff to the suit, to pay the court-fees which would have been paid by the plaintiff if he had not been permitted to sue as a pauper.

12. The Government shall have the right at any time to apply to the Court to make an order for the payment of court-fees under rule 10 or rule 11.

13. All matters arising between the Government and any party to the suit under rule 10, rule 11 or rule 12 shall be deemed to be questions arising between the parties to the suit within the meaning of section 47.

14. Where an order is made under rule 10, rule 11 or rule 12, the Court shall forthwith cause a copy of the decree to be forwarded to the Collector.

15. An order refusing to allow the applicant to sue as a pauper shall be a bar to any subsequent application of the like nature by him in respect of the same right to sue; but the applicant shall be at liberty to institute a suit in the ordinary manner in respect of such right, provided that he first pays the costs (if any) incurred by the Government and by the opposite party in opposing his application to leave to sue as a pauper.

16. The costs of an application for permission to sue as a pauper and of an inquiry into pauperism shall be costs in the suit.

ORDER XXXIV.

Suits relating to Mortgages of Immoveable Property.

1. Subject to the provisions of this Code, all persons having an interest either in the mortgage-security or in the right of redemption shall be joined as parties to any suit relating to the mortgage.

Parties to suits for foreclosure, sale and redemption.

(Order XXXVI.—Special Case. Order XXXVII.—Summary Procedure on Negotiable Instruments. Order XXXVIII.—Arrest and Attachment before Judgment.)

ORDER XXXVI.

Special Case.

[S. 527.]

1. (1) Parties claiming to be interested in the decision of any question of fact or law may enter into an agreement in writing stating such question in the form of a case for the opinion of the Court, and providing that, upon the finding of the Court with respect to such question,—

(a) a sum of money fixed by the parties or to be determined by the Court shall be paid by one of the parties to the other of them; or

(b) some property, moveable or immovable, specified in the agreement, shall be delivered by one of the parties to the other of them; or

(c) one or more of the parties shall do, or refrain from doing, some other particular act specified in the agreement.

(2) Every case stated under this rule shall be divided into consecutively numbered paragraphs, and shall concisely state such facts and specify such documents as may be necessary to enable the Court to decide the question raised thereby.

[S. 528.]

2. Where the agreement is for the delivery of any property, or for the doing, or the refraining from doing, any particular act, the estimated value of the property to be delivered, or to which the act specified has reference, shall be stated in the agreement.

[S. 529.]

3. (1) The agreement, if framed in accordance with the rules hereinbefore contained, may be filed in the Court which would have jurisdiction to entertain a suit, the amount or value of the subject-matter of which is the same as the amount or value of the subject-matter of the agreement.

(2) The agreement, when so filed, shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or more of the parties claiming to be interested as plaintiff or plaintiffs, and the other or others of them as defendant or defendants; and notice shall be given to all the parties to the agreement, other than the party or parties by whom it was presented.

4. Where the agreement has been filed, the parties to it shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and shall be bound by the statements contained therein.

[S. 531.]

5. (1) The case shall be set down for hearing as a suit instituted in the ordinary manner, and the provisions of this Code shall apply to such suit so far as the same are applicable.

(2) Where the Court is satisfied, after examination of the parties, or after taking such evidence as it thinks fit,—

(a) that the agreement was duly executed by them,

(b) that they have a bona fide interest in the question stated therein, and

(c) that the same is fit to be decided, it shall proceed to pronounce judgment thereon, in the same way as in an ordinary suit, and upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow.

ORDER XXXVII.

Summary Procedure on Negotiable Instruments.

[S. 533.]

1. This Order shall apply only to—

(a) the High Courts of Judicature at Fort William, Madras and Bombay;

(b) the Chief Court of Lower Burma;

(c) the Court of the Judicial Commissioner of Sind; and

[1 of 84]

(d) any other Court to which sections 532 to 537 of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1889, have been already applied.

2. (1) All suits upon bills of exchange, hundis or promissory notes may, in case the plaintiff desires to proceed hereunder, be instituted by presenting a plaint in the form prescribed; but the summons shall be in Form No. 4 in Appendix B or in such other form as may be from time to time prescribed. [S. 532.]

Institution of summary suits upon bills of exchange, etc.

(2) In any case in which the plaint and summons are in such forms, respectively, the defendant shall not appear or defend the suit unless he obtains leave from a Judge as hereinafter provided so to appear and defend; and, in default of his obtaining such leave or of his appearance and defence in pursuance thereof, the allegations in the plaint shall be deemed to be admitted, and the plaintiff shall be entitled to a decree for any sum not exceeding the sum mentioned in the summons, together with interest at the rate specified (if any) to the date of the decree, and such sum for costs as may be prescribed, unless the plaintiff claims more than such fixed sum, in which case the costs shall be ascertained in the ordinary way, and such decree may be executed forthwith.

3. (1) The Court shall, upon application by the defendant, give leave to appear and defend the suit, upon affidavits which disclose such facts as would make it incumbent on the holder to prove consideration, or such other facts as the Court may deem sufficient to support the application. [S. 533.]

(2) Leave to defend may be given unconditionally or subject to such terms as to payment into Court, giving security, framing and recording issues or otherwise as the Court thinks fit.

4. After decree the Court may, under special circumstances, set aside the decree, and if necessary stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to the defendant to appear to the summons and to defend the suit, if it seems reasonable to the Court so to do, and on such terms as the Court thinks fit.

5. After decree the Court may, under special circumstances, set aside the decree, and if necessary stay or set aside execution, and may give leave to the defendant to appear to the summons and to defend the suit, if it seems reasonable to the Court so to do, and on such terms as the Court thinks fit. [S. 534.]

Power to set aside decree.

6. In any proceeding under this Order the Court may order the bill, hundi or note on which the suit is founded to be forthwith deposited with an officer of the Court, and may further order that all proceedings shall be stayed until the plaintiff gives security for the costs thereof. [S. 535.]

Power to order bill, etc., to be deposited with officer of Court.

7. The holder of every dishonoured bill of exchange or promissory note shall have the same remedies for the recovery of the expenses incurred in noting the same for non-acceptance or non-payment, or otherwise, by reason of such dishonour, as he has under this Order for the recovery of the amount of such bill or note. [S. 536.]

Recovery of cost of noting non-acceptance of dishonoured bill or note.

8. Save as provided by this Order, the procedure in suits hereunder shall be the same as the procedure in suits instituted in the ordinary manner. [S. 537.]

Procedure in suits.

ORDER XXXVIII.

1. Where at any stage of a suit, other than a suit of the nature referred to in section 16, clauses (a) to (d), the Court is satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise,— [S. 477.]

Where defendant may be called upon to furnish security for appearance.

(a) that the defendant, with intent to delay the plaintiff, or to avoid any process of the

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The First Schedule.)(Order XXXVIII.—Arrest and Attachment before Judgment.)

Court or to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him,—

- (i) has absconded or left the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, or
- (ii) is about to abscond or leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, or
- (iii) has disposed of or removed from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court his property or any part thereof, or

- (b) that the defendant is about to leave British India under circumstances affording reasonable probability that the plaintiff will or may thereby be obstructed or delayed in the execution of any decree that may be passed against the defendant in the suit,

[S. 478.] the Court may issue a warrant to arrest the defendant and bring him before the Court to show cause why he should not furnish security for his appearance :

Provided that the defendant shall not be arrested if he pays to the officer entrusted with the execution of the warrant any sum specified in the warrant as sufficient to satisfy the plaintiff's claim ; and such sum shall be held in deposit by the Court until the suit is disposed of or until the further order of the Court.

[S. 479.] 2. (1) Where the defendant fails to show such cause the Court shall order him either to deposit in Court money or other property sufficient to answer the claim against him, or to furnish security for his appearance at any time when called upon while the suit is pending and until satisfaction of any decree that may be passed against him in the suit, or make such order as it thinks fit in regard to the sum which may have been paid by the defendant under the proviso to the last preceding rule.

(2) Every surety for the appearance of a defendant shall bind himself, in default of such appearance, to pay any sum of money which the defendant may be ordered to pay in the suit.

[S. 480.] 3. (1) A surety for the appearance of a defendant may at any time apply to the Court in which he became such surety to be discharged from his obligation.

(2) On such application being made, the Court shall summon the defendant to appear or, if it thinks fit, may issue a warrant for his arrest in the first instance.

(3) On the appearance of the defendant in pursuance of the summons or warrant, or on his voluntary surrender, the Court shall direct the surety to be discharged from his obligation, and shall call upon the defendant to find fresh security.

[S. 481.] 4. Where the defendant fails to comply with any order under rule 2 or rule 3, the Court may commit him to the civil prison until the decision of the suit or, where a decree is passed against the defendant, until the decree has been satisfied:

Provided that no person shall be detained in prison under this rule in any case for a longer period than six months, nor for a longer period than six weeks when the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit does not exceed fifty rupees :

Provided also that no person shall be detained in prison under this rule after he has complied with such order.

5. (1) Where, at any stage of a suit, the Court is [Ss. 483, 48.]

satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, that the defendant, with intent to obstruct or delay the execution of any decree that may be passed against him,—

(a) is about to dispose of the whole or any part of his property, or

(b) is about to remove the whole or any part of his property from the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court, the Court may direct the defendant, within a time to be fixed by it, either to furnish security, in such sum as may be specified in the order, to produce and place at the disposal of the Court, when required the said property or the value of the same, or such portion thereof as may be sufficient to satisfy the decree, or to appear and show cause why he should not furnish security.

(2) The plaintiff shall, unless the Court otherwise directs, specify the property required to be attached and the estimated value thereof.

(3) The Court may also in the order direct the conditional attachment of the whole or any portion of the property so specified.

6. (1) Where the defendant fails to show cause why he should not furnish security, or fails to furnish the security required, within the time fixed by the Court, the Court may order that the property specified, or such portion thereof as appears sufficient to satisfy any decree which may be passed in the suit, be attached.

(2) Where the defendant shows such cause or furnishes the required security, and the property specified or any portion of it has been attached, the Court shall order the attachment to be withdrawn, or make such other order as it thinks fit.

7. Save as otherwise expressly provided, the attachment shall be made in the manner provided for the attachment of property in execution of a decree. [S. 480.]

8. Where any claim is preferred to property attached before judgment, such claim shall be investigated in the manner hereinbefore provided for the investigation of claims to property attached in execution of a decree for the payment of money. [S. 487.]

9. Where an order is made for attachment before judgment, the Court shall order the attachment to be withdrawn when the defendant furnishes the security required, together with security for the costs of the attachment, or when the suit is dismissed. [S. 488.]

10. Attachment before judgment shall not affect the rights, existing prior to the attachment, of persons not parties to the suit, nor bar any person holding a decree against the defendant from applying for the sale of the property under attachment in execution of such decree. [S. 489.]

11. Where property is under attachment by virtue of the provisions of this Order and a decree is subsequently passed in favour of the plaintiff, it shall not be necessary upon an application for execution of such decree to apply for a re-attachment of the property. [S. 490.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.
(The First Schedule.)
(Order XLI.—Appeals from Original Decrees.)

Procedure on admission of appeal.

[S. 548.] 9. (1) Where a memorandum of appeal is admitted, the Appellate Court or the proper officer of that Court shall endorse thereon the date of presentation, and shall register the appeal in a book to be kept for the purpose.

(2) Such book shall be called the Register of Appeals.

[S. 549.] 10. (1) The Appellate Court may in its discretion, require appellant to furnish security for costs, answer or afterwards on the application of the respondent, demand from the appellant security for the costs of the appeal, or of the original suit, or of both :

Provided that the Court shall demand such security in all cases in which the appellant is residing out of British India, and is not possessed of any sufficient immoveable property within British India other than the property (if any) to which the appeal relates.

(2) Where such security is not furnished within such time as the Court orders, the Court shall reject the appeal.

[S. 551.] 11. (1) The Appellate Court, after sending for the record if it thinks fit so to do, and after fixing a day for hearing the appellant or his pleader and hearing him accordingly if he appears on that day, may dismiss the appeal without sending notice to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred and without serving notice on the respondent or his pleader.

(2) If on the day fixed or any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned the appellant does not appear when the appeal is called on for hearing, the Court may make an order that the appeal be dismissed.

(3) The dismissal of an appeal under this rule shall be notified to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred.

[S. 552.] 12. (1) Unless the Appellate Court dismisses the appeal under rule 11, it shall fix a day for hearing the appeal.

(2) Such day shall be fixed with reference to the current business of the Court, the place of residence of the respondent, and the time necessary for the service of the notice of appeal, so as to allow the respondent sufficient time to appear and answer the appeal on such day.

[S. 553.] 13. (1) Where the appeal is not dismissed under rule 11, the Appellate Court shall send notice of the appeal to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred.

(2) Where the appeal is from the decree of a Court, the records of which are not deposited in the Appellate Court, the Court receiving such notice shall send with all practicable despatch all material papers in the suit, or such papers as may be specially called for by the Appellate Court.

(3) Either party may apply in writing to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, specifying any of the papers in such Court of which he requires copies to be made; and copies of such papers shall be made at the expense of, and given to, the applicant.

[S. 555.] 14. (1) Notice of the day fixed under rule 12 shall be affixed in the Appellate Court-house, and a like notice shall be sent by the Appellate Court to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, and shall be served on the respondent or on his pleader in the Appellate Court in the manner provided for the service on a defendant of a summons to appear and answer; and all the provisions applicable to such summons, and to proceedings with reference to the service thereof, shall apply to the service of such notice.

(2) Instead of sending the notice to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, the Appellate Court may itself cause notice to be served on the respondent or his pleader under the provisions above referred to.

15. The notice to the respondent shall declare that, if he does not appear in the Appellate Court on the day so fixed, the appeal will be heard ex parte.

[S. 554.]

Procedure on hearing.

16. (1) On the day fixed, or on any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant shall be heard in support of the appeal.

[S. 555.]

(2) The Court shall then, if it does not dismiss the appeal at once, hear the respondent against the appeal, and in such case the appellant shall be entitled to reply.

17. (1) Where on the day fixed, or on any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, the appellant does not appear when the appeal is called on for hearing, the Court may make an order that the appeal be dismissed.

(2) Where the appellant appears and the respondent does not appear, the appeal shall be heard ex parte.

18. Where on the day fixed, or on any other day to which the hearing may be adjourned, it is found that the notice to the respondent has not been served in consequence of the failure of the appellant to deposit, within the period fixed, the sum required to defray the cost of serving the notice, the Court may make an order that the appeal be dismissed ;

Provided that no such order shall be made although the notice has not been served upon the respondent, if on any such day the respondent appears when the appeal is called on for hearing.

19. Where an appeal is dismissed under rule 11, sub-rule (2), or rule 17 or rule 18, the appellant may apply to the Appellate Court for the re-admission of the appeal; and, where it is proved that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing or from depositing the sum so required, the Court shall re-admit the appeal on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit.

[S. 558.]

20. Where it appears to the Court at the hearing that any person who was a party to the suit in the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, but who has not been made a party to the appeal, is interested in the result of the appeal, the Court may adjourn the hearing to a future day to be fixed by the Court and direct that such person be made a respondent.

[S. 559.]

21. Where an appeal is heard ex parte and judgment is pronounced against the respondent, he may apply to the Appellate Court to re-hear the appeal; and, if he satisfies the Court that the notice was not duly served or that he was prevented by sufficient cause from appearing when the appeal was called on for hearing, the Court shall re-hear the appeal on such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit to impose upon him.

[S. 560.]

22. (1) Any respondent, though he may not have appealed from any part of the decree, may not only support the decree on any of the grounds decided against him in the Court below, but take

[S. 561.]

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.
(The First Schedule.)

any cross-objection to the decree which he could have taken by way of appeal, provided he has filed such objection in the Appellate Court within one month from the date of service on him or his pleader of notice of the day fixed for hearing the appeal, or within such further time as the Appellate Court may see fit to allow.

(2) Such cross-objection shall be in the form of a memorandum, and the provisions of rule 1, so far as they relate to the form and contents of the memorandum of appeal, shall apply thereto.

(3) Unless the respondent files with the objection a written acknowledgment from the party who may be affected by such objection or his pleader of having received a copy thereof, the Appellate Court shall cause a copy to be served, as soon as may be after the filing of the objection, on such party or his pleader at the expense of the respondent.

(4) Where, in any case in which any respondent has under this rule filed a memorandum of objection, the original appeal is withdrawn or is dismissed for default, the objection so filed may nevertheless be heard and determined after such notice to the other parties as the Court thinks fit.

(5) The provisions relating to pauper appeals shall, so far as they can be made applicable, apply to an objection under this rule.

[S. 562.]

23. Where the Court from whose decree an appeal is preferred has disposed of the case by a judgment, and the decree is reversed in appeal, the Appellate Court may, if it thinks fit, by order remand the case, and may further direct what issue or issues shall be tried in the case so remanded, and shall send a copy of its judgment and order to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, with directions to re-admit the suit under its original number in the register of civil suits, and proceed to determine the suit; and the evidence (if any) recorded during the original trial shall, subject to all just exceptions, be evidence during the trial after remand.

[S. 563.]

24. Where the evidence upon the record is sufficient to enable the Appellate Court to pronounce judgment, the Appellate Court may, after resettling the issues, if necessary, finally determine the suit, notwithstanding that the judgment of the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred has proceeded wholly upon some ground other than that on which the Appellate Court proceeds.

[S. 566.]

25. Where the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred has omitted to frame or try any issue, or to determine any question of fact, which appears to the Appellate Court essential to the right decision of the suit upon the merits, the Appellate Court may, if necessary, frame issues, and refer the same for trial to the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, and in such case shall cause such Court to take the additional evidence required; and such Court shall proceed to try such issues, and shall return the evidence to the Appellate Court together with its findings thereon and the reasons therefor.

[S. 567.]

26. (1) Such evidence and findings shall form part of the record in the suit; and either party may, within a time to be fixed by the Appellate Court, present a memorandum of objections to any finding.

(2) After the expiration of the period so fixed for presenting such memorandum the Appellate Court shall proceed to determine the appeal.

27. (1) The parties to an appeal shall not be entitled to produce additional evidence, whether oral or documentary, in the Appellate Court. But if—

(a) the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred has refused to admit evidence which ought to have been admitted, or

(b) the Appellate Court requires any document to be produced or any witness to be examined to enable it to pronounce judgment, or for any other substantial cause, the Appellate Court may allow such evidence or document to be produced, or witness to be examined.

(2) Wherever additional evidence is allowed to be produced by an Appellate Court, the Court shall record the reason for its admission.

28. Wherever additional evidence is allowed to be produced, the Appellate Court may either take such evidence, or direct the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, or any other subordinate Court, to take such evidence and to send it when taken to the Appellate Court.

29. Where additional evidence is directed or allowed to be taken, the Appellate Court shall specify the points to which the evidence is to be confined, and record on its proceedings the points so specified.

Judgment in appeal.

30. The Appellate Court, after hearing the parties or their pleaders and referring to any part of the proceedings, whether on appeal or in the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, to which reference may be considered necessary, shall pronounce judgment in open Court, either at once or on some future day, of which notice shall be given to the parties or their pleaders.

31. The judgment of the Appellate Court shall be in writing and shall state—

(a) the points for determination;

(b) the decision thereon;

(c) the reasons for the decision; and

(d) where the decree appealed from is reversed or varied, the relief to which the appellant is entitled;

and shall at the time that it is pronounced be signed and dated by the Judge or by the Judges concurring therein.

32. The judgment may be for confirming, varying or reversing the decree from which the appeal is preferred, or, if the parties to the appeal agree as to the form which the decree in appeal shall take, or as to the order to be made in appeal, the Appellate Court may pass a decree or make an order accordingly.

33. The Appellate Court shall have power to pass any decree and make any order which ought to have been passed or made and to pass or make such further or other decree or order as the case may require, and this power may be exercised by the Court notwithstanding that the appeal is as to part only of the decree and may be exercised in favour of all or any of the respondents or parties, although such respondents or parties may not have filed any appeal or objection.

Illustration.

A claims a sum of money as due to him from X or Y, and in a suit against both obtains a decree against X. X appeals and A and Y are respondents. The Appellate Court decides in favour of X. It has power to pass a decree against Y.

[S. 576.] 34. Where the appeal is heard by more Judges than one, any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court shall state in writing the decision or order which he thinks should be passed on the appeal, and he may state his reasons for the same.

Decree in appeal.

[S. 579.] 35. (1) The decree of the Appellate Court shall bear date the day on which the judgment was pronounced.

(2) The decree shall contain the number of the appeal, the names and descriptions of the appellant and respondent, and a clear specification of the relief granted or other adjudication made.

(3) The decree shall also state the amount of costs incurred in the appeal, and by whom, or out of what property, and in what proportions such costs and the costs in the suit are to be paid.

(4) The decree shall be signed and dated by the Judge or Judges who passed it:

Provided that where there are more Judges than one and there is a difference of opinion among them, it shall not be necessary for any Judge dissenting from the judgment of the Court to sign the decree.

[S. 580.] 36. Certified copies of the judgment and decree in appeal shall be furnished to the parties on application to the Appellate Court and at their expense.

[S. 581.] 37. A copy of the judgment and of the decree, certified by the Appellate Court or such officer as it appoints in this behalf, shall be sent to the Court which passed the decree appealed from and shall be filed with the original proceedings in the suit, and an entry of the judgment of the Appellate Court shall be made in the register of civil suits.

ORDER XLII.Appeals from Appellate Decrees.

1. The rules of Order XLI shall apply, so far as may be, to appeals from appellate decrees.

ORDER XLIII.Appeals from Orders.

[S. 590.] 1. An appeal shall lie from the following orders under the provisions of section 104, namely:—

- (a) An order under rule 10 of Order VII returning a plaint to be presented to the proper Court;
- (b) an order under rule 10 of Order VIII pronouncing judgment against a party;
- (c) an order under rule 9 of Order IX rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside the dismissal of a suit;
- (d) an order under rule 13 of Order IX rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside a decree passed ex parte;
- (e) an order under rule 4 of Order X pronouncing judgment against a party;
- (f) an order under rule 21 of Order XI;
- (g) an order under rule 10 of Order XVI for the attachment of property;
- (h) an order under rule 20 of Order XVI pronouncing judgment against a party;
- (i) an order under rule 34 of Order XXI on an objection to the draft of a document or of an endorsement;
- (j) an order under rule 72 or rule 92 of Order XXI setting aside or refusing to set aside a sale;
- (k) an order under rule 9 of Order XXII refusing to set aside the abatement or dismissal of a suit;

- (l) an order under rule 10 of Order XXII giving or refusing to give leave;
- (m) an order under rule 3 of Order XXIII recording or refusing to record an agreement, compromise or satisfaction;
- (n) an order under rule 2 of Order XXV rejecting an application (in a case open to appeal) for an order to set aside the dismissal of a suit;
- (o) an order under rule 3 or rule 8 of Order XXXIV refusing to extend the time for the payment of mortgage-money;
- (p) orders in interpleader-suits under rule 3, rule 4 or rule 6 of Order XXXV;
- (q) an order under rule 2, rule 3 or rule 6 of Order XXXVIII;
- (r) an order under rule 1, rule 2, rule 4 or rule 10 of Order XXXIX;
- (s) an order under rule 1 or rule 4 of Order XL;
- (t) an order of refusal under rule 19 of Order XLI to re-admit, or under rule 21 of Order XLI to re-hear, an appeal;
- (u) an order under rule 23 of Order XLI remanding a case, where an appeal would lie from the decree of the Appellate Court;
- (v) an order made by any Court other than a High Court refusing the grant of a certificate under rule 6 of Order XLV;
- (w) an order under rule 4 of Order XLVII granting an application for review.

2. The rules of Order XLI shall apply, so far as may be, to appeals from orders.

[S. 590.]

ORDER XLIV.Pauper Appeals.

1. Any person entitled to prefer an appeal, who is unable to pay the fee required for the memorandum of appeal, may present an application accompanied by a memorandum of appeal, and may be allowed to appeal as a pauper, subject, in all matters including the presentation of such application, to the provisions relating to suits by paupers, in so far as those provisions are applicable.

[S. 592.]

Provided that the Court shall reject the application unless, upon a perusal thereof and of the judgment and decree appealed from, it sees reason to think that the decree is contrary to law or to some usage having the force of law, or is otherwise erroneous or unjust.

2. The inquiry into the pauperism of the applicant may be made either by the Appellate Court or under the orders of the Appellate Court by the Court from whose decision the appeal is preferred.

[S. 593.]

Provided that, if the applicant was allowed to sue or appeal as a pauper in the Court from whose decree the appeal is preferred, no further inquiry in respect of his pauperism shall be necessary, unless the Appellate Court sees cause to direct such inquiry.

ORDER XLV.Appeals to the King in Council.

1. In this Order, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context, the expression "decree" shall include a final order.

[S. 594.]

2. Whoever desires to appeal to His Majesty in Council shall apply by petition to the Court whose decree is complained of.

[S. 595.]

3. (1) Every petition shall state the grounds of appeal and pray for a certificate either that, as regards amount or value and nature, the case fulfils the requirements of section 110, or that it is otherwise a fit one for appeal to His Majesty in Council.

[S. 596.]

(2) Upon receipt of such petition, the Court shall direct notice to be served on the opposite party to show cause why the said certificate should not be granted.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.

(The First Schedule.)

(Order XLV.—Appeals to the King in Council.)

[New.]

4. For the purposes of pecuniary valuation, suits involving substantially the same questions for determination and decided by the same judgment may be consolidated: but suits decided by separate judgments shall not be consolidated, notwithstanding that they involve substantially the same questions for determination.

[New.]

5. In the event of any dispute arising between the parties as to the amount or value of the subject-matter of the suit in the Court of first instance, or as to the amount or value of the subject-matter in dispute on appeal to His Majesty in Council, the Court to which a petition for a certificate is made under rule 2 may, if it thinks fit, refer such dispute for report to the Court of first instance, which last-mentioned Court shall proceed to determine such amount or value and shall return its report together with the evidence to the Court by which the reference was made.

[S. 601.]

Effect of refusal of certificate. 6. Where such certificate is refused, the petition shall be dismissed.

[S. 602.]

7. (1) Where the certificate is granted, the applicant shall, within six months from the date of the decree complained of, or within six weeks from the date of the grant of the certificate, whichever is the later date,—

(a) furnish security for the costs of the respondent, and

(b) deposit the amount required to defray the expense of translating, transcribing, indexing and transmitting to His Majesty in Council a correct copy of the whole record of the suit, except—

(1) formal documents directed to be excluded by any order of His Majesty in Council in force for the time being;

(2) papers which the parties agree to exclude;

(3) accounts, or portions of accounts, which the officer empowered by the Court for that purpose considers unnecessary, and which the parties have not specifically asked to be included; and

(4) such other documents as the High Court may direct to be excluded.

(2) Where the applicant prefers to print in India the copy of the record, except as aforesaid, he shall also, within the time mentioned in sub-rule (1), deposit the amount required to defray the expense of printing such copy.

[S. 603.]

8. Where such security has been furnished and admission of appeal deposit made to the satisfaction and procedure thereon of the Court, the Court shall—

(a) declare the appeal admitted,

(b) give notice thereof to the respondent,

(c) transmit to His Majesty in Council under the seal of the Court a correct copy of the said record, except as aforesaid, and

(d) give to either party one or more authenticated copies of any of the papers in the suit on his applying therefor and paying the reasonable expenses incurred in preparing them.

[S. 604.]

9. At any time before the admission of the appeal, the Court may, upon cause shown, revoke the acceptance of any such security, and make further directions thereon.

[S. 605.]

10. Where at any time after the admission of an appeal, but before the transmission of the copy of the record, except as aforesaid, to His Majesty in Council, such security appears inadequate, or further payment is required for the purpose of translating, transcribing, printing, indexing or transmitting the copy of the record, except as aforesaid, the Court may order the appellant to furnish, within a time to be fixed by the Court, other and sufficient security, or to make, within like time, the required payment.

11. Where the appellant fails to comply with such order, the proceedings shall be stayed, and the appeal shall not proceed without an order in this behalf of His Majesty in Council, and in the meantime execution of the decree appealed from shall not be stayed.

12. When the copy of the record, except as aforesaid, has been transmitted to His Majesty in Council, the appellant may obtain a refund of the balance (if any) of the amount which he has deposited under rule 7.

13. (1) Notwithstanding the grant of a certificate for the admission of any appeal, the decree appealed from shall be unconditionally executed, unless the Court otherwise directs.

[S. 608.]

(2) The Court may, if it thinks fit, on special cause shown by any party interested in the suit, or otherwise appearing to the Court,—

(a) impound any moveable property in dispute or any part thereof, or

(b) allow the decree appealed from to be executed, taking such security from the respondent as the Court thinks fit for the due performance of any order which His Majesty in Council may make on the appeal, or

(c) stay the execution of the decree appealed from, taking such security from the appellant as the Court thinks fit for the due performance of the decree appealed from, or of any order which His Majesty in Council may make on the appeal, or

(d) place any party seeking the assistance of the Court under such conditions or give such other direction respecting the subject-matter of the appeal, as it thinks fit, by the appointment of a receiver or otherwise.

14. (1) Where at any time during the pendency of the appeal the security furnished by either party appears inadequate, the Court may, on the application of the other party, require further security.

[S. 609.]

(2) In default of such further security being furnished as required by the Court,—

(a) if the original security was furnished by the appellant, the Court may, on the application of the respondent, execute the decree appealed from as if the appellant had furnished no such security;

(b) if the original security was furnished by the respondent, the Court shall, so far as may be practicable stay the further execution of the decree, and restore the parties to the position in which they respectively were when the security which appears inadequate was furnished, or give such direction respecting the subject-matter of the appeal as it thinks fit.

15. (1) Whoever desires to obtain execution of any order of His Majesty in Council shall apply by petition, accompanied by a certified copy of the decree passed or order made in appeal and sought to be executed, to the Court from which the appeal to His Majesty was preferred.

[S. 610.]

(2) Such Court shall transmit the order of His Majesty in Council to the Court which passed the first decree appealed from, or to such other Court as His Majesty in Council by such order may direct, and shall upon the application of either party give such directions as may be required for the execution of the same, and the Court to which the said order is so transmitted shall execute it accordingly, in the manner and according to the provisions applicable to the execution of its original decrees.

(3) When any monies expressed to be payable in British currency are payable in India under such order, the amount so payable shall be estimated according to the rate of exchange for the time being fixed at the date of the making of the order by the Secretary of State for India in Council with the concurrence of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury for the adjustment of financial transactions between the Imperial and the Indian Governments.

[S. 611.]

16. The orders made by the Court which executes the order of His Majesty in Council, relating to such execution, shall be appealable in the same manner and subject to the same rules as the orders of such Court relating to the execution of its own decrees.

ORDER XLVI.Reference.

[S. 617.]

1. Where, before or on the hearing of a suit or an appeal in which the decree is not subject to appeal, or where, in the execution of any such decree, any question of law or usage having the force of law arises, on which the Court trying the suit or appeal, or executing the decree, entertains reasonable doubt, the Court may, either of its own motion or on the application of any of the parties, draw up a statement of the facts of the case and the point on which doubt is entertained, and refer such statement with its own opinion on the point for the decision of the High Court.

[S. 618.]

2. The Court may either stay the proceedings or proceed in the case notwithstanding such reference, and may pass a decree or make an order contingent upon the decision of the High Court on the point referred;

but no decree or order shall be executed in any case in which such reference is made until the receipt of a copy of the judgment of the High Court upon the reference.

[S. 619.]

3. The High Court, after hearing the parties if they appear and desire to be heard, shall decide the point so referred, and shall transmit a copy of its judgment, under the signature of the Registrar, to the Court by which the reference was made; and such Court shall, on the receipt thereof, proceed to dispose of the case in conformity with the decision of the High Court.

[S. 620.]

4. The costs (if any) consequent on a reference for the decision of the High Court shall be costs in the case.

[S. 621.]

5. Where a case is referred to the High Court under rule 1, the High Court may return the case for amendment, and may alter, cancel or set aside any decree or order which the Court making the reference has passed or made in the case out of which the reference arose, and make such order as it thinks fit.

[S. 622.]

6. (1) Where at any time before judgment a Court in which a suit has been instituted doubts whether the suit is cognizable by a Court of Small Causes or is not so cognizable, it may submit the record to the High Court with a statement of its reasons for the doubt as to the nature of the suit.

(2) On receiving the record and statement, the High Court may order the Court either to proceed with the suit or to return the plaint for presentation to such other Court as it may in its order declare to be competent to take cognizance of the suit.

7. (1) Where it appears to a District Court that a

Power to District Court to submit for revision proceedings had under mistake as to jurisdiction in small causes.

Court subordinate thereto has, by reason of erroneously holding a suit to be cognizable by a Court of Small Causes or not to be so cognizable, failed to exercise a jurisdiction vested in it by law, or exercised a jurisdiction not so vested, the District Court may, and if required by a party shall, submit the record to the High Court with a statement of its reasons for considering the opinion of the subordinate Court with respect to the nature of the suit to be erroneous.

(2) On receiving the record and statement the High Court may make such order in the case as it thinks fit.

(3) With respect to any proceedings subsequent to decree in any case submitted to the High Court under this rule, the High Court may make such order as in the circumstance appears to it to be just and proper.

(4) A Court subordinate to a District Court shall comply with any requisition which the District Court may make for any record or information for the purposes of this rule.

ORDER XLVII.Review.

1. (1) Any person considering himself aggrieved

[S. 624.]

Application for review of judgment.

(a) by a decree or order from which an appeal is allowed, but from which no appeal has been preferred,

(b) by a decree or order from which no appeal is allowed, or

(c) by a decision on a reference from a Court of Small Causes, and who, from the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence, was not within his knowledge or could not be produced by him at the time when the decree was passed or order made, or on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record, or for any other sufficient reason, desires to obtain a review of the decree passed or order made against him, may apply for a review of judgment to the Court which passed the decree or made the order.

(2) A party who is not appealing from a decree or order may apply for a review of judgment notwithstanding the pendency of an appeal by some other party except where the ground of such appeal is common to the applicant and the appellant, or when, being respondent, he can present to the Appellate Court the case on which he applies for the review.

2. An application for review of a decree or order of a Court, not being a High Court, upon some ground other than the discovery of such new and important matter or evidence as is referred to in rule 1 or the existence of a clerical or arithmetical mistake or error apparent on the face of the decree, shall be made only to the Judge who passed the decree or made the order sought to be reviewed; but any such application may, if the Judge who passed the decree or made the order has ordered notice to issue under rule 4, sub-rule (2), proviso (a), be disposed of by his successor.

3. The provisions as to the form of preferring appeals shall apply, mutatis mutandis to applications for review.

4. (1) Where it appears to the Court that there is not sufficient ground for a review, it shall reject the application.

[S. 627.]

(2) Where the Court is of opinion that the application for review should be granted, it shall grant the same.

Provided that—

(a) no such application shall be granted without previous notice to the opposite party, to enable

(Order XLVII.—Review. Order XLVIII.—Miscellaneous. Order XLIX.—Chartered High Courts. Order L.—Provincial Small Cause Courts.)

him to appear and be heard in support of the decree or order, a review of which is applied for : and

(b) no such application shall be granted on the ground of discovery of new matter or evidence which the applicant alleges was not within his knowledge, or could not be adduced by him when the decree or order was passed or made, without strict proof of such allegation.

5. Where the Judge or Judges, or any one of the Judges, who passed the decree or made the order, a review of which is applied for, continues or continue attached to the Court at the time when the application for a review is presented, and is not or are not precluded by absence or other cause for a period of six months next after the application from considering the decree or order to which the application refers, such Judge or Judges or any of them shall hear the application, and no other Judge or Judges of the Court shall hear the same.

[S. 628.]

6. (1) Where the application for a review is heard by more than one Judge and the Court is equally divided, the application shall be rejected.

(2) Where there is a majority, the decision shall be according to the opinion of the majority.

[S. 629.]

7. (1) An order of the Court rejecting the application shall not be appealable; but an order granting an application may be objected to on the ground that the application was—

- (a) in contravention of the provisions of rule 2,
- (b) in contravention of the provisions of rule 4, or
- (c) after the expiration of the period of limitation prescribed therefor and without sufficient cause.

Such objection may be taken at once by an appeal from the order granting the application or in any appeal from the final decree or order passed or made in the suit.

(2) Where the application has been rejected in consequence of the failure of the applicant to appear, he may apply for an order to have the rejected application restored to the file, and, where it is proved to the satisfaction of the Court that he was prevented by any sufficient cause from appearing when such application was called on for hearing, the Court shall order it to be restored to the file upon such terms as to costs or otherwise as it thinks fit, and shall appoint a day for hearing the same.

(3) No order shall be made under sub-rule (2) unless notice of the application has been served on the opposite party.

[S. 630.]

8. When an application for review is granted, a note thereof shall be made in the Registry of application granted, and order for re-hearing, and the Court may at once re-hear the case or make such order in regard to the re-hearing as it thinks fit.

[S. 630, last para.]

9. No application to review an order made on an application for a review or a decree or order passed or made on a review shall be entertained.

ORDER XLVIII.

Miscellaneous.

[S. 93.]

1. (1) Every process issued under this Code shall be served at the expense of the party on whose behalf it is issued, unless the Court otherwise directs.

(2) The court-fee chargeable for such service shall be paid within a time to be fixed before the process is issued.

2. All orders, notices and other documents required by this Code to be given to or served on any person shall be served in the manner provided for the service of summonses.

3. The forms given in the appendices, with such variation as the circumstances of each case may require, shall be used for the purposes therein mentioned.

ORDER XLIX.

Chartered High Courts.

1. Notice to produce documents, summonses to witnesses, and every other judicial process, issued in the exercise of the original civil jurisdiction of the High Court, and of its matrimonial, testamentary and intestate jurisdictions, except summonses to defendants, writs of execution and notices to respondents may be served by the attorneys in the suits, or by persons employed by them, or by such other persons as the High Court, by any rule or order, directs.

2. Nothing in this schedule shall be deemed to limit or otherwise affect any rules in force at the commencement of this Code for the taking of evidence or the recording of judgments and orders by a Chartered High Court.

3. The following rules shall not apply to any Chartered High Court in the exercise of its ordinary or extraordinary original civil jurisdiction, namely :—

- (1) rule 10 and rule 11, clauses (b) and (c), of Order VII;
- (2) rule 3 of Order X;
- (3) rule 2 of Order XVI;
- (4) rules 5, 6, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14, 15 and 16 (so far as relates to the manner of taking evidence) of Order XVIII;
- (5) rules 1 to 8 of Order XX; and
- (6) rule 7 of Order XXXIII (so far as relates to the making of a memorandum); and rule 35 of Order XLI shall not apply to any such High Court in the exercise of its appellate jurisdiction.

ORDER L.

Provincial Small Cause Courts.

1. The provisions hereinafter specified shall not extend to Courts constituted under the Provincial Small Causes Courts Act, 1887, or to Courts exercising the jurisdiction of a Court of Small Causes under that Act, that is to say—

(a) so much of this schedule as relates to—

- (i) suits excepted from the cognizance of a Court of Small Causes or the execution of decrees in such suits;
- (ii) the execution of decrees against immoveable property or the interest of a partner in partnership property;
- (iii) the settlement of issues; and

Notice is hereby given _____ been passed by this Court for the sale of the attached property mentioned in the annexed schedule, in satis-
(1) Suit No. _____ of 19 _____, decided by the _____ in which _____ of _____ was plaintiff and _____ was defendant. _____
mentioned in the _____ amounting with costs and interest up to date of sale to the _____

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.
(The First Schedule.—Appendix E.—Execution.)

The sale will be by public auction, and the property will be put up for sale in the lots specified in the schedule. The sale will be of the property of the judgment-debtors above-named as mentioned in the schedule below; and the liabilities and claims attaching to the said property, so far as they have been ascertained, are those specified in the schedule against each lot.

In the absence of any order of postponement, the sale will be held by _____ at the monthly sale commencing at _____ o'clock on the _____ at _____ In the event, however, of the debt above specified and of the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the knocking down of any lot, the sale will be stopped.

At the sale the public generally are invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorized agent. No bid by, or on behalf of, the judgment-creditors above-mentioned, however, will be accepted, nor will any sale to them be valid without the express permission of the Court previously given. The following are the further Conditions of Sale.

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Court, but the Court will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.

2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.

3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Court or officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.

4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it subject always to the provisions of rule 69 of Order XXI.

5. In the case of moveable property, the price of each lot shall be paid for at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer holding the sale directs, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and re-sold.

6. In the case of immoveable property, the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. on the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property shall forthwith be put up again and re-sold.

7. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Court closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.

8. In default of payment of the balance of purchase-money within the period allowed, the property shall be re-sold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit after defraying the expenses of the sale, may, if the Court thinks fit, be forfeited to Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.

ARBITRATION.

Arbitration in Suits.

- [S. 506.] 1. (1) Where in any suit all the parties interested agree that any matter in difference between them shall be referred to arbitration, they may, at any time before judgment is pronounced, apply to the Court for an order of reference.
- Parties to suit may apply for order of reference.
- (2) Every such application shall be in writing and shall state the matter sought to be referred.
- [S. 507.] Appointment of arbitrator.
- [S. 508.] 3. (1) The Court shall, by order, refer to the arbitrator the matter in difference which he is required to determine, and shall fix such time as it thinks reasonable for the making of the award, and shall specify such time in the order.
- Order of reference.
- (2) Where a matter is referred to arbitration, the Court shall not, save in the manner and to the extent provided in this schedule, deal with such matter in the same suit.
- [S. 509.] Where reference is to two or more, order to provide for difference of opinion.
4. (1) Where the reference is to two or more arbitrators, provision shall be made in the order for a difference of opinion among the arbitrators—
- (a) by the appointment of an umpire ; or
- (b) by declaring that, if the majority of the arbitrators agree, the decision of the majority shall prevail ; or
- (c) by empowering the arbitrators to appoint an umpire ; or
- (d) otherwise as may be agreed between the parties or, if they cannot agree, as the Court may determine.
- (2) Where an umpire is appointed, the Court shall fix such time as it thinks reasonable for the making of his award in case he is required to act.
- [S. 510.] Power of Court to appoint arbitrator in certain cases.
- [S. 507 (2).] (a) where the parties cannot agree within a reasonable time with respect to the appointment of an arbitrator, or the person appointed refuses to accept the office of arbitrator, or
- (b) where an arbitrator or umpire—
- [S. 510.] (i) dies, or
- (ii) refuses or neglects to act or becomes incapable of acting, or
- (iii) leaves British India in circumstances showing that he will probably not return at an early date, or
- [S. 511.] (c) where the arbitrators are empowered by the order of reference to appoint an umpire and fail to do so,
- any party may serve the other party or the arbitrators, as the case may be, with a written notice to appoint an arbitrator or umpire.
- (2) If, within seven clear days after such notice has been served or such further time as the Court may in each case allow, no arbitrator or no umpire is appointed, as the case may be, the Court may, on application by the party who gave the notice, and after giving the other party an opportunity of being heard, appoint an arbitrator or umpire or make an order superseding the arbitration, and in such case shall proceed with the suit.
- [S. 512.] Powers of arbitrator or umpire appointed under paragraph 4 or 5.
6. Every arbitrator or umpire appointed under paragraph 4 or paragraph 5 shall have the like powers as if his name had been inserted in the order of reference.
- [S. 513.] 7. (1) The Court shall issue the same processes to the parties and witness whom the arbitrator or umpire desires to examine, as the Court may issue in suits tried before it.
- (2) Persons not attending in accordance with such process, or making any other default, or refusing to give their evidence, or guilty of any contempt to the arbitrator or umpire during the investigation of the matters referred, shall be subject to the like disadvantages, penalties and punishments, by order of the Court on the representation of the arbitrator or umpire, as they would incur for the like offences in suits tried before the Court.
- [S. 514.] 8. Where the arbitrators or the umpire cannot complete the award within the period specified in the order, the Court may, if it thinks fit, either allow further time, and from time to time, either before or after the expiration of the period fixed for the making of the award, enlarge such period ; or may make an order superseding the arbitration, and in such case shall proceed with the suit.
- Extension of time for making award.
- [S. 515.] Where umpire may arbitrate in lieu of arbitrators.
9. Where an umpire has been appointed, he may enter on the reference in the place of the arbitrators,—
- (a) if they have allowed the appointed time to expire without making an award, or
- (b) if they have delivered to the Court or to the umpire a notice in writing stating that they cannot agree.
- [S. 516.] 10. Where an award in a suit has been made, the persons who made it shall sign it and cause it to be filed in Court, together with any depositions and documents which have been taken and proved before them ; and notice of the filing shall be given to the parties.
- Award to be signed and filed.
- [S. 517.] 11. Upon any reference by an order of the Court, the arbitrator or umpire may, with the leave of the Court, state the award as to the whole or any part thereof in the form of a special case for the opinion of
- Statement of special case by arbitrators or umpire.

the Court, and the Court shall deliver its opinion thereon, and shall order such opinion to be added to and to form part of the award.

Power to modify or correct award.

12. The Court may, by order, modify or correct an award,— [S. 518.]

- (a) where it appears that a part of the award is upon a matter not referred to arbitration and such part can be separated from the other part and does not affect the decision on the matter referred ; or
- (b) where the award is imperfect in form, or contains any obvious error which can be amended without affecting such decision ; or
- (c) where the award contains a clerical mistake or an error arising from an accidental slip or omission.

13. The Court may also make such order as it thinks fit respecting the costs of the arbitration where any question arises respecting such costs and the award contains no sufficient provision concerning them. [S. 519.]

Order as to costs of arbitration.

Where award or matter referred to arbitration may be remitted.

14. The Court may remit the award or any matter referred to arbitration to the re-consideration of the same arbitrator or umpire, upon such terms as it thinks fit,— [S. 520.]

- (a) where the award has left undetermined any of the matters referred to arbitration, or where it determines any matter not referred to arbitration, unless such matter can be separated without affecting the determination of the matters referred ;
- (b) where the award is so indefinite as to be incapable of execution ;
- (c) where an objection to the legality of the award is apparent upon the face of it.

15. (1) An award remitted under paragraph 14 becomes void on failure of the arbitrator or umpire to re-consider it. But no award shall be set aside except on one of the following grounds, namely :— [S. 521.]

Grounds for setting aside award.

- (a) corruption or misconduct of the arbitrator or umpire ;
- (b) either party having been guilty of fraudulent concealment of any matter which he ought to have disclosed, or of wilfully misleading or deceiving the arbitrator or umpire ;
- (c) the award having been made after the issue of an order by the Court superseding the arbitration and proceeding with the suit or after the expiration of the period allowed by the Court, or being otherwise invalid.

(2) Where an award becomes void or is set aside under clause (1), the Court shall make an order superseding the arbitration and in such case shall proceed with the suit.

16. (1) Where the Court sees no cause to remit the award or any of the matters referred to arbitration for re-consideration in manner aforesaid, and no application has been made to set aside the award, or the Court has refused such application, the Court shall, after the time for making such application has expired, proceed to pronounce judgment according to the award. [S. 522.]

Judgment to be according to award.

has refused such application, the Court shall, after the time for making such application has expired, proceed to pronounce judgment according to the award.

(2) Upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow, and no appeal shall lie from such decree except in so far as the decree is in excess of, or not in accordance with, the award.

Order of reference on agreements to refer.

17. (1) Where any persons agree in writing that any difference between them shall be referred to arbitration, the parties to the agreement, or any of them, may apply to any Court having jurisdiction in the matter to which the agreement relates, that the agreement be filed in Court. [S. 523.]

Application to file in Court agreement to refer to arbitration.

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between one or more of the parties interested or claiming to be interested as plaintiff or plaintiffs, and the others or other of them as defendants or defendant, if the application has been presented by all the parties, or, if otherwise, between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) On such application being made, the Court shall direct notice thereof to be given to all the parties to the agreement, other than the applicants, requiring such parties to show cause, within the time specified in the notice, why the agreement should not be filed.

(4) Where no sufficient cause is shown, the Court shall order the agreement to be filed, and shall make an order of reference to the arbitrator appointed in accordance with the provisions of the agreement or, if there is no such provision and the parties cannot agree, the Court may appoint an arbitrator.

18. Where any party to any agreement to refer to arbitration, or any person claiming under him, institutes any suit against any other party to the agreement, or any person claiming under him, in respect of any matter agreed to be referred, any party to such suit may, at the earliest possible opportunity and in all cases where issues are settled at or before such settlement, apply to the Court to stay the suit ; and the Court, if satisfied that there is no sufficient reason why the matter should not be referred in accordance with the agreement to refer to arbitration, and that the applicant was, at the time when the suit was instituted and still remains, ready and willing to do all things necessary to the proper conduct of the arbitration, may make an order staying the suit. [Cf. IX of 1899.]

19. The foregoing provisions, so far as they are consistent with any agreement filed under paragraph 17, shall be applicable to all proceedings under the order of reference made by the Court under that paragraph, and to the award and to the decree following thereon. [S. 524.]

Provisions applicable to proceedings under paragraph 17.

Arbitration without the intervention of a Court.

20. (1) Where any matter has been referred to arbitration without the intervention of a Court, and an award has been made thereon, any person interested in the award may apply to any Court having jurisdiction over the subject-matter of the award that the award be filed in Court. [S. 525.]

(2) The application shall be in writing and shall be numbered and registered as a suit between the applicant as plaintiff and the other parties as defendants.

(3) The Court shall direct notice to be given to the parties to the arbitration, other than the applicant, requiring them to show cause, within a time specified, why the award should not be filed.

[S. 526.]

21. (1) Where the Court is satisfied that the matter has been referred to arbitration and that an award has been made thereon and where no ground such as is mentioned or referred to in paragraph 14 or paragraph 15 is proved, the Court shall order the award to be filed and shall proceed to pronounce judgment according to the award.

(2) Upon the judgment so pronounced a decree shall follow, and no appeal shall lie from such decree except in so far as the decree is in excess of or not in accordance with the award.

2. Where the execution of a decree, not being a decree ordering the sale of immoveable property in pursuance of a contract specifically affecting the same, but being a decree for the payment of money in satisfaction of which the Court has ordered the sale of immoveable property, has been so transferred, the Collector, if, after such inquiry as he thinks necessary, he has reason to believe that all the liabilities of the judgment-debtor can be discharged without a sale of the whole of his available immoveable property, may proceed as hereinafter provided.

Procedure of Collector in special cases.

[S. 322A.]

3. (1) In any such case as is referred to in paragraph 2, the Collector shall publish a notice, allowing a period of sixty days from the date of its publication for compliance and calling upon—

Notice to be given to decree-holders and to persons having claims on property.

- (a) every person holding a decree for the payment of money against the judgment-debtor capable of execution by sale of his immoveable property and which such decree-holder desires to have so executed, and every holder of a decree for the payment of money in execution of which proceedings for the sale of such property are pending, to produce before the Collector a copy of the decree, and a certificate from the Court which passed or is executing the same, declaring the amount recoverable thereunder ;

- (b) every person having any claim on the said property to submit to the Collector a statement of such claim, and to produce the documents (if any) by which it is evidenced.

(2) Such notice shall be published by being affixed on a conspicuous part of the court-house of the Court which made the original order for sale, and in such other places (if any) as the Collector thinks fit ; and where the address of any such decree-holder or claimant is known, a copy of the notice shall be sent to him by post or otherwise.

4. (1) Upon the expiration of the said period, the Collector shall appoint a day for hearing any representations which the judgment-debtor and the decree-holders or claimants (if any) may desire to make, and for holding such inquiry as he may deem necessary for informing himself as to the nature and extent of such decrees and claims and of the judgment-debtor's immoveable property, and may, from time to time, adjourn such hearing and inquiry.

(2) Where there is no dispute as to the fact or extent of the liability of the judgment-debtor to any of the decrees or claims of which the Collector is informed, or as to the relative priorities of such decrees or claims, or as to the liability of any such property for the satisfaction of such decrees or claims, the Collector shall draw up a statement, specifying the amount to be recovered for the discharge of such decrees, the order in which such decrees and claims are to be satisfied, and the immoveable property available for that purpose.

(3) Where any such dispute arises, the Collector shall refer the same, with a statement thereof and his own opinion thereon, to the Court which made the original order for sale, and shall, pending the reference, stay proceedings relating to the subject thereof. The Court shall dispose of the dispute if the matter thereof is within its jurisdiction, or transmit the case to a competent Court for disposal, and the final decision shall be communicated to the Collector, who shall then draw up a statement as above provided in accordance with such decision.

5. The Collector may, instead of himself issuing the notices and holding the inquiry required by paragraphs 3 and 4, draw up a statement specifying the circumstances of the judgment-debtor and of his immoveable property so far as they are known to the

Where District Court may issue notices and hold inquiry.

Collector or appear in the records of his office, and forward such statement to the District Court ; and such Court shall thereupon issue the notices, hold the inquiry and draw up the statement required by paragraphs 3 and 4 and transmit such statement to the Collector.

[S. 322D.]

6. The decision by the Court of any dispute arising under paragraph 4 or paragraph 5 shall, as between the parties thereto, have the force of and be appealable as a decree.

Effect of decision of Court as to dispute.

[S. 323.]

7. (1) Where the amount to be recovered and the property available have been determined as provided in paragraph 4 or paragraph 5, the Collector may,—

Scheme for liquidation of decrees for payment of money.

- (a) if it appears that the amount cannot be recovered without the sale of the whole of the property available, proceed to sell such property ; or,

- (b) if it appears that the amount with interest (if any) in accordance with the decree, and, when not decreed, with interest (if any) at such rate as he thinks reasonable, may be recovered without such sale, raise such amount and interest (notwithstanding the original order for sale) —

- (i) by letting in perpetuity or for a term, on payment of a premium, the whole or any part of the said property ; or

- (ii) by mortgaging the whole or any part of such property ; or

- (iii) by selling part of such property ; or

- (iv) by letting on farm, or managing by himself or another, the whole or any part of such property for any term not exceeding twenty years from the date of the order of sale ; or

- (v) partly by one of such modes, and partly by another or others of such modes.

- (2) For the purpose of managing the whole or any part of such property the Collector may exercise all the powers of its owner.

The Code of Civil Procedure Bill.(The Third Schedule—Execution of Decrees by Collectors.)

- (3) For the purpose of improving the saleable value of the property available or any part thereof, or rendering it more suitable for letting or managing, or for preserving the property from sale in satisfaction of an incumbrance, the Collector may discharge the claim of any incumbrancer which has become payable or compound the claim of any incumbrancer whether it has become payable or not, and, for the purpose of providing funds to effect such discharge or composition, may mortgage, let or sell any portion of the property which he deems sufficient. If any dispute arises as to the amount due on any incumbrance with which the Collector proposes to deal under this clause, he may institute a suit in the proper Court, either in his own name or the name of the judgment-debtor, to have an account taken, or he may agree to refer such dispute to the decision of two arbitrators, one to be chosen by each party, or of an umpire to be named by such arbitrators.

- (4) In proceeding under this paragraph the Collector shall be subject to such rules consistent with this Act as may, from time to time, be made in this behalf by the Local Government.

8. Where, on the expiration of the letting or management under paragraph 7, the amount to be recovered has not been realized, the Collector shall notify the fact in writing to the judgment-debtor or his representative in interest, stating at the same time that, if the balance necessary to make up the said amount is not paid to the Collector within six weeks from the date of such notice, he will proceed to sell the whole or a sufficient part of the said property; and, if on the expiration of the said six weeks the said balance is not so paid, the Collector shall sell such property or part accordingly.

9. (1) The Collector shall, from time to time, render to the Court which made the original order for sale an account of all monies which come to his hands and of all charges incurred by him in the exercise and performance of the powers and duties conferred and imposed on him under the provisions of this schedule, and shall hold the balance at the disposal of the Court.

(2) Such charges shall include all debts and liabilities from time to time due to the Government in respect of the property or any part thereof, the rent (if any) from time to time due to a superior holder in respect of such property or part, and, if the Collector so directs, the expenses of any witnesses summoned by him.

- (3) The balance shall be applied by the Court—

(a) in providing for the maintenance of such members of the judgment-debtor's family (if any) as are entitled to be maintained out of the income of the property, to such amount in the case of each member as the Court thinks fit; and

(b) where the Collector has proceeded under paragraph 1, in satisfaction of the original decree in execution of which the Court ordered the sale of immoveable property, or otherwise as the Court may under section 73 direct; or

(c) where the Collector has proceeded under paragraph 2,—

(i) in keeping down the interest on incumbrances on the property;

(ii) where the judgment-debtor has no other sufficient means of subsistence, in providing for his subsistence to such amount as the Court thinks fit; and

(iii) in discharging rateably the claims of the original decree-holder and any other decree-holders who have complied with the said notice, and whose claims were included in the amount ordered to be recovered.

(4) No other holder of a decree for the payment of money shall be entitled to be paid out of such property or balance until the decree-holders who have obtained such order have been satisfied, and the residue (if any) shall be paid to the judgment-debtor or such other person as the Court directs.

10. Where the Collector sells any property under this schedule, he shall put it up to public auction in one or more lots, as he thinks fit, and may—

Sales how to be conducted.

(a) fix a reasonable reserved price for each lot;

(b) adjourn the sale for a reasonable time whenever, for reasons to be recorded, he deems the adjournment necessary for the purpose of obtaining a fair price for the property;

(c) buy in the property offered for sale, and re-sell the same by public auction or private contract, as he thinks fit.

11. (1) So long as the Collector can exercise or perform in respect of the judgment-debtor's immoveable property, or any part thereof, any of the powers or duties conferred or imposed on him by paragraphs 1 to 10, the judgment-debtor or his representative in interest shall be incompetent to mortgage, charge, lease or alienate such property or part except with the written permission of the Collector, nor shall any Civil Court issue any process against such property or part in execution of a decree for the payment of money.

(2) During the same period no Civil Court shall issue any process of execution either against the judgment-debtor or his property in respect of any decree for the satisfaction whereof provision has been made by the Collector under paragraph 7.

(3) The same period shall be excluded in calculating the period of limitation applicable to the execution of any decree affected by the provisions of this paragraph in respect of any remedy of which the decree-holder has been temporarily deprived.

12. Where the property of which the sale has been ordered is situate in more districts than one, the powers and duties conferred and imposed on the Collector by paragraphs 1 to 10 shall be exercised and performed by such one of the Collectors of the said districts as the Local Government may by general rule or special order direct.

13. In exercising the powers conferred on him by paragraphs 1 to 10 the Collector shall have the powers of a Civil Court to compel the attendance of parties and witnesses and the production of documents.

PUBLIC DEBT.

Fort William, the 20th February 1908.

No. 1057-A.—In pursuance of Rule 22 of the Rules made by the Government of India under section 14 of the Indian Securities Act, XIII of 1886, and published in the Gazette of India of the 7th January 1888, page 6, the following list is hereby advertised of Securities lost or destroyed, in respect of which an order has been made for payment of interest pending the issue of a duplicate Security, or for the issue of such duplicate Security. All persons, other than the respective claimants named below, who have any claim upon these Securities, should communicate immediately with the Comptroller General, the Treasury, Calcutta.

The list is divided into two parts,—Part A being the list of Securities now advertised for the first time, and Part B the list of Securities previously advertised.

N.B.—Under section 13 of the said Act, Government will be discharged from all liability in respect of these original Securities after the lapse of six years from (a) the several dates stated against them in the last column of the list, or (b) the last payment of interest on them, whichever date is the later.

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 26, clause (17), of the Cantonments Act, 1889 (XIII of 1889), the Governor General in Council is pleased to make the following rules, and to direct that they shall apply to the Cantonment of Jhansi :—

1. Definitions.

In these rules :—

- (a) "Cattle" means horned cattle, camels, horses, ponies, mules, donkeys, goats, and sheep. The word "horses" includes stallions and mares, and the word "ponies" includes fillies.
- (b) "Cattle market" means that portion of the fort limits which is bounded on the north by the Fort road; on the east by the Memorial cemetery and the road leading to the Phuta darwaza; on the south by the city road; and on the west by Jewan Shah's toria. The cattle market shall be named "the cantonment cattle market."
- (c) "Registering officer" means a person appointed by the cantonment authority to register sales of cattle at the request of the parties effecting the sale.

(d) "Overseer" means a person appointed by the cantonment authority to supervise the duties of the registering officers and to ensure that all orders issued by the cantonment authority in regulating the management of the cattle market are enforced by all concerned.

(e) "Cattle dalal" means a person appointed by the cantonment authority to supervise the general conservancy and cleansing of the market, as well as the general management of penning and herding of the cattle brought to the market.

2. The cantonment authority shall with the approval of the Local Government appoint two or more registering officers for recording sales which take place within the cattle market.

The cantonment authority may with the approval of the like authority also appoint one overseer, one cattle dalal, one peon and two latrine sweepers for the general management of the cattle market.

3. The cantonment cattle market shall be open at such hours only as the cantonment authority may by public notice prescribe.

4. Registration shall take place only on the day of sale and no sale shall be registered except within the hours of open market.

5. No sale shall be registered unless the seller and purchaser are present and all cattle concerned in the transaction, which it is desired to register, are duly produced before the registering officer. Where the seller or purchaser is unable through illness or any good and sufficient cause to attend in person at the registration of a sale, the relatives or agents of such parties may effect the registration on behalf of the party or parties so absent.

6. No cattle shall be sold in the cattle market nor shall the animal be removed therefrom until such sale has been duly registered and the prescribed market dues paid for the use of the market and registration by the purchaser.

7. Subject to the provisions of rules 3, 4 and 5 a registering officer shall, on payment of the market dues prescribed by rule 6 and at the request of the purchaser, register all sales of cattle taking place in that part of the market for which he may be appointed the registering officer.

8. If any of the persons causing a sale to be registered are not personally known to the registering officer and are not accompanied by persons who are so known, a description of the persons effecting the registration shall be recorded in the register.

9. No registering officer shall register any sale until the prescribed market dues therefor have been paid by the purchaser.

10. All sales shall be registered in Form A only, and all the details prescribed in this form shall be entered therein by the registering officer in his own hand. These forms will be bound up in books of 100 sheets and will be numbered serially.

11. Every entry shall be signed and dated by the registering officer and shall be signed or marked by the parties effecting the registration, as well as by such persons accompanying them as the parties to the sale or the registering officer may consider necessary as witnesses.

12. A copy of the entry in the counterfoil form shall in every case be supplied under the signature of the registering officer free of charge to the purchaser of the cattle.

13. A notice of a permanent character shall be put up in a conspicuous place within the cattle market, setting forth the market dues payable for use of the market and registration and the fact that a copy of the entry will be supplied to the purchaser free of further charge.

14. Any person committing a breach of rule 6 shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

NOTICES.

All communications relating to applications for leave to file specifications and for registration of designs under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888 (V of 1888), or in continuation of such applications, should be addressed to the Patents Secretary, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

The Office of the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888, will in future be open for the transaction of business from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. on all days, except Sundays and gazetted holidays.

The Government of India are advised that, as trade marks are not "designs" within the meaning of the Act, they cannot be registered under Part II.

The fees payable under the fourth and sixth schedules are now collected in cash and applicants are warned that they must be responsible for any delay in cashing cheques.

Cheques and money orders will only be accepted if made payable at Calcutta to the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act.

Copies of the weekly notifications, and of the quarterly lists, of applications and specifications filed in the Secretary's Office are now on sale to the public at one anna and eight annas a copy, respectively. Consolidated indexes for 1905 and for 1906, entitled "Inventions and Designs," are also on sale, price one rupee each. They contain a chronological list, subject-matter and name indexes of exclusive privileges for inventions, which have been obtained or applied for in the year, together with lists of designs applications.

All applications made under the Inventions and Designs Act, V of 1888, will from this date (December 19th, 1896) lie in the visitors' room of the Patents Office for ten days from the date of the Gazette of India in which their filing may have been notified: or, if the 10th day is a holiday, till the evening of the office day next following.

At the time of delivering or sending an application for leave to file a specification, the applicant shall cause a duplicate copy of the application to be delivered or sent therewith to the Secretary.

The Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888), with the notifications and rules issued under its provisions and the notices of the office of Inventions and Designs, to which is added an explanatory memorandum for the guidance of persons applying for protection of inventions and designs. A new and revised edition is now on sale. Royal 8vo volumes, paper cover, price one rupee or 1s. 6d. To be had of the Superintendent, Government Printing, 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta, or of the Superintendent, Patents Office, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

H. G. GRAVES,

Secretary under the Inventions and
Designs Act, V of 1888.

NOTIFICATIONS.

The 18th February 1908.

No. 290.—An examination for admission to the Provincial Service of the Survey of India will commence on the 10th August next at Calcutta, Dehra Dun, Mussooree, Bangalore, Poona and Maymyo.

The number of vacancies offered for this year's examination will probably be four, of which one will probably be for native candidates.

Applications for rules (a copy of which is printed below) should be addressed to the Assistant Surveyor General, in charge Surveyor General's Office, 13, Wood Street, Calcutta.

No application to appear as a candidate for the examination will be entertained after the 30th June 1908.

It is probable that this special departmental examination will not be held in future.

SURVEY OF INDIA.

(Vide R. & A. Department No. 53-157-2, dated the 4th January 1901.)

MEMO. OF INSTRUCTIONS FOR APPLICANTS FOR THE PROVINCIAL SERVICE OF THE SURVEY OF INDIA.

- 1st.—Every candidate for the Survey of India must forward his application in writing to the Surveyor General, accompanied by such certificates as to age (Baptismal Certificate required in case of European and Eurasian Candidates), moral character, education, soundness of health, and good eye-sight as will clearly establish his suitability for employment. The application must further be accompanied by specimens of Pian and Frechand drawing.* The candidate's name having been registered, he will be informed of the time and place of examination, when decided on. The examination papers will be issued from the Trigonometrical Branch Office in Dehra Dun.
- 2nd.—No application can be entertained from any individual whose age at the date of the completion of the examination will be under 18 or above 22 years, except in the case of Natives whose maximum age is fixed at 24 years. The Surveyor General, however, has the power to extend the age limit to 30 years in the case of those candidates who are at the time in pensionable service in the subordinate grades of the Survey of India. No person who is married or is likely to be soon married will be admitted unless of pure Asiatic origin. Candidates, if of European parentage, must be Statutory Natives of India and have at least passed the High School Pass examination or First Arts examination at an Indian University having qualified in Algebra as one of the subjects, and if Natives the F. A. Pass examination.
- 3rd.—Candidates must be prepared to undergo the examination detailed below, which will give them entrance to the Training School at Dehra; no candidate will be considered to have qualified unless he gets 50 per cent. of the marks in Mathematics and 30 per cent. of the total marks in Drawing.
- 4th.—Examinations will be held in August as a rule. The most suitable of the candidates who qualify will be selected.
- 5th.—When under examination for the Department, the candidate must sign the Bond printed on the reverse of this paper.
- 6th.—The selected candidates will enter the Department as Probationary Sub-Assistant Superintendents, 3rd grade, on a salary of Rs 120 per mensem, and they must pass out of the Training School within a maximum limit of 2 years. They will not be confirmed in their appointments until they have served at least 1 year in a field party and have been well reported on.
- 7th.—As Surveyors are liable to much exposure and to work in trying climates, the medical certificate should particularly specify that the candidate is of good physique and is likely to stand hard work, such as riding and walking long distances. The medical certificate should be in the form as given overleaf, signed by a Medical officer in Government employ not lower in rank than Lieutenant. During his course at the Training School should he prove to be in the opinion of the Superintendent, Trigonometrical Surveys, physically unfitted for the Department, that officer may demand a further certificate of fitness.

Director-General of the Post Office of India.

POSTAL NOTIFICATION.

The following Notification is issued as to the conditions under which correspondence and parcels may be sent between India and the Bazar Valley Field Force :—

FROM INDIA TO THE BAZAR VALLEY FIELD FORCE.

Mode of addressing correspondence.

Correspondence posted in India for delivery in the field should be addressed as follows :—

A. B.,

Regiment, Battery, Staff appointment, or Department, Brigade or Column,
Bazar Valley Field Force.

No post-town should be added to the address, and care should be taken to specify clearly in each case the Regiment, Battery, Staff appointment, or Department of the person addressed. It is of special importance that the Brigade or Column with which the addressee is serving should be entered in all cases. It should be noted that no parcels will be delivered through field post offices.

What may be sent.

Unregistered letters, postcards, newspapers and book-packets (private and service) may be posted in India for delivery in the field.

Prepayment of postage compulsory.

Full prepayment of postage on all articles is compulsory.

N.B.—Officers Commanding Corps proceeding on Field Service should warn the troops, followers, etc., to inform their correspondents of the necessity for fully prepaying the postage on all articles.

Delivery.

Articles of the letter mail will be delivered through orderlies.

No Registration, Insurance, Value-payable Post, or Money Orders.

Letters cannot be registered or insured for despatch from India to the field. No articles can be accepted for despatch to the field by value-payable post. Money orders will not be issued in favour of payees in the field.

FROM THE FIELD TO INDIA.What may be sent.

Unregistered letters, postcards, and book-packets may be posted to addressees in India or places abroad. Prepayment of postage is optional, but if postage is not fully prepaid the articles will be charged on delivery, with double the deficiency under the usual rules. No registered or insured letters, no parcels, and no value-payable articles can be posted.

Money Orders.

Money orders will be issued on India at inland rates of commission. Remittances by telegraphic money orders can also be sent on the ordinary conditions.

Savings Bank Deposits.

Savings bank deposits will be received from all British and Native soldiers and from public and private followers on field service at field post offices for credit, free of charge, to Post Office Savings Bank accounts in India. Soldiers who already have accounts with the Post Office Savings Bank will be required to produce their pass-books when making deposits at field post offices. Savings Bank deposits tendered at field post offices will be subject to the ordinary rules for depositors in Post Office Savings Banks.

FROM ONE FIELD POST OFFICE TO ANOTHER.What may be sent.

Only unregistered letters, postcards, newspapers, and book-packets may be posted at one field post office for delivery from another field post office. Full prepayment of postage is compulsory.

OFFICIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

Letters, postcards, and packets can be sent from India to the field at official rates of postage. The full postage must be prepaid in all cases.

Parcels cannot be sent from the field to India, or vice versa, but other official articles can be sent without prepayment of postage. The charge of delivery in India will be made at the prepaid rates.

Service parcels cannot be sent between field offices. Other official articles can be sent between field offices free of all postage, if properly superscribed and franked.

The United Provinces, Central India and the Central Provinces.—There was light cloud on the 18th and 19th in parts of the Central Provinces, but with this exception skies were clear throughout the division. Temperature was in excess on the last three days of the week and normal on the remaining days.

North-west India.—Light precipitation occurred in Kashmir from the 16th to the 19th. Skies were cloudy in the extreme north throughout the week and in Baluchistan on the 15th, but elsewhere they were clear. Weather was unusually warm over the whole division during the greater part of the week; but temperature fell rapidly in Baluchistan on the 18th, and the fall extended over the whole division during the next two days.

The Peninsula.—Skies were clear or only lightly clouded and temperature was approximately normal.

The only areas where precipitation occurred during the week were the Andamans, Eastern Bengal and Assam and Kashmir. For the whole period from the 29th November to the 20th February rainfall is 20 per cent. or more in defect in Central India, the Central Provinces West, Berar, Rajputana West, the Punjab, Kashmir, Baluchistan, the Bombay Deccan, the Konkan and South-east Madras. It differed from the normal by less than 20 per cent. in Assam, the United Provinces, Rajputana East and Malabar, and was 20 per cent. or more in excess in the remaining divisions.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 15th February 1908.

Burma.—Slight showers fell during the week in four of the northern districts and in the Chin Hills. Threshing and winnowing of winter rice are approaching completion. The standing spring rice and miscellaneous crops in Upper Burma are fair on the whole. The price of unhusked rice has risen in four; and has fallen in three districts.

Eastern Bengal and Assam.—Slight to moderate rain has fallen in the Chittagong, Noakhali, Chittagong Hill Tracts, Jalpaiguri and Assam districts except the Garo Hills. Prospects of standing crops have improved by recent rains. Preparation of land for early rice and jute, pressing of sugarcane, gathering of mustard and manuring of tea are in progress. Sowing of potato is going on in the Khasi and Jaintia Hills. Prices of common rice have risen in five; and have fallen in four districts. No scarcity is apprehended at present.

Bengal.—No rain fell in the Province except in Darjeeling where the fall was only 0.98 inch. Sugarcane pressing is still continuing. Transplantation of summer rice, planting of sugarcane, harvesting of oilseeds and preparation of lands for the next season's crops are in progress. Sowings of jute have commenced in Purnea. Prospects of spring crops are fair except in Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore and in parts of Monghyr and Balasore. Stocks of food-grains are insufficient in Nadia, Murshidabad, Balasore, Palamau and in the Deoghar sub-division of the Sonthal Parganas. Scarcity is still apprehended in Nadia, in the Kanai sub-division of Murshidabad and in Palamau and later on in Birbhum, Jessore and some parts of Manbhum. The price of common rice has fallen in fourteen districts; and has been stationary in all the other districts of the Province excepting Puri, where it has slightly risen. The fodder and water-supply are scarce in parts of Murshidabad and Balasore. The test-works already opened at Bankura, Shahabad, Cuttack, Balasore, Puri and Ranchi have been attended by 3,002 persons; and 16,250 persons received gratuitous relief in Shahabad, Cuttack, Balasore and Puri.

United Provinces.—There was no rain during the week. Prices have fallen slightly in 24 districts but still exceed scarcity rates. Markets in general are sufficiently stocked and importation from the Punjab continues on a large scale. Prospects of standing crops are generally good. The spring crop is being irrigated and weeded. Pressing of sugarcane continues and fields are being prepared for sugarcane, autumn and extra crops. The condition of agricultural stock is generally fair but in a few districts it is reported poor. Fodder is dear but grass is growing and forest hay is being sold or advanced as takavi.

The weekly report on the famine and scarcity is as follows:—Relief operations continue to expand. Famine was declared in Agra and Rai Bareilly on 12th and 13th February. The general condition of the people is still good. The condition of those on relief is fair and there is very little emaciation. Basti continues to report considerable foreign emigration but there is no general wandering. There is some increase in crime. There are aided works in 15 districts and a number of unaided works. In the Balrampur estates 10,139 are on works and 3,239 are being gratuitously relieved. The numbers on Government relief are:—On public works 438,237; on aided works 31,633; on test works 12,783; dependants on works 165,641; on gratuitous relief 247,434; in poor houses 4,980; total 900,708. The largest figures are Bahraich 125,761; Mirzapur with Family Domains 106,996; Gonda (excluding Balrampur Estate) 88,921; Banda 76,167; Jalaun 72,553; Allahabad 70,745; Kheri 56,732; Sitapur 53,442 and Jaunpur 32,260. Prices:—Mirzapur 7½ to 9; Dehra Dun 8; Almora 8½; elsewhere prices are 8½ to 10½ seers per rupee.

Punjab.—Slight rain has fallen in Rawalpindi. Prices of food grains are rising in 4; and are falling in 6 districts, but they are still above scarcity rates except in Jhang and Multan. Sowings of extra spring crops are in progress in some districts. Harvesting of toria continues in Amritsar and also ploughings for the next autumn harvest. The condition of irrigated crops is good to average and of unirrigated generally below average. The opium crop is average in Lahore and Amritsar. Fodder is scarce in Delhi, Sialkot, Gujranwala, Mianwali, Jhang, Multan and parts of Lahore, Shahpur and Rawalpindi. Green fodder is scarce in Ferozepore. Sugarcane is being used as fodder in Sialkot. Cattle are generally in fair to good condition, but in Sialkot they are weak for want of fodder. The water supply canal was closed in Delhi during the week.

North-West Frontier Province.—No rain fell during the week. The weather is favourable to growth and the condition of standing crops is good. In Dera Ismail Khan crops have been slightly damaged by high winds. Pressing of sugarcane continues; the outturn is poor in quality in Dera Ismail Khan. Sowing of extra spring crops has commenced. The water supply in canals is ample. There has been some irrigation from hill torrents in Dera Ismail Khan. Fodder is sufficient. Cattle are generally in good condition. The health of the people is good. Prices are fluctuating. Prices:—wheat $9\frac{1}{2}$ to $12\frac{1}{2}$; gram $9\frac{1}{2}$ to 15; maize 13 to $18\frac{1}{2}$; and bajra $12\frac{1}{2}$ to $14\frac{1}{2}$ seers per rupee.

Jammu.—Rain nil. Prices are fluctuating. Wheat is selling from 9 to 14; and maize 11 to 21 seers per rupee. The condition of standing crops is fair. Fodder is insufficient in Kotli, Basohli, Samba, Akhnur, Jasmirgarh, Ramban, Bhimber, Udhampur, Ranbirsinghpura and Jammu tehsils.

Kashmir.—The weather is bright. Prices are almost stationary.

Rajputana.—Spring crops are in good condition; slight damage is however reported from high winds in Jodhpur and by frost in Merwara. Prospects are on the whole fair. The fodder and water supply are sufficient. Prices of food grains show a marked fall in Pikaner, Jaisalmer and Ajmer-Merwara; and a slight fall in Jhalawar, Alwar and Dholpur. Food stocks are being imported where necessary. The labouring classes are in good condition and the situation is practically unchanged since last week. Public works have been opened during the week in Ajmer-Merwara in three selected localities but have not attracted many labourers.

Central India.—Rain nil. Irrigation and weeding of spring crops continue in Gwalior, Bhopal and Bhopawar. Harvesting of gram is in progress in parts of Bhopawar. Prospects of spring crops are fair to good. The probable outturn is below average in Baghelkhand; and fair to good elsewhere. Slight damage is reported by frost in parts of Gwalior, Indore, Rewa and Malwa; and by rats in parts of Dhar. Agricultural stock is fair to good except in parts of Gwalior, Indore, Bhopal and Bhopawar. Fodder is indifferent in Bhopal; and sufficient elsewhere. Prices of food grains continue high; and are rising in parts of Malwa. The opium crop is good in Gwalior, Indore, Bhopal, Malwa and Bhopawar and weeding and watering continued where necessary. The numbers on test and relief works are:—In Rewa on works 79,726; on gratuitous relief 8,868; total 88,594. In Nagod on works 3,481; on gratuitous relief 656; total 4,137. In Jaso on works 891; on gratuitous relief 30; total 921. In Baraundha on works 1,712; on gratuitous relief nil; total 1,712. In Maihar on works 1,867; on gratuitous relief 314; total 2,181. In Sohawal on works 4,141; on gratuitous relief 402; total 4,543. In Kothi on works 895; on gratuitous relief 20; total 915. There is no change in the general situation.

Central Provinces.—No rain fell during the week. Spring crops, except linseed, are generally in good condition and fair in Chhindwara, Balaghat and Akola. Harvesting of spring til, pulses and oil seeds is in progress in thirteen districts; and the cutting of wheat has begun in the Nagpur division, Amraoti, Betul and Nimar. Preparation of land for ensuing crops is in progress in Saugor, Nimar, Chanda, Buldana and Yeotmal; and in the districts of the Chhattisgarh division where repairing and raising of embankments also continue. The rainfall of the last week has improved the condition of standing crops in Balaghat and Jubbulpore, but has slightly damaged harvested crops in Bilaspur. Fodder is scarce in Narsinghpur and in tracts of Betul sown with spring crops; and dear in Hoshangabad and the Vindhyan districts. Water is sufficient everywhere, except in some villages of the Seoni tahsil of the Hoshangabad district. The price of wheat rose in Betul and Yeotmal by $\frac{1}{2}$ and $1\frac{1}{2}$ seers; and fell in Nagpur and Bilaspur by $\frac{1}{2}$ and 1 seer respectively. Gram became dearer by $\frac{1}{2}$ seer in Damoh and Balaghat; and rice in Chanda by $\frac{3}{4}$ seer. Guar sells cheaper in Hoshangabad and dearer in Chanda and Amraoti by $\frac{1}{4}$ seer. Prices are stationary elsewhere.

Feudatory States.—No rain fell during the week. Spring crops are in excellent condition in Chhuikhadan; and generally good elsewhere. Harvesting of pulses has been started. Fodder and water are sufficient. Rice in Kawardha and wheat in Sakti became cheaper by $\frac{1}{4}$ seer. The price of wheat in Kawardha and Sirguja and kodon in Sakti fell by 1 seer. Rice became dearer by 2 seers in Raigarh.

The weekly report on the famine and scarcity is as follows :—Distress is increasing in Damoh. More village relief works have been opened where ordinary work is not available. Relief is now being given in six districts, a little casual relief having been given in Saugor where a village work is also to be opened. People are resorting more freely to village works in Damoh. Prospects of spring crops are good in Jubbulpore and in Saugor where however slight damage has been done by frost. Employment on ordinary works is ample. Wandering is insignificant. The condition of the people is fair. Fodder and water are sufficient but dear. Prices are stationary except in Jubbulpore and Damoh where they have slightly fallen. The numbers on relief are :—on village works 2,160; weavers on relief 1,765; on gratuitous relief 5,821; total 9,746.

Bombay.—Standing spring crops are withering for want of moisture in parts of Thar and Parkar, Ahmedabad, the Panch Mahals, the Deccan and Bijapur; elsewhere they are in good condition, except for slight damage by frost in parts of Hyderabad. Threshing of autumn crops is in progress in parts of Kanara, Khandesh, Nasik, Kathiawar, Baroda and Rewa Kantha. Harvesting of spring crops continues in parts of Gujarat, Colaba, Kanara, the Deccan, the Karnatak, Kathiawar, Baroda and Cutch. Cotton picking is progressing in parts of Hyderabad, the Panch Mahals, Kaira, Broach, Surat, West Khandesh, the Karnatak, Baroda, Kathiawar, Cutch and Rewa Kantha. The supply of fodder is adequate except in parts of Hyderabad, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Sholapur and Baroda. Agricultural stock is generally in good condition and sufficient, except in parts of Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur and Cutch. The supply of drinking water is sufficient except in parts of Sholapur and Satara. Water for irrigation is insufficient in parts of Surat, the Deccan, Baroda and Kathiawar. The quantity of food grains purchasable per rupee is in Sind 40 to 52 per cent; in Gujarat 32 to 68 per cent; in the Konkan 22 to 33 per cent; in the Deccan 35 to 49 per cent; and in the Karnatak 37 to 57 per cent less than the normal. Stocks of grain are generally adequate. The demand for labour is sufficient and wages are normal. Emigration from Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur and Bijapur continues. The cultivating and labouring classes are in fair condition. Six test works are in progress in the Panch Mahals with 3,483 persons on relief on the last day of the week ending the 8th February. The grant of gratuitous relief has commenced in the Panch Mahals.

Hyderabad.—Slight rain fell during the week in two taluks causing injury to some spring crops. The juar crop almost harvested is good; it is excellent in parts; moderate generally; and bad only in limited areas. The wheat crop is poor but the food supply is unaffected, juar being the standard crop. Late rice is being weeded. Sowings continue in parts. Lands are being prepared for next monsoon. There is water scarcity in 15 taluks and fodder in 34. Prices wheat 5½; coarse rice 6¼; and juar 12 seers per rupee. Yellow juar is selling in Hyderabad City at 12 seers per rupee while the highest price in districts is 9 seers in three taluks.

Mysore.—Prices of food grains are generally steady. Standing crops are in good condition. Dry crops are still being harvested and sowing operations are now in progress in parts of the State. Prospects of the season are good. Cattle are generally healthy. Water and fodder are available.

Coorg.—Picking of coffee is almost completed. Threshing of rice continues. Prices of food grains are normal. The public health is fair. Water and fodder for cattle are sufficient. Harvest prospects are good.

Madras.—No rain fell during the week. Irrigation supplies are low in parts of all districts except Guntur, Cuddapah, Chingleput, Coimbatore, Tanjore, Tinnevely, Malabar, South Canara and the Nilgiris. Ploughing, sowing, weeding and transplanting are in progress in parts. Standing crops are generally fair but some in parts of Bellary, North Arcot, Salem and Tanjore are withering; and some in parts of Coimbatore require more rain. Harvests continue with outturn poor to normal. Pasture is sufficient except in parts of the Circars, the Deccan, North Arcot and Salem. Fodder is scanty in parts of Ganjam, Bellary and Nellore. The condition of cattle is generally good. The price of rice is stationary in thirteen districts; has fallen in four; and has risen in six. The prices of millets have fluctuated as follows :—Ragi is stationary in seven districts; has fallen in five; and has risen in nine. Cholam is stationary in seven districts; has fallen in five; and has risen in two. Cumbu is stationary in nine districts; has fallen in two; and has risen in four. The public health is generally good. Prospects are fair generally. The condition of the labouring classes is good and employment is procurable. Prices are high but there is no present apprehension of distress anywhere. Grain stocks are generally sufficient.

(a) Includes one hundred 5' 6" gauge coal wagons borne on the Fairfairs-Malwa railway rolling-stock list.

(b) Excludes locomotives and vehicles in use on lines under construction.

(c) Includes 7 engines fitted with the Westinghouse brake.

(d) Includes 47 coaching vehicles fitted with the Westinghouse brake.

o) Fitted with the Westinghouse brake.

(f) Includes 12,727 miles run by trains fitted with the Westinghouse brake.

(g) Includes 6,268 mules run by trains fitted with the Westinghouse brake.

b) The detailed figures in columns 4, 8 and 12 do not work up to the totals, as the latter include stock of railways not detailed in the table.

(i) Excluding the Thaton-Dryinzaik Light railway for which no information is available.

7) Calculated net the train-mileage, excluding that run on the Dandou Light railway for which train-mileage statistics are not available.

TABLE No. II.

5' 6" GAUGE—contd. Great Indian Peninsula—contd.	Vacuum, automatic	18th January 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —A down empty special train lost 12 minutes between Jhansi and Agra Road, due to the hose pipe of the rear brake-van not having been fixed properly on the plug.	See page 338
		8th February 1907.	(iii) Failure of material. —No. 7 down mail train had a late start of 20 minutes from Victoria terminus, owing to the intercommunication alarm valves of two North Western railway carriages being out of order.
		10th February 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —No. 17 down passenger train was detained 7 minutes at Victoria terminus, due to leakage in the flexible pipe of a 2nd class carriage which was found to be broken.
		2nd March 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —The up Burma express train was detained 4 minutes at Kasara in detecting a leak and in refixing the vacuum coupling of the rear brake-van on its plug.
		10th March 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —No. 13 down passenger train was detained 8 minutes at Victoria terminus, owing to the rubber washer on the coupling of the brake-van being deficient.
		18th March 1907.	(iii) Failure of material. —No. 27 down express train was detained 20 minutes at Itarsi, due to a leak in the Clayton coupling attached to the engine.
		19th March 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —No. 14 up passenger train was detained 25 minutes at Jhansi to cut off the connection on account of the piston rod of the cylinder of the engine having dropped.
		28th March 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —No. 17 down passenger train was detained 15 minutes at mile 4 to readjust the brake push rod of a bogie brake-van, owing to the brake blocks binding on the wheels.
		28th March 1907.	(iii) Failure of material. —No. 5 down mail train was detained 15 minutes at Muttra, owing to a defect in the cylinder piston of a third class carriage. The piston could not be released and had to be disconnected.
		30th March 1907.	(iii) Failure of material. —No. 11 down passenger train was detained 8 minutes at Agra Road, owing to a leakage through the alarm valve of a North Western railway carriage.
		30th March 1907.	(iii) Failure of material. —No. 14 up passenger train lost 14 minutes on the journey between Agra Road and Jhansi, due to a defect in the elbow pipe of a brake-van.
		1st April 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —No. 11 down passenger train was detained 10 minutes at Antri, owing to the flexible train coupling pipe of a North Western railway horse box drawing air.
		7th April 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants. —No. 9 down mail train had a late start of 9 minutes from Victoria terminus, the driver being unable to create vacuum, due to a leak in the universal coupling washer of one of the train pipes which was found perished.

(iii) Failure of machinery —No. 8 up mail train came to a stand at mile 118 and worked non-vacuum to Igatpuri, due to some dirty water in the boiler entering the ejector and a piece of foreign matter having got underneath the auxiliary dosing valve, the driver thereby being unable to recreate vacuum.
		2nd May 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants —No. 5 down mail train had a late start of 20 minutes from Victoria Terminus, the driver being unable to maintain vacuum, owing to a leak in the alarm valve of a North Western railway carriage.
		3rd May 1907.	(iii) Failure of material —No. 5 down mail train was detained 4 and 5 minutes at Murtara and Palwal, respectively, due to the vacuum pistons of the engine sticking.
		4th May 1907.	(iii) Failure of machinery —No. 8 up mail train came to a stand at mile 133 and worked non-vacuum to Nasik, owing to the auxiliary pipe flange under the brake ejector having broken and causing a sudden application of the brake.
		4th May 1907.	(iii) Failure of material —No. 30 up express train was detained 10 minutes at Hodal in uncoupling the vacuum pistons of the engine, which were continually sticking.
		5th May 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants —No. 17 down passenger train was detained 14 minutes at Kurba, owing to the brake blocks on the wheels of the rear brake-van having become jammed.	See page 33
		18th May 1907.	(iii) Failure of material —No. 18 up passenger train lost 11 minutes between Shahabad and Gulbarga and 8 minutes at the latter station, due to the brake piston of a third class carriage sticking.
		7th June 1907.	(iii) Inexperience of servants —No. 11 down passenger train lost 7 minutes between Kurari and Patna and worked non-vacuum from the latter station to Agra, due to the piston rings on the engine being defective.
		7th June 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants —The up postal express train worked non-vacuum from Delhi to Jhansi owing to two brake-vans and one first class carriage being deficient of vacuum release ball valves and the syphon pipe of one of the brake-vans and of the 1st class carriage being cut.
		17th June 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants —No. 19 down passenger train from Bombay to Katjat lost 26 minutes on the journey, owing to a piece of foreign matter having lodged in the passage of the large ejector and prevented the driver from creating vacuum quickly at stations.
		17th June 1907.	(iii) Neglect of servants —No. 9 down mail train was detained 4 minutes at Loni, the driver being unable to maintain vacuum, owing to a 1st class carriage being deficient of a clayton coupling washer.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.
CIVIL VETERINARY ADMINISTRATION.

IMPORTATION OF HORSES, ASSES AND MULES.

No. 478.

The 20th February 1908.

The following orders issued by the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland are published for general information :—

Order of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, No. 75, dated 28th January 1907.

Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1907.

THE Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Agriculture and Technical Instruction (Ireland) Act, 1899, the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

Interpretation.

1.—(1) In this Order—

“The Department” means the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland.

“Article” means Article of this Order.

“The Act of 1894” means the Diseases of Animals Act, 1894.

Other terms have the same meaning as in the Act of 1894, and the Acts amending the same.

(2) Horses, asses and mules shall be animals for the purposes of the following Sections of the Act of 1894 (namely):—

Sections 22 and 65 ;

Sections 43 and 74 ;

and of all other sections of that Act containing provisions relative to or consequent on those sections, including such sections as provide for offences and legal proceedings ; and also of this Order.

Restriction on Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules.

2. Unless and until the Department otherwise order, it shall not be lawful to import into, or land in Ireland, any horse, ass, or mule from Great Britain, from the Isle of Man or from the Channel Islands, except under the authority of a permit in that behalf previously obtained from the Department, and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in such permit.

Applications for permits.

3. Each application for a permit under this order should be addressed to

The Secretary,
Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland (Veterinary Branch), Dublin,

and should be made at an adequate interval prior to the proposed date of importation of the animal or animals to which the application relates, so as to afford time for such enquiries as the Department may deem necessary before coming to their decision as to whether the permit applied for may be granted.

Notice of Detention in case of Illegal Landing.

4.—(1) If, in any instance, a horse, ass, or mule is landed in contravention of this Order, the Department, or an Inspector of the Department, may give notice to the owner or person in charge of such horse, ass, or mule requiring the detention and isolation of the horse, ass, or mule in accordance with the provisions of such notice.

(2) If the owner or person in charge of the horse, ass, or mule, after receipt of such notice, fails to comply with any of the provisions therein contained, he shall be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

(3) A notice applying under this Article shall continue in force until it is withdrawn by a further notice given by the Department, or an Inspector of the Department.

Exemption.

5. Nothing in this Order applies to horses, asses, or mules under the care and supervision of the Army Veterinary Service.

Offences.

6. If a horse, ass, or mule is landed in contravention of this Order, the owner and the Charterer and the master of the vessel from which it is landed, and the owner of the horse, ass, or mule, and the person for the time being in charge thereof, and the person causing, directing, or permitting the landing, and the person landing the same, and the consignee or other person receiving or keeping the horse, ass, or mule knowing it to have been landed in contravention as aforesaid, shall, each according to, and in respect of, his own acts and defaults, be deemed guilty of an offence against the Act of 1894.

Revocation of Previous Order.

7. The Order described in the Schedule to this Order is hereby, from and after the commencement of this Order, revoked.

Commencement.

8. This Order shall come into operation on the 21st day of February, 1907.

Short Title.

9. This Order may be cited as the "Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1907."

In witness whereof the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland have hereunto set their official seal this 28th day of January 1907.

29th May	Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1906.

Order of the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, No. 88, dated 17th December 1907.

Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1907, No. II.

THE Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under the Agriculture and Technical Instruction (Ireland) Act, 1899, the Diseases of Animals Acts, 1894 to 1903, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered as follows :—

Restriction on Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules from Foreign Countries.

1. From and after the 31st day of December 1907, the Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1907 shall be read and have effect as if Article 2 thereof included the following additional clause :—

Unless and until the Department otherwise order, it shall not be lawful to import into, or land in Ireland, any horse, ass, or mule from any country outside Great Britain, the Isle of Man, and the Channel Islands, except under the authority of a permit in that behalf previously obtained from the Department, and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed in such permit.

Short Title and Construction.

2. This Order may be cited as the "Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1907, No. II," and shall be read as one with the Importation of Horses, Asses and Mules (Ireland) Order of 1907.

In witness whereof the Department of Agriculture and Technical Instruction for Ireland have hereunto set their official seal this 17th day of December 1907.

CANTONMENTS.REGULATIONS.

No. 134.—The following draft of certain rules which it is proposed to make for licensing, controlling and regulating the practice of brokers, measurers and weighmen in the Cantonment of Pachmarhi in exercise of the powers conferred by Section 26, clause (20) and Section 27 of the Cantonments Act, 1889 (XIII of 1889), is published, in accordance with the provisions of Section 27 of the said Act, for the information of persons likely to be affected thereby and notice is hereby given that the draft will be taken into consideration on the 28th March 1908.

2. Any objections or suggestions received from any person with respect to the draft before the date aforesaid will be considered by the Governor General in Council.

Draft Rules.

1. No person shall practise in any public place as a broker, measurer, or weighman without having previously obtained from the Cantonment authority a license authorising him so to practise and unless such license is still in force. In case of breach of this rule, the offender shall, on conviction before a Magistrate, be liable to a fine which may extend to Rs. 50.

Licenses once granted, and not suspended or cancelled, may be renewed from year to year by the Secretary to the Cantonment Committee, subject to report of such renewal to the Cantonment authority.

2. No person convicted of an offence under Chapter XIII or under Chapter XVII of the Indian Penal Code, and no person who, on conviction of any offence, has been punished with imprisonment, shall, while such conviction remains in force, be licensed to practise as a broker, measurer or weighman.

3. No person shall be licensed to practise as a broker, unless he is able to read and write. But this rule shall not apply to any person who, at the time when these rules came into force, is practising as a broker in the Pachmarhi Cantonment.

4. No person shall be licensed to practise as a measurer or weighman unless he is in possession of weights and measures, verified and stamped by order of the Cantonment authority under Section 286 (1), Cantonment Code, 1899. Such weights and measures shall be produced by the licensee for inspection on demand made at any reasonable time by any member of the Cantonment Committee, or by any officer or servant of the Cantonment Committee who is in receipt of a monthly salary of not less than seven rupees, and who has been duly empowered by the Cantonment authority in this behalf, or by any Police officer above the rank of Constable.

5. Every person licensed to practise as a broker shall keep or cause to be kept, regular and accurate accounts of all his dealings as a broker in a bound book, which shall be supplied to him at his expense by the Cantonment authority. The pages of such book shall be numbered consecutively in the office of the Secretary to the Cantonment Committee, and the first and last pages of such book shall be signed by the Secretary, who shall certify to the number of pages contained in such book. The book shall be produced by the licensee for inspection on demand made at any reasonable time by any member of the Cantonment Committee or by any officer or servant of the Cantonment authority who is in receipt of a monthly salary of not less than seven rupees, and who has been duly empowered by the Committee on this behalf.

6. The Committee shall frame :—

(a) A scale of fees payable by licensees under these rules

(b) A scale of rates at which licensees may charge for their services.

The Cantonment authority may from time to time make alterations in scales so fixed.

7. No broker, measurer or weighman shall charge or endeavour to obtain payment for his services, at a higher or lower rate than that prescribed under rule 6. The licensees' charges shall be payable by the seller, or by the purchaser, according to the agreement made in each case. In the absence of any special agreement the charges shall be borne half by the seller and half by the purchaser.

8. Licenses under these rules, unless suspended or cancelled, shall be in force from the 1st April of the year in which they are granted up to the 31st March of the ensuing year. Licenses granted on any date subsequent to the 1st April shall continue in force up to the 31st March following, and no longer. But only half fees shall be charged for licenses granted on or after the 1st October in any year.

9. Every license shall be in the Vernacular, in the form appended, and shall be signed by the Secretary to the Cantonment Committee. Licenses are not transferable. The terms of every license granted under these rules shall be fully explained to the licensee, at the time when it is granted by the Secretary to the Cantonment Committee or by some servant of the Cantonment authority appointed by the Secretary for the purpose, and a copy in the Vernacular of the rules and of the rates of charges fixed under rule 6 (b) shall be supplied to him with the license. Licenses shall be given in the form appended to these rules.

10. Copies in the Vernacular of the rates prescribed under rule 6 (b) shall be suspended at such public offices or places as the Cantonment authority may think requisite for their due publication. No alteration in rates shall take effect until notice of the proposed alteration has been posted up at the above mentioned offices or places for a period of at least 15 days.

11. The Cantonment authority may, for good and sufficient reason, refuse to grant a license under these rules, and may for misconduct and non-compliance with the requirements of these rules on the part of the licensee, or for any other good and sufficient reason, suspend or cancel a license so granted. Such suspension or cancellation shall not entitle the licensee to any refund of fees paid on account of such license.

12. Every order of the Cantonment authority refusing the grant of a license under these rules or cancelling or suspending a license so granted, shall be recorded in writing by the Secretary to the Committee, and shall contain a brief statement of the reasons for the discussion of the Committee. A copy of such order shall be supplied free of cost to the person thereby affected, on application by him to the Committee.

13. The Cantonment authority shall at the time of granting a license to a weighman or measurer under these rules cause to be supplied to him a suitable badge of office. A fee not exceeding one rupee shall be paid by the licensee for such badge when first supplied or on renewal, when it becomes unserviceable. No weighman or measurer shall practise his calling in any public place without such badge which must always be conspicuously worn by him while so practising his calling. Such badges are not transferable.

14. Every licensee under these rules shall when practising his calling produce his license, badge, or both, as the case may be, for inspection on demand made at any reasonable time by any member of the Cantonment Committee or by any officer or servant of the Cantonment authority who is in receipt of a monthly salary of not less than seven rupees, and who has been duly empowered by the Cantonment authority in this behalf.

15. Every licensee under these rules shall deliver up to the Cantonment authority the license granted to him on its expiry, suspension or cancellation. When a license is so delivered up, the badge, supplied to the licensee by the Cantonment authority in accordance with the provisions of rule 13, shall also be surrendered. But on renewal or restoration of the license, the badge, if still serviceable, shall be returned to the licensee free of charge.

16. If after issue of any license or badge granted under these rules, such license or badge is lost or destroyed, the licensee shall not practise in any public place as a broker, measurer or weighman until he has, on application to the Cantonment authority, obtained a fresh license or badge. If the Cantonment authority is satisfied that such license or badge has been accidentally lost or destroyed, a fresh license or badge may be issued by the Committee to the licensee in place of it, on payment in either case of an additional fee of eight annas. Every license as issued shall have the word "Duplicate" written in large letters across it in red ink.

17. No licensee under these rules, while practising his calling in any public place, shall without reasonable cause refuse to transact business for any person calling on him to do so.

18. The following Acts are included in the term "Misconduct" within the meaning of rule 11 :—

- (a) Taking part in a combination to enhance or reduce the prices of goods, or to divert traffic from the Cantonment Markets.
- (b) Intentional betrayal by a licensee of the interests of any person employing him, or connivance in any fraud against persons not employing him.
- (c) The purchase or sale of goods by a licensee, on his own account while in the exercise of his calling.
- (d) Interference by a licensee between buyers and sellers, when his services are unsought, or the demand of payment from any person who has not employed him.

GAZETTE OF INDIA.

NOTICE.

The 1st November 1907.

From the 9th November next till further notice, the complete Gazette of India will be published at Calcutta. After the 2nd November all notifications and other matter intended for publication in the Gazette should be addressed to the Publisher, 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta.

Attention is invited to the following Circular Memorandum of the Government of India, Home Department, of August 1901 :—

"It has been brought to the notice of this Department that matter for the Gazette of India is sometimes sent to the Press late on Friday evenings for publication in the next day's Gazette and that this involves considerable inconvenience to the Press and expense to Government. In the Circular Memorandum of this Department, No. 777—79, dated 9th February 1870, the Government of India directed that all notifications or other matter intended for insertion in the Gazette of India should be delivered at the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Friday, and that any papers sent thereafter must be certified to be extremely urgent in order to ensure their appearance in the next day's Gazette. The undersigned is directed to request that these orders may be more strictly observed in future, and that Departments will refrain from sending to the Press as extremely urgent any papers which can without harm or inconvenience be held over for the next Gazette."

J. P. HEWETT,

Secretary to the Government of India.

NOTICES

All communications relating to applications for leave to file specifications and for registration of designs under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888 (V of 1888), or in continuation of such applications, should be addressed to the Patents Secretary, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

The Office of the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act, 1888, will in future be open for the transaction of business from 11 A.M. to 3 P.M. on all days, except Sundays and gazetted holidays.

The Government of India are advised that, as trade marks are not "designs" within the meaning of the Act, they cannot be registered under Part II.

The fees payable under the fourth and sixth schedules are now collected in cash and applicants are warned that they must be responsible for any delay in cashing cheques.

Cheques and money orders will only be accepted if made payable at Calcutta to the Secretary under the Inventions and Designs Act.

Copies of the weekly notifications, and of the quarterly lists, of applications and specifications filed in the Secretary's Office are now on sale to the public at one anna and eight annas a copy, respectively. Consolidated indexes for 1905 and for 1906, entitled "Inventions and Designs," are also on sale, price one rupee each. They contain a chronological list, subject-matter and name indexes of exclusive privileges for inventions, which have been obtained or applied for in the year, together with lists of designs applications.

All applications made under the Inventions and Designs Act, V of 1888, will from this date (December 19th, 1896) lie in the visitors' room of the Patents Office for ten days from the date of the Gazette of India in which their filing may have been notified: or, if the 10th day is a holiday, till the evening of the office day next following.

At the time of delivering or sending an application for leave to file a specification, the applicant shall cause a duplicate copy of the application to be delivered or sent therewith to the Secretary.

The Inventions and Designs Act (V of 1888), with the notifications and rules issued under its provisions and the notices of the office of Inventions and Designs, to which is added an explanatory memorandum for the guidance of persons applying for protection of Inventions and Designs. A new and revised edition is now on sale. Royal 8vo volumes, paper cover, price one rupee or 1s. 6d. To be had of the Superintendent, Government Printing, 8, Hastings Street, Calcutta, or of the Superintendent, Patents Office, 2, Bankshall Street, Calcutta.

H. G. GRAVES,

Secretary under the Inventions and
Designs Act, V of 1888.

THE HONOURABLE THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.

NOTIFICATION.

Bangalore, the 14th February 1908.

No. 14.—The Honourable the Resident is pleased to issue the following rules regarding the grant, to Government servants and to indigent persons unconnected with the public service, in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore, of concessions designed to enable them when bitten by a rabid animal to proceed without delay to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor for treatment.

CONCESSIONS TO GOVERNMENT SERVANTS.

I. Any Government servant who has been bitten by a rabid animal, and who is too poor to proceed to Coonoor at his own expense may, provided that he is drawing not more than Rs 100 a month, be granted by the officer hereinafter authorised to grant the concession:

- (i) his actual travelling expenses to Coonoor and back; namely, (a) a single fare each way by railway of the class by which he is entitled to travel on duty, (b) for journeys by road the actual cost of transit, not exceeding the amount admissible under rule. The expenses for the return journey will be paid to the patient at Coonoor, after the treatment has been undergone, by the Treasury Officer at that station on production of a discharge certificate from the Director of the Institute;
- (ii) an advance of one month's pay;
- (iii) one month's casual leave, any leave required in excess being treated as privilege or sick leave.

II. Any Government servant who has a difficulty in finding at once the means to enable him to proceed to the Institute, and whose pay exceeds Rs 100 but does not exceed Rs 500 a month, may be granted an advance not exceeding the amount admissible under rule I (i) and may also be given the concessions specified in rule I (ii) and (iii).

III. A report of the despatch of every Government servant to the Institute at Coonoor for treatment should be made at once, by the officer who sanctions the concession to the Director of the Institute at Coonoor, stating (a) the class to which the patient has been treated as belonging for the purpose of travelling allowance; and (b) the amount of travelling allowance (by rail or road) advanced.

IV. The Director's discharge certificate will be prepared in duplicate. One copy of it will be given to the patient and the other attached to the bill for the travelling allowance for the return journey which should be presented for payment at the Coonoor treasury. The patient will bring back with him the certificate from the Director of the Institute and produce it before the Collector and District Magistrate of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

V. The bill for travelling allowance for the return journey will be at the same rates as were allowed for the journey to the Institute and will also be supported by the original intimation received from the officer who is responsible for the original advance.

VI. All advances made to Government servants under rule II above will be recovered in three equal monthly instalments as provided in Article 137 (b) of the Civil Account Code.

CONCESSIONS TO INDIGENT PERSONS.

VII. Any indigent person unconnected with the public service or any Government pensioner drawing a pension of not more than Rs 100 per mensem who is unable, in the opinion of the officer hereinafter authorized to grant the concession, to proceed to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor at his own expense, may be granted his actual travelling expenses to Coonoor and back, namely (a) a single third class fare each way by railway, (b) for journeys by road the actual cost of transit, (c) maintenance allowance at the following daily rates:—

Europeans one Eurasians Rs 1 during the journey and Rs 2-8-0 during treatment;
Natives 4 annas during the journey and 6 annas during treatment.

VIII. A third class pass or ticket from Bangalore to Coonoor and back by the shortest and cheapest route on the terms allowed by the Railway Company will be procured for the patient by the officer who despatched him to Coonoor.

IX. The patient may receive in advance the actual cost of transit for journeys by road, when necessary, and maintenance allowance for the period of his journey to Coonoor. He should also take with him to Coonoor and produce before the Director of the Institute a certificate signed by the officer despatching him that he has been sent to the Institute for treatment at the public expense.

X. The maintenance allowance of the patient while under treatment at Coonoor and for the period of the return journey and also, if necessary, the cost of transit for journeys by road on the return journey will be disbursed by the Treasury Officer at Coonoor, on production of a certificate from the Director of the Institute that the patient has been under treatment at the Institute.

XI. The Director's discharge certificate will be prepared in duplicate. One copy will be despatched by him to the officer responsible for the original advance and the other attached to the bill for travelling allowance for the return journey when presented for payment at the Coonoor treasury.

XII. The bill for travelling allowance for the return journey should be at the same rates as were allowed for the journey to the Institute and should also be supported by the intimation received from the officer responsible for the original advance.

XIII. Maintenance charges for the days spent at Coonoor and for the days of the return journey may be advanced on separate bills drawn by the Director who will certify thereon the days that the patient was under treatment or that he will be occupied in the journey.

XIV. Women, children under 16 years of age, and men who are, by reason of age or other sufficient cause, incapable of travelling alone, may be allowed an attendant to accompany them to the Institute at Coonoor. Any such attendant will be granted—

(i) travelling expenses and maintenance allowance at the rate sanctioned for patients;

(ii) wages, not exceeding four annas a day, in cases where the despatching officer is satisfied that the patient is unable to pay the daily expenses of the attendant. The charges of the attendant will be borne by the fund to which the charges on account of the patient are debited. Only one attendant may be sent at the public expense with each patient or patients of the same family.

XV. The despatch of each indigent person to Coonoor for treatment at the public expense will at once be reported to the Director of the Institute and to the President of the Municipal Commission. The report should state ;

(a) the amount of travelling allowance (by rail or road) advanced, and

(b) the number of days for which and the rate at which maintenance allowance has been advanced.

GENERAL.

XVI. When any person is bitten by a rabid animal and is desirous of proceeding to the Pasteur Institute at Coonoor but is unable to meet the expenses of the journey, he should appear before the Residency Surgeon, Bangalore, or, in his absence, before the Senior Assistant Surgeon of the Bowring Civil Hospital, who will after satisfying himself that the case is a fit one for treatment at a Pasteur Institute grant him a certificate accordingly.

Such person will thereupon without loss of time appear before the Collector and District Magistrate of the Station or in his absence before the Second Magistrate, who after satisfying himself that the patient is unable to proceed to the Pasteur Institute at his own expense and is deserving of help from public funds authorise him to proceed at once to the Institute at Coonoor and arrange for the grant of the concessions specified in rules I, II, VII and XIV, as the case may be.

XVII. The charges incurred in respect of the persons referred to in rules I and II will be debited to or advanced from the revenues of the Assigned Tract, as the case may be, while the expenditure incurred in respect of the persons falling under rules VII and XIV will be met from the funds of the Municipal Commission of the Civil and Military Station.

By order,

F. P. RENNIE,
First Assistant to the Resident.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 hrs., on Thursday, the 27th February 1908, based on the Indian Daily Weather Reports of the period.

Rain at Port Blair for several days indicated the presence of an area of unsettled weather in the south-east of the Bay; this passed westwards and caused rain in the extreme south of the Peninsula on the twenty-third and the three following days. On the 24th a depression appeared in Baluchistan and Sind and has moved into the neighbourhood of Montgomery and Bikaner. Up to the present it has had little effect on the weather except to cause local snowfall in Kashmir; it appears however to be deepening and causing high winds at several stations in its neighbourhood.

Burma.—Port Blair and Mergui reported light rain at the beginning of the week. Skies were almost clear and temperature was approximately normal.

North-west India including Orissa.—Sibsagar had a light fall of rain on the 21st. Skies were almost free from cloud and temperature was normal except for an excess shown on the 21st.

The United Provinces, Central India and the Central Provinces.—Skies were almost clear. Temperature was lower than usual especially in the Central Provinces on the 22nd and 24th and was nearly normal on the remaining days of the week.

North-east India.—Light precipitation occurred in Kashmir on the 22nd, 25th, 26th and 27th. Skies were cloudy over the greater part of the division on the 24th and 25th, but during the remainder of the week were almost clear except in Kashmir. Weather was cooler than usual in parts of Gujarat and of Rajputana on the 21st and 22nd, but temperature then rose and from the 23rd to the end of the week was more or less in excess.

The Peninsula.—The disturbance in the Bay caused rain in the south of the Peninsula from the 23rd to the 26th. Skies were moderately to heavily overcast in the area of rainfall and clear or only lightly clouded elsewhere. Temperature differed by only small amounts from the normal.

The precipitation of the week occurred in the Andamans, South-east Madras, Malabar and in Kashmir*. The rainfall of the whole period from the 29th November to the 27th February is 20 per cent. or more in defect in the east of Central India, the west of the Central Provinces, Kashmir, the Punjab, Rajputana, Baluchistan, the Bombay Deccan, the Konkan and South-east Madras and is 20 per cent. or more in excess in Burma, the Province of Bengal, the east of the Central Provinces, Hyderabad, the Madras Deccan, Mysore and on the North Madras Coast.

The following summarises the chief precipitation as reported at 8 hrs. each day :

February 22nd. Port Blair 1·07".

" 23rd. Negapatam 3·07".

" 24th. Cuddalore 1·45", Negapatam 1·86", Tinnevely 2·32" and Kodaikanal 2·38".

" 27th. Sonemarg 1·11".

*The snowfall in Kashmir occurred only at stations for which there are no normals and it does not therefore appear in the table.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 22nd February 1908.

Burma.—Half an inch of rain fell in Mergui and a minute amount in Tavoy; there was no rain elsewhere. The dates of general harvesting of the rice crop in the fifteen chief rice producing districts of Lower Burma were normal in 11 districts; early in 3, and late in one. Threshing and winnowing of winter rice are almost completed. In Upper Burma transplanting of spring rice is in progress and miscellaneous spring crops are doing well, but those on islands are poor in Minbu. The price of unhusked rice has risen in seven districts; and has fallen in three.

Eastern Bengal and Assam.—Slight rain has fallen in Cachar, the Naga and Lushai Hills and in Upper Assam. Prospects of standing crops are generally fair. Preparation of land for early rice and jute and pruning, hoeing and manuring of tea are in progress. Pressing of sugarcane and gathering of mustard are finished in places. Sowing of potato is going on in the Khasi and Jaintia Hills. Prices of common rice have risen in six; and have fallen in seven districts. No scarcity is apprehended at present.

Bengal.—There was no rain in the Province during the week. Harvesting of pulses and mustard is going on. Sugarcane-pressing still continues. Cultivation of lands for the autumn crops is in progress, but rain is yet wanted in Jessore, Cuttack and Singhbhum. In the last two districts ploughing is being impeded for want of moisture in the soil. Planting of sugarcane is going on in Bihar. Transplantation of summer rice is nearly finished. The present condition and prospects of the spring crops are generally good in Bihar and fair in the rest of the Province, Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore and parts of Balasore excepted. The price of common rice has fallen in Hooghly, Murshidabad, Jessore, Gaya, Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Bhagalpur, Cuttack and Puri; has risen in Nadia, Darjeeling, the Sonthal Parganas, Singhbhum and Cooch Behar; and has been stationary in the remaining districts. Stocks of food grains are insufficient in Nadia, Murshidabad, Palamau and in the Deoghur sub-division of the Sonthal Parganas. Scarcity is apprehended in the Egra and Ramnagar thanas of Midnapore, in Nadia, in the Kandi sub-division of Murshidabad and in Palamau and later on in Birbhum, Jessore and in parts of Manbhum. The fodder and water supply are scarce in parts of Murshidabad and Balasore only. The test-works in Bankura, Shahabad, Cuttack, Balasore, Puri and Ranchi were attended by 3,219 persons. Gratuitous relief was given to 16,540 persons in Shahabad, Cuttack, Balasore and Puri.

United Provinces.—No rain fell during the week. Prices have fallen slightly in twenty-three; and have risen in three districts, and still exceed scarcity rates. Importation of grain continues. Prospects of the spring crop are good but some damage from hot westerly winds is reported. Sugarcane pressing is nearing completion. Land is being prepared for sugarcane and sowings have commenced in places. Sanwar and extra crops are being sown. Potatoes are being dug and the outturn is good. The condition of agricultural stock is generally fair but is poor in Hardoi and Unao; and in Bahraich sales of cattle are large. Fodder is dear and scarce although fresh grass is growing. Forest hay is being sold and distributed in large quantities as takavi.

The weekly report in the famine and scarcity is as follows:—Relief operations show a considerable expansion. Famine was declared in the Domariaganj tahsil of Basti on the 21st February. The general condition of the people is good. The condition of those on relief is fair. There is no general wandering, but a few immigrants from Native States have entered Agra and Banda. Foreign emigration continues from Basti. There are public relief works in 17; and test works in 10 districts. Gratuitous relief is being distributed in 39 and aided works are in operation in 22 districts. In the Balrampur estates 13,042 persons are on works and 3,301 are being gratuitously relieved. The numbers on Government relief are:—on public works 554,029; on aided works 45,355; on test works 8,379; dependants on works 218,610; on gratuitous relief 275,113; in poorhouses 5,162; total 1,106,648. The largest total figures are Bahraich 148,937; Mirzapur (with Family Domains) 132,446; Gonda (excluding Balrampur estates) 120,702; Banda 95,530; Allahabad 85,726; Jalaun 78,822; Kheri 69,695; Sitapur 68,021; and Jaunpur 40,807. Prices:—Mirzapur 7½; Allahabad 8 to 10; Dehra Dun 8; Almora 8½; and Jaunpur and Ghazipur 8½ seers per rupee. Elsewhere prices are 9 to 11 seers per rupee.

Punjab.—Rainfall nil. Prices of food grains are rising in five; and falling in six districts, but they are still at or above scarcity rates except in Multan. Sowing of extra spring crops and ploughings for next autumn crops are in progress. Harvesting of toria continued in Amritsar. Sugarcane is being sown in Gurgaon and parts of Ambala, Ferozepore and Sialkot. The condition of irrigated crops is good to average and of unirrigated crops average to below average. The opium crop is average in Lahore and Amritsar. Rats are damaging crops in parts of Lahore. Fodder is scarce in Delhi, Sialkot, Gujranwala, Mianwali, Lyallpur, Jhang, Multan and parts of Gurgaon, Ambala, Lahore, Shahpur and Rawalpindi. Sugarcane is being used as fodder in Sialkot. Cattle are generally in fair to good condition. In parts of Sialkot cattle are weak for want of fodder. The water supply canal was closed during the week in Delhi. 1,334 persons attended the famine test works in the Gurgaon tahsil.

North-West Frontier Province.—Rainfall nil. Standing crops are in good condition. The weather is dry and bright. More rain is now required for unirrigated sowings. In Bannu gram with disease has appeared. Pressing of sugarcane still continues and the outturn is poor. Sowings of extra spring crops have commenced in Dera Ismail Khan. The water supply in canals is sufficient. There has been some irrigation from hill torrents in Dera Ismail Khan. Fodder is somewhat scarce in Dera Ismail Khan; elsewhere it is sufficient. Cattle are generally in good condition except in the Dera tehsil. The health of the people is good. Prices show a slight downward tendency. Prices:—wheat 9½ to 13; gram 10½ to 14; maize 13½ to 19½; and bajra 13½ to 15½ seers per rupee.

Jammu.—Rain nil. Prices are fluctuating. Wheat is selling from 8½ to 13, and maize from 10½ to 21 seers per rupee. The condition of standing crops is fair. Fodder is still insufficient in Ramban, Kathua, Bhimber, Ranbirsinghpura, Udhampur and Jammu.

Kashmir.—The weather continues bright. Prices are stationary.

Rajputana.—No rain fell during the week. Prospects of the spring harvest are on the whole fair and standing crops are doing well. The condition of cattle is satisfactory. The fodder and water supply are sufficient. Prices of food grains have risen in Jaisalmer and Bundi, and slightly in Bikaner; have fallen in Sirohi, Shahpura town, Karauli and Bharatpur; and slightly in Jaipur and Alwar. No famine relief measures have yet been found necessary with the exception of some gratuitous relief in Marwar and Bharatpur. Ordinary public works have however been specially opened in a few places, and generally labour is reported to be scarce.

Central India.—Rain nil. Irrigation and weeding of spring crops continue in Gwalior, Bhopal, Malwa and Bhopawar. Harvesting has commenced in Malwa and parts of Bhopal and Bhopawar. Prospects of spring crops are fair to good. Slight damage by frost is reported in parts of Malwa and Rewa; and by rats in parts of Dhar. Agricultural stock is fair to good except in parts of Gwalior, Indore, Bhopal and Bhopawar. Fodder and water are beginning to be scarce in parts of Gwalior; they are indifferent in Bhopal; insufficient in parts of Indore; and sufficient elsewhere. Prices have risen in parts of Malwa; but continue high elsewhere. Weeding and watering of opium continued in Gwalior, Indore and Bhopawar. There were 9,174 persons on test and relief works in Datia, Samthar, Ajaigarh, Baoni and Sarila during the week ending the 15th February. The number on gratuitous relief was 2,780; total 11,954. For the week ending 22nd February the numbers are:—Rewa on works 86,250; on gratuitous relief 11,145; total 97,395. In Nagod on works 3,955; on gratuitous relief 805; total 4,760. In Jaso on works 918; on gratuitous relief 28; total 946. In Maihar on works 2,041; on gratuitous relief 182; total 2,223. In Baraunda on works 1,264; on gratuitous relief nil; total 1,264. In Sohawal on works 6,808; on gratuitous relief 506; total 7,314. In Kothi on works 1,032; on gratuitous relief nil. In Pasara on works 242; on gratuitous relief nil. In Bhaisonda on works 1,926; on gratuitous relief nil. In Datia, Samthar, Ajaigarh, Baoni and Sarila on works 9,331; on gratuitous relief 3,209; total 12,540. In Charkhari and Chhattarpur on works 890; on gratuitous relief 232; total 1,152. Famine conditions prevail in Datia, Samthar, Baoni, Charkhari, Jigni and Beri but the remainder of the Bundelkhand Agency is as yet free from distress and there is no lack of water or fodder while no immigration or emigration is reported. There is no change in general conditions of other Agencies.

Central Provinces.—No rain fell during the week. The days are becoming hot. Cutting of wheat has not yet begun in the northern and Nerbudda Valley districts, but otherwise the spring harvest is almost in full swing and is somewhat earlier than usual. Prospects are fair or good but linseed will give a very poor outturn in Nagpur. Preparation of land for next autumn sowings continues. Fodder is inadequate in Narsingpur, Betul, Hoshangabad and Yeotmal; and dear in the Vindhyan districts. Some deterioration in the condition of cattle is reported from Betul. Water is sufficient except in parts of Hoshangabad and Chanda. Prices of staple food grains remained stationary in eight districts. There was a small but almost general fall in the price of wheat in the Jubbulpore and Nerbudda divisions, and this grain became cheaper by a seer in Narsinghpur and Hoshangabad. Prices of the main staple grain of the district rose slightly in Nimar, Amraoti, Raipur and Bilaspur; but on the whole the tendency of prices is downwards.

Feudatory States.—The week was rainless. Spring crops are in excellent condition in Chhuikhadan; and generally good elsewhere. Harvesting of pulses continued. Preparation of land for ensuing crops and construction of field embankments have been started. Fodder and water are adequate. Wheat and rice in Sarangarh became dearer by one seer; rice became cheaper in Kawardha by $\frac{1}{4}$ seer and dearer in Sarangarh by one seer; otherwise there were no noteworthy changes in prices.

The weekly report on the famine and scarcity is as follows:—Except in Damoh where distress is still increasing in intensity the situation remains unchanged. The people are resorting freely to relief works in Damoh but are coming on very slowly in other districts. Village relief on a small scale has been started in the Chhindwara district. Relief is now being given in seven districts. Relief measures are sufficient. Prospects of standing crops are fair. The condition of the people is fair. Fodder and water are ample but the former is dear in Saugor. Prices show a slight fall in Jubbulpore, Saugor and Mandla; elsewhere prices are stationary. Wandering is insignificant. The public health is good. The numbers on relief are:—On village works 2,885; weavers on relief 1,192; on gratuitous relief 7,704; total 12,581.

Bombay.—Standing spring crops are withering for want of moisture in parts of Thar and Parkar, Ahmedabad, the Panch Mahals, East Khandesh, Nasik, Poona and Savantvadi; elsewhere they are in good condition except for slight damage by frost in parts of Karachi and Hyderabad. Harvesting of spring crops continues in parts of Karachi, Hyderabad, Gujarat, Colaba, Kanara, the Deccan, the Karnatak, Kolhapur, Kathiawar, Baroda, Palanpur, and Cutch. Cotton picking is progressing in parts of Gujarat, West Khandesh, the Karnatak, Baroda, Kathiawar, Cutch and Rewa Kantha. The supply of fodder is adequate except in parts of Hyderabad, Ahmedabad, Kaira, Sholapur and Baroda. Agricultural stock is generally in good condition and sufficient, except in parts of Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur and Cutch. The supply of drinking water is sufficient except in parts of Sholapur. Water for irrigation is insufficient in parts of Surat, the Deccan, Baroda and Kathiawar. The quantity of food grains purchasable per rupee is in Sind 37 to 47 per cent.; in Gujarat 30 to 68 per cent.; in the Konkan 22 to 33 per cent.; in the Deccan 30 to 45 per cent.; and in the Karnatak 33 to 57 per cent. less than the normal. Stocks of grain are generally adequate. The demand for labour is sufficient and wages are normal. Emigration from Bijapur continues. The cultivating and labouring classes are in fair condition. Six test works are in progress in the Panch Mahals with 1,314 persons on relief on the last day of the week ending the 15th February. 45 persons were relieved on forest works in West Khandesh during the week ending the 18th February.

Hyderabad.—No rain fell during the week. Standing crops are in fairly good condition. The spring harvest is in progress, the estimated yield is from 8 to 16 annas. Late rice weedings continue. Lands are under preparation for the next monsoon. There is water scarcity in 15 talukas and fodder scarcity in 25. Prices—wheat $5\frac{1}{4}$; coarse rice $6\frac{1}{4}$ and juar 12 seers per rupee. Yellow juar is selling in Hyderabad City at $12\frac{1}{4}$ seers per rupee while the highest price in districts is 9 seers in five talukas.

Mysore.—Prices of food grains are generally steady. Sowing and planting operations are in progress. Prospects of the season are good. Cattle are healthy. Water is available except in parts of Bangalore where it is insufficient. Fodder is available in all districts.

Coorg.—Rainfall ten cents. Picking of coffee is completed and threshing of rice continues. Prices of food grains are normal. The public health is fair. Water and fodder for cattle are sufficient. Harvest prospects are good.

Madras.—No rain fell during the week. Irrigation supplies are low in parts of all district except Guntur, Cuddapah, Chingleput, Coimbatore, Tanjore, Tinnevely, Malabar South Canara and the Nilgiris. Ploughing, sowing, weeding and transplanting are in progress in parts. Standing crops are generally fair but some in parts of Bellary, North Arcot, Salem, Tanjore and Madura are withering. Harvests continue with outturn poor to normal. Pasture is sufficient except in parts of the Circars, the Deccan, North Arcot, Salem and Tanjore. Fodder is scanty in parts of the Circars and Nellore. The condition of cattle is generally good. The price of rice is stationary in eleven districts; has fallen in four and has risen in eight. The prices of millets have fluctuated as follows:—Ragi is stationary in nine districts; has fallen in eight; and has risen in four. Cholam is stationary in two districts; has fallen in five; and has risen in seven. Cumbu is stationary in five districts; has fallen in three; and has risen in seven. The public health is generally good.

Prospects are fair generally. The condition of the labouring classes is good and employment procurable. Prices are high, but there is no present apprehension of distress anywhere. Grain stocks are generally sufficient.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Rainfall summary for the seven days ending at 8 hrs., on Thursday, the 5th March 1908, based on the Indian Daily Weather Reports of the period.

The depression which was affecting north-west India at the close of last week, travelled eastwards across northern India finally passing out of the Indian region in the neighbourhood of Myitkyina on the 2nd March, while the secondary depression, which it gave rise to in the Punjab, advanced northwards and disappeared in the western Himalayas. The primary depression in its advance eastwards occasioned rain in the central Himalayas and in parts of north-east India especially the northern districts; the secondary was responsible for moderately heavy snow in the Kashmir hills and rain in the adjacent districts of the North-West Frontier Province and of the Punjab. Sonemarg reported a heavy fall of snow on the 28th February equivalent to 3·06" of rain. A cold wave entered north-west India on the 28th and swept across India reducing temperature over the whole country to the north of latitude 16°; its effects thus being shown much further south than is usual. Another depression entered Baluchistan from Persia on the 2nd March and gave moderate rain and snow in Baluchistan, the first precipitation of importance received in that part of the country since the last week in January. On entering north-west India the disturbance like its predecessor produced a secondary depression which advanced northwards into the Kashmir hills, while the primary moved eastwards and at the end of the week was shown in north-east India. Precipitation occurred in the extreme north of India on the 3rd, 4th and 5th, but unlike the preceding disturbance the primary depression had up to the end of the week given no rain in its passage across India.

Burma.—Mergui reported a light fall of rain on the 2nd. Skies were clear or lightly clouded and temperature was nearly normal.

North-east India including Orissa.—Rain fell in parts of north-east India especially the northern districts from the 29th February to the 2nd March. During the first three days of the week skies were lightly to heavily clouded, but during the other days they were almost clear. Temperature was normal or in excess up to the 2nd March, a fall then took place and temperature was in defect in the western districts on the 3rd and 4th.

The United Provinces, Central India and the Central Provinces.—Falls of rain were reported from Gorakhpur on the 29th February and 1st March and from Muktesar on the 29th February. Skies were generally clear or only lightly clouded. Temperature was higher than usual on the 28th February; but on the 29th a cold wave from north-west India began to affect the western districts, and during the next few days it spread over the whole division giving temperatures considerably below the normal on the 2nd and 3rd March.

North-west India.—Precipitation occurred during the greater part of the week in the extreme north and in Baluchistan on the 3rd March. Skies were clear in Gujarat and Rajputana throughout the week and on most days in Baluchistan, Sind and the east Punjab, elsewhere they were generally moderately to heavily clouded. Temperature was mainly in defect, the deficiency being large in Gujarat on the 1st March and in Baluchistan and the extreme north on the 4th and 5th.

The Peninsula.—Skies were clear or only lightly clouded. Temperature was normal except from the 29th February to the 3rd March, when weather was considerably cooler than usual in the north-western districts.

The precipitation of the week was slightly above the average in Eastern Bengal, Bihar, the east of the United Provinces, Kashmir, the North-West Frontier Province, and Baluchistan. The table at the end shows that for the whole period from the 29th November to the 5th March rainfall is 20 per cent. or more in defect in Assam, the Punjab, Rajputana, Baluchistan, Central India East, the Central Provinces West, Berar, the Bombay Deccan, the Konkan and South-east Madras. It is within 20 per cent. of the normal in Orissa, the United Provinces, Central India West, Gujarat, Sind, Hyderabad South and Malabar; and in excess over the remainder of the country.

The following summarises the most important precipitation as reported at 8 hrs. each day:

February 28th.	Sonemarg 3·06".
" " 29th.	Peshawar 0·80".
March 1st.	Darjeeling 1·23", Gorakhpur 0·97".
" 2nd.	Mymensingh 0·94", Dinajpur 0·92".
" 3rd.	Chaman 0·85".

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA.

DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE AND AGRICULTURE.

Season and Crop Prospects for the week ending Saturday, 29th February 1908.

Burma.—A minute amount of rain fell during the week in Mergui; there was no rain elsewhere. Threshing and winnowing of winter rice have been completed in three more districts; and are approaching completion in three districts. In Upper Burma transplanting of spring rice continues. Miscellaneous crops on islands are fair except in Minbu where they are being gathered and are reported poor. The present standing crops in the upper province are generally fair. The price of unhusked rice has risen in two districts; and has fallen in three.

Eastern Bengal and Assam.—Slight rain fell in all districts except Faridpur, Noakhali, Rajshahi, Pabna, Kamrup, Darrang and Manipur. Prospects of standing crops are generally fair. Preparation of land for early rice and jute; and pruning, hoeing and manuring of tea are in progress. Pressing of sugarcane and gathering of mustard are finished in places. Sowing of potato is going on in the Khasi and Jaintia Hills. Prices of common rice have fallen in eight districts. No scarcity is apprehended at present.

Bengal.—Light rain fell during the week in Bihar and Cooch Bihar, and there was a moderate fall of 1·47 inch in Darjeeling. In other districts there was no rain. The preparation of lands for autumn crops, the planting of sugarcane and the harvesting of pulses and oilseeds are in progress. Sugarcane-pressing still continues in some districts. The condition and prospects of spring crops are fair, Nadia, Murshidabad and Jessore excepted. Dalua paddy is suffering from want of water in parts of Balasore. Stocks of foodgrains are reported to be insufficient in Nadia, Murshidabad, Balasore and Palamau. The price of common rice is stationary in most districts. It has fallen in Burdwan, Nadia, Gaya, Shahabad, Saran, Darbhanga, Moughyr and Purnea; and has risen in Birbhum and Hooghly. Scarcity is apprehended in parts of Midnapore, in Nadia, Murshidabad and Palamau and later on in Jessore, Hazaribagh and in portions of Manbhum. The fodder and water supply are scarce in parts of Murshidabad, Shahabad and Balasore. The persons attending test works in Bankura and Ranchi and in Orissa were 4,000; and gratuitous relief was given to 17,338 persons in Shahabad and Orissa.

United Provinces.—Rain fell in 14 districts exceeding $\frac{1}{8}$ inch in Basti, Gonda, Fyzabad and Sitapur. Prices have fallen in 18 districts but continue very high. Markets aided by importation are adequately supplied. Prospects of the spring crop are good. A few districts report some damage from westerly winds. Sugarcane pressing is nearing completion. Sugarcane and extra crops are being sown. Harvesting of peas and in some places of arhar and oilseeds has commenced. The condition of agricultural stock is generally fair; but it is poor in Hardoi. Large sales of cattle continue in Bahraich. Fodder is dear and scarce and forest hay continues to be distributed.

The weekly report on the famine and scarcity is as follows:—Relief operations continue to expand. Famine has been declared in the Moth and Garotha tahsils of Jhansi. The condition of the people on relief is fair and there is very little emaciation. There is slight immigration from Native States into Agra and Banda. Colonial emigration continues from Basti. There are aided works in 23 districts. In the Balrampur estates 13,042 are on works; and 4,018 gratuitously relieved. The numbers on Government relief are:—Workers on public works 595,078; on aided works 48,613; on test works 6,575; dependents on works 245,319; on gratuitous relief 300,373; in poor houses 4,935; total 1,200,893. The largest total figures are:—Bahraich 172,875; Mirzapur (with Family Domain) 142,813; Gonda (excluding the Balrampur estates) 140,071; Fanda 104,596; Allahabad 80,154; Jalaun 80,139; Kehri 77,439; Sitapur (returns incomplete) 55,132; and Jaunpur 50,304. Prices—Dehra Dun and Almora $8\frac{1}{4}$; Mirzapur $7\frac{1}{4}$ to 8; Allahabad $8\frac{1}{4}$ to 10; and elsewhere 9 to $11\frac{1}{4}$ seers per rupee.

Punjab.—Slight rain has fallen in Rawalpindi and in the hill tracts of Ambala. Prices of food grains are rising in four districts; and falling in three, but are still generally at or about scarcity rates except in Multan. Wheat is selling between scarcity and warning rates in Gurgaon and Mianwali. Sowings of extra spring crops and ploughing for next autumn crops are in progress. Sugarcane is being sown in parts of Ambala, Ferozepore and Sialkot. The condition of irrigated crops is good to average and of unirrigated crops below average. The opium crop is average in Lahore and Amritsar. Late sown crops are withering for want of rain in Sialkot. Rats are damaging crops in parts of Lahore. Fodder is scarce in Delhi, Sialkot, Gujranwala, Mianwali, Lyallpur, Multan, Jhang and in parts of Gurgaon, Ambala, Lahore, Shahour and Rawalpindi; it is also getting scarce in Rohtak. Sugarcane and spring crops are being used as fodder in Sialkot and leaves of trees in parts of Gurgaon and Lahore. Cattle are generally in good to fair condition. In Sialkot cattle are weak for want of fodder. The water supply canal was closed during the week in Delhi. 1,321 persons attended the famine test works in the Gurgaon Tahsil against 1,434 last week.

North-West Frontier Province.—Good rain fell in Hazara and Peshawar; and showers elsewhere except in Dera Ismail Khan. The rain was very beneficial to standing crops and to extra spring sowings. Standing crops are in good condition. Hail fell in Bannu but did no damage. Pressing of sugarcane still continues. The outturn is poor. The water supply in canals is sufficient. Fodder is procurable. The condition of cattle is generally good except in the Dera and Kulachi tahsils of the Dera Ismail Khan District. The health of the people is good. Prices are fluctuating. Wheat is selling from 9½ to 13; gram 11½ to 14; maize 13½ to 17; and bajra 14 to 15 seers per rupee.

Jammu.—Rain nil. Prices are rising. Wheat is selling from 7 to 14, and maize from 9½ to 21 seers per rupee. The condition of standing crops is fair in irrigated tracts but poor in other parts. Fodder is insufficient in Bhimber, Kathua, Akhnur, Rambirsinghpura, Ramban, Samba, Kotli, Bisoili and Jammu tahsils. Rain is badly wanted for standing crops.

Kashmir.—The weather is rainy and snowy. Prices are almost stationary.

Rajputana.—No rain fell during the week. Standing crops are doing well and though sowings have been below normal in some places, prospects of the spring harvest are generally favourable. The condition of cattle is good. The fodder and water supply are sufficient. Prices have fallen considerably in Marwar and Bundi, and slightly in Bikaner and Kishangarh, but are still high in all parts of the Agency, ranging from 10½ to 10½ seers per rupee in different States, except Kotah, Bundi and Shahpura where prices are easier. Food stocks are sufficient or are being imported. Although gratuitous relief on a small scale has been found necessary in Marwar and Bharatpur there are no other symptoms of distress and ordinary public works are meeting all demands for labour.

Central India.—Rain nil. Irrigation and weeding of spring crops continued in Gwalior, Bhopal, Malwa and Bhopawar. Harvesting has commenced in Gwalior, Malwa and parts of Bhopal and Bhopawar. Prospects of spring crops are fair to good. Slight damage by frost is reported in parts of Indore, Bhopal, Rewa and Jaora; and by rats in parts of Dhar. Agricultural stock are fair to good except in parts of Gwalior, Indore, Bhopal and Bhopawar. Fodder and water are beginning to be scarce in parts of Gwalior; they are insufficient in parts of Indore; indifferent in Bhopal; and sufficient elsewhere. Prices of food grains continue high in Gwalior, Bhopal, Baghelkhand and Bundelkhand; they have risen in parts of Malwa and are steady in Bhopawar. Extraction of opium has commenced in parts of Gwalior, Indore and Bhopal. Weeding and watering continue in Malwa and Bhopawar. The numbers on test and relief works are:—Rewa, on works 100,161; on gratuitous relief 13,875, total 114,036. Nagod, on works 1,762, on gratuitous relief 253; total 2,017. Jaso, on works 663; on gratuitous relief 28; total 691. Baranliha, on works 196, on gratuitous relief nil. Mahar, on works 2,045, on gratuitous relief 183; total 2,228. Sonawal, on works 10,436; on gratuitous relief 343, total 10,779. Kothi, on works 1,798, on gratuitous relief nil. Pahara, on works 440; on gratuitous relief nil. Bhaibonda, on works 487; on gratuitous relief nil. In Datta, Santhar, Ajaigarh and Sarila, on works 9,000; on gratuitous relief 4,000, total 13,000. In Chaikhari, Chhattarpur and Lughasi, on works 2,000, on gratuitous relief 1,000; total 3,000. There is no change in general conditions.

Central Provinces.—The weather has been clear and is hot in the day time. Prospects of the spring harvest which is now being reaped everywhere are fair to good. Land is being ploughed up for the ensuing season's crop and the usual construction of tanks and field embankments is in progress in the Chhattisgarh division and Chhindwara. Wheat has withered in parts of the Akola district where the husked crop is practically a failure. Water is sufficient everywhere except in some villages of the Hoshangabad district. The supply of fodder is adequate but it is scarce in the tracts sown with spring crops in Betul, and the condition of agricultural stock there is deteriorating. Shortage of fodder is anticipated in Nagpur and it is also dear or insufficient in Saugor, Narmar, Hoshangabad and Yeotmal. Prices of staple food grains remained stationary or fluctuated slightly, exhibiting a tendency to fall. Wheat remained stationary in 8 districts, rice in 5, juar in 20 and grain in 16 districts. In the Jubbulpore and Nerbuddi divisions, excepting the Damoh and Narsinghpur districts, wheat became cheaper by ½ to 1 seer per rupee. The price of juar and wheat in Buldana and Yeotmal respectively fell by 1½ seers. In Raipur and Bilaspur rice sells cheaper by $\frac{1}{2}$ seer. Gram in Jubbulpore, Hoshangabad, Nimar, Wardha and the Vindhyan districts fell by $\frac{1}{2}$ to 1 seer.

Feudatory States.—Rainfall nil. Harvesting of spring crops is in progress. Prospects are generally good, except in Jashpur. Fodder and water are sufficient. The price of rice in Raigarh fell by 2 seers; and of wheat in Raj-Nandgaon by $\frac{1}{2}$ seer. Rice became dearer by $1\frac{1}{2}$ seers in Raj-Nandgaon; elsewhere prices remained stationary or fluctuated slightly.

The weekly report on the famine and scarcity is as follows:—Distress is increasing in Damoh and in the rice tracts of Jubbulpore. Elsewhere the situation remains unchanged. Relief is now being given in seven districts and a little village relief has also been sanctioned in an eighth. Village works have been started in three districts and people are resorting freely to them. In Damoh and Jubbulpore relief measures are generally adequate and employment on public works and takavi works is sufficient. Prospects of the standing crops are good. The condition of the people is fair. The public health is good. Fodder is generally sufficient but scarce in some of the tracts sown with spring crops. The water supply is sufficient. Prices are stationary but show a tendency to fall in the northern districts. A large influx of foreigners for the harvest is reported from Damoh. Immigrants from Central India are causing some anxiety in Jubbulpore, where arrangements for the opening of a kitchen for their dependents are being made in case it is needed. The numbers on relief are:—on village works 3,724; weavers on relief 2,137; on gratuitous relief 9,315; total 15,176.

Bombay.—Standing spring crops are withering for want of moisture in parts of Thar and Parkar, Ahmedabad, the Panch Mahals and East Khandesh; elsewhere crops are in good condition. Harvesting of spring crops continues in parts of Karachi, Hyderabad, Gujarat, Colaba, Kanara, the Deccan, the Karnatak, Kathiawar, Baroda, Palanpur, Cutch and Rewa Kantha. Cotton picking is progressing in parts of Gujarat, West Khandesh, the Karnatak, Baroda, Kathiawar, Cutch and Rewa Kantha. The supply of fodder is adequate except in parts of Hyderabad, Ahmedabad, Kaira and Baroda. Agricultural stock is generally in good condition and sufficient, except in parts of Ahmednagar, Poona, Sholapur and Cutch. The supply of drinking water is sufficient except in parts of Sholapur. Water for irrigation is insufficient in parts of Surat, the Deccan, Baroda and Kathiawar. The quantity of food grains purchasable per rupee is in Sind 37 to 47 per cent.; in Gujarat 30 to 68 per cent.; in the Konkan 22 to 33 per cent.; in the Deccan 23 to 45 per cent.; and in the Karnatak 37 to 57 per cent. less than the normal. Stocks of grain are generally adequate. The demand for labour is sufficient and wages are normal. Emigration from Bijapur continues. The cultivating and labouring classes are in fair condition. Six test works are in progress in the Panch Mahals with 1,328 persons on relief on the last day of the week ending the 22nd February. 90 persons were relieved on forest works in West Khandesh during the week ending the 25th February. Famine is being declared in the Panch Mahals.

Hyderabad.—No rain fell during the week. Spring harvest continues and is completed in parts. The estimated outturn is reported to be from 8 to 16 annas. Late rice weedings are in progress. Lands are being prepared in certain tracts for the next monsoon. Water is scarce in 18 talukas. There is a considerable fall in export as prices outside the Nizam's Dominions equal those within. Fodder is scarce in 25 talukas. Prices:—wheat $5\frac{1}{2}$; coarse rice $6\frac{1}{2}$; and juar 12 seers per rupee. Yellow juar is selling in Hyderabad City at $12\frac{1}{2}$ seers per rupee. The highest price in districts is 9 seers in two talukas.

Mysore.—Prices of food grains are generally steady. Prospects of the season are good. Cattle are generally healthy. Water and fodder are available.

Coorg.—Threshing of rice continues. Prices of food grains are normal. The public health is fair. Water and fodder for cattle are sufficient. Harvest prospects are good.

Madras.—The rainfall during the week was good in Tinnevely, Tanjore, Madura, the Nilgiris, South Arcot, Trichinopoly and Coimbatore; light to fair in Chingleput, Salem, Madras, North Arcot, Malabar and South Canara; and nil elsewhere. Irrigation supplies are low in parts of all districts except Guntur, Cuddapah, Chingleput, Coimbatore, Tinnevely, Malabar, South Canara and the Nilgiris. Ploughing, sowing, weeding and transplanting are in progress in parts. Standing crops are generally fair but some in parts of Bellary, North Arcot, Salem, Tanjore and Madura are withering. Harvests continue with outturn poor to normal. Pasture is sufficient except in parts of the Circars, the Deccan, North Arcot, Salem, Tanjore, Madura and South Canara. Fodder is scanty in parts of the Circars and Nellore. The condition of cattle is generally good. The price of rice is stationary in fourteen districts; has fallen in four; and has risen in five. The prices of millets have fluctuated as follows:—Ragi is stationary in six districts; has fallen in six; and has risen in nine. Cholam is stationary in four districts; has fallen in three, and has risen in seven. Cumbe is stationary in three districts, has fallen in five, and has risen in seven. The public health is generally good. Prospects are fair generally. The condition of the labouring classes is good and employment procurable. Prices are high but there is no present apprehension of distress anywhere. Grain stocks are generally sufficient.

Bills introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for making Laws and Regulations, Reports of Select Committees presented to the Council, and Bills published under Rule 23.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT

The following Bill was introduced in the Council of the Governor General of India for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations on the 13th March, 1908 —

NO 2 OF 1908

A Bill further to amend the Whipping Act 1864, and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898

VI of 1864
V of 1898
WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Whipping Act 1864, and the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 It is hereby enacted as follows —

1 This Act may be called the Whipping (Amendment) Act, 1908

Short title

VI of 1864
2 In section 2 of the Whipping Act 1864 clauses (3) (4), (6) (7) and (8) are hereby repealed

Repeal of portion of section 2, Act VI 1864

3 For sections 3 4 and 4A of the said Act the following shall be substituted namely —

Offences punishable with whipping in lieu of or in addition to other punishment

3 Whoever—

(a) abets commits or attempts to commit, rape as defined in section 375 of the Indian Penal Code

XLV of 1860

(b) voluntarily causes hurt in committing or in attempting to commit robbery as defined in section 390 of the said Code,

(c) commits dacoity as defined in section 391 of the said Code, may be punished with whipping in lieu of or in addition to any other punishment to which he may for such offence abetment or attempt be liable under the said Code "

Amendment of section 5 of same Act
4 In section 5 of the said Act the words ' falling under clause (b) ' are hereby repealed

5 In section 6 of the said Act, for the words any of the offences specified in section 4 of this Act the words any offence punishable under the Indian Penal Code with imprisonment for three years or upwards shall be substituted

6 In section 32 of the Code of Criminal Procedure 1898, the words ' Whipping (if specially empowered)' and sub section (3) are hereby repealed

V of 1898

7 In section 392 sub section (2) of the said Code the words ' and in the case of a person under sixteen years of age, it shall not exceed fifteen stripes shall be added

Amendment of section 392 Act V 1898

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

THE object of this Bill is to amend the law relating to the punishment of whipping so as to restrict the classes of offences for which that punishment may be inflicted and to limit the number of officers who may be empowered to award it.

Clause 2.—This clause repeals clauses (3), (5), (6), (7) and (8) of section 2 of the Whipping Act, 1864. The result of these repeals will be to abolish whipping for theft by a clerk or servant and all kinds of extortion and receiving stolen property.

Clause 3.—This clause repeals sections 3, 4 and 4A of the same Act and enacts a new section 3. The effect of the repeal of the existing section 3 is to exclude whipping as an additional punishment on second conviction, while the new section 3, which takes the place of the existing sections 4 and 4A, limits the offences punishable with whipping in lieu of or in addition to other punishments to—

- (a) rape, abetment of rape and attempt to commit rape,
- (b) voluntarily causing hurt in committing or in attempting to commit robbery, and
- (c) dacoity.

Clause 4.—By this clause the words "falling under clause (b)", contained in the proviso to section 5 of the same Act, are repealed. The repeal of these words will enable the Governor General in Council to exempt juvenile offenders from the punishment of whipping in respect of any offence which is punishable under the Indian Penal Code otherwise than with death, and not merely, as at present, in respect of offences punishable under any other law with imprisonment.

Clause 5.—The amendment made by this clause in section 6 of the same Act, which deals with the infliction of the punishment of whipping in Frontier Districts, is merely consequential on the amendment of the law proposed in clause 3 as above described.

Clause 6.—This clause repeals the provisions contained in section 32 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898, enabling the Local Government to empower second class Magistrates to pass sentences of whipping.

Clause 7.—This clause amends sub-section (2) of section 392 of the same Code by adding words limiting the punishment of whipping in the case of persons under sixteen years of age to fifteen stripes.

APPROPRIATION REPORT

ON

OF

FOR

1906-1907.

GENERAL REVIEW.

[Throughout the report the rupee figures are in thousands of rupees and the sterling figures in hundreds of £; thus 10,64 reads as ten lakhs and sixty-four thousands of rupees, and £71.2 reads as seventy-one thousand and two hundreds of pounds sterling. The rupee figures are converted into sterling amounts at Rs 15 = £1.]

As announced in the Financial Statement for 1906-07, the Budget Estimate for that year provided for the following measures of fiscal relief and administrative improvement: (a) Repeal of the Patwari cess in Northern India and the Central Provinces, of the Ryotwari Village Service cess in Madras, and of the Village Service cess in Coorg; cost £524.3. (b) Abolition of the Zamindari Dāk cess in Bengal and Eastern Bengal, cost £23.6. (c) Relief of District Boards in Northern India, Central Provinces, Coorg and Burma from the contributions formerly paid towards District Post charges; cost including relief of United Provinces District Boards of some small school and other charges £38.8. (d) Further grant of £166.7 for Police Reform and (e) Additional grants of £26.7 for agricultural and veterinary improvement and of £33.3 for European and technical education. After making these allowances the Budget estimate provided for a surplus of £874.1.

2. During the year under report there was a general growth of revenue beyond the anticipations of the Budget in most of the important branches except Salt, Customs, Forest and Railways. By far the largest increase occurred under Opium (£829.4) due to the high price obtained in the Bengal opium sales. The Stamp revenue was more by £59.2, Excise by £80.9, Assessed Taxes by £80.6 and Registration by £25.0. Interest improved by £126.9 chiefly in the investment of the Secretary of State's cash balances. Mint receipts were higher by £217.6 owing to heavy coinage to meet trade demands, partly also owing to the profits on the new Bronze coinage. Post Office and Telegraph Departments showed improvements of £24.0 and £14.9, respectively. Miscellaneous receipts were higher by £203.2 chiefly due to extraordinary receipts such as two instalments of the Tibetan indemnity. Irrigation revenue was higher by £288.3 owing mainly to the development of irrigation in the Punjab and the United Provinces. Military receipts were higher by £160.4 mainly due to the large sales of ordnance stores to Native States, and of obsolete and unserviceable stores from arsenals and factories, and to a special receipt from the War Office on account of furlough pay of Native troops earned while on field service in China and Somaliland and specially granted to them on return to India. On the other hand there was a decline in the Salt revenue (£37.3) mainly due to an over-estimate in Madras, in the Forest revenue (£21.0), in the Customs revenue (£112.5) chiefly under imports of spirits and exports of rice from Burma and Bengal, and in the net receipts of the Railways (£369.4) due chiefly to higher working expenses.

3. The actual total expenditure was better by £440.9 chiefly on account of lapses and savings under Army Services in the provision made for reorganisation stores in England, the demand for metals having been cancelled, and for schedule measures in India, under Special Defence Works due to alterations of the programme, and under Other Public Works due mainly to short payments for land compensation and short outlay on brick manufacture in Eastern Bengal and Assam, and to short outlay in Burma and Bengal. The net result of these and other variations was a surplus of £1,589,3.

4. The practice under which the Revenue Account of Railways and Irrigation Works used hitherto to be charged with interest at 4 per cent. on the capital outlay prior to 31st March 1900 and at 3½ per cent. on outlay subsequent to that date was changed with effect from the accounts of the year under review, and interest is now charged at the average rate at which Government pays interest on its obligations during each year. The effect of this change was to reduce the interest charged to Railways and Irrigation works by a corresponding increase in the amount of interest shown in the accounts as paid on ordinary debt. The working expenses of the State Railways and surplus profits paid to Companies were also for the first time taken in reduction of the gross receipts on the revenue side instead of being shown separately as expenditure as used to be done formerly.

5. Another important change in classification has been in the direction of bringing together into one group the heads under which receipts and charges under the administrative control of the Army and Military Supply Departments of the Government of India are shown in the Estimates and Accounts. To carry out this object the head Marine which included both naval receipts and expenditure, and also certain civil receipts and charges connected with the administration of ports, coast lights and other cognate matters, has been split up into two heads, a head Marine in the Military group for the former class of receipts and expenditure, and a head Ports and Pilotage in the group Civil Departments for the latter. The head Military Works formerly in the group Other Public Works and the head Special Defence Works formerly a group by itself on the expenditure side, have both been brought under the Military group. In the present report the figures for 1905-06 as well as the figures for the Budget and Revised Estimates for 1906-07 have been recast so as to correspond with the revised classification; the working expenses of State Railways and surplus profits paid to Companies have also likewise been deducted from the gross receipts on the revenue side.

6. The following summary gives the Budget and Account figures of 1906-07 which are reviewed in this report. The details will be found in the statements on pages 175 to 190:—

8. The important variations under Principal Heads of Revenue are the following:—

	£	R
Land Revenue	+969,5	+1,45,42
Opium	+191,7	+28,76
Salt	—13,7	—2,06
Stamps	+103 5	+15,54

Other Heads	—3,4	—52
TOTAL	+1,060,7	+1,59,11

9. The improvement under Land Revenue occurred more or less in all the Provinces except Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam and represents the normal growth of revenue under the head materially aided by the favourable seasons—in many cases following years of scarcity. The increase under Opium was due to an increase in the number of chests sold, partly counterbalanced by a decrease in the price per chest. The increases under Stamps, Excise, Assessed Taxes and Registration were due to normal causes. The decrease under Provincial Rates was due to the abolition of the Famine, Patwari and Ryotwari Village Services with effect from 1st April 1906. The decline of Salt revenue was nominal owing to the fact that the actuals of the previous year in Madras comprised a considerable amount of arrear collections.

10. Under Interest there was a small improvement due to increased recoveries from Native States in India and to higher receipts from invested cash balance in England. Under Post Office the expansion of the department has been aided by the Imperialisation of the District Post. Under Telegraph increased message revenue led to an improvement. Under Mint there were larger credits on account of the percentage on value of new rupee coinage charged to the Gold Standard Reserve and on account of gain on bronze coinage. Under Civil Departments, there were decreases under Police and Medical partly set off by an increase under Education. Under Miscellaneous, receipts on account of Exchange were higher by £107.1 or R16,08, and there were extraordinary receipts such as £111.1 or R16,67 on account of two instalments of the Tibetan indemnity and £55.5 or R8,22 on account of sale of certain lands in Bombay.

11. Under Railways there were improvements chiefly, on the Eastern Bengal Railway (14,39) due to large pilgrim traffic in connection with the eclipses of the sun and moon in January 1907 and heavy grain traffic owing to scarcity in Eastern Bengal and Assam; on the North Western Railway (32,42) due to development of export grain traffic to Europe and opening of new lines, and on the Indian Midland Railway (12,10) due to development of traffic in wheat and other food grains, oilseeds and cotton. These increases were partly counterbalanced by decreases chiefly in the East Indian Railway (15,79) due to heavy expenditure on repairs of bridges, to costly repairs and renewals of engines and tenders, in the Rajputana-Malwa Railway (11,03) due to heavy outlay on the maintenance and renewals of permanent-way and structures and also to heavy repairs and renewals of locomotive engines and machinery, and in the Great Indian Peninsula Railway due to a fall in traffic in food grains and cotton owing to short crops and the production being below the average.

12. The increase under Irrigation was due mainly to the development of irrigation in the Punjab and the United Provinces. Under Other Public Works the improvement was due mainly to increased recoveries of rents, tolls and ferry receipts. The improvement under Military Receipts occurred £27.9 or R4,19 under Army, £4.5 or R67 under Marine, and £1.7 or R25 under Military Works. Under Army the excess was chiefly due to the improvement and extension of dairy farms, to the sale of a large number of transport animals and to larger issues of ordnance stores on payment, partly counterbalanced by smaller sales of provisions and stores and malt liquor, by less receipts from grass cultivation and by a smaller amount received from the War Office on account of capitation rate payable on account of Indian Native Regiments lent for service to the Colonies. The increase under Marine was due to the adjustment of recovery claims against the Royal Navy, Other Departments, etc., for two years 1905-06 and 1906-07 owing to a change in the system of accounting with effect from 1st April 1907.

13. A comparison of the expenditure side is given below :—

14. Under Direct Demands on the Revenues there was a general growth of expenditure due to the progressive development of administrative machinery and operations. The main increases occurred under Land Revenue (£69,7 or R10,46), due to revisions of district and ministerial establishments chiefly in Bengal and Madras, under Stamps (£58,1 or R8,72) due to normal causes, under Excise (£16,5 or R2,47) due to the appointment of Excise Commissioners in some of the provinces, under Opium (£20,8 or R3,13) due to better outturn of crop which was 107,312 maunds against 104,062 in 1905-06, under Customs (£17,7 or R2,65), due to reorganisation of establishments, introduction of the Imperial Customs Service, construction of motor launches, etc., and under Refunds (£16,3 or R2,44) chiefly under customs refunds in Bengal and Bombay.

15. Under Interest the increase was due partly to the change in the calculation and distribution of interest sanctioned in Secretary of State's Financial Despatch No. 143, dated 11th October 1907, under which a smaller amount of interest is now transferred to the Railways and Irrigation Revenue Accounts, and partly to additions to Permanent Debt, payment of interest on temporary loan obtained from the Gold Reserve Fund and increased payment of interest corresponding to growth of Savings Bank deposits. Under Post Office continued expansion of the department and the Imperialisation of the District Post led to an increase. Under Telegraph the increase was due to heavy repairs added to the normal expansion of the department. Under Mint the increase was caused by heavier coinage operations, both silver and bronze. In the Civil Departments the chief increases occurred under Police (£328,7 or R49,31) due to the introduction of reforms, under Education (£181,1 or R27,16) due to the expansion of education and to increased grants-in-aid, under Law and Justice—Courts of Law (£130,7 or R19,61) due to the partial separation of Judicial and Executive Establishments, to the entertainment of additional Judges, revision of ministerial establishments, etc., under Political (£116,6 or R17,49) mainly on account of the Amir's visit, under Scientific and Other Minor Departments (£71,2 or R10,68) due to larger expenditure of the Survey of India and Agricultural Departments, and under Fails (£49,7 or R7,46) due to increase in the jail population and in the price of food grains and raw materials. The specially high expenditure under General Administration in 1905-06 on account of the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales has been more than counter-balanced by increased expenditure in 1906-07 on various accounts such as the creation of the Military Finance Secretariat, the expansion of the Commerce and Industry Department, the appointment of a new Inspector General of Irrigation, and increased expenditure in the Foreign Secretariat of the Government of India and in the Eastern Bengal and Assam Secretariat. Under Miscellaneous the normal growth of Superannuation and Retired Allowances and of Stationery and Printing charges more than counterbalanced some decreases under Territorial and Political Pensions due to lapses and under Miscellaneous owing to the fact that the actuals of 1905-06 contained the bulk of the charges connected with the Royal visit. Under Famine increased charges for direct Famine relief in Bengal, United Provinces and Bombay and for Construction of Protective Irrigation Works, were balanced by reduced charges under Construction of Protective Railways and by smaller appropriation for Reduction or Avoidance of Debt. Under Railways and Irrigation there were decreases due chiefly to the revised method of adjustment of interest on debt already referred to. Under Other Public Works the increase was due to a larger programme of works being carried out chiefly in the Central Provinces and Eastern Bengal and Assam. Under Military Services the increase in expenditure occurred £390,7 under Army Charges, £109,8 under Marine, and £32,6 under Military Works, counterbalanced by a saving of £7,9 under Special Defences. The increase in the Army Charges occurred mainly in England under increased Home Charges of British Forces serving in India (£103,4) owing to the fact that the actuals of 1905-06 included a refund of £83,7 on account of 1903-04, under Stores for India including Reorganisation Stores (£143,4) due to greater demands for stores for India, under Indian Troop Service (£47,9) due to the conveyance of a large number of troops in part from South Africa to India and to the engagement of fresh ships for accelerated service, and under Retired Pay, etc., of British forces for service in India (£54,5). The increase of Marine charges was chiefly due to payments on account of vessels under construction. The increase under Military Works was due to the expansion of reorganisation measures.

17. Under Principal Heads of Revenue the improvement occurred mainly under Opium (£787,4); Land Revenue (£134,9), Excise (£97,8), Stamps (£80,6) and Assessed Taxes (£80,0), partly counterbalanced by deficiencies chiefly under Customs (£121,2). The improvement under Opium was caused chiefly by the high average price obtained for Bengal Opium, viz., Rs 13,91 per chest against Rs 11,25 assumed in the Budget, under Land Revenue more favourable seasons led to improvements on the revenue side chiefly in Punjab, Madras and Bombay, which were partly set off by a decline in Burma, while the expenditure side also showed considerable savings owing to the partial lapse of provisions for the improvement of administrative machinery. Excise, Stamps and Assessed Taxes revenues have grown more rapidly than estimated in the Budget; at the same time there have been savings under Excise and Stamps expenditure, due in the former case to the partial lapse of certain provisions for the improvement of administrative machinery and in the latter case to over-estimate of the cost of certain new kinds of stamps. The decline under Customs occurred under imports of spirits and under exports of rice from Burma and Bengal.

18. Under Interest an improvement of £126,9 in the receipts chiefly in the investment of Home Cash Balances, has been swallowed up in the much larger increase of expenditure due to the revised system of calculation and distribution of interest under which a considerably smaller amount of interest is now transferred to the Railways and Irrigation Revenue Accounts. Under Post Office the improvement occurred mainly under service postage stamps as a consequence of the Imperialisation of the District Post. Under Telegraph the improvement was caused by reduced purchase of English stores in order to keep down the balance of stores. Under Mint the increase is due to heavier coinage operations both in silver and in bronze. Civil Administrations show a small improvement on the whole, considerable excess expenditure was caused by the Amir's visit, by improvements of administrative machinery, e.g., the formation of the Military Finance Secretariat, additional Judges, etc., and by higher cost of jails; but these excesses were more than absorbed by savings caused by the non-drawal of Amir's subsidy, and by the partial lapse of provisions for Police, Education and Agricultural Reforms. Under Miscellaneous, there was an improvement of £150,0 under Exchange, while there were extraordinary and miscellaneous receipts chiefly two instalments of the Tibetan Indemnity £111,1 and sale of certain lands in Bombay £55,5. These improvements were partly counterbalanced by increase of Stationery and Printing charges (£58,6) chiefly in purchase of stationery and English stores.

19. The total loss due to Famine has been brought together in the following table, based on estimates framed by the most competent local authorities, which may be accepted as giving approximately the loss of revenue assignable to Famine. Suspensions of Land Revenue and Provincial Rates, which are not final losses, have been distinguished from remissions under those heads. The total loss of revenue in 1906-07 assigned to Famine was 81,21 as shown below:—

20. When the Budget Estimate was framed, India, the United Provinces and Bombay were the only provinces where famine was apprehended and substantial sums were provided to meet expenditure on direct Famine Relief; small provisions were also made for the Punjab and Madras. The agricultural condition improved considerably later on in India, the Punjab and Bombay and expenditure to the amounts anticipated was not required in those provinces. Madras entirely escaped the visitation, but on the other hand distress and failure of crops in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal necessitated relief operations. There was, however, a saving of 34,70 in the expenditure for direct Famine Relief. There were also savings of 50 and 12,58 in the expenditure on Construction of Protective Railways and Construction of Protective Irrigation Works, respectively. Under the former head the saving was chiefly caused by the postponement of certain works on the Bellary-Royadrug and Hospet-Kottur Railways; that under the latter head to short outlay on several projects in the Central Provinces and Bombay, to the slow progress of work on the Tribeni Canal in Bengal, to the transfer of the Lower Swat River Canal in the North-West Frontier Province to 49.—Irrigation Works, and to the restriction of the programme of works in Madras. The net result of these variations increased the amount available for the Reduction or Avoidance of Debt. Besides the charges on actual relief, expenditure was incurred under other heads either in the actual purchases of food supplies for men and animals or in the grant of compensation for dearness of provisions. These charges have been estimated by the local authorities, and are brought together in the following table, and the total charges direct and indirect may be set down at about 1,08,88:—

	India.	Central Provinces and Berar.	Burma.	E. B. and Assam.	Bengal.	U. P. of Agra and Oudh	Punjab.	Madras.	Bombay.	TOTAL.

21. The total loss of revenue and increase of expenditure due to famine may therefore be put down at about 1,90,09.

22. Under Railways the improvement over the Budget was nominal and caused by the revised system of charging interest as already referred to in para. 18. But for this change in the system of accounting the Railway Revenue accounts would have shown results considerably worse than the Budget. The following statement shows the chief variations between the Budget and the actuals as regards the net result of the traffic receipts and working expenses :—

23. The generally unfavourable results are due to heavier working expenses, high price of coal, heavier expenditure on repairs of bridges, costly repairs and renewals of engines, etc., while the occurrence of the Easter Holidays in the closing days of the year deferred the adjustment of traffic receipts. Heavy pilgrim and grain traffic on the Eastern Bengal Railway, heavy grain traffic to Europe taken with reduced working expenses consequent on late supply of sleepers on the North Western Railway, development of traffic in wheat and other food grains, oil seeds and cotton on the Indian Midland Railway caused the improvements on the respective lines. In the case of the Rajputana-Malwa and the Great Indian Peninsula Railways, there were decreases in traffic in food grains and cotton owing to short crops.

24. Under Irrigation the improvement was caused by the development of irrigation in the Punjab and the United Provinces and by the reduction in interest charges. Under Other Public Works an improvement in rents, tolls and ferry receipts, combined with a lapse of £135,8 under expenditure due mainly to short payments for land compensation and short outlay on brick manufacture in Eastern Bengal and Assam and to short outlay generally in Burma and Bengal.

25. Under Military Services the improvement of £449,3 occurred, £342,0 under Army, £45,6 under Military Works and £93,2 under Special Defences, partly counterbalanced by a decline of £31,4 under Marine. The improvement under Army was due to unusually large issues of ordnance stores to Native States on payment, to extensive sales of unserviceable and obsolete ordnance stores from arsenals and factories, to a refund by the War Office of pay of native troops during furlough which was earned while on field service in China and Somaliland, to more receipts on account of the Indian Troop Service mainly owing to the refund by the War Office of the extra cost of sea transport arising out of the despatch to India of short service men during the years 1903-04 to 1906-07, to considerable lapses of schedule measure, and to a considerable decrease under English stores owing to the cancellation of demands for supply of metals. These improvements were partly counterbalanced by increased expenditure under furlough allowances of officers of the Indian service and under Retired Pay, etc., of British forces for service in India. Under Military Works the reserve provision with the Government of India was not utilised to the fullest extent. Under Special Defences the improvement was caused by the curtailment of funds for mounting 7.5" B. L. guns and by the alterations of programme. The decline under Marine occurred under charges for vessels under construction.

26. The Budget provided for a deficit of £203,5 or ₹30,53 in the revenue on the whole account, but as a sum of £1,077,6 or ₹1,61,64 out of the Provincial and Local Expenditure was payable from past accumulations of balances a net surplus of £874,1 or ₹1,31,11 was provided for in the Estimates on the Imperial account. The accounts closed with a surplus on Imperial account of £1,589,3 or ₹2,38,39 and a surplus on Provincial and Local

... was therefore better by £1,589,3

—£874.1 = £715.2 or R1,07,28 and the net Provincial and Local receipts by £1,077.6 + £514.8 = £1,592.4 or R2,38,86. The improvement in the Provincial and Local accounts was caused largely by the allotments amounting to R90,22 by the Imperial Government to the Governments of Burma, the United Provinces and Bombay in connection with the new settlement concluded with the first Province, and for famine expenditure met from Provincial revenues in the other two. Increase of revenue in the United Provinces, Punjab, Madras and Bombay and decrease of expenditure in the last three Provinces and in Central Provinces also contributed to the improvement.

27. The details of these fluctuations are given below, the sign + meaning better, and — worse, than the estimate:—

28. The improvement in the Provincial and Local Sections occurred chiefly in Land Revenue, Stamps, Excise, Assessed Taxes, Registration, Irrigation and Other Public Works receipts; and in the charges under Land Revenue, Civil Departments chiefly Police, Education, Scientific, Famine, Irrigation and Other Public Works.

The excesses, distinguishing those requiring sanction from those for which extra grants have already been made, have been noticed under each head of expenditure, and the detailed reasons for the excess have been also there stated. 31. The receipts in this section exceeded the Budget Estimate by £983,0 or R1,47,45 and the actuals of the previous year by £1,060,7 or R1,59,11. As compared with the Budget by far the largest increase occurred under Opium (£829,4 or R1,24,42) due to the high average price obtained for Bengal opium, vis., R1,391 per chest against R1,125 assumed in the Budget Estimate, partly counterbalanced by a decline in Bombay Opium Pass fees. There were improvements also under Assessed Taxes (£80,6 or R12,09) due chiefly to improved trade conditions in Bombay and Bengal; under Excise (£80,9 or R12,13), Stamps (£59,2 or R8,89) and Registration (£25,0 or R3,76) due to growth of revenue at a more rapid pace than was allowed for in the Budget Estimates; under Land Revenue (£67,5 or R10,13) due to favourable seasons chiefly in the Punjab, Madras and Bombay, partly set off by a decline in Burma; and under Provincial Rates (£19,3 or R2,89) due to an over-estimate of the effects of the abolition of the Famine, Patwari and Ryotwari Village Service cesses with effect from 1st April 1906. These improvements were partly counterbalanced by decreases under Customs (£112,5 or R16,88) owing chiefly to short receipts from imports of spirits and exports of rice from Burma and Bengal; under Salt (£37,3 or R5,60) due to over-estimate of the excise duty on local manufacture in Madras; under Forest (£21,0 or R3,16) due chiefly to contraction of departmental operations, and under Tributes (£8,1 or R1,22) due to a suspension of the payment of contribution for special military forces by Jowrah.

32. As compared with the actuals of the past year, the bulk of the increase (£969,5 or R1,45,42) was due to the growth of Land Revenue. There were also increases of £191,7 or R28,76 under Opium, due to the increase in the number of chests sold, and of £103,5 or R15,54 under Stamps, £210,4 or R31,56 under Excise, £3,7 or R55 under Customs, £102,4 or R15,36 under Assessed Taxes and £17,7 or R2,67 under Registration, due to normal growth. On the other hand there were decreases under Provincial Rates (£517,4 or R77,62) due to the abolition of certain cesses as already mentioned, and minor decreases (£13,7 or R2,06) under Salt and of £10,7 or R1,61 under Forest.

33. The revenue under this head proved better than the actuals of the previous year by 1,45,42, and exceeded the anticipations of the Budget Estimate by 10,13. As usual, Ordinary Land Revenue contributed the bulk of the improvement compared with the Budget (46,12). There was also an excess of 3,30 under Sale of Proprietary Right, etc., but partly setting off these increases Miscellaneous Revenue and Capitation Tax showed slight deficiencies.

34. Ordinary Land Revenue proved better than the Budget Estimate by 26,12, and showed an advance of 1,82,61 over the actuals of the previous year. The improvements over the Budget occurred chiefly in the Punjab, Madras and Bombay, and were partly counterbalanced by decreases in the Central Provinces, Burma and the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh. Favourable seasons in Ajmer and Coorg, and enhancement of assessment in parts of Baluchistan caused an excess of 91 over the Budget Estimate in India. In the Central Provinces, enhancement of revenue was suspended in some parts of Buldana, and thus the increase of revenue anticipated in the Budget Estimate was not realised. In Burma a considerable increase was estimated in the Budget on account of revision of settlements, original settlements and extension of cultivation; but owing to the failure of crops in some districts through insufficient or untimely rainfall and to the damage done to crops over a large area in the Hanthawady and Maubin districts by floods in consequence of the high rise of the Irrawaddy, the actual revenue realised was only 6 lakhs in excess of that of the previous year, and 16½ lakhs short of the Budget Estimate. In Eastern Bengal and Assam there was a small improvement (99) owing to improved settlements, and better collection on the introduction of the Mauzadari system. In Bengal there was an insignificant decrease. In the United Provinces of Agra and

Oudh, the increase of revenue estimated in the Budget was not fully realised, mainly on account of damage done to the kharif of 1906 by floods in the eastern districts, and increased suspensions and remissions for the kharif of 1905 and rabi of 1906, partly counterbalanced by improvements in the collections from Tarae and Bhabar Government Estates. In the Punjab the actuals were better than the Budget by 7,12 owing to good harvest, collection of enhanced assessments, and satisfactory working of the Ferozepore Grey canals. In the North-West Frontier Province, the improvement over the Budget was due to revised assessments and collection of arrears in certain districts, and to the resumption of certain jagirs and muafis in the Kohat district. A favourable season, the partial realisation of large amounts outstanding in the beginning of 1906-7, and the realisation of arrears of Ryotwari Village Cess which used to be credited to Miscellaneous Land Revenue before the abolition of the Ryotwari Village Service Fund with effect from 1st April 1906, caused an excess of 10,84 over the Budget Estimate in Madras. The largest improvement amounting to 30,41 occurred in Bombay, and was due to the fact that the season having been considerably better than normal, a considerable amount of suspended revenue was recovered. Under Assessment of Alienated Lands less Quit Rents the revenue fell short of the Budget Estimate by 22. The shortage occurred in Bombay, and was due to normal causes. Under Sale of Proprietary Rights, Sale of Waste Lands, etc., the actuals were considerably lower than those of the previous year, owing to the fact that 12 per cent. of the collections on Government Estates in Bengal formerly taken to this head, now go under Ordinary Revenue, and to the fact that the receipts in Burma representing capitalized value of Land Revenue on land, made over to the Burma Railways Company, were considerably higher in the year 1905-6. This is a fluctuating item of revenue and not susceptible of close estimation. The Budget was exceeded by 3,30. The largest excess occurred in the Punjab, and is ascribed to unexpected realisations in the Delhi district. Under Capitation Tax or House Tax in lieu thereof, etc., the Budget Estimate of the revenues in Burma was pitched too high. Under Miscellaneous Revenue the Budget Estimate proved considerably too high in Burma (9,30), owing to the fishery auction sales not having fetched as good prices as was anticipated, to the Burma Oil Company having restricted the output of petroleum, and to smaller receipts from royalty on rubies. There were also deficiencies in Eastern Bengal and Assam (1,28) owing to suspension of recoveries on account of Survey and Settlement charges in Backergunjin consideration of the prevailing distress; in Bengal (5,05) due to the postponement of recoveries on account of Survey and Settlement in Behar (2,80) owing to distress and to the fact that a large deduction by transfer adjustment on account of erroneous credits in previous years was made in the year under report; and in Madras (41) due to the revenue from Village Service Inams in Proprietary Estates having fallen below the anticipation in the Budget, owing to the late introduction of the Act in several of the Estates. These deficiencies were partly counterbalanced by excesses in Bombay (3,37) due to recoveries from the Bombay Improvement Trust in connection with land acquired by Government and transferred to it in the North-West Frontier Province and India chiefly under Tirni or Grazing fees, in the Punjab (1,50) under various detailed heads, such as Mutation fees, partly due to the plague mortality of the year, and in the Central Provinces (38) due to increase receipts from quarries, etc.

35. The explanation of the variations in the Portion of Land Revenue due to Irrigation is given in the Public Works portion of this report under the head Irrigation—vide paragraph 256.

37 The receipts under this head exceeded the Budget and the actuals of the previous year by 1,24,42 and 28,76, respectively. The improvement occurred chiefly under Sale of Bengal Opium and 52,800 chests were sold at an average price of about Rs 391 per chest against Rs 125 anticipated in the Budget. In the previous year the average price was higher (1,434) but the number of chests sold smaller (49,200). There has been a decline under Bombay Opium Pass Fees owing to the uncertain state of the China Market on account of the doubts as to the future action of the British and the Chinese Governments with regard to the drug, but the decline was not quite so large as the Revised Estimates anticipated, owing to a sudden increase in exports in March 1907, after a period of stagnation. Under Excise Opium there was an increase over the Budget in the Central Provinces owing to the introduction of the Ghazipur Opium in Berar districts, in Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal and United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, to the increased consumption of the drug and in the Punjab to the demand for Excise Opium in preference to other indigenous varieties. In Burma, the receipts show a decrease owing to restriction of sales.

40. The receipts under this head fell short of the Budget by 5,60, and the actuals of the previous year by 2,06. The decrease occurred chiefly under Excise on Local Manufacture in Madras, partly counterbalanced by an increase under Duty on Imported Salt in Bengal. The duty was reduced from 1½ to ₹1 per maund with effect from 20th March 1907, the previous reduction from 2 to ₹1½ having had effect from 22nd March 1905. Under Sale of Government Salt there was an increase under India chiefly in the sale-proceeds of the high priced salt at Sambhar, but in Madras the Budget proved too high owing to reduced demands of the Fishing trade. Under Excise on Local Manufacture, the decline in India occurred in the receipts at the Cis-Indus and Kolabagh Mines (1,50) and other Sources (42), partly counterbalanced by higher realisations at Sambhar (1,79). In Madras the Budget Estimate proved too high having been based on the actuals of the previous year which comprised realisations on account of credit sales effected at the old and higher rate of duty in force before 22nd March 1905. In Bombay the decrease was due to restricted removals in anticipation of a reduction of duty. On the other hand there was an excess in Burma due to the gradual introduction of the system of direct taxation on locally manufactured salt. Under Duty on Imported Salt there was an improvement over the Budget Estimate in Bengal (6,15) following larger imports consequent on increased consumption due to the stimulus of successive reductions of duty, partly set off by a falling off in Burma due to partial displacement of imported salt by cheap country-made salt from the Tenasserim Division. Under Miscellaneous there were some variations from the Budget in Bengal and Bombay which nearly balanced each other.

41. As compared with the previous year the decreases in Madras (14,52) due chiefly to the inclusion in the previous year of arrear collections (18,25), partly counterbalanced by an improvement in the consumption of salt (4,00) and in India (2,11) due to unprecedented briskness of trade in the previous year, were partly counterbalanced by improvements in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal taken together, and Bombay due to the consumption stimulated by successive reductions of duty.

42. This is a progressive head of Revenue and the actuals shew an increase of 15,54 over those of the previous year. The Budget Estimate was exceeded to the extent of 8,89. Under Court-fee Stamps large excesses in the United Provinces and Madras are ascribed, as usual, to growth of litigation and that in the Punjab to improvement in the agricultural conditions. These excesses were partly set off by defects in the Central Provinces owing to plague, in Eastern Bengal and Assam owing to over-estimate, and in Bengal and Bombay to smaller receipts from probate duties, etc., and also in Bengal to the abolition of Salt Rowanas on which a Court-fee duty used to be levied. Under Commercial and other

IV.—Stamps—concluded.

Stamps the increases occurred chiefly in Eastern Bengal and Assam (2,47), Bengal (4,45) and the Punjab (1,04). In Eastern Bengal and Assam the increase occurred under Impressing Stamps and is attributed to the execution of a large number of bonds and mortgage deeds owing to scarcity and under Hundi Stamps due to the expansion of the jute trade. In Bengal it was due to larger revenue from the sale of Hundis (20) and other General Stamps (2,15) owing to the execution of a larger number of deeds consequent on failure of harvests and the higher price of food-grains as also to the growth of trade, to the activity in speculation in coal shares and to the floating of several Companies of a speculative nature. In the Punjab it followed the favourable rabi crop of 1906. On the other hand there were decreases in the Central Provinces (69) due to the outbreak of plague, in Burma (99) to unfavourable seasons of 1905 and 1906 and the consequent arrest of trade, in Madras (48) to over-estimate and in Bombay (27) to the reduction of stamp duty on Insurance Policies by Act V of 1906. Under Fines and Penalties, etc., there were excesses in Burma (84), owing to special receipts and in Madras (35) owing to large sales of special adhesive stamps. These improvements were partly set off by defects in Bengal (22) and Bombay (11) under composition duty, due in the former to no receipts from composition duty, and in the latter to a decrease in the composition of stamp duty owing to a decrease in the amount of debentures issued by the Port Trusts of Bombay and Karachi, the City Improvement Trust and the Bombay Municipality.

43. This is a progressive head of Revenue. The Budget failed to allow fully for the year's progress and was exceeded by 12,13, the actuals of the previous year being exceeded by as much as 31,56. The increase occurred in all the provinces except India, Burma and the United Provinces.

44. Under License and Distillery fees and duties for the sale of liquors and drugs, the increases in the Central Provinces (7,11), and the Punjab (2,17), were due to keen competition at auctions, in Bengal (2,76), to general prosperity and active demand for labour as also to careful settlements to break up monopolies and secure a full share of shop value, in Madras (10,75) to increased revenue from country spirits (8,74), mainly in consequence of the raising of the excise duty in the southern districts of the Presidency and from toddy (2,12), and in Bombay (4,53), to enhancement of still head duty coupled with increase in consumption. Partially counterbalancing these increases, there were decreases in India (25), and in Burma (5,35) owing partly to a drop in the Rangoon auction prices and partly to the introduction of the contract distillery system in the Tenasserim division which lowered the prices, in Eastern Bengal and Assam (79), due to prevailing scarcity and high wholesale price of ganja, and in the United Provinces

(8,20) due to the raising of the still head duty and to the heavy clearance of bonded spirits during the previous year in anticipation of the rise in duty. Under Opium, the falling off in India was nominal and due to the adjustment of certain receipts in the Punjab books. There was also a small decrease (31) in Bombay under Gain on Sale proceeds of Excise Opium owing to some of the opium chests having been purchased before the issue rates were reduced. The important decrease (5,98) occurred in Burma and more than absorbed the increases of all the other provinces taken together. It is ascribed to the effect of restriction on sales to consumers. All the other provinces showed increases. In Eastern Bengal and Assam (1,16), it occurred in the Assam Valley Division and is attributed to the prosperity of the people by the growth of the lac, cotton and jute industries. In Bengal (96), it was due to continued suppression of illicit opium, in the United Provinces (20) to increased consumption, in the Punjab (73) to the failure of poppy crops in the Punjab and the Hill States and the consequent depletion of stocks creating a demand for Malwa opium, and in Madras (1,24) to increased consumption and a diminution in the average cost of opium obtained from Bombay. Under Duty on Ganja the Eastern Bengal Budget was an under-estimate. In Madras the increase of duty led to an increase of revenue; in Bombay on the other hand the same cause led to a decline, unusually large quantities having been exported to foreign countries during the closing months of 1905-6, in anticipation of the enhancement of duty with effect from 1st April 1906. Under Other Receipts the realisations on account of fines and confiscations were somewhat low specially in Burma.

45. The Budget estimated for considerably reduced receipts under this head in accordance with the decision of Government to abolish the Famine and Patwari and Ryotwari Village Service cesses with effect from 1st April 1906. The actuals proved better than the Budget by 2,89 mainly under District and Local Rates and Cesses in Bombay, counterbalanced by a falling off in Proprietary Village Service cesses in Madras. Under District and Local Rates and Cesses, the Budget in Bombay provided as usual for remission of cesses but a full recovery being found possible in most cases, the anticipations of the Budget were exceeded by 7,11. There were excesses also in India (10), Punjab (1,91), and Madras (58), corresponding to better collections of Land Revenue. On the other hand there were deficiencies in the Central Provinces (18) and Burma (42) corresponding to reduced Land Revenue collections, in Eastern Bengal (71) and Bengal (1,93) due to reduced collections under Road and Public Works Cesses, and in United Provinces (47) due to remissions in the Bundelkhand District partly counterbalanced by enhanced Revenue from some districts. Under Village Service, Patwari and Chowkidari Cesses, there was an increase of 28 over the Budget in the United Provinces due to the extension of the operation of the Rural Police Rate Act; but on the other hand Madras showed a large decrease of 3,91 due to delay in the enfranchisement of Village Service Inams in several of the Proprietary Estates and the consequent levy of the cess late in the year. Under Famine Cesses there were some arrear collections in the United Provinces. Under Rate on Wards' Estates there was a deficiency of 28 in the United Provinces attributable mainly to the reduction during the year of the rate of contributions in some cases and to smaller realisations from certain estates.

46. The anticipated Customs revenue in the Budget fell off by 16,88 owing mainly to short receipts from imports of spirits and exports of rice from Burma and Bengal. The enhancement of duty on spirits and liqueurs from 26th February 1906, led to a rush of imports and withdrawals from bond at the close of 1905-06, with a view to obtain the benefit of the old tariff. This caused a drop in the imports in the year under review, in consequence of which the receipts from Import Duties declined. In Burma the fall was, to a certain extent, balanced by improved receipts under cotton manufactures (1,50), manufactured articles (98), metals and manufacture of metals (36) and petroleum (16). In Bengal the decrease was further augmented by a drop in the receipts from Import Duty on Cotton Manufacture (7,51), mainly the result of enormous imports of the previous years and of the movement in favour of indigenous articles. On the other hand there was an improvement of 4,29 under sugar, caused partly by increased supply of beet sugar from Germany in consequence of low price prevailing in that country and partly by unprecedented imports of cane sugar from Java owing to its similarity to the Indian products. There were also improvements under silver and other metals. Large imports of silver bars from the United Kingdom, necessitated by the purchases by Government from the local market, caused an increase of 8,50 over the Budget in Bombay. Under Export Duties large decreases occurred in Burma and Bengal. High prices prevailing and smaller quantities of rice available not only restricted the export from Bengal but diverted large quantities of Burma rice to non-dutiable Indian ports. Other causes of the decline in the Burmese trade were competition with Saigon in respect of Straits Settlements, Java and China markets, and heavy stocks of rice in Japan left after the Russo-Chinese war. On the other hand there was an expansion of exports of rice and paddy from Madras to Ceylon—the supplies from Eastern Bengal and Assam having failed owing to insufficiency of stocks. In Bombay also there was an expansion in the rice trade of Sind in consequence of the restriction of exports from Burma and Bengal. Greater demand for country made cotton goods caused an excess under Excise duty on Cotton Manufactures over those of the previous year, but the Budget estimate was too sanguine in Bombay and the Central Provinces. Under Land Customs and Miscellaneous the variations in Burma and Bengal occurred under overtime fees.

47. The receipts under this head, which shows a progressive growth, exceeded the Budget by 12,09 and the actuals of the previous year by 15,36. The improvement, due for the most part to prosperous trade conditions, was contributed to by all the provinces except Burma, where, on the contrary, the influence of plague, depression of various trades and diminution in the profits of certain firms in Rangoon, retarded the normal increase. The increase in India (82) and Eastern Bengal and Assam (64) occurred chiefly under deductions from salaries of Government Officers, and that in the Central Provinces was due to a better realisation of demands in consequence of favourable times. In Bengal (2,17) and Bombay (7,13) it was due to improved trade conditions, improvement of railway traffic earnings and more efficient assessment at the Presidency Towns. The growth of jute trade in parts of Bengal and the prosperous condition of the Mill industry and increase in the number of public securities in Bombay also caused an increase. The Estimates in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, the Punjab and Madras, proved too low. In the United Provinces the whole amount, instead of a moiety of the income tax on the net earnings of the Bengal and North-Western Railway, was adjusted in the year. In Madras a large number of Provident Fund Companies was assessed during the year and collections were also more promptly made.

48. The India figures include, in addition to the collections made in the districts directly administered by the Government of India, the recoveries by the Non-Civil Departments from the salaries of Government Officers. The details are given below:—

49. The total actuals were less than the Budget by 3,12, and those of the previous year by 1,76. The decrease as compared with the Budget, occurred in Burma and the Punjab. It was due in Burma mainly to the absence of extraction of timber by Government Agency in the Mandalay Division, and in the Northern Circle, to short extraction in Pegu and Tenasserim Circles, to large number of refuge teak logs in Minbu and Pyinmana Divisions having remained unsold, and to the non-delivery of the anticipated pyinkado sleepers caused by the outbreak of plague. The fall in the Punjab was attributed to the late arrival of timber in Kulu caused by difficulty of transport, to the curtailment of departmental operations, in consequence of scarcity of labour, to the stopping of the purchase of fuel by Railway, and to the allocation of a forest in the Montgomery Division for grazing by the Silladar Camel Corps. In India there was an improvement due to increased sale proceeds of timber and sandalwood; in the Central Provinces to steady demand for timber and fodder grass; in Bengal to large receipts from timber and other produce caused by general cessation of departmental operations, opening of the forest cart roads and successful working by the monopoly system, partly reduced by short demand from the Public Works Department, and by stoppage of sleeper cutting operations in the Sambalpur Division; in the United Provinces, to fines inflicted on timber contractors for illicit deodar sellings, and non-fulfilment of the conditions of their contract; in the North-West Frontier Province, to great demand for timber in the Dungagali and Tandiani Ranges; in Madras, to the extension of departmental system of exploitation of forest produce and the abolition of the permit system, which produced extensive sale of small timber, fuel and agricultural implements at new depôts; and in Bombay, to large quantity of timber put up for sale, to increased prices from the sale of teak trees standing on private lands and great demand for sleepers and fuel from Railways.

50. Under Timber and other produce removed by Government Agency there were decreases in all the provinces except India, North-West Frontier Province, Madras and Bombay. In the Central Provinces and Burma they were caused chiefly by the curtailment of departmental operation and the introduction of the policy of leasing out forest areas to be worked out by the purchasers. In Eastern Bengal (1,06) the decrease was due to reduced sales of sleepers from the Goalpara, Jalpaiguri and Garo Hills Divisions, and in Bengal (58) to the gradual cessation of departmental operation, by the sale of standing trees to purchasers in Kurseong, Sonthal Pergaunas and Puri (34), by the absence of demand from the Public Works Department in the Tista Division (5) and by the stoppage of sleeper cutting operation in Sambalpur (9). In the United Provinces there was a change in the system of working by which departmental working has given place to working through contractors and purchasers, to the leased deodar forests having come under a new working plan and to short demand for fuel for troops at Ranikhet, partly reduced by an increase caused by the supply of grass to the famine stricken tracts of the Jalaun District.

IX.—Forest—concluded.

The decline in the Punjab was due to similar causes. On the other hand there were improvements in India, North-West Frontier Province and Madras as already explained. The increase in Bombay was attributed to the operations in the Dangs having been undertaken on a larger scale, to better receipts from timber, sleeper and fuel, partly reduced by a decrease in the receipts from famine fodder in consequence of improved season.

51. Under Timber and other produce removed by consumers or purchasers the chief improvements occurred in the Central Provinces, Eastern Bengal, Bengal, United Provinces, the Punjab and Bombay. The increase in the Central Provinces was partly due to the forest areas being worked out by purchasers and partly to the steady demand for timber and fodder grass. The removal of large quantity of timber by purchasers, increased demand for fuel by the gardens in Jalpaiguri and better receipts from minor forest produce in Sibsagar, Khasi, Jaintia Hills and Jalpaiguri were responsible for the improvement in Eastern Bengal. Gradual cessation of departmental operations, successful disposal of trees marked in the Punjab and Gooling blocks and in Singhbhum Division, opening of cart roads and the introduction of monopoly system of working were the causes which led to the improvement in Bengal. The revision of working plan of the trans-Sarda forests of the Kheri Division and the cessation of departmental timber operation led to the increase in the United Provinces. The improvement in the Punjab was caused chiefly by the sale of standing trees and fuel, and that in Bombay by high prices of teak trees standing on private lands, by a large number of coupes put up for sale and by increased grazing fees in consequence of better supervision.

52. The increase under Other receipts was chiefly obtained from the United Provinces, Madras and Bombay. The improvement in the United Provinces was chiefly derived from fines for illicit deodar felling and unfulfilment of contract agreements, while that in the Punjab was mainly due to increased receipts from the sale of drift timber. The levying of higher compounding fees for forest offences and the hire of Government elephants to the Mysore Durbar for Khedda operations, led to the improvement in Madras. Increased penalties received from contractors and heavy fines necessitated for the prevention of forest offences caused an improvement in Bombay.

53. The total receipts under this head exceeded the Budget by 3,76 and the actuals of the previous year by 2,67 owing to increased receipts from Fees for Registering Documents in Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal, the Punjab and Madras. The increase is due to increase in the number of documents registered which was under-estimated in the Budget Estimate. The Revised Estimate allowed for the increase more fully but proved somewhat too sanguine for Bengal. A specially bad year marked by high prices and flood is mentioned as a special cause for the increase of sales and transfers in Bengal and Eastern Bengal. On the other hand Fees for Copies of Registered Documents were not realized to the extent anticipated in the Central Provinces and the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh. Under Other Receipts Madras shows a falling off owing to a relaxation of the rules regarding the production of encumbrance certificates in courts and in connection with State loans.

Section A.—PRINCIPAL HEADS OF REVENUE—concluded.XI.—Tributes from Native States—concluded.

54. The receipts under this head are for the most part fixed. The variations that occur, arise generally either from non-payment of dues or from advance or arrears collections. The total receipts fell short of the Budget by 1,22 but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 54.

55. Under Tributes and Contributions of Rs. 50,000 and over, there were recoveries of arrears from the Bundi (52), Kathiawar (73), Baroda (23) and Nandgaon (35). The last also paid the 1st instalment (35) for 1907-08 in advance. The full amount of subsidy has not been recovered from Kutch. Under Contributions for Special Military Forces, the decrease in India was due to suspension of payment by Jowrah and that in Bombay to deferment of payment till 1907-08 by the Miraj State (Senior). Under Tributes and Contributions under Rs. 50,000, the decrease under India is made up of short payments from the Banswara and Chirkhari States, partly counterbalanced by arrear payments from Kilchipur and Sailana. In the Central Provinces, advance payments were made by Sarangarh, Raigarh and Koria States. In Burma the decrease was due chiefly to the remission by the Local Government of one-half of the tribute from the Momeik State. The Bengal Budget was an under-estimate which was corrected in the Revised but owing to an advance payment of 4 by Belungir, the Revised has also been exceeded. Arrear recovery of Nazarana fees from Savantwadi State caused the increase over the Budget in Bombay under Fees on Succession to Native States.

56. The total expenditure showed a saving of £76,5 or R11,47 on the Budget, and an excess of £201,2 or R30,18 over the actuals of the previous year. As compared with the Budget, the most important savings occurred under Land Revenue (£67,4 or R10,11), Forest (£36,6 or R5,49), Stamps (£21,4 or R3,21), and Excise (£16,9 or R2,53), partly counter-balanced by excesses under Refunds and Drawbacks (£28,4 or R4,26), and Opium (£42,0 or R6,31). The saving under Land Revenue was due to the allotments for Additional Deputy Magistrates, for revision of the pay of ministerial establishments, and for the maintenance of record of rights not being utilised to the fullest extent in Bengal, to a delay in the introduction of schemes for revision of Kanungo establishment in the United Provinces, and of village establishments in Madras, and to an over-estimate of commissions on Land Revenue collections in Burma. The saving under Forest was due to the contraction of operations, in some of the provinces chiefly Burma, and the replacement in some cases of direct Government Agency, by contract or sale systems chiefly in the United Provinces and the Punjab. The saving under Stamps was the result of an over-estimate of the English expenditure owing to the value of some new stamps not having been fixed at the time the Budget Estimate was framed. The saving under Excise occurred almost wholly in Burma, due chiefly to delay in the reorganisation of the Excise Establishment. The excess under Opium was due to better outturn of crops in the Benares Opium Agency, while that under Refunds, etc., occurred principally in Custom Refunds in Bengal and Bombay.

57. The excess as compared with actuals of the previous year occurred more or less under almost all the heads excepting Assignments and Compensations, Provincial Rates and Forest which showed small decreases. The principal increases were:—Refunds (£16,3 or R2,44), Land Revenue (£69,7 or R10,46), Opium (£20,8 or R3,13), Stamps (£58,1 or R8,72), Excise (£16,5 or R2,47), Customs (£17,7 or R2,65), and Registration (£11,8 or R1,77). The gradual growth of departments taken with the causes which led to the variations from the Budget Estimates, explains the variations from the actuals of the previous year.

58. The total charges under this head proved higher than the Budget and the actuals of the previous year by 3,26 and 2,44 respectively. The increase occurred chiefly under Customs refunds. In Bengal there was an excess of 1,38 on this account owing to refunds of duty on silver bars locally purchased by Government and to refunds of export duty on rice and of import duty on arms. In Bombay the excess (2,08) was due to large refunds of duty on silver bars locally purchased by Government and to refunds to the Kashmir Durbar on export of silver and cotton piece-goods and to larger drawbacks due chiefly to larger exports of jinjili seed, originally imported from Kathiawar, to Europe. There was also an increase in Madras (49), due to drawback of import duty on kerosine oil, reshipped to Colombo and to refunds of import duty twice collected. Under Land Revenue the excess in Burma (17) was due to special receipts in the Mandalay and Bassein Districts and that in Madras (5) to the correction of an erroneous credit of about 16 to 1.—Land Revenue in the previous year instead of to VI.—Provincial Rates—Local, which was not foreseen in the Revised. Salt Refunds were over-estimated in all the provinces in which they occur. Reduction of salt duty from 22nd March 1905 accounts for the decrease over the previous year except in Bengal. Under Assessed Taxes the increase in the Central Provinces (9) was the result of initial excessive assessment for want of proper data in Berar, where the tax was newly introduced, and that in Bombay (6) was caused by the refund of income-tax recovered from Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway. Under Other Revenue Refunds the excess in India (11) represents refund of royalty paid in excess on padouk timber in the Andamans, in the Central Provinces (6) it represents remission of grazing dues in some districts; in Burma (17) it includes special Forest refunds; in Madras (7) it was due chiefly to the refund of the value of opium imported from Bombay to Cochin and confiscated to Government and in Bombay (15) to refunds of opium pass fees and of duty to certain Native States for assimilating their hemp drugs arrangements to those in British territory. Smaller Excise refunds in Bengal and higher refunds of Excise and Patwari Rate in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh and of Provincial Rates in Eastern Bengal and Assam account for the variations in those provinces.

59. The total expenditure fell short of that of the previous year by 19 but exceeded the Budget by 9 only, a saving of 1,40 under Land Revenue compensations having been more than made up by excess payments (1,15) under Salt compensations and (38) under Miscellaneous compensations, the differences under the other heads being insignificant. There were savings under Land Revenue Compensations in most of the provinces. The largest (48) occurred in Bombay, due to a reduction in the adjustment of the assessment of alienated lands owing partly to over-estimates in certain districts and partly to revision surveys in certain talukas of the Dharwar district. Savings occurred in Malikana payments in Eastern Bengal, Bengal and Madras—the last chiefly on account of the absence of the Raja of Malabar on pilgrimage. In United Provinces smaller payments on account of allowances to excluded proprietors were partly set off by increased payments for pensions in lieu of resumed lands. Under Salt Compensations the excess in India (74) was due to increased royalty (1,01) paid to the Jodhpur and Jaipur States under the Sambhar Lake Treaty, corresponding to increased sales of the previous year at Sambhar, partly counterbalanced by non-payment during the year of an instalment each to Bhawalpur (20) and Datia (5) States, and that in Madras (40) to the payment to the Pudukkottai State of the compensation for the suppression of salt manufacture in that State for two calendar years 1905 and 1906. Under Excise Compensations the excess in Madras (19) was due to the payment of the three quarterly instalments of the amount payable to the Banganapalle State on account of the lease of the opium and abkari revenue of the State taken over by Government, for which there was no provision in the Budget, while the saving in Bombay (27) was due to delay in preferring their claims by the Sangli and Jawhar States. Under Miscellaneous Compensations there was an excess of 43 in the Punjab over the Budget, on account of payments for the prevention of "Cho" torrents. The excesses of 77 (Imperial) in India and 5 out of 27 (Imperial) in Madras await sanction of the Government of India.

60. The Indian charges fell short of the Budget Estimate by 10,02 but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 10,71. The variations are distributed between the several heads and are referred to in detail below. On the whole the Budget provided for a progressive development of administrative machinery and operations, but the provisions were not utilised to the fullest extent in many cases, e.g., additional Deputy Magistrates and revision of pay of ministerial establishments in Bengal, maintenance of record of rights in certain districts in Bengal, and revised scales of village establishments in Madras. Land Revenue collections and the commissions thereon were considerably over-estimated in Burma. There were also large savings in the charges for encumbered estates in the United Provinces.

61. Under Charges of District Administration there was a saving of 3,37, due mainly to the partial lapse of provisions for additional Deputy Magistrates, and increase of pay of ministerial establishments in Bengal. There were savings also in Bombay (1,63) in the provisions for temporary establishment and for the survey of Talukdari villages, but on the other hand there were excesses in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (73) due to high expenditure under establishments, purchase of tents, etc., and small excesses in most of the other provinces due to normal causes. Survey and Settlement charges exceeded the Budget Estimate by 2,91. The Budget proved specially low for Bengal and although the charges were not quite as high as in 1905-06, was exceeded to the extent of 2,18 under Settlement operations (1,13), Bengal Drawing Office (48), and Survey operations (51). In India settlement operations in Nasirabad, Coorg, Ajmer and the Maunpur pergunnah of the Central India Agency, caused an excess over the estimate after absorbing a saving of 16 under Surveys. Additional grants aggregating 12 were sanctioned for the Ajmer-Merwara settlements. In Burma and the Punjab also the Budget proved too low, the allowance for probable savings having been pitched somewhat high. In the North-West Frontier Province settlement operations in the Hazara District continued later than was anticipated in the Budget and necessitated a re-appropriation of 19 from other heads. On the other hand there were savings in the Central Provinces (25) due to the deferment by some months of the Damoh map amendment, Jubbulpore settlement operations and Nimar survey and settlement of ryotwari villages, in Madras (35) due to the lapse of a provision of 30 for temporary establishment for preparing settlement registers and accounts, and in Bombay (31) on account of recoveries from Jamrao Canal Colonists on account of demarcation and division of waste lands. These recoveries were not anticipated in the Budget and were only partially anticipated in the Revised.

62. Under Land Records and Agriculture there were savings to the extent of 5.42 contributed by almost all the provinces except Burma and Eastern Bengal. The most important lapse being that of the lump provision of (1,81) for the maintenance of record-of-rights in Balasore and Cuttack in Bengal. In the United Provinces a lump allotment for improving the position of the Kanungo Establishment was only partially utilised, and two Land Record Survey parties were abolished, while the grants for petty construction and repairs and survey and map charges were not operated upon to the fullest extent. In the Central Provinces, the North West Frontier Province and the Punjab the savings occurred in the payments to Patwaris and in the case of the Punjab also in the lapse of a provision for the construction of a Patwar-khana at Kangra. In Madras delay in introducing revised scales of village establishments in several of the proprietary estates caused a saving (1.09) after allowing for certain increases of salaries. In Bombay the decrease was chiefly in the charges of the village officers, establishments in Sind and in the transfer of the Agricultural School, Hyderabad to 26—Scientific and other Minor Departments. Against these savings there were excesses in Burma (56) due to over-estimate of probable savings and in Eastern Bengal and Assam (15) due to the development of the office of the Director after the partition. Under Management of Government Estates the Budget has been exceeded by 36 on the whole. In the Central Provinces the Budget was pitched too high. In Eastern Bengal and Assam the Budget is reported to have been inadequate probably partly in consequence of the grant of grain compensation which together with larger expenditure for temporary establishment and commission on collection of rents, caused an excess in Bengal proper. In the United Province there were savings due to the partial introduction of the new Forest Scheme in the Tarai and Bhabar Estates and to less expenditure on supplies and services and improvements. Under Commission on collection the decrease in Burma is in consequence of corresponding falling off in the collections, while that in Eastern Bengal and Assam is due to an over-estimate of the increase consequent on the substitution of the Mauzadari for the Tahsildari system. Under Allowances to District and Village Officers, there was a saving of 2.10 almost entirely in Madras due to delay in the introduction of revised scales of village establishments already referred to, partially counterbalanced by the transfer of the charges (72) for the construction and repair of village chavadis and ghaut huts to this head from 45—Civil Works in charge of Civil Officers. Other Charges showed savings in both the provinces in which they occurred. In the United Provinces the charges are on account of encumbered estates and show considerable savings owing to non-utilization of a portion of the grant provided in the Budget on account of purchase money of estates under the Bundelkhand Encumbered Estates' Act as also to savings under salaries and establishment of special judges owing to earlier termination of their appointments. In Madras the charges represent those of the Inam Commissioner and showed savings in consequence of delay in the commencement of the work connected with the enfranchisement of village service Inams in the proprietary estates in the Kistna and Nellore Districts. The Imperial excesses of 18 out of 30 in India, of 57 out of 58 over the reduced Grant in Eastern Bengal and Assam and of 10 out of 29 in North-West Frontier Province, await the sanction of Government of India.

63. There was a saving of £5 in the English expenditure in consequence of reduced demands for stores partly counterbalanced by increased expenditure on appeal cases.

64. The expenditure in India exceeded the Budget by 6,30 and the actuals of the previous year by 3,14. Payments to Cultivators constitute the bulk of the charges under this head and vary with the outturns of crops. These amounted to 26,645 maunds and 80,667 maunds in the Behar and Benares Agencies, respectively, against 37,725 and 75,000 estimated in the Budget and led to a saving of 19,42 in the Behar and to an excess of 27,40 in the Benares Agency. Under Opium Factory the decrease (1,32) was due to short payment for timber (75) and to reduced expenditure on freight (47) and manufacture charges (7). Under District Staff the saving (45) occurred mainly under salaries (22), establishment (19) and supplies and services (5). The excess as compared with the actuals of the previous year was chiefly due to increased payments to cultivators caused by greater yield of the crop. The Imperial excess of 3 out of 7 in Bombay still requires the sanction of the Government of India.

65. The Indian expenditure was less than the Budget Estimate by 137, but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 5. The saving of Budget grant occurred mainly under Salaries, etc., Establishments (76) and under Purchase and Freight (58). Under Salaries, etc., Establishments, India showed a saving of 38 partly under petty construction and repairs (19), partly under Preventive Establishment (16) due to vacancies and absences on leave and partly under salaries (7) due to lower rate of pay drawn by the Assistant Commissioner, Sambhar Lake Division. In Madras the increase noticed in the previous year on account of high demands was not maintained and the Budget proved an over-estimate. The saving of 50 under Purchase and Freight occurred under freight and other charges for export and import of salt (27), petty works for manufacture and storage of salt (17) and charges for conveying salt for fish-curing purposes. The Board of Revenue attributes the decrease to large stocks of salt in the fish-curing yards on the West Coast which reduced the import and to the change in the system of supply, the salt required for these yards having been removed by rail from the Madras Depot instead of being imported by sea. The Imperial excesses of 7 in Eastern Bengal and Assam, 1 in Bengal and 27 (over the reduced grant) in Bombay require to be sanctioned.

66. The excess in the expenditure in England was due to larger demand for stores than was anticipated in the forecast.

67. The Indian expenditure exceeded the Budget Estimate by 35, but fell short of the actuals of the previous year by 5. The excess (35) as compared with the Budget, is made up of an excess under Charges on sale of stamps including discount (55) and a saving under Superintendence, etc. (20). The excess occurred mainly in Eastern Bengal and Assam (21) and Bengal (32), and was due to larger payment of discount and rewards to informers, partly counterbalanced by a saving in Bombay (16) due to the falling off in revenue and insufficient allowance for the payment of discount on the sale of unified stamps by the Postal Department. The saving under Superintendence, etc., chiefly occurred in India (6) and the Punjab (8). Non-utilisation of the provision for the temporary establishment, combined with less expenditure for contingent, landing, freight and packing charges accounted for the saving in the former, while short contingent expenditure explained that in the latter. The deduction on account of value of Stamps supplied from Central Stores fell short of the Budget in India by 41 and was the result of over-estimate in the Central Provinces (25), of smaller outlay on stamps in Burma (8), of smaller supply of stamps in the United Provinces (20) and of discontinuance of the issue of India Revenue and several denominations of General and Court-fee stamps in Bombay (30); but these were partly counterbalanced by increased sale of stamps in Eastern Bengal and Assam (11), the Punjab (17) and Madras (9). The Imperial excesses of 36 in India and 2 in North-West Frontier Province and of 8 out of 18 in Eastern Bengal and Assam and 1 out of 5 in Madras require to be sanctioned.

68. The saving in England was due to over-estimate, owing to the price of some new stamps not having been fixed when the Budget was framed.

69. The Indian charges fell short of the Budget by 2,53, but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 2,46. The saving, as compared with the Budget, occurred almost wholly in Burma and was due to the late appointment of the Excise Commissioner, to the entertainment of the establishment for a part only of the year, to the provision for additional establishment not having been required (1,53) and to short payment on rewards in opium cases, secret service and travelling allowances (60). The savings in the Central Provinces (37) on account of the entertainment of a part only of the sanctioned establishment and in Bombay (22) on account of the partial utilisation of the provision for the revision of Excise Establishment, were set off by an increased expenditure in India (61) in consequence of the creation of the new Excise Laboratory at Kasauli and on account of salary and establishment of the Excise Commissioner, Indore, a newly created appointment. These variations were all foreseen in the Revised. The variations in other provinces were small and do not call for any explanation. The Imperial excesses of 61 in India and 1 (over the reduced grant) in Bombay require to be sanctioned.

70. As compared with the actuals of the previous year the increase occurred mainly in the first four provinces. The appointment of Excise Commissioners in India and Burma, the reorganisation of Excise Establishment in the Central Provinces and the charges of the new Central Distillery at Jorhat in Eastern Bengal account for the increase.

72. The expenditure under this head exceeded the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 1,29 and 2,69 respectively. The increase over the Budget was contributed to by Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal, Madras and Bombay. Burma alone showed a saving of 22 due mainly to the non-entertainment of an Assistant Collector, to the non-utilisation of the provision for increased rate of salary for the Superintendent of the Preventive Service and to less outlay on overtime and holiday allowances, and supplies and services. The increase in Eastern Bengal and Assam (10) was due to higher charges for overtime and holiday allowances and to purchase and repair of Preventive Service boats and steamers; that in Bengal (61) to reorganisation of the Preventive Establishment, to change of practice in the payments of overtime allowances and to grain and house allowances, partly set off by savings under Collector's Establishment owing to the provision for Kidderpore Dock Establishment not having been fully utilised, and under Appraising Establishment, supplies and services and contingencies; and that in Bombay (77) to leave arrangements, extra establishments, payment of grain compensation and plague allowances, and charges for the construction of a boat and overtime allowances. The above causes with the introduction of the Imperial Custom Service and construction of motor launches, explain the increases of the actuals as compared with the previous year. The Imperial excesses of 3 in Madras, of 1 out of 61 in Bengal and of 44 out of 77 in Bombay, require to be sanctioned.

The increase occurred chiefly in Bengal, due to the grant of grain compensation allowance, to provisional increase of salaries of clerks and to entertainment of additional establishment at Calcutta. The variations in other Provinces are small and do not call for any remarks. The Imperial excesses of 1 each in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bombay require to be sanctioned.

* Excess over the reduced grant.

74. The Indian expenditure showed a saving of 5,79 over the Budget which was spread over all the provinces except India and Bombay. Additional expenditure on the conversion of the Forest School at Dehra Dun into Forest Research Institute and College and large demand for railway fuel and sleepers, coupled with the payment to the landowners of a share on the sale-proceeds of royalty trees in the Thana Division, account mainly for the increases in India and Bombay, respectively. The savings in other provinces were mainly the results of contraction of operations including the replacement in some cases of direct Government Agency by contract or sale systems. As compared with the actuals of the previous year the decrease occurred chiefly in Burma (2,44), United Provinces (1,05), the Punjab (1,20) and Bombay (1,35), partly counterbalanced by increased expenditure in Eastern Bengal (1,14) and Madras (2,14). The decrease in Burma was due chiefly to the abandonment of timber extraction by Government Agency in the Northern Circle and to short extraction in the Pegu Circle. The decrease in the United Provinces resulted chiefly from the change in the system of working in the Jaunsar Division by which departmental working was replaced by working through contractors and purchasers, and from the leased deodar forest having come under a new working plan; that in the Punjab was due to the stoppage of departmental felling works in favour of sale of standing trees and to the absence of departmental conversion of timber for the earthquake relief works. The decrease in Bombay was due to short charges in connection with famine fodder operations. On the other hand, increased expenditure for the supervision of timber operations carried on by traders in the Goalpara Division, the entertainment of the full strength of establishment, and the payment of grain compensation allowance caused excess in Eastern Bengal. The extension of departmental exploitation of forest produce consequent on the abolition of permit system accounts mainly for the increase in expenditure in Madras.

75. The increase under General Direction in India (7) was due to higher rate of pay of the Inspector General and Assistant Inspector General of Forest. The actuals in the Central Provinces and Burma represent expenditure for the newly created appointments of the Chief Conservators of Forest and their office establishments. The decrease in Burma (16) occurred under purchase of elephants.

76. The saving of 2,05 under Timber and other produce removed from forests by Government Agency was the result of variations in all the provinces. Punjab showed the largest saving (1,52) partly due to abandonment of departmental timber and fuel works in favour of sales of standing trees, and partly to the conversion of departmental timber for the earthquake relief works being no longer necessary. There was a saving of 1,29 in the United Provinces due partly to the partial replacement of departmental work by work through contractors and partly to the leased deodar forest having come under a new working plan. Curtailment of departmental operation resulted in a saving (49) in the Central Provinces. The difficulty in carting sleepers to Siliguri in consequence of the prevalence of cattle disease, the closing of Tista Valley cart road at the end of the season, non-utilization of the provision for the Kurseong Division and the abandonment of the sleeper cutting operation in Sambalpur were the causes which led to a saving (30) in Bengal. Against these decreases, there were increases of 1,19 in Madras on account of the extension of departmental operations, of 36 in Burma due chiefly to increased extraction of timber in the Shwegyin Division partly reduced by the suspension of sleeper cutting work in the Mandalay Division, and by making over the neaped logs in Bhamo Division to lessees at special rates instead of completing the extraction by Government Agency; and of 14 in Bombay chiefly in the Southern Circle caused by large demand for railway fuel and sleepers and by some outstanding payments of the previous year, partly reduced by short expenditure on famine fodder.

77. Under Timber and other produce removed from the forests by consumers and purchasers the excess was contributed mainly by Bombay and was due chiefly to the payment of a share to landowners at 20 per cent on the sale proceeds of royalty trees in the Thana Division. Under Other Charges the saving was contributed by all the provinces except India, United Provinces and the Punjab. There was an apparent excess of 29 in India which occurred in consequence of a misclassification in the Budget on account of a portion of Forest Survey charges amounting to 31 being shown under Establishment instead of under Conservancy and Works. The increase of 52 in the United Provinces was caused chiefly by large payments to the Raja of Tehri for share of profits on the working of leased forests in the Jaunsar Division, and by heavy expenditure on road works and building suitable houses for forest officers and subordinates. The largest excess of 1,09 occurred in the Punjab due partly to an increased payment made to the Chamba State and partly to the payment of contribution towards the general expenditure and upkeep of the State roads in Bashahr reduced by short outlay on account of the canal not being sufficiently advanced to enable work to be started on the Pir Mahal plantation. These excesses were, however, more than met by savings in the other provinces. The decrease (1,70) in Burma was the result of short outlay partly in consequence of paucity of officers to supervise work and partly for want of labour, as well as to the provision for the purchase of elephants not being utilized to a considerable extent reduced by increased expenditure on Mergui rubber plantations. In Madras there was a saving of 1,72 due chiefly to the non-adjustment of the cost of a steam launch supplied for Godavery and to short outlay on the purchase of bulls and on certain works under Communications and Buildings. A saving (21) in the Central Provinces was the result of short expenditure on excavation of tanks, demarcation and fire-protection works partly in consequence of dearth of labour and partly on account of demarcation works in the Seoni Division being done by the Malguzars free of charge, in exchange for the produce on the lines being opened by them. In Eastern Bengal, 75 was saved mainly by short payments to the Manipur State in consequence of decrease of forest receipts of that State, by short expenditure on creeper cutting operations, by short outlay on buildings and fire protection works and on surveys carried on by the Imperial Survey Party. The saving in Bombay (33) occurred mainly on survey works chiefly in the Central Circle. The saving under Establishment (95) occurred mainly in the Central Provinces (46) and Burma (52). The decrease in expenditure in the former was attributable to non-utilization of the provision for Forest School and to savings from leave vacancies; and in the latter to lower paid officers having been on duty. An excess of 32 in India due chiefly to the development of the Dehra Forest School into the Forest Institute and College was saved by the misclassification in the Budget referred to under Other Charges.

78. The total expenditure under this head exceeded the Budget and the actuals of the previous year by 22 and 1,77, respectively. The increase over the actuals of the previous year is due generally to the growth of the department and the reorganisation of the Inspector General's Establishment in Eastern Bengal and Assam and of the District staff in most of the Provinces. The Budget allowed for these increases. The reorganisation was not carried out fully in Berar, Eastern Bengal and Bengal, but the consequent savings were more than made up by the opening of new offices in Eastern Bengal and Assam, the growth of work in the United Provinces and Madras and the grant of grain compensation allowance.

79. The receipts in this section showed an improvement of £126,9 or ₹19,04 over the Budget and of £34,9 or ₹5,24 over the actuals of the previous year. The increase as compared with the Budget is the result of an increase of £139,3 in England and a decrease of £12,4 in India. The improvement in England was due to the fact that the amount available for investment as well as the prevailing rate of interest was higher than estimated in the Budget. The decline in India occurred mainly under Interest on Advances to Railway Companies in India (£23,3 or ₹3,50) due to the purchase of the Kalka-Simla Railway by Government since January 1st, 1906; under Interest on Overdrawn Capital of Railway Companies in India (£13,7 or ₹2,05) caused by short overdrawals by Railway Companies other than Guaranteed; under Interest on Loans to Municipal and other Public-Corporations (£9,6 or ₹1,44) chiefly in Madras and Bombay. On the other hand there was an increase under Interest on Loans to Native States (£24,4 or ₹3,66) which occurred mainly in India and Bombay.

80. The increase as compared with the actuals of the previous year occurred in India (£24,3 or ₹3,64) and in England (£10,6 or ₹1,59). The improvement in India was caused by increased recoveries from Native States and cultivators partly counterbalanced by the decrease of interest on Loans to Railway Companies. The improvement in England was due to causes already mentioned.

83. Interest paid in 1906-7 by Local Governments to the Government of India on account of Loans held on Provincial account amounted to R19,39 or £129,3, while the actual sum realised and credited to the Provincial revenues amounted in the aggregate to R19,95 or £133,0.

84. The increase under Interest on Loans to Native States occurred under India (1,45) and Bombay (2,20). The excess in the former was due to increased recoveries chiefly from Tonk (44), Kota (35), Jhabua (23), Jaora (14), Durgapur (10) and Banswara (9); while that in the latter was due to recovery of interest from Native States in Kathiawar caused by the revision of loan account.

85. Under Interest on Loans to Presidency Corporations, the Budget was reduced in the Revised in Bengal in view of a possible non-recovery of certain arrears of interest from the Port Commissioners on account of the Kidderpore Dock and Port Trust Loans. But the recovery was actually effected.

86. Under Interest on Loans to Municipal and other Public Corporations (1,44) almost all the provinces showed decreases but chiefly Madras (69) and Bombay (45). In the Central Provinces the Jubbulpore Municipality paid advance instalments in 1905-6 while the Khandwa Municipality paid only one instalment instead of two, during the year 1906-7. In Burma the Budget Estimate was reduced in the Revised to correspond with the reduction in the amount of advances during the year. In the United Provinces the Budget was similarly reduced in the Revised, but the recovery of an advance instalment of interest by the Naini Tal Municipality raised the actuals to nearly the level of the Budget. In Madras provision was made in the Budget for the grant of loans to the District Board, Kurnool, for the construction of Kurnool-Dhone Railway and to certain Municipalities for the acquisition of village sites and for other sanitary measures. No loan was required as the construction of the railway was undertaken by Southern Mahratta Railway, and most of the provisions for sanitary measures lapsed. A sum of 35 paid by the Krishna District Board on loan granted for the construction of the Bezvada-Masulipatam Railway has also been adjusted by deduction from 13—Interest instead of under this head as anticipated in the Estimates. Postponement of recoveries due from the Ahmednagar Municipality and the payment, in previous year, of advance instalment of interest by the Ahmedabad and Poona Municipalities account for the decrease in Bombay.

87. The increase under Interest on Advances to Cultivators, etc., occurred in all the provinces except Bengal where there was a decline, caused by the transfer to principal of interest on Drainage and Embankment advances credited in previous year in consequence of a deduction in the rate of interest with retrospective effect. The chief increases occurred in the United Provinces, Punjab and Bombay, caused by increased realisations in consequence of the favourable character of the season. In the United Provinces the receipts from interest on advances under the Bundelkhand Encumbered Estates' Act were high.

88. With the purchase of the Kalka-Simla Railway by Government since 1st January 1906, Interest on Advances to Railway Companies ceased.

89. Under Interest on over-drawn Capital of Railway Companies the actual receipts were lower than Estimates chiefly on account of the Bengal Nagpur and Indian Midland Railways, partly counterbalanced by an excess on account of the Burma Railways.

90. Under Other Items the increase in India (48) was chiefly on account of interest on special advance of 25 lakhs to the Bank of Bengal repaid in February 1907; while the excess in Madras (17) was due to the levy of interest on instalments of sale amounts of tank-bed lands in the Madura District, larger interest on the unpaid portion of the purchase money of waste lands chiefly in the Ganjam District, and of penal interest on arrear rents for markets, ferry toll and choultries. These increases were partly reduced by short realisation of interest on Road and Public Cess in Bengal.

91. In England the increase (£139,3) was due to the sums available for investment being much larger and the rate of interest obtained being higher than was estimated.

* Includes 35 on account of interest paid by the Krishna District Board on the loan granted by Government for the construction of the Bezvada-Masulipatam Railway which has been adjusted by deduction from expenditure head.

92. The total charges in this section were more than the Budget by £633,4 or R95,01, and the actuals of the previous year by £502,3 or R75,35. The excesses were due mainly to the change in the calculation and distribution of interest sanctioned in the Secretary of State's Financial Despatch No. 143, dated 11th October 1907, under which a considerably smaller amount of interest is now transferred to the Railway and Irrigation Revenue Accounts and at the same time the transfer is effected by reduction partly of the English and partly of the Indian expenditure instead of the Indian expenditure only as hitherto. Apart from these transfers the gross Indian payments on account of Interest on Debt showed a saving of £13,6 or R2,04, while the English payments were £92,2 in excess. The payments on account of Interest on Other Obligations also exceeded the Budget Estimate by £20,8 or R3,11.

93. As compared with the actuals of the previous year, the gross charges showed increases of £553,9 or R 83,08 under Interest on Debt and £42,8 or R6,42 under Interest on Other Obligations. The first is due to additions to permanent debt, the payment of interest on temporary loan obtained from the Gold Standard Reserve and the payment of arrear interest on India 3 and 3½ per cent. stock as also on Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway 3½ per cent. Debentures. The second is due to a growth of Savings Bank Deposits.

95. In India a rupee loan of 450 lakhs, as provided for in the Budget, was raised on 31st July 1906, bearing interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. at an average rate of Rs 97-5-6-74. Of the loans previously notified for discharge 60 was paid consisting of 51 and 8 of the 4 and $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. loans respectively, and 1 on account of the Rajputana-Malwa Railway Debenture loan: 12,00 was also paid on account of the Gwalior loan in accordance with the terms of agreement with the Darbar. To meet the heavy telegraphic transfers drawn by the Secretary of State during December and the following months, a Temporary Loan of 3,80,25 bearing interest at $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. was taken from the silver branch of the Gold Standard Reserve which was discharged in the course of the year.

96. In England the Budget Estimate provided for a sterling loan of £2,000,0 for the discharge of Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Debentures to the extent of £749,9, and for advances to Railway Companies. The sterling loan was raised in May 1906 at an average rate of £94 16s. 5d. and £749,9 of the Railway Debentures were discharged.

97. The total interest on debt paid in India and in England is shown below:—

99. The total payment of interest in India was less than the Budget by 2,04, but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 15,30. The saving as compared with the Budget was in the interest on 3 and 3½ per cent Loans due to unclaimed interest (9,07). On the other hand there was an excess of 7,03 under Interest on Loans in course of discharge (4,09), and Discount on Loans and Miscellaneous (2,94). The former includes interest (3,96) on Temporary Loans of 3,80,25 obtained from the Gold Standard Reserve as stated in paragraph 95 which could not be anticipated in the Budget, but was foreseen in the Revised. There was also an excess of 13 under Interest on Expired Loans. The Budget Estimate of Discount on Loans proved too low.

100. As compared with the actuals of the preceding year the increase was mainly caused by the payment of interest on the new loan and on the temporary advance from the Gold Standard Reserve.

101. The difference between Accounts, Budget and Revised in the distribution of interest between Interest on Ordinary Debt and Interest on Debt for Railways and Irrigation Works, was caused by the new method of distribution sanctioned by the Secretary of State in his Financial Despatch No. 143, dated 11th October 1907.

The Provincial excesses in Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal and United Province of Agra and Oudh have been sanctioned while the Imperial excess of 2,77,79 in India requires to be sanctioned.

102. In England the increase was due to the absence of provision for Discount on the issue of £2,000,0 India 3 per cent. stock and was partly set off by the reduction of one quarter's interest as the loan was raised later than was anticipated.

103. The expenditure under this head was more than the Budget and the actuals of the previous year by 3,11, and 6,41, respectively. The increase as compared with the Budget occurred chiefly in India (2,27) and Bombay (79). The excess in the former occurred almost entirely under Savings Bank Deposits in the payment of interest on State Railway Provident Institution (1,57), on Post Office Savings Bank Deposits (81) and Civil Engineers' Provident Institution (15), indicating accumulation of deposits and expansion of business. The increase in Bombay occurred chiefly under Miscellaneous and was due to the payment of interest on cash balances of special funds of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India and Great Indian Peninsula Railway Companies and to the re-adjustment of interest in consequence of the revision of the Kathiawar Thana Circle loan account. These were partly foreseen in the Revised. The increase of 7 under this subhead in Madras was caused by the payment of interest on the proceeds of certain lands in the Godavari District erroneously sold and on the value of opium imported from Bombay at the British Port of Cochin confiscated to Government but subsequently refunded. Under Special Loans the decrease in India (29) was due chiefly to the transfer of interest on Book Debt Loan on account of Madho Rao to the United Provinces (27) where the transfer was anticipated and provided for in the Budget. Under Treasury Notes and Service Funds the decrease occurred in India (4) in the payment of interest on account of the Uncovenanted Service Family Pension Fund.

105. Under Post Office the net receipts showed improvements of £22,0 or R3,30 over the Budget and of £72,6 or R10,89 over the actuals of the previous year. The improvement over the Budget occurred mainly under Sale of Service Postage Stamps partly as a consequence of the Imperialisation of the District Post. The continued expansion of the Department as well as the Imperialisation of the District Post explains the increase over the actuals of the previous year.

106. The net results of the transactions of the Postal Department for the last five years are shown by the following figures:—

	Net Receipts.

1904-05	8,43
1905-06	11,34
1906-07	22,23

107. Under Telegraph the net charges showed a saving of £43,7 or R6,55 on the Budget Estimate but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by £6,5 or R98. The saving was due chiefly to reduction of programme of railway works, savings on departmental works, short outlay on construction of lines, reduced purchase of English stores in order to keep down the balance of stores, and increased message revenue and rents of lines. The excess over the previous year was due to heavy repairs and increased signalling and clerical establishment owing to expansion of the Department, partly counterbalanced by increased message revenue.

108. Under Mint the net receipts exceeded the Budget by £190,0 or R28,50 and the actuals of the previous year by £51,5 or R7,62. The improvements were chiefly due to larger credits on account of the percentage on value of new rupee coinage charged to the Gold Standard Reserve owing to heavy coinage and on account of profits on Bronze coinage, a large number of such coins having passed into circulation.

109. The receipts under this head exceeded the Budget Estimate by 3,61 and the actuals of the previous year by 14,95. The continued growth of the business of the Department explains the latter. The improvement over the Budget occurred mainly under Service Postage, the estimate not having allowed sufficiently for the imperialisation of the District post system and the consequent introduction of service postage on official correspondence on lines formerly served free by the District post. The expansion of Money Order Receipts proved higher than anticipated in the Budget by 31. Mail Cart, Parcel Van, etc., Receipts were higher by 25 mainly on the Kalka-Simla Tonga route during a temporary suspension of the Railway. The net payments to other Governments on account of Postal Exchange were less than were estimated by 15. These improvements over the Budget Estimate were partly counterbalanced by a comparatively trifling shortage (43) under Ordinary Postage and by a deficiency of 15 under Other Receipts, more or less an uncertain head.

110. The Indian expenditure under this head exceeded the Budget Estimate by 27 and the actuals of the previous year by 12,85, the latter being due as usual to the continued expansion of the department and also to the grant of grain compensation allowance. As compared with the Budget the saving under Chief Office, Calcutta (45) occurred in the Office of Account and Audit (61), owing to the grant for the revision of establishment not having been fully required, partly counterbalanced by an excess under Direction due to acting allowances, annual increments and entertainment of temporary establishments and to increased travelling and grain compensation allowances. Under Presidency and District Offices the increase of 2,19 over the Budget occurred under establishment (1,14) consequent on the transfer of some District Post Offices to Imperial (34) and increased payments for salaries of Post Masters, record clerks, clerks, sorters, postmen and village postmen, servants and temporary and experimental establishment, under allowances (1,63) chiefly on account of grain compensation allowance and under supplies and services (9), partly counterbalanced by savings under contingencies (17) and salaries (52) due in the latter chiefly to the appointment of 12 Superintendents not having been filled up from the beginning of the year as provided for in the Budget. The Budget under Conveyance of Mails has been fairly closely realised on the whole, there being a small increase of 13 only. In the details there was a large increase under additional establishment and contingencies (3,38) due mainly to the transfer of District Post charges to Imperial (2,33) and to larger payments for grain compensation allowances, rainy season charges and extra despatches, but there were savings under Railway Charges (3,01) and Other Charges chiefly ferry and boat allowances. The estimate under Discount on the Sale of Postage Stamps was pitched too high in the Budget but was reduced in the Revised. Under Subsidies the increase (25) was due to larger payments to River Steam Navigation Companies (21) consequent on the transfer of District Post Establishment to Imperial, to payment of arrear charges for mail service between Aden and Barbera (14), partly counterbalanced by the non-payments during 1906-07 of the second half-yearly payment (12) due to the Tigris and Euphrates Steam Navigation Company. Under Stationery and Printing the Budget was an underestimate chiefly under Stationery supplied from Central Stores. Under Miscellaneous the saving (16) as compared with the Budget occurred chiefly under Compensation for Lost Articles (7) and Other Charges (12). Under District Post Charges the saving in India (12) was due partly to adjustment of the District Post charges in Ajmer in the Postal Department and partly to less charges for Mail Service and Tri-weekly Postal Service between Nasirabad and Robat in Baluchistan. The absence of any charges in other provinces is due to the Imperialisation of the District Post Charges except in Baluchistan from 1st April 1906. Out of the excess of 3,22 (Imperial) over the Budget in India, 2,62 has been sanctioned, and the balance 60 requires to be sanctioned.

111. In England the variations from the Budget and accounts of the previous year were due chiefly to the variations in the demands for stores from India.

112. As compared with the Budget Estimate, there was an increase of 94 due to enhanced receipts from rents of railway, canal, and private lines.

113. The increase of 3,79 as compared with the previous year occurred principally under message revenue (3,33), and was due mainly to the revenue from inland private telegrams having risen by about 6 per cent., as was anticipated when the Budget Estimate was framed and to an improvement in State message revenue owing to the visit of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan.

Indo-European Telegraphs.

114. The actuals were better than the Budget Estimate for India by 72, due to an improvement in message revenue. The increase of ₹3,8 in England compared with the Budget was due mainly to an improvement in message receipts via Turkey, the payments by the Ottoman Telegraph Administration having been higher than were estimated.

115. The receipts in India exceeded those of the previous year by 2,47, the improvement being due to an increase in the message receipts from the Indian Telegraph Department. The increase in England (₹1,4) is accounted for by better message revenue via Turkey.

116. The excess outlay of £17,8 as compared with the Budget Estimate was made up of an increase of £42,4 under Revenue, and a lapse of £24,6 under Capital, of which £15,5 occurred in England. The short outlay under Capital was due to reduction of the programme of railway works, to savings on departmental works and to the demand for English stores being less than estimated for, while the excess under Revenue was mainly due to larger signalling and clerical establishments having been found necessary to cope with the traffic owing to the expansion of the Department.

117. As compared with the previous year, the total expenditure showed an increase of £28,6, and was made up of an increase of £44,0 under Revenue and of a short outlay of £15,4 under Capital. The decrease under Capital was owing chiefly to purchases of stores in England having been smaller in order to keep down the balance of stores, while the excess under Revenue occurred under signalling as explained above and on line maintenance due to heavier repairs.

Indo-European Telegraphs.

118. The lapse of £46,6 as compared with the Budget Estimate was chiefly due, under Capital, to short outlay on the construction of lines and the abandonment of certain buildings at Fao and on the Central Persia line, and, under Revenue, to savings under Signalling and General charges, to the Eastern Telegraph Company carrying a larger percentage of trans-Indian traffic, to fewer stores being required from England, and to a reduction in the amount paid on account of the Joint-Purse Guarantee owing to an increase in Indian traffic. As compared with the previous year there was an excess of £21,1, due to increased outlay both in India and England under Revenue in consequence of heavy repairs to cables in the Gulf Section and to payments in England taken in reduction of receipts being much greater, partly counter-balanced by less outlay on account of the Joint-Purse Guarantee as explained above. The excess of 1,49 (Imperial) in India was sanctioned.

119 The receipts under this head were better than the Budget by 32,63 Of this increase 24,23 was due to larger credit on account of the percentage on value of new rupee coinage charged to the Gold Standard Reserve There was also an increase of 7,14 under Gain on Bronze and Copper Coinage, due to a larger number of Bronze coins having passed into circulation during the year than was anticipated The small excess under Coinage Operations was due to a larger rupee coinage than was provided for in the Budget.

123. The receipts under this section exceeded the Budget by £4 or R6 only, but fell short of the actuals of the previous year by £17,2 or R2,58. The increase over the Budget occurred under Courts of Law (£7,1 or R1,06) due chiefly to higher receipts by Administrator General, Bengal, and special receipts in Burma and the Punjab; under Police (£4,0 or R60) chiefly under Cattle Pound receipts; under Education (£3,7 or R56) due to higher receipts of School fees and contributions from private persons; under Medical (£1,1 or R17) to increased private contributions; and under Scientific (£5,3 or R80) to larger receipts from fairs, tuition fees and cattle farms. These increases were almost counterbalanced by decreases under Jails (£9,6 or R1,44) due to small demand for jail manufactures and under Ports and Pilotage (£11,2 or R1,68) due to over-estimate in Bengal and to reduction in the Burma Coast Light Dues.

124. As compared with the previous year the principal decreases occurred under Police (£10,4 or ₹1,56) due to smaller credits for return of ordnance stores and lower receipts for Police supplied to Municipal, etc., Funds and under Medical (£12,2 or ₹1,84) chiefly under Contributions. The decrease was partly set off by an increase under Education (£11,6 or ₹1,74). *

126 The receipts under this head fell short of the Budget Estimate by 14 and the actuals of the previous year by 23 Under Sale proceeds of Jail Manufactures which comprise the bulk of the receipts the Budget Estimate proved too sanguine due in the Central Provinces (78) to non supply of uniform to the Police Department by the Akola Central Jail and to the adjustment in the accounts of 1905 06 of certain arrear recoveries of supplies to the Army Department expected in 1906 07 in Burma (5) to small demand for jail manufactures in Bengal (56) to smaller sale to Public Departments and in Madras (40) to lack of orders especially from the Army Department and to the rise of the price of raw material above rates on the basis of which contracts had been entered into These decreases were to some extent counterbalanced by somewhat improved receipts in the United Provinces (4) in the Punjab (10) and in Bombay (24) chiefly at the Ahmedabad Hyderabad and Dhulia Jails The net receipts under this head after deducting the corresponding charges under 127 P are given below —

127 Under Other Receipts the decrease in Bengal (6) was due to smaller miscellaneous receipts in the Punjab (16) to the abolition of the Mung Rasul Central Jail, and in Bombay (10) to fewer prisoners in

128. The receipts under this head showed an improvement of 60 over the Budget Estimate, but fell short of the actuals of the previous year by 1,56. The improvement occurred chiefly under Fees, Fines and Forfeitures, and was due in the Central Provinces (56) to high receipts on account of sale of unclaimed cattle and to opening of new cattle pounds, in Eastern Bengal and Assam (22) to local receipts of the District Fund, in Bengal (44) to receipts under cattle pound and Steam Boiler Inspection Fees, in the Punjab (10) to receipts from fines on and sale of unclaimed stray cattle and in Bombay (20) to receipts from Steam Boiler Inspection and cattle pounds. These increases were partly set off by decreases in Burma (39) in the receipts from gambling fees and slaughter house licenses, and in the United Provinces (14) in the receipts from sale of unclaimed cattle. Under Presidency Police larger recoveries from private employers of Ramosis mainly on account of grain compensation and increased pay led to an improvement of 50 in Bombay, but this was partly counterbalanced by lower receipts of 34 in Bengal owing to adjustment under XVIA.—Law and Justice, of fines for the prevention of cruelty to animals and to smaller receipts from fees and fines. Under Police supplied to Public Departments, &c., there were decreases in Burma (5) owing to the discontinuance of the contribution payable by the Mongruit State on account of additional Military Police employed in the Kodaung Township, in Eastern Bengal and Assam (22) owing to over-estimate, and in Madras (15) owing to the disbandment of the Tinnevely punitive police force and to excess recoveries in previous years. On the other hand there was an improvement in the receipts in the Central Provinces (7) on account of increased demands for Railway cash guards and on account of higher rate of pay of constables and in Bengal (5) and in the Punjab (13) on account of larger recoveries for punitive police. Under Other receipts there were decreases in Eastern Bengal and Assam

(12) owing to smaller receipts of the District Chowkidary Rewards Funds, in the Punjab (15) owing to over-estimate and in Madras (24) owing to the discontinuance of recovery of rent for huts of constables. These decreases were partly counterbalanced by increases in Burma (5) on account of rents realised from men of the Special Police Force on account of the increased accommodation provided for them and in Bombay (5) on account of recoveries of arrears of contributions from stations in Kathiawar.

129 The receipts fell short of the Budget by 160 and the actuals of the previous year by 19. The falling off as compared with the Budget occurred chiefly under Pilotage Receipts in Bengal (1,06) due to over-estimate which was corrected in the Revised and under Coast Light Dues in Burma (70) due to the reduction in the rate of Burma Coast Light Dues from one anna six pies to one anna two pies per ton by Notification dated 24th April 1906. The small improvement in Eastern Bengal and Assam under Pilotage Receipts (7) resulted from the development of the Chittagong Port. Under Registration and other Fees the Estimate of progressive increase in Bengal was not realised.

130. The receipts under this head were higher than the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 56 and 1,74, respectively. Receipts from Fees from Schools and Colleges exceeded the Budget Estimates chiefly in the United Provinces (39) and in the Punjab (32). These excesses were partly set off by lower receipts in the Central Provinces (10) due to revision of rates of fees and closure of schools owing to outbreak of plague, in Eastern Bengal and Assam (17) to reduction in the number of students in public schools, in Bengal (9) to smaller receipts from fees and in Madras (8) to low fee receipts in Arts and Engineering Colleges. Increased contributions from private persons in Eastern Bengal and Assam (41), from Native States and private persons towards the support of District Board Schools in Bengal (25), and from villages for the construction of rural school buildings in Madras (5), accounted for the improvement under Contributions. The decrease, under Other Receipts, occurred mainly under receipts from sale-proceeds of articles manufactured in the Reformatory Schools in the Central Provinces and Bengal and Technical Schools in Madras and also under rents of Boarding houses and other Miscellaneous receipts in Bengal. These decreases were partly counterbalanced by increases of (6) in Burma and (66) in the United Provinces due in the former to Standard Examination fees realised for the first time for which no Budget provision was made, while in the latter to the transfer of receipts appertaining to the photo-mechanical and lithographic department of the Civil Engineering College, Roorke, from "Stationery and Printing" to this head.

131. The receipts under this head showed an improvement of 17 over the Budget but fell short of the actuals of the previous year by 1,80. The improvement occurred mainly under Other Receipts and was due in Burma (8) to special receipts and private subscriptions, in Bengal (6) to special receipts on account of the Albert Victor Leper Asylum, in the United Provinces (7) to receipts from the sale-proceeds of lymph and in Madras (8) from sale of "finished" calves at the King Institute and arrear collections of an endowment in Nellore. Under Contributions the increases in Eastern Bengal and Assam (8), in Bengal (8) and in the United Provinces (5) were due to private contributions while the decline of 12 in the Central Provinces resulted from the non-recovery of dispensary contributions consequent on the provincialisation of Civil Surgeons' Office Establishment from 1st April 1906 and from the transfer of credit on account of tanks and wells to XXXI—Civil Works. The actuals of the previous year under this head included a special contribution (2,00) from the Calcutta Hospital Port Dues Fund to the Presidency General Hospital. Under Lunatic Asylum Receipts the fall in Burma (6) was due to over-estimate. The decline under Hospital Receipts in Bengal (18) was due to smaller receipts from paying-patients, while that in Bombay (7) to a decrease in the number of patients and to insufficient receipts of the Local Board Dispensaries and of nursing fees. The falling off of 5 in Madras under Medical College and School Fees was due to the Medical School and Minor Sanitary Engineering classes not having been as largely attended as was anticipated.

132. The receipts exceeded the Budget Estimate by 78. The revenue from Cinchona plantations fell short by 58 owing to diminished sale of Quinine, Bark, Seeds, etc., but this was more than made up by more or less increased receipts under all the other heads. The actuals of the year 1905-06 included special receipts from Public Exhibitions and Fairs on account of the Kumbh Mela at Allahabad, but there have been larger receipts in the year under review under most of the other heads specially Experimental Cultivation and Veterinary and Stallion receipts.

133. Under Receipts on account of Experimental Cultivation the increases were due in the Central Provinces (5) to the opening of the Experimental Farm at Akola and higher receipts from other farms, in Eastern Bengal and Assam (5) to the extension of experimental cultivation and in Madras (6) to the realisation of revenue by the Central Research and Teaching Institute, Coimbatore. Increased receipts from the sale of seeds and plants consequent upon the development of the business of gardens accounted for the improvement of 13 in the United Provinces under Botanical and other Public Garden Receipts. The decreases in Bengal (30) and in Madras (28) under Cinchona Plantations were due to diminished sale of Sulphate of Quinine and of Bark, Plants and Seeds. Under Receipts on account of Public Exhibitions and Fairs the increase of 19 in the United Provinces was due to arrear receipts of the Magh Fair at Allahabad. Veterinary and Stallion Receipts were higher in India (32) chiefly on account of increased sale-proceeds of unserviceable cattle at the Government Cattle Farm at Hissar, in the Punjab (8) on account of larger receipts from tuition fees in the Veterinary School, and in Bombay (13) on account of larger receipts from Veterinary College fees, larger recoveries of medicines supplied to the Petit Hospital and accumulated receipts from grazing fees at the Sholapur Cattle Farm. The larger receipts of Emigration Fees accounted for the increase of 10 in Bengal under Labour and Emigration but this was to some extent counterbalanced by an over-estimate in Eastern Bengal and Assam. Under Other Receipts the increase of 7 in India represented contributions mainly for the Daily Weather Report and that of 8 in the Central Provinces represented recovery of expenditure incurred in 1905-06. These increases were partly counterbalanced by a decline of 10 in Madras owing to short receipts from sale-proceeds of manufactured articles.

134. After excluding the actuals for 1905-06 and the Budget Estimate for 1906-07 on account of the expenditure of the Imperial Marine Department which has been transferred to Section L, as explained in the detailed remarks under the head "21.—Ports and Pilotage", the expenditure in this section showed an excess of £18,4 or R2,76 as compared with the Budget Estimate, and of £968,3 or R1,45,25 as compared with the actuals of the previous year. As compared with the Budget, there was an excess of £55,1 or R8,27 under General Administration, due chiefly to the formation of the Military Finance Secretariat of the Government of India, the deputation of officers on special duty, absences on privilege leave, and increased payments of hill journey allowances in the India Secretariats, the extra expenditure on account of the Durbar held at Agra in connection with the Amir's visit, and heavier charges for Commissioners mainly owing to absences on leave, the appointment of an additional Officer in the United Provinces, and revision of Commissioners, establishments in the Central Provinces and of Chowkidari Punchayats in Bengal; of £32,3 or R4,84 under Law and Justice—Courts of Law, due to the appointment of additional township Judges, Extra Assistant Commissioners and Myooks in Burma, the revision of establishments of Civil and Criminal Courts in the United Provinces, the payment of grain compensation allowance and an increase in the rates of pay of the ministerial staff in Eastern Bengal and Assam, and the employment of temporary Additional Judges and heavier payment of fees to pleaders in the Punjab; of £59,1 or R8,87 under Law and Justice—Jails, on account of the larger purchase of raw materials owing to the development of Jail industries, increase in jail population and high price of food grains, and of £106,2 or R15,93 under Political, due to the expenditure incurred in connection with the Amir's visit to India, partly reduced by savings in the subsidy payable to the Amir. Against these excesses, there were savings under Police (£69,4 or R10,41), Education (£93,6 or R14,04) and Scientific, &c., Departments (£73,1 or R10,97), due in the first case to the non-introduction of reforms in several provinces to the extent anticipated in the Budget, and to the lapse of the provision for Military Police in Burma and Eastern Bengal and Assam, in the second to the lapse of a considerable portion of the provision made in the Budget for the improvement of education, chiefly in Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam, and to the transfer of a portion of the grant made under this head in Madras to the Public Works Department for expenditure on the construction of Primary School buildings, and in the last case to sufficient progress not having been made with schemes for agricultural improvement in almost all provinces.

135. The increase as compared with the actuals of the previous year was contributed by all the heads. Of this £166 or R2,49 occurred under General Administration, due to creation of the Military Finance Secretariat, the expansion of the Commerce and Industry Department, the appointment of a new Inspector General of Irrigation, and increased expenditure in the Foreign Department chiefly owing to the sanction during the year of an additional appointment and certain local allowances to officers, and to the extra expenditure on the Secretariat and other offices in Eastern Bengal and Assam, in consequence of the partition having been incurred for the entire year, partly diminished by the absence of the special expenditure incurred in the previous year, in connection with the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales; £130,7 or R19,61 under Law and Justice—Courts of Law, due to the separation of Judicial and Executive establishments and change in the classification of certain charges between this head and Land Revenue in the Central Provinces, the employment of additional township Judges, Extra Assistant Commissioners and Myooks in Burma, increased rates of pay sanctioned for the ministerial staff and payment of grain allowance in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal, and heavier expenditure for additional Judges in the Punjab; £49,7 or R7,46 under Law and Justice—Jails due generally to the higher price of food grains, increase in Jail population and larger purchase of raw materials; £328, or R49,31 under Police, due to the introduction of Police reforms; £181,1 or R27,16 under Education, due to the expansion of education—primary, technical and university, and to larger payments of grants-in-aid; £68,2 or R10,23 under Medical, due to heavy expenditure on plague measures in Burma and the Punjab, to the additional expenditure due to the partition having been incurred for the whole year in Eastern Bengal and Assam, and to short recoveries from District Boards owing to a reduction in the rates of contribution towards the pay of Assistant Surgeons, higher travelling allowance charges and increased grants to dispensaries in the United Provinces; £116,6 or R17,49 under Political, mainly on account of the Amir's visit as stated above, and £71,2 or R10,68 under Scientific, etc., Departments, due to larger expenditure on account of the Survey of India and on agricultural improvements in all provinces, partly counterbalanced by a decrease due to the actuals of the previous year in Bombay having included a special grant of R3,00 to the Prince of Wales' Museum of Western India.

(a) Excess over the reduced grant.

136. The Indian expenditure under this head exceeded the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 7.67 and 4.04, respectively. As compared with the Budget, the excess occurred chiefly under Secretariat (2.78), Tour Charges (2.38) and Commissioners (1.55). The main cause of the excess under the first head was the constitution of the new Military Finance Branch (1.58) for which there was no provision in the Budget; the rest of the excess expenditure was due, as usual, to the employment of officers on special duty and absences on privilege leave, coupled with heavier payments of hill journey allowances to Secretariat clerks under the revised rules and larger expenditure consequent on the reorganisation of the Secretariat establishment in Burma. The increase under Tour Charges was caused by the additional expenditure on account of the Durbar held at Agra in connection with the visit of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan. The Budget under Commissioners was exceeded in every Province except Bombay; absences on privilege leave mainly contributed to the excess; other causes were the revision of the Establishment in the Central Provinces, the appointment of an additional Commissioner with establishment in the United Provinces, the revision of Chowkidari Panchayat in Bengal, and heavier outlay on steam boats in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal. As compared with the previous year, the excess was mainly contributed by India (2,81), and Eastern Bengal and Assam together with Bengal (2,52), and was distributed over several minor heads, Secretariat (3,93), Board of Revenue (1,01) Commissioners (1,17) and Account Offices (1,59), with a saving under Staff and Household (2,97). The increase in India is accounted for by the constitution of the Military Finance Branch, the expansion of the Commerce and Industry Department which was formed during the previous year, the creation of the appointment of Inspector General of Irrigation with his establishment and higher charges in the Foreign Department due to the appointment of an additional Assistant Secretary, the sanction of Local allowances to the Assistant Secretaries and heavier payments of hill journey allowances as stated above. The increase in Eastern Bengal and Assam together with Bengal was due to the recurring expenditure on account of the Secretariats, Board of Revenue, etc., of the new Province having been incurred for the whole year, while the actuals of the previous year included similar additional expenditure only from the 16th October 1905, the date of the partition. The decrease under Staff and Household occurred in almost every Province and is explained by the absence of the extra expenditure incurred during the previous year in connection with the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales.

137. Under Salaries of Governor General, Governors, etc., the excesses occurred in the Central Provinces (14), and Bengal (8), due to arrangements in consequence of the absence on leave of the Chief Commissioner and the Lieutenant Governor, and in Eastern Bengal and Assam (4) on account of transit pay of the new Lieutenant Governor, while there was a saving in Bombay (8) in the contingencies of the Commissioner in Sindh. The excess under Staff and Household is made up of increases in Bengal (38) due to the payment of the special furniture grant on change of incumbent for which no provision was made in the Budget and to larger motor car charges, in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (40) caused by the visit of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan and by the charges for the repair of a portion of the Viceroy's Camp equipage lent to the Lieutenant Governor on the occasion of the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and in the North-West Frontier Province (14) due to the purchase of table equipment on the standard scale. The excess would have been greater but for savings in India (18) and Central Provinces (20), due in the former case to decrease in telegram and hill journey charges and in the latter to less outlay on the purchase and maintenance of furniture. Under Expenditure from Contract Allowance the excess in the United Provinces and the savings in Burma and Bombay are due to the transfer of charges between this head and Tour Charges; and the excess in Madras was chiefly due to the unforeseen adjustment of the expenditure for the maintenance of the electric installation in the Government Houses at Madras and Ootacamund. The excess in India under Executive Council was caused by the absence of a member on leave and the saving in Madras resulted partly from the deputation of members and partly from the transfer to the head Civil Secretariat of charges for the maintenance of electric lights and fans. Under Legislative Council the saving in India (29) occurred in salaries and allowances of official and non-official members, that in Madras (7) was due to the allowance of the Madras member, for whom provision was made, having been disbursed in Calcutta, while the late constitution of the Council brought about a saving (6) in Eastern Bengal and Assam.

138. The Secretariat charges exceeded the Budget in India (2,03), Burma (30), Eastern Bengal and Assam (27), Punjab (20), Madras (13) and Bombay (4) and fell short of it in the Central Provinces (4), Bengal (4), United Provinces (5) and the North-West Frontier Province (6). The details of the India Secretariat charges are given below:—

139. As stated above, the bulk of the excess occurred under Finance Department and was due to the creation of the Military Finance Branch (1,58), for which there was no Budget provision; the employment of officers on special duty, absences on privilege leave, and the revised rules for the grant of hill journey allowances to Secretariat employes caused excesses in most of the Secretariats. Apart from these causes, the increase in the Legislative Department was due to additional establishment charges (4) and to special charges on account of Digest of Indian Law Cases (3). Under Foreign Department the excess, due to the appointment of an additional Assistant Secretary and the grant of local allowances to two Assistant Secretaries (13), was more than counterbalanced by savings in contingencies, mainly telegram charges (16). The decrease under Record Department was chiefly due to the appointment of Assistant Officer having remained vacant for half the year. The saving under Military Secretariats occurred partly under establishment (18) and partly under telegram charges (22) in consequence of the transfer to the newly constituted Military Finance Branch of a portion of the work formerly done in these Secretariats. The falling off under Commerce and Industry Department was due to an over-estimate of hill journey allowances and contingencies. The excesses in Burma and Madras were due partly to the deputation of officers on special duty and privilege leave arrangements (7 in Burma and 4 in Madras) and partly to the revision of the Secretariat Establishment in the former Province (18) and the transfer to this head, as stated above, of charges for the maintenance of electric lights and fans in the latter (3). The excesses in Eastern Bengal and Assam and the Punjab occurred mainly in contingencies and were due respectively to increased telegram charges (8) and the cost of re-furnishing the Secretariat (14). Under Tour Charges the large excess in India was chiefly due to the Durbar held at Agra in connection with the visit of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan (2,74). The differences in Burma, United Provinces and Bombay have been explained above; the savings in the Central Provinces (11) and the Punjab (7) were due to an over-estimate, while the Budget proved insufficient in Bengal to a small extent (5). Under Board of Revenue, etc., the total expenditure closely approximated the Budget; but there were variations in the expenditure adjusted in the several provinces, the more important of them being excesses in Bengal (12) and Madras (10), due generally to leave arrangements and a saving in the United Provinces (27) owing to the earlier termination of the term of appointment of the third member of the Board of Revenue and his establishment. Under Commissioners the excess in the Central Provinces (10) was due to the revision of the establishment; the increases in Burma (21) and the Punjab (21) were due to leave arrangements and transit pay; and that in the United Provinces (44) was due partly to the same cause and partly to the appointment of an additional Commissioner and his establishment. The excess in Eastern Bengal and Assam occurred in salaries (5), establishment charges (9) and cost of steamers (15). In Bengal there was an excess of 52 due to privilege leave allowances (13), the payment of salaries of officers of other Provinces (13), purchase of marine stores and coal for steam boats (10) and the revision of Chowkidari Panchayats (16) for which there was no provision in the Budget. There was, on the other hand, a saving in Bombay (24) owing to less payments for salaries of officers of other Provinces. The small excess under Inspector General of Stamps, Registration, etc., was made up of an increase in the Central Provinces due to the absence on privilege leave of the Commissioner of Excise and the deputation of an officer to revise the Excise Manuals (13), diminished by a saving in the Punjab (9) on account of the transfer during the year of the establishment dealing with Registration and Joint Stock Companies to the office of the Director of Land Records.

140. The total charges for Account and Currency Offices are shown below:—

		Civil Account.	Currency Offices.	Total Civil Account and Currency Offices.	Office of A. G., P. W. Dept.	TOTAL

Accounts		27,61	3,94	31,55	2,41	33,96

141. The saving under Civil Account Offices was mainly due to the late introduction of the Local Audit Scheme in Bombay (32), to the non-utilisation of the provision for the Local Audit Scheme in Eastern Bengal and Assam (13) and the Police Audit Scheme in Burma (9), to one appointment of Deputy Auditor General having remained vacant for a part of the year (21), and to vacancies in the Subordinate Account Service and the deputation of Superintendents to act as Chief Superintendents in India, Burma and Bengal, partly counterbalanced by excesses due to the privilege leave of the Comptroller General and the disbursement of undrawn pay of the previous year to the Comptroller of India Treasuries. The excess under Currency Offices occurred in India (33) and Bombay (12) and was due in the former province to the entertainment of additional establishment and the grant of compensation for dearth of food and in the latter to the payment of plague, grain and overtime allowances, the entertainments of extra shroffs and charges for the despatch of currency note forms to Calcutta. The saving in the

143. The Indian expenditure under this head exceeded the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 4,85 and 19,57, respectively. The increase over the actuals of the previous year was contributed by all the Provinces, but chiefly by Central Provinces (4,05), Burma (2,98), Assam and Bengal (5,99), the United Provinces (1,97) and the Punjab (1,95). The increase in the Central Provinces was due to the separation of Judicial and Executive establishments, the debit to this head in full from 1st April 1906 of the pay of Judicial Extra Assistant Commissioners in Central Provinces formerly debited in moieties to this head and to Land Revenue and the adjustment from 1906-07 of charges for executive officers in Berar in moieties between Land Revenue and this head instead of entirely under Land Revenue as in previous years. The increase in Burma occurred mostly under Civil and Sessions Courts (80) due to the appointment of a larger number of Township Judges with establishments and privilege leave arrangements in place of Divisional Judges, and under Criminal Courts (1,74) due mainly to the appointment of a larger number of Extra Assistant Commissioners and Mydoks, to increased outlay on diet and travelling allowance of witnesses in criminal cases and to heavier expenditure on Process-serving establishment. The excess in Assam and Bengal was chiefly due to the charges of the Legal Remembrancer of the new province having been incurred for the full year instead of for part as in the previous year, to increased rates of pay sanctioned for the ministerial staff and to payment of grain compensation allowance. Revision of establishments of Civil and Criminal Courts and increased expenditure on postage on account of the Imperialisation of postal lines account for the increase in the United Provinces, while that in the Punjab is explained by charges for additional Judges and their establishments having been incurred for the whole year instead of for a part as in 1905-06. Compared with the Budget the variations occurred from the following causes:—

144. Under High Court, Chief Courts, etc., the excess in Burma (13) was due to the appointment as Chief Judge of a Barrister Judge whose pay is not subject to the 4 per cent. annuity deduction, to the absence on privilege leave of one of the judges and to payment of enhanced taxes on the Chief Court buildings; and in Madras (37) to larger expenditure on printing and translation work executed on behalf of suitors owing to the payment of arrear bills. The saving in the Central Provinces (7) was due to the appointment of an uncovenanted officer as 2nd additional Judicial Commissioner; in Bengal (36) to the post of a puisne judge having remained vacant for a portion of the year; in the United Provinces (10) to the absence of one of the judges on furlough, partly counterbalanced by increased expenditure owing to the higher rate of salary drawn by the Deputy Registrar; and in Bombay (14) to the delay in starting the revised arrangements in the Judicial Commissioner's Court. Under Law Officers the increase in India (7) was due to the privilege leave of the Administrator General and the reorganisation of his establishment and in United Provinces (6) to the absence of officers on leave; the excess in the Punjab (31) was due partly to the same cause and partly to heavier payments of fees to pleaders in civil and criminal cases. The last mentioned cause also contributed to the excesses in Burma, Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal and Madras, while the provision for these charges proved an over-estimate in the Central Provinces. Under Civil and Sessions Courts the increase in Burma (23) was chiefly due to the appointment of additional Township Judges; in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal to the increased rates of pay sanctioned for the ministerial staff, to the payment of grain compensation allowances and to the savings anticipated in the Budget not having been realised; and in United Provinces, Punjab and Madras partly to leave arrangements and partly to other causes, namely, the insufficiency of the provision for the revision of establishments in the United Provinces, the appointment of temporary additional judges in the Punjab and the non-realisation of the savings anticipated in the Budget in the salaries of District and Sub-Judges in Madras. The excess in Bengal under this head was more than covered by the lump provision made in the Budget for grain compensation allowances and revision of pay of ministerial officers. The saving in the Central Provinces under the same head was caused by the introduction of the scheme for the separation of Judicial and Executive Establishments from 1st October instead of from 1st April 1906 and the non-utilisation of the provision for the improvement of the Judicial Service and that in Bombay resulted from less payments to officers of other provinces and a reduction in the number of bailiffs. Under Courts of Small Causes the total expenditure closely followed the Budget; there were, however, excesses in Burma (5) and United Provinces (5), due in the former province to the entertainment of additional process-servers and in the latter to absence of officers on leave and revision of establishment which were counterbalanced by savings in the Punjab (11) owing to the employment as Judges of Extra Assistant Commissioners whose salaries were debited in moieties to Land Revenue and Criminal Courts. Under Criminal Courts the excess in Burma (92) was the result of increases under salaries (58) due to the appointment of additional Extra Assistant Commissioners and Mydoks, travelling allowances (17), contingencies (4), and Process-serving establishments (25) due to the employment of a larger number of temporary Process-servers, reduced by decreases under Sub-Divisional establishment (5) and supplies and services (7) owing to smaller outlay on diet and travelling allowance of witnesses. In Eastern Bengal and Assam the excess occurred under travelling allowance of Honorary Magistrates and their establishments (12), contingencies (29), Process-serving establishments (9) chiefly on account of grain compensation allowance, transport and commissariat establishment (4) and

Sub-divisional establishment (32), partly counterbalanced by a saving in the salaries of officers (42). The increase in the United Provinces was distributed over salaries (8), establishment (7), allowances (6) and contingencies (9). The increase in the Punjab (38) occurred under salaries of Cantonment Magistrates (18), establishment (11) on account of revision, and supplies and services (9). In the North-West Frontier Province and Bombay the excess was in salaries and was due in the former to payment of arrears. The saving in Madras (20) was due to smaller payments of diet and road-money to prosecutors and witnesses. The excess under Other Courts of Justice occurred in the Presidency Magistrate's Courts, Bengal, and was due to heavier charges for mofussil witnesses attending the High Court and to larger contingent expenditure. Under Refunds the variations are due to the fluctuating nature of the charges. The Provincial excesses of 1,35, 2,05, 10, 53, 95 and 49 in Burma, Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal, United Provinces, Punjab and Madras, respectively, have been sanctioned; and out of the excess of 46 (Imperial) in India, 1 has been sanctioned while the balance 45 (Imperial) in India and 25 (Imperial) in North-West Frontier Province require to be sanctioned.

146. The Indian expenditure fell short of the Budget by 10,43 but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 49,23. The saving, as compared with the Budget, occurred chiefly in the Central Provinces (2,32), Burma (4,32), Eastern Bengal and Assam (1,22), the Punjab (3,43) and Madras (5,33), counterbalanced by an excess in Bengal (5,40). The savings were generally due to the partial introduction of reforms for which provision was made in the Budget ; lapses of the provisions for Military Police in Burma and Eastern Bengal and Assam also contributed to the decrease. The increase in Bengal was due to a greater number of reforms having been introduced than were provided for in the Budget. As compared with the previous year the excess occurred in all the provinces, but chiefly in the Central Provinces (3,44), Burma (4,53),

Eastern Bengal and Assam (15,09), United Provinces (6,49), the Punjab (3,92), Madras (6,69) and Bombay (5,86), and was due to the introduction of reforms recommended by the Police Commission out of the resources placed at the disposal of Provincial Governments for the purpose.

147. Under Presidency Police the excess in Bengal (1,27) was due to payment of grain compensation allowance (48), larger payments of ambulance, motor car and horse allowances (8), increases in supplies and services (7) and hospital charges (6), unadjusted balance under Dock Police charges (15) and the non-realisation of the probable savings anticipated in the Budget (42), and in Bombay (1,17) to the payment of extra pay to policemen in recognition of their duties during the Royal Visit, grain compensation and plague allowances and increased salaries to private watchmen and ramosis and to the contribution from the Bombay Municipality having slightly fallen in arrears. The saving in Madras (1,07) was due to the non-utilisation of the provision for the reorganisation of the non-gazetted ranks of the City Police (1,30) on which account no charges were incurred during the year though the scheme was introduced from the 10th January 1907, counterbalanced to a small extent by increases due to the promotion of the Commissioner of Police to the rank of Deputy Inspector General (4) and to the raising of the pay of constables (17). Under Superintendence the falling off in the Central Provinces (23) and United Province (39) are only apparent as the Budget Estimate under this head included the provision for the Criminal Investigation Department, the actuals on which account are shown under Other Charges; there was, on the other hand, an excess in the former province (14) owing to the deduction from the Budget Estimate for probable savings not having been realised. The excess in Burma (30) was due to the higher rate of salaries sanctioned for the two Deputy Inspectors General, revision of the Inspector General's establishment and larger contingent expenditure, in Eastern Bengal and Assam (14) to an under estimate of the increased expenditure necessitated by the partition, in Bengal (28) to increases under supplies and services and contingencies, partly counterbalanced by savings due to the non-utilisation of the provision for the assistant in charge of the special branch, in the Punjab (58), to the creation of an additional Deputy Inspector Generalship of Police, in the North-West Frontier Province (11) to reorganisation, in Madras (23) to the revised rates of pay sanctioned for the Deputy Inspector General and the Assistant Inspector General of Police and increased charges on account of the Establishment of the Inspector General and in Bombay (98) to the additional appointments of Deputy Inspectors General and their establishments sanctioned during the year and to increased expenditure on the purchase of tents. The excess of 1,30 under District Executive Force is made up of increases in India (78), Bengal (3,36), United Provinces (1,51), North-West Frontier Province (45) and Madras (5,46) and decreases in the Central Provinces (2,63), Burma (2,33), Punjab (2,86) and Bombay (2,29). The excess in India was due to the payment from the Imperial Revenues, under revised arrangements sanctioned by the Government of India, of Cantonment Police charges in Hyderabad which were formerly met from the local Cantonment and Abkari Funds (43) and to a special refund (33) to the Indore Abkari Fund of contributions towards the cost of the Central India Agency Police recovered in excess in the previous year, in Bengal to increases under salaries (72), police force (2,98) and training school (53) owing to the reorganisation of the superior staff and subordinate establishment of the police force, under allowances (1,70) on account of grain allowance and under supplies and services (1,85) for increased expenditure on petty construction and repairs and clothing and cost of escorts, partly counterbalanced by the lump provision of 4,00 for additional police reforms, in the United Provinces to the introduction of the Reform Scheme, the revised rules for the grant of travelling allowance to Inspectors and constables and increased outlay on account of His Majesty the Amir's visit, on railway fare and carriage of Police escorts and rewards for meritorious services partly counterbalanced by savings in the cost of clothing, in the North-West Frontier Province to reorganisation of the Police and in Madras to heavier outlay on petty construction owing to the increased powers of construction delegated to the Inspector General and to the opening of two Additional Head Quarter Offices and to the introduction during the year of the following schemes of reform for which a lump provision of 10,40 was entered in the Budget, vis., the creation of a new class of Deputy Superintendents and increased rates of pay sanctioned for superior officers, the creation of the new rank of Sub-Inspectors, the revised rates of pay sanctioned for European Head Constables and Constables, addition to the armed reserves, increased daily allowance sanctioned for constables and the opening of a riding class in the Vellore Training School. The falling off in the Central Provinces, Burma, the Punjab and Bombay was chiefly due to additional police reforms not having been carried out to the extent anticipated in the Budget. The same cause accounts for the saving in the Punjab (1,52) under Municipal and Cantonment Police; no charges appeared under this head in Bombay as they were adjusted under the head District Executive Force in consequence of the provincialisation of the Cantonment Police. Under Government Railway Police excesses in Central Provinces (12), due to the recovery of the charges for the second half year having been made in 1907-1908 instead of in March 1907, in the United Provinces (55) to the higher rates of pay drawn by Police Officers under the Reform Scheme, increased house rent allowance of Sub-Police Officers sanctioned by the Government of India, the debit to provincial of the share of cost of the Indian Midland Railway Police formerly recovered from Native States and the transfer to these provinces of charges on account of the North-Western Railway and in Madras (29) to the sub-division of the Railway Police into two charges, the transfer to this head of one-fourth cost of the Deputy Inspector General of Police for Criminal Intelligence and Railways, the increase of pay of European Head Constables and Constables and the appointment of Sub-Inspectors, were to a small extent counterbalanced by a saving in the Punjab (25) on account of the transfer of expenditure formerly adjusted under this head partly to the head "Criminal Investigation Department" included under Other Charges and partly to the United Provinces as stated above. Under Village Police the excess was in Bombay (79) on account of payments of grain compensation and famine allowances to Village Officers and was partly counterbalanced by savings in Eastern Bengal and Assam (18) in rewards to Chowkidars and petty construction and in Central Provinces (8) in payments to Village Police Establishments. The falling off under Special Police occurred in Burma (2,81), Eastern Bengal and Assam (1,62), and the North-West Frontier Province (94) and was due to the non-utilisation of the provision included in the Budget for two additional Companies of Military Police for the Chindwin Battalion and for strengthening the Lower Burma Military Police, for the reorganisation of the Military Police and for increase in the pay of the Border Military Police, respectively. The small saving under Cattle Pounds calls for no remarks. Under Other Charges the excess in India occurred in the Central Criminal Intelligence Department and was due to the creation of the appointments of Assistant Director and Government Expert in Hand-writing, the employment of officers on special duty and the reorganisation of establishments; in other provinces the excess was due to the charges of the newly constituted Criminal Investigation Department for which provision was included in some provinces under Superintendence. In Burma larger expenditure on Steam Boiler Inspection establishments also contributed to the increase. Against the excesses mentioned above, there were lump provisions in India (1,00), United Provinces (1,25) and Madras (10,40). The Imperial excess of 5 in India, the Provincial excesses of 5,38, 82, 17 (over the reduced grant) and 97 in Bengal, United Provinces, Madras and Bombay, respectively, and the Local excesses of 3, 2, 5 and 3 in Burma, Bengal, United Provinces and Bombay, respectively, have been sanctioned.

148. The small excess in England (£2) was due to an increase in the number of officers appointed.

21.—Forts and Pilotage—concluded.

149. The transactions of the Imperial Marine Department have been transferred to a separate head in the group for Military charges in the Finance and Revenue Accounts for 1906-07 in accordance with the re-arrangement of heads sanctioned in Secretary of State's Financial Despatch No. 141 (Financial), dated 11th October 1907. Deducting the Imperial Marine expenditure from the actuals for 1905-06 and the Budget Estimate for 1906-07, the charges in India under this head show a falling off of 91 as compared with the Budget and a small excess of 15 as compared with the actuals of the previous year. As explained below, the former is due to a saving in Burma on account of the transfer to the Postal books of subsidies hitherto adjusted under this head, and to the lapse of a provision for launches for the Excise Department, partly counterbalanced by heavy payments in Bengal of allowances to Free List Pilots.

150. The decrease under Marine Survey and Establishment occurred in Burma and was due to the absence of the Principal Port Officer on leave and the appointment of First Assistant Port Officer having remained vacant for a portion of the year. The falling off under Salaries and Allowances and Victualling of officers and men afloat occurred in Eastern Bengal and Assam and arises from the transfer of charges formerly included under this head to the head "Other Charges." Under Marine Stores and Coal, etc. there was an excess in Burma owing to larger purchase of stores than necessary for consumption and to a rise in the price of coal. The increase in Bengal under Pilotage, Pilot Establishments, etc., was due to larger payments of allowances to Free List Pilots (1,55), counterbalanced by savings in the allowances to Licensed Pilots (58). The decrease in Burma under Other Charges resulted from the transfer to the head "Post Office" of subsidies for conveyance of mails hitherto adjusted under this head and from the non-utilisation of the provision for launches for the Excise Department; the small saving under the same head in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal occurred in the charges for purchase and hire of steamers. The Provincial excesses of 77 and 2 in Bengal and Bombay respectively and the local excess of 3 in Eastern Bengal and Assam have been sanctioned.

owing to the transfer to the Public Works Department of the provision for the construction of girls' schools on payments to municipal schools, on salaries of masters in Local Boards' Schools, and on stipends to pupils, and contingencies in Training Schools and to the non-utilisation of the provisions for the improvement of technical education and for the school of handicrafts and of a portion of the lump provision for Local Boards' Schools; in Eastern Bengal and Assam (4,30) to lapses from the lump provisions under Provincial and Local for the improvement of primary education; in Bengal (40) to the non-utilisation of the grant for training institutes for girls, partly counterbalanced by an excess under District schools owing to the reorganisation of the Educational Service and payment of grain allowance; in the United Provinces (47) to less expenditure by Local Boards coupled with the partial utilisation of the lump provision for the purchase of a steam engine for the Industrial School; in the Punjab (2,09) to a variety of causes, chiefly less expenditure on primary schools by Local Boards; in the North-West Frontier Province (17) to the grants to District Boards, for which provision was made under this head, having been adjusted through the head "I.—Land Revenue"; and in Bombay (1,73) to the provision included under this head for the development of technical education having been used for grants to Special and Technical Schools in aid of buildings and purchase of apparatus, books and furniture the debits for which appear under the head "Grants-in-aid." The only excesses under this head appeared in Burma (25) and Madras (34) and were due in Burma to the non-utilisation of the provisions made for the Anglo-Chinese School, Maymyo and the Engineering School, Insein, and the partial utilisation of that for additional secondary and primary schools counterbalanced by payment of municipal taxes at enhanced rates, and special contributions to the Rangoon and Mandalay Municipalities and in Madras to special expenditure on elementary schools of District Boards which was met from the lump provision for primary education. The falling off in India (2,43) under Grants-in-aid represents the provision for grants-in-aid of European Education which was included in the India Budget and distributed among the different Provinces during the year, and that in Central Provinces (60) occurred in grants to European Schools and Colleges, General. The excess in Burma (83) was due to an over-estimate of the amount deducted for probable savings; in Bengal (2,58) to larger payments to Colleges and Schools and towards buildings; in United Provinces (2,86) and the Punjab (1,14) to special building, apparatus and furniture grants sanctioned by the Local Government; in Madras (89) to the introduction of the new Grant-in-aid Code under which teaching grants to elementary schools are paid through the agency of District Boards and Municipalities, the contributions to the Boards being shown under "Adjusting heads" and those to Municipalities under "Miscellaneous," while the payments by the Boards are debited to this head; and in Bombay (97) to grants sanctioned as stated above out of the provision included under the head Government Schools. Under Scholarships the saving occurred chiefly in Eastern Bengal and Assam (24), Bengal (19) in Lower Primary and Post graduate scholarships, and Bombay (22) in the allowances to Lower Primary Schools. The excess under Other Charges occurred mostly in Eastern Bengal and Assam (36) in the expenditure of District Funds and in Madras (52) owing to contributions to Municipal Funds for teaching grants to elementary schools having been adjusted under this head as stated above. Against the excesses mentioned above, there was a considerable lapse in the lump provisions included in the Budget under Madras and Bengal besides the transfer to the P. W. Books, of 3,66 in Madras for the construction of primary school buildings by the Local Fund Engineering Staff. The Provincial excesses of 1,29, 30 (over the reduced grant), 3,82, 52, and 6 (over the reduced grant) in Burma, Eastern Bengal and Assam, United Provinces, Punjab and Madras, respectively, and the Local excesses of 7, 3,22 and 17 (over the reduced grant) in North-West Frontier Province, Madras and Bombay, respectively, have been sanctioned.

153. The Indian expenditure exceeded the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 19 and 67, respectively. The variations under this head are mostly due to variations in the number of junior and senior chaplains on duty or on leave and to vacancies. The absence of the Lord Bishop on leave accounted for the saving in Madras, while the introduction of the revised scale of salaries and payments to officers of other provinces were mainly responsible for the increase in Bombay. The Imperial excesses of 2, 1, 10, 5 and 6 (out of 27) in Burma, Eastern Bengal and Assam, Punjab, North-West Frontier Province and Bombay, respectively, require to be sanctioned.

154. The expenditure in India exceeded the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by 48 and 9.96, respectively. The total expenditure closely followed the Budget, but there was a large excess in Burma (4.46) on account of direct expenditure on plague and contributions to Municipalities and Town Funds in aid of plague expenditure against which there were nearly equivalent savings in Madras (3.11) and Bombay (1.41), due to less outlay in connection with plague and to smaller expenditure from Local Funds in the former province on dispensaries and sanitation and conservancy. As compared with the previous year, the excesses occurred in India (81), Burma (6.14), Assam and Bengal (2.29), United Provinces (1.10), and the Punjab (1.14), while there was a decrease in Madras (1.84). The increase in India was due to the special grant for the Central Committee of Lady Minto's Indian Nursing Association (35), Plague charges (18), and the cost of the Plague Research Committee (26), in Burma to special plague expenditure and to larger outlay on Mofussil Hospitals and special equipments, in Assam and Bengal to the additional expenditure consequent on the partition having been incurred for the whole year instead of for part in the previous year, in United Provinces chiefly to short recoveries from District Boards in consequence of the reduction in the rate of contribution towards the pay of Assistant Surgeons, to increased travelling allowance of Civil Surgeons and to additional grants to the Dufferin Fund Hospital and other dispensaries, and in the Punjab to heavier expenditure on plague. Against these increases there was a falling off in Madras (1.84) in the expenditure from Local Funds on dispensaries, sanitation and conservancy.

155. Under Medical Establishments the saving in Central Provinces (33), Eastern Bengal and Assam (27), North-West Frontier Province (13), and Bombay (11) occurred in salaries, chiefly on account of absence of senior officers on leave; the saving in Burma (12) was due to the non-utilisation of the provision for a Civil Surgeon for the Hanthawaddy District and in Madras (26) to an over-estimate of charges for Reserve Medical Subordinates and to the lapse of the provision for the increase of the War Reserve of Civil Hospital Assistants. There was, on the other hand, an excess in the United Provinces (32) on account of smaller recoveries from District Boards in consequence of the reduction in the rate of contribution for the pay of Assistant Surgeons and the payment from Provincial Revenues of the travelling allowance of Civil Surgeons for visiting Branch Dispensaries formerly paid from District Boards' funds and provided for under the head "Hospitals and Dispensaries." The saving under Government Hospitals and Dispensaries is made up of decreases in Burma (91) and Madras (1.07), diminished by increases in Eastern Bengal and Assam (63), Bengal (83), United Provinces (20), and Bombay (14). The falling off in Burma was due chiefly to the lapse of the provision for a voluntary venereal hospital and for revision of the establishment of the Rangoon General Hospital and its equipment in consequence of the non-completion of the new hospital buildings, and in Madras to savings in the charges for medical stores and other hospital necessities for Local Fund dispensaries. The excess in Eastern Bengal and Assam was due to leave allowances of Assistant Surgeons and increased grants to Dispensaries, in Bengal partly to the latter cause and partly to heavier contributions by District Boards to Municipalities, in the United Provinces to additional grants to the Dufferin Fund Hospital and other dispensaries, partly counterbalanced by a decrease owing to the transfer to Provincial funds of travelling allowances for visiting dispensaries, and in Bombay to larger expenditure on clothing, bedsteads, instruments and apparatus and increased grants-in-aid for nursing in the Presidency Hospitals and Dispensaries. Under Vaccine Establishments and Sanitary Commissioner savings in the Central Provinces (44) owing to the transfer of the charges for excavation of tanks and wells to the head

"45-Civil Works" and to decreases in sanitary charges and conservancy contingencies in Bengal (13) due to lapse of the annual grant for taking anti-malarial measures and in Madras (1,31) owing to over-estimate of charges for sanitation and conservancy, were counterbalanced to some extent by excesses in Burma (18) and Bombay (48) due in the former province to an officer on higher salary having been on duty as Deputy Sanitary Commissioner, to the revision of the Sanitary Commissioner's Office Establishment and to larger expenditure on Vaccination Establishment maintained at the cost of District Cess Funds and in the latter to the purchase of rat-destroying apparatus for the Port Health Officers, Bombay and Karachi. The saving under Medical School and College occurred in salaries of Professors and supplies and services in Bengal (23) and Bombay (10), and on account of the late opening of the Medical School in Burma (9), reduced by increases in Madras (14) due to revised rates of pay sanctioned for Professors and in Punjab (12) due to a special payment to the North India School of Medicine for Christian women at Ludhiana. The excess under Lunatic Asylums occurred in Bengal (22) and was due to the appointment of a whole time Superintendent in the Berhampur Lunatic Asylum, payment of grain compensation allowance and larger expenditure on diet and clothing. Under Grants for Medical Purposes the Budget was exceeded in India by 41, chiefly on account of a special contribution (35) to the Central Committee of Lady Minto's Indian Nursing Association and in Burma by 5,48, owing to heavier outlay on measures undertaken by Government for the suppression of plague as well as liberal assistance rendered to Municipalities and Town Funds of which the Rangoon Municipality received 1,00, Mandalay 50 and Maymyo Town Fund 41, besides 90 distributed among other Municipalities and Funds. Against these excesses there were savings in other provinces, the Punjab (65), Madras (1,48) and Bombay (1,70) owing to smaller outlay in connection with plague. The saving under Other Charges was brought about by the lapse in Bengal (14) of the provision for a Probationary Examiner in the Chemical Examiner's Office, and in Bombay (15) for a Chemical Analyser and Port Health Officer and for purchase of apparatus for the Laboratory at Karachi. Against the savings mentioned above under Madras, there was a lump deduction of 89 in the Budget Estimate. Out of the Imperial excess of 51 in India, 32 has been sanctioned, while the balance 19 requires to be sanctioned. The Provincial excesses of 3,09, 50, 19 (over the reduced grant) 24 in Burma, Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal and United Provinces respectively, and the Local excesses of 1,36, 49, 31, 94 and 13 (over the reduced grant) in Burma, Bengal, United Provinces, Punjab and Bombay, respectively, have been sanctioned.

156. The excess in England (£3,4) was caused by a large increase in the allowances to Medical Officers on special duty and by a payment to an officer for the license to use his apparatus for decanting prophylactic fluid.

the Budget. The saving under Political Subsidies (9,80) was due to the amount of subsidy due to His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan not having been drawn in full. The Revised Estimate provided for a larger saving on this account (16,28), but there were unexpected drawings towards the close of March 1907. The important excess under Entertainment of Envoys and Chiefs occurred in India (28) and was due partly to expenses incurred by the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan in connection with the Viceroy's visit (6) and partly to the adjustment under this head of half the original cost of certain articles of furniture purchased in connection with the Amir's visit and subsequently taken over for the equipment of Hastings House, Alipore (12); the rest of the excess in India, and the excesses in the North-West Frontier Province and Bombay were due to a larger number of Chiefs than expected, having had to be entertained. Under Refugees and State Prisoners the excess in Bombay (33) was due to the higher personal allowance to the ex-King Theebaw sanctioned in Government of India, Finance Department, No. 4944-Ex., dated 31st August 1906, and the saving in the Punjab (44) to deaths and desertions among the Political Refugees and prisoners. The Budget for Durbar Presents and Allowances to Vakeels was over-estimated in India (13), Burma (9) and Bombay (17) and to a smaller extent in Punjab (5) and North-West Frontier Province (5). The excess under Other Charges in India was due to charges connected with the visit to India of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan (19,81) and of the Tashi Lama (1,14), arrear charges of the Seistan Arbitration Commission (25) and charges on account of the Karun River Irrigation Scheme in Bushire (25). The increase in the United Provinces under the same head (70) represents the expenditure incurred in that Province in connection with the Amir's visit, while the excesses in the Punjab (10) and Bombay (10) were due, respectively, to charges in connection with Mr. Calvert's journey in Western Tibet and to the deputation of an officer on special duty to settle certain disputes between the Navangar, Mervi and Cutch States. The Imperial excess of 16,16 in India, the Provincial excesses of 3, 31, 68 and 11 in Eastern Bengal and Assam, Bengal, United Provinces and Madras, respectively, and the Local excess of 1 in India have been sanctioned.

159. The increased expenditure in England (£1,4) was partly on account of Tibet Frontier Commission and partly on account of unforeseen demand.

160. The Indian expenditure fell short of the Budget Estimate by 7,23 but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 9,20. As compared with the Budget, the falling off occurred in almost every province but mostly in Burma (1,80), the United Provinces (1,80) and Madras (1,83) and was due to the lapse of a considerable portion of the provision made in all provinces for special expenditure towards the development of agriculture. As compared with the previous year, the increase was contributed mainly by India (6,70), Eastern Bengal and Assam (1,37) and the Punjab (1,56) due in the first to higher expenditure on the Survey of India and in the others on agricultural improvements. There was, on the other hand, a decrease in Bombay (1,59) which is explained by the actuals for the previous year having included a special grant of 3,00 for the Prince of Wales' Museum of Western India, and by the larger expenditure in the year under report on experimental farms.

161. The excess of 31, compared with the Budget, under Survey of India was due to smaller recoveries for maps and instruments from other Governments and Departments and from the Head-quarter Offices and Survey parties. There were also excesses in the charges for the Head-quarter and Trigonometrical Offices (61), owing to the payment of grain compensation allowances and higher rates of hill journey allowance in the former and the entertainment of an additional officer in the latter and in the payments for piecework in the Mathematical Instrument Manufactory (21), but they were nearly covered by savings in the Controlling and Administrative Staff on account of the employment of a smaller number of officers at head-quarters (63) and in the charges for survey parties (21). The decrease under Geological and other Surveys occurred in Madras (28) and was due to the transfer to the head Experimental Cultivation, of charges for Botanical Survey for which provision was included here. There was also a small excess in India (8) due to an increase in travelling allowances and in the charges for the publication of Palæontologica Indica and other special work in Europe (16) under Geological Survey, reduced by a saving in the lump provision for reorganisation under Archæological Department (10). The small decrease under Meteorological Department was caused by the appointment of the Assistant Director of the Kodaikanal Observatory having remained vacant for a portion of the year. The excess under Other Scientific Departments occurred in India (57), and Bengal (28). The latter was due to a special grant of 25 to the Dalhousie Institute; the former was made up of increases under Inspector of Mines (12), due to the charges for the examination for Mine Managers' certificates, Bacteriology (41) due to larger expenditure on the purchase of chemicals and apparatus and the purchase, feed and keep of bullocks, cattle, etc., and Central Research Institute (29) owing to the cost of Mansfield Gas apparatus, special charges for typhoid investigation and heavier contingencies, and decreases under Reporter on Economic Products (17) in consequence of the absence of the permanent Reporter on deputation and Central Museum (6) owing to the recovery of the charges for Mr. Gwyther's deputation in connection with the Museum buildings. The total expenditure under Veterinary and Stallion Charges followed the Budget, but there was a large excess in the Punjab (80) in the charges for the purchase of stallions and in the expenditure by Local Boards, against which there were savings in nearly every other province, India (6), Central Provinces (5), Burma (29), Eastern Bengal and Assam (6), United Provinces (24), North-West Frontier Province (6) and Bombay (9), which were due generally to absences on leave and to the non-entertainment of the full number of Veterinary Assistants and less outlay on the purchase of colts for stud purposes in Burma and smaller expenditure by District Boards in the Punjab. The decrease under Experimental Cultivation occurred in India (1,98), Burma (1,44), Bengal (65), United Provinces (1,99), the Punjab (41), North-West Frontier Province (25) and Madras (1,06). The excess under this head in Eastern Bengal and Assam is only apparent as there was a lump-provision of 2,00 in the Budget for agricultural and veterinary development. In India the lump provision of 61 in the Budget for additional expenditure was not utilised, and the appointments of cotton, tobacco, sugar, etc., experts under the Inspector General of Agriculture and of the supernumerary Agricultural Chemist, Mycologist, Entomologist and Botanist and the second Entomologist, for all of which provision was made in the Budget, were vacant during the year. The saving in all the other provinces was generally due to lapses of the provision made for special expenditure for the development of agriculture out of the resources placed at the disposal of the Local Governments for this purpose. In Burma the provisions for purchase of live-stock and implements and for the Director of Farms, Agricultural Botanists and Chemist and Mycologist were not utilised. In Bengal the provision for the cattle breeding farm at Pusha lapsed, while that for the initial cost of a new farm was only partly used. In the United Provinces a portion of the provision under this head was transferred to the Public Works Department for the construction of buildings. The appointments of Director of Agriculture, Principal of the new Agricultural College and Research Institute at Coimbatore and Agricultural Chemist in Madras were filled up only towards the latter part of the year, while the appointment of 2nd Deputy Director of Agriculture was vacant. Under Other Charges the Budget was exceeded in the United Provinces (46), the Punjab (48) and Bombay (27). The excess in United Provinces was due to the large expenditure sanctioned by the Local Government for laying out gardens and parks, in the Punjab to the expenditure for the improvement of the Zoological Gardens at Lahore and for the maintenance of the gardens attached to the Tombs of Isa Khan Safdar Jung, etc., and in Bombay to the acquisition of the Bassein Fort for an experimental garden and to the transfer to this head of charges for the Bassein and Ganesh Khind gardens which were hitherto classified under Experimental Cultivation. The savings under Labour and Emigration resulted from an over-estimate in the charges for the Inspector of Factories in the Central Provinces (8) and the non-entertainment of the Additional Inspector and Medical Officer for Factories (7) and smaller expenditure from the Inland Labour Transport Fund (4) in Bengal. Under Statistics the only important variation occurred in India where the Budget was exceeded by 64 chiefly under Gazetteer and Statistical Memoirs owing to an under-estimate of the charges for Central India and Baluchistan. The saving under Miscellaneous was due to the appointment of Registrar of Co-operative Credit Societies in Bengal having remained vacant for a portion of the year (16) and to the lapse of a portion of the provision for development of the weaving industry at Salem in Madras (43), partly owing to the delay in getting machinery from England and partly to the indifference shown to the new methods of weaving by the local weaving community. Out of the Imperial excesses of 7 and 15 in Bengal and Madras, respectively, 3 and 14 have been sanctioned and the balances 4 and 1 require to be sanctioned. The Provincial excesses of 14, 47 and 43 in Bengal, Punjab and Bombay and the Local excesses of 51, 3 and 12 in the Punjab, North-West Frontier Province and Bombay, respectively, have been sanctioned.

162. The saving in England (£25,0) was due to the demand for stores having proved smaller than indicated in the Indian forecasts (£20,5) and to less payments on account of the Provincial Gazetteer of India (£4,5).

163. The total receipts in this section showed an improvement of £356.3 or ₹53.45 over the Budget Estimate and of £242.6 or ₹36.39 over the actuals of the previous year. As compared with the Budget, the important increases occurred under Exchange (£150.0 or ₹22.51) and under Miscellaneous (£203.2 or ₹30.48), the latter due to extraordinary receipts such as on account of two instalments of the Tibetan Indemnity (£111.1 or ₹16.67) and on account of value of certain lands sold in Bombay (£54.8 or ₹8.32) and miscellaneous receipts, chiefly value of currency notes written off and recoveries of Famine Relief expenditure.

164. As compared with the actuals of the previous year, the chief increases occurred under Exchange (£107.1 or ₹16.08) and under Miscellaneous (£134.8 or ₹20.21), the latter due to the extraordinary receipts referred to above, partly counterbalanced by high receipts in England in 1905-06 under recoveries on account of stores lost in transit.

XXII.—Receipts in aid of Superannuation, Retired, and Compassionate Allowances—concluded.

165. The receipts in India fell short of the Budget Estimate by 24, but agreed with the actuals of the previous year. The decrease, as compared with the Budget, mainly occurred under Subscriptions to the Civil Funds, and Contributions for Pensions and Gratuities. The decreases in Burma (3), the United Provinces (5), the Punjab (4), Madras (8) and Bombay (9) under the first-named head were due to decline in the membership owing to retirement and to absence of subscribers on long leave. Under the second head the decreases in India (7) and Eastern Bengal and Assam (6) were chiefly due to over-estimates; and that under Burma (7) to less realisations owing to retirement or re-transfer of Government Officers lent to the Burma Railway Company. The deficiencies under these heads were to some extent made up by an excess under Subscriptions under the Indian Civil Service Family Pension Regulations, due mainly to an under-estimate of the increase of membership in India and Burma, partly set off by an over-estimate on the same account in Bombay.

166. In England the decrease occurred under Civil and Military Funds.

167. The receipts under this head exceeded the Budget by 99 and the actuals of the previous year by 77. The increase occurred chiefly under Receipts from Sale of Stationery, due in India (72) to under-estimate of the receipts of the Office of the Controller of Stationery and in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (33), to higher receipts from sale of stationery supplied to State Railways. A small decrease in Madras (9) was caused by the discontinuance of sale of stationery to some Estates on their transfer of management from Court of Wards to the proprietors. Under Sale of Gazettes and other Publications the increase in Bengal (13) is due to larger sales of Gazettes and Custom House publications. The falling off under Other Press Receipts occurred chiefly in Bengal (8) and United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (49), due in the former chiefly to smaller recoveries for value of printing work done for Local Funds, etc., at the Secretariat Press and in the latter to the transfer to XIX.—Education, of the receipts of the Photo-mechanical and Lithographical Department of the Civil Engineering College, Roorkee. These decreases were partly set off by increases in India (10) due to under-estimate of the receipts at the Central Press, in the Central Provinces (14) to sale proceeds of Rasid Bahis to Patwaris having been credited to this head instead of to VI.—Provincial Rates, in Burma (7) to special receipts and in the Punjab (14) to collection of outstanding balance and to the disposal of mill made paper in the Lahore Central Jail Press

168. The actuals under this head vary with the average rate of exchange and variations in the sterling transactions of the Railways.

169. The Budget was as usual calculated at an average rate of 16d. the rupee, but the actual average rate proved to be much better, viz., 16.084d. This accounted for the net credit of 14.30 under Net Expenditure in England. Under Guaranteed Companies the Budget provided for a total debit of 4.66 under Exchange, composed of a debit of 12.66 on account of receipts in India (£309.6) on Capital Account of the Madras Railway and a credit of 8.00 for recoveries on account of stores used on Revenue Account. The Capital transactions in India of that Railway, however, resulted in a receipt of £165.2 only, owing to smaller receipts than anticipated, partly counterbalanced by a decrease of £51.3 in withdrawals owing to the provision for certain works not having been fully worked up to. As a consequence, the net debit under Exchange on Capital transactions amounted to 6.62. On the other hand, the credit under Revenue stores was greater by 1.02, due to larger issue of stores from Capital to Revenue Account. Under Subsidised Companies, the total credit for exchange closely followed the Budget; the variations under the different Railways do not require special notice. The credits to exchange on the items under the head Remittance Accounts represent chiefly exchange at the average rate of the year on sterling transactions. The large credit under Miscellaneous is due chiefly to the exchange on transactions in connection with the purchase of silver.

*170. The total Indian receipts exceeded the Budget Estimate by 29,37, and the actuals of the previous year by 25,54. The bulk of the increase occurred under Extraordinary Items and comprised two instalments of the Tibetan Indemnity received in India and certain special receipts for sale of land in Bombay. Under Other Items the Budget proved too low chiefly in the value of Currency notes written off, in the percentages on Europe stores, and in the recoveries of famine relief expenditure. The actuals under Gain by Exchange on Transactions in India represented net gain by exchange on transactions in local currency in certain India treasuries. Under Premium on Bills the actuals show an excess of 66 due to larger Bill operations at the Presidency towns and Rangoon. The Budget Estimates of Unclaimed Deposits were not realised chiefly in the United Provinces and Bombay owing to heavier refunds, but on the other hand the lapses were considerably heavier in the Central Provinces and Bengal. On the whole the actuals were better than the Budget by 57, but the actuals of the previous year were considerably higher chiefly in Eastern Bengal and Assam and the United Provinces. Under Government Audit Fees there were deficiencies in the United Provinces, the Punjab and Bombay. In the United Provinces the full programme of audit work for the Court of Wards and Municipal accounts was not carried out, and certain items of fees were also not recovered within the year; in the Punjab the recoveries from Local funds were less, while in Bombay the Budget Estimate was based on an extended scheme of Local Audit which, however, was delayed in introduction. Under Contributions the actuals include a special receipt (80) representing repayment by the Moulmein Municipality of a temporary contribution in the previous year. Under Rents there was a decrease of 60 in the Central Provinces under Rents of Town and Civil Station Lands, but this decrease was partly set off by an increase in Madras (41) under choultry and market rents. There was a large excess under Extraordinary Items in India (16,67) due to the payment of two instalments of the Tibet Indemnity in accordance with the Lhasa Convention, and in Bombay (8,32) on account of proceeds of lands sold to the Great Indian Peninsula Railway and the Bombay Port Trust. The head Other Items shows an excess of 2,89 over the Budget Estimate. The chief increases occurred in India (2,53), Punjab (31), Madras (24) and Bombay (1,97). The first is due to a credit (1,27) for the value of currency notes assumed to be no longer in circulation, to an under-estimate (about 80) of the Percentages chargeable on European stores and to recovery of commission (20) on Government passages received from the P. & O. S. N. Co. The increase in the Punjab occurred partly under Percentages on European stores and partly under Value of Currency Notes Written off. In Madras the increase also occurred chiefly under Percentages on European stores. In Bombay there were special recoveries amounting to 1,86 from the Barsi Light Railway Company on account of the cost of the earthworks on extensions transferred to it and adjustments in connection with famine labour on Jalgaon water works. These increases were partly set off by deficiencies chiefly in Burma (1,51), on account of the restriction of Kheddah operations, and in Eastern Bengal and Assam (31) owing to over-estimate.

171. The receipts in England exceeded the Budget Estimate by £7,3, the result of an increase of £12,4 in Fines and Penalties incurred by contractors in providing stores, and a decrease of about £5,5 in the receipts on account of Diplomatic and Consular services in Persia.

172. The expenditure in this section exceeded the Budget Estimate and the actuals of the previous year by ₹87,1 or ₹13,06 and ₹92,5 or ₹13,85, respectively. As compared with the Budget there were excesses of ₹58 6 or ₹8,79 under Stationery and Printing chiefly in purchase of stationery and English stores, of ₹44,0 or ₹6,60 under Miscellaneous due chiefly to high charges for special commissions of enquiry and arrear charges on account of the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, and of ₹10,1 or ₹1,52 under Civil Furlough and Absentee Allowances paid in England. These excesses were partly counterbalanced by savings of ₹17,1 or ₹2,56 under Territorial and Political Pensions due to non-drawal and under-estimate of lapses and of ₹8,5 or ₹1,29 under Superannuation Allowances and Pensions due to over-estimate of the normal growth of pensionary charges.

173. As compared with the actuals of the previous year, Territorial and Political Pensions showed a saving of ₹11,1 or ₹1,67 due to lapses as usual and Miscellaneous a saving of ₹4,92 or ₹7,39 owing to the fact that the actuals of 1905-6 contained the bulk of the charges connected with the Royal visit. But these savings were more than covered by the normal growth of the charges under the other heads.

174. The Indian expenditure under this head fell short of the Budget by 2,50 and of the actuals of the previous year by 1,55. The saving as compared with the Budget, was contributed to by all the provinces except Eastern Bengal and Assam and North-West Frontier Province, and was due chiefly to lapses by death and non-drawal of pensions or postponement of payment during the year. Under Territorial and Political Pensions, the saving in Bengal was accounted for by the deaths of Jhansi Jehan Begum of the Nizamut Family, Asmanjah Bahadur and Kaziris Hossein Bahadur of Oudh Family, and Kumar Rupnarayan Singh of Maharaja Sitab Ray's Family. Besides lapses by death and non-drawal on due dates, non-settlement of the pension relating to the late Sakham Rao accounted for the saving in Madras. In Bombay (1,13) the saving was due to the arrears of pension (76) to the Angria Family, provided for in the Budget, not having been paid owing to some legal difficulties and to smaller savings in the provision for Satara, Sind and Miscellaneous pensions. The Imperial excesses of 2 in Eastern Bengal and Assam and 2 in North West-Frontier Province require to be sanctioned.

177. The Indian expenditure under this head showed a saving of 1,81, as compared with the Budget, but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 4,71. The increased provision in the Budget for the normal growth of the pension list under Superannuation and Retired Allowances, which form the bulk of the charges under this head, proved too high in most of the provinces. In Bombay the usual advance of pensionary charges exceeded that anticipated in the Budget by 8.

178. The following statement shows the growth of pension charges during the last six years:—

	R
1901-1902	1,12,15
1902-1903	1,16,58
1903-1904	1,21,75
1904-1905	1,28,38
1905-1906	1,33,20
1906-1907	1,37,95

179. The increase in Bombay (9) under Compassionate Allowances was due to larger payments on account of compassionate gratuities, and that in Madras (17) under Gratuities, to payment of gratuities by certain District Boards to their employes. The saving in Madras (6) under Pensions of the Civil Fund was due to the marriage of a pensioner and transfer of another pension to England.

180. The increase in England (£3,5) occurred under Pensions of Officers of the Uncovenanted Service (8,5), Indian Civil Service Family Pensions (1,3) and payments under Civil Funds, partly counterbalanced by savings in the Military and Medical Funds,

181. The Indian charges showed an excess of 4,62 over the Budget Estimate and of 10,69 over the actuals of the previous year. The excess over the Budget occurred chiefly under Purchase of Stationery. Government Presses cost more in the year under review than in the previous year, but the Budget anticipated this increase. Under Stationery Office at the Presidency there were savings in Bengal and Madras, the former due to the non-utilisation of a lump provision for revision of establishment and the latter to less expenditure on freight and carriage of stationery. Under Purchase of Stationery increased expenditure was incurred in India in order to meet the increased demands of the several Governments and departments. In Eastern Bengal and Assam the Budget was pitched too high and was reduced in the Revised. In Bengal the savings occurred in the grants for the Civil and Sessions Courts and in the United Provinces and Oudh in those for the Police Department. The Punjab excess is made up of a number of small excesses. In Madras low stock left at the end of 1905-06 necessitated a larger expenditure on replenishment. The small excess in Bombay was on account of purchases for the Calcutta Central Stores. Under Government Presses there were savings in India (39) owing to larger recoveries on account of printing work done for the Postal and Telegraph Departments, in the Central Provinces (11) in the Secretariat and Jail Presses, in Burma (50), partly in the provision for overtime and day extra establishment and for map work and partly owing to lower outlay on material and stock, in the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh (74) on account of smaller outlay on establishment of the Government Press and of the transfer to 22—Education of the charges relating to the Civil Engineering College Press, Roorkee, and in the North-West Frontier Province chiefly on account of the non-utilisation of the provision for the extension of the Government Press. Partly setting off these savings there were excesses in Eastern Bengal and Assam (13) owing to increased work in the Shillong Government Press, in Bengal (74) chiefly in the extra temporary and piece-hand establishment and in the grant of grain compensation allowance, in the Punjab (18) under Temporary Establishment in the Secretariat Press and under Purchase of materials in the Jail Press, and in Madras (20) due to additional expenditure on materials, stock and machinery and to the printing of Settlement Registers and Police Gazette at the Government instead of at private presses. Under Stationery supplied from Central Stores, there was a large excess of 2,02 in Bengal, chiefly due to abnormal supplies to the Presidency Jail Press which was not foreseen either in the Budget or the Revised. There were smaller variations in the other provinces due to normal causes. Those in Madras and Bombay are attributed, the first to larger supplies of special articles to the Land Revenue and Public Works Departments and of hand made paper to the Registration Department, and the second to larger demands for paper by the printing presses and the Photo-Zinco Department. Stationery supplied to the Postal and Telegraph Departments exceeded the Budget Estimate by 13. Under Other Charges there were small variations, a provision for supply of printed forms for Patwaris having been included under 3.—Land Revenue, Local, in the Central Provinces.

182. The demand for English stores was under-estimated in the Budget.

183. The total Indian charges exceeded the Budget Estimate by 5.79 chiefly due to charges for Special Commissions of Enquiry and arrear charges on account of the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales. The actuals of the previous year were considerably greater as they included the bulk of the charges on account of the Royal Visit.

184. Under Remittance Charges the actuals exceeded the Budget Estimate by 22, but fell short of those of the previous year by 42. The Budget did not anticipate a repetition of the high charges of 1905-06 in India and Bombay, but towards the close of 1906-07 considerable charges, exceeding those of the previous year, were incurred in Bombay. Under Charitable Donations there was an excess of 14 due to excess expenditure in Bengal in grants to St. Mary's Home of Charity, District Charitable Society, Zanana Hospital and St. Andrew's Colonial Home. Under Rewards for Destruction of Wild Animals a saving of 14 in the Central Provinces was nearly made up by small excesses in some of the other provinces. Petty Establishments showed a saving of 49, in Madras (27) due to smaller charges on account of choultries chiefly in the Tanjore District, in Bengal (14) on account of a write-back of an erroneous debit of 12 under Circuit House in the previous year on account of the furniture grant of the Chaqubagh House, and in Burma (9) on account of a partial lapse of the provision for additional bazar and conservancy establishments. Under Special Commissions of Enquiry the Budget in India provided for 52 for the Assam Labour Committee, 31 for the Stores Committee and 50 for the Excise Committee. For the first the actual expenditure was larger by about 11 and was covered by additional grant, for the third the actual expenditure was larger than the estimate by 63; in addition expenditure was incurred to the extent of 11 on account of the Statistical Committee, 23 on account of the Calcutta University Regulations Committee, 1.16 on account of the Telegraph Committee covered by an additional grant, and 11 on account of the Factory Labour Committee also covered by an additional grant. In Bengal the Budget did not include provision for the charges of the Drainage Committee and for those of the Enquiry into the Fisheries of Bengal. In Madras the charges for Mr. H. C. Wilson's enquiry into certain fishery questions, as also those of the Committee for the examination of the recruitment, etc., of the Subordinate Public Works Establishments, were not provided for in the Budget Estimate. Charges for Irrecoverable Loans written off are necessarily of a very fluctuating character. In Bombay an unexpected heavy adjustment of Tagai advances in Sind caused an excess, partly set off by savings in some of the other provinces, chiefly the Central Provinces. Under Rents,

Section E.—MISCELLANEOUS—concluded.32.—Miscellaneous—concluded.

Rates and Taxes the chief excesses occurred in Burma (52) on account of payment of increased Municipal Taxes on Government buildings together with arrears at the close of the year, and in India (17) similarly on account of municipal rates and taxes on Government buildings at Simla and Calcutta. Under Other Items arrear charges connected with the visit of Their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales account for the excess in India (1,54), and grants-in-aid to Chenab Canal villagers and construction of a grain mart in the Hissar District led to an excess in the Punjab. On the other hand there were savings chiefly in the Central Provinces (30) owing to the lapse of a provision for a payment to the Nagpur Municipality for the extension of Sitabaldi; in Burma (65) on account of the suspension of Khedda operations and in Bombay (27) on account of some payments of interest on Guaranteed Loans to Native States having been made in March 1906 instead of in the year under review.

185. The increased charges in England were partly on account of increased annual allowances to Indian Civil Service probationers and partly on account of Miscellaneous Store Charges.

186. As a result of improvement in the agricultural conditions in India, Punjab, Madras and Bombay, the actuals under direct Famine Relief showed a saving of ₹34,70 or £231,4 after meeting the cost of relief operations in Eastern Bengal and Assam and Bengal which had not been foreseen in the Budget Estimates. There were savings also on Protective Railways (₹50 or £3,3) and Irrigation works (₹12,67 or £84,5). The appropriation for Reduction or Avoidance of Debt was thus correspondingly larger than the Budget Estimate by ₹47,87, or £319,2.

187. The following statement shows the total amount chargeable to this grant, and its distribution:—

188 An unfavourable agricultural situation in Ajmer-Merwara (India) and in parts of United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, Punjab, Madras and Bombay necessitated the provision for famine relief in those provinces. The agricultural conditions, however, improved considerably later on in Ajmer, Punjab and Bombay, and Madras entirely escaped the visitation. On the other hand, the distress in Eastern Bengal and the failure of crops following the inundations in Bihar and elsewhere in Bengal necessitated the starting of relief operations in those provinces. The excesses of 81 (Provincial) and 25 (Local) in Eastern Bengal and Assam, and 7,11 (Provincial) and 1,30 (Local) in Bengal, and 2,77 (Imperial) and 11 (Local) in Bombay were sanctioned.

190. The outlay in India fell short of the Budget Estimate by 12,58, the decreases occurring chiefly in the Central Provinces, Bengal, the North-West Frontier Province, Madras and Bombay. The decrease in the Central Provinces was mainly due to short outlay on several projects, particularly the Ramtek Reservoir, and the Chandpur, Rimal, Asola Mendha and Gherajheri tanks, while that in Bengal was on account of slow progress of work on the Tribeni Canal. In the North-West Frontier Province the lapse was due to the transfer of the Lower Swat River Canal to head "49.—Irrigation Works" during the year, while that in Madras was due to surrenders of grants for the Mopad Reservoir, Bhavanasi, and Rushikulya projects, in consequence of stoppage of work on the first named under the orders of the Government of India, and to the programme of works in the case of the two latter having been restricted. The decrease in Bombay was mainly due to short outlay on the Chankapur tank and to the late receipt of sanction to commencement of work on the Godaveri Canal. The increase of 73 in the United Provinces is accounted for by larger outlay on the Betwa Canal. The actuals for the year exceeded those of the previous year by 8,64 due chiefly to larger expenditure on the Tribeni Canal in Bengal, to heavier outlay on the Betwa and Dassan Canals in the United Provinces, and to larger outlay on the Chankapur tank, the commencement of the Godaveri Canal works, and the preparation of Public Works projects for inclusion in Famine Relief Programmes in Bombay.

195. State Railways.—The gross receipts under India for the year 1906-07 show an increase compared with the actuals of the previous year, of 3,28,76. The variations on the more important railways were as under :—

Increases (+)	Decreases (—)
East Indian 27,25	Rajputana-Malwa 2,53
Eastern Bengal 38,84	Great Indian Peninsula 21,70

	Net increase 3,28,76

196. There was thus an improvement in the earnings of all the more important railway systems with the exception of the Rajputana-Malwa and Great Indian Peninsula Railways. The decreases on these lines were due to a fall in traffic in food grains and cotton owing to short crops and the production being below the average.

*Excludes the deductions of Working Expenses and Surplus Profits, etc., shown on the Receipt side of the Abstract Statement.

197 The principal increases were due —On the East Indian Railway (27,25) chiefly to improved passenger and coal traffic, on the Eastern Bengal State Railway (38,84) to a large 3rd class passenger traffic in connection with eclipses of the sun and moon in January 1907, and heavy grain traffic owing to scarcity in Eastern Bengal and Assam North-Western Railway (62,97), to development of export grain traffic to Europe and opening of new lines, Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway (4,75) to Magh and other religious melas held at Allahabad, Bengal-Nagpur (19,18), to development of both coaching and goods traffic, Tirhoot (5,51) to heavy imports of grain to Bengal, and general development of traffic, Indian Midland (23,35) to development of traffic in wheat and other food grains, oilseeds, and cotton, South Indian (4,15) to general development of traffic and opening of new lines, Bombay, Baroda and Central India (1,53,46) nominal being due to the inclusion under this head of the figures for the full 12 months of the year as against only 3 months in 1905-06

198. Compared with the Budget Estimate there was a net gain of 20,90 made up as follows :—

GAINS (+)		LOSSES (—)
East Indian	8,55	Rajputana-Malwa	1,40
Eastern Bengal	23 83	Oudh and Rohilkhand	44

• , Provincial	4
	<hr/> 77 78		<hr/> 56,88
		NET GAIN	20 90

The above results were due generally to the same causes as account for the variations compared with the actuals of the previous year

199 Guaranteed Railways The total net receipts were less than those of the previous year by 78,47 The decrease was however, to a certain extent nominal as the previous year's figures included the net receipts of the Bombay Baroda and Central India for three months of the year amounting to 74,46 against an adjustment of 2 07 during the year under review Eliminating these figures from the comparison, the actual decrease is 6 08 viz, 5 67 on the Madras Railway and 41 on the Madras Railway Extensions, due in the case of former to a large increase in working expenses under renewals and locomotive expenses, and in the case of the latter to a falling off in passenger traffic owing chiefly to outbreak of cholera and plague at Tellicherry The same causes generally account for the decrease of 4,90 on the Budget Estimate

200. Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was an increase of 27,25 due chiefly to improved passenger and coal traffic. The improvement was to a certain extent anticipated and provided for in the Budget Estimate. The decrease of 11,45 on the Revised Estimate is due to the anticipated improvement in coal traffic at the close of the year not having been realised.

201. Compared with the actuals of the previous year the receipts show an improvement of 38,84 to which coaching traffic contributed 15,35, due chiefly to increase in 3rd class passenger traffic consequent on festivals in connection with eclipses of the sun and moon in January 1907, the Industrial Exhibition and the Minto Fête, and goods traffic 21,48 due to heavy grain traffic owing to scarcity in Eastern Bengal and Assam and increased traffic in tea and sugar. In addition the period under review includes the earnings of the Central Section, Kaunia-Bonarpara and Murshidabad Branches for the complete year against 9,8 and 6½ months respectively of the previous year. The increase of 23,83 on the Budget Estimate is due generally to the same causes.

202. The receipts show a falling off of 2,53 compared with the actuals of the previous year. The decrease of 5,76 under Goods traffic is attributable to smaller bookings of food grains and cotton, due in the case of the first named commodity to larger demand in the previous year in Rajputana and Central India following on a scanty rainfall and in that of the second to the crop having fallen below the average, and the decrease of 3,95 under Miscellaneous and Suspense to an increase in outstandings. The decrease was to a certain extent compensated for by an increase in coaching traffic, chiefly under 3rd class passengers due to the celebration of a greater number of Hindu marriages, reduction in fares, and to the visit of His Majesty the Ameer of Afghanistan. The decrease of 11,40 on the Budget Estimate is attributable chiefly to a falling off in traffic in raw cotton, wheat and other grains and to an increase in outstandings.

203. The receipts were better than those of the previous year by 62,97. The increase which occurred mainly under Goods was due chiefly to development of export grain traffic to Karachi. The increase under Coaching was principally in the 3rd class traffic and is attributable to the opening of new lines, the Jech Doab Railway (Southern Section) and Amritsar Patti Railway, and to the continued growth of traffic. The excess of 16,09 on the Budget Estimate was due generally to the same causes, which were only partly anticipated and provided for.

204. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, there was a net increase of 2,75 in the receipts. Under Coaching and Miscellaneous there were increases of 3,50 and 60, respectively, due principally to the Magh and other religious Melas held at Allahabad in January 1907, and to general expansion of traffic, while Goods showed a falling off of 1,35, due to limited exports of wheat owing to the poor rabi harvest of 1906.

205. Compared with the actuals of the previous year the receipts show an increase of 19,18 due to development of both coaching and goods traffic. The decrease of 6,12 on the Budget Estimate is chiefly due to the earnings under "Goods" having been over-estimated, and to an increase in outstandings.

207. The receipts exceeded those of the previous year by 23,35. The increase which fell mainly under goods traffic was due to development of import traffic in wheat and other food grains chiefly from the Punjab and Oudh, oil seeds, cotton and other articles. The increase under coaching traffic was due partly to greater facilities offered to the travelling public by the opening of additional City Booking Offices at important stations and partly to bathing fairs held at Hoshangabad and Allahabad in January 1907. The increase of 18,63 on the Budget Estimate is attributable generally to the same causes.

211 Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was a net decrease of 21,70. Coaching traffic improved by 7,20 consequent on increased facilities offered to the public by the opening of additional City Booking offices increase in the number of Week-end Tickets and to a bathing fair held at Nasik in January 1907, but goods traffic showed a decrease of 19,22 attributable to smaller bookings of cotton for export during the year, the crop being later than usual and to a fall in wheat traffic. There was also a decrease of 9,68 under Miscellaneous and Suspense due largely to freight on traffic earned at the end of the year not being adjusted until after the close of the year owing to the Easter holidays. The decrease of 32,47 on the Budget Estimate falls mainly under goods traffic and is due generally to the causes mentioned above

The small increase of 77 on the Budget Estimate does not call for remark, while the decrease of 4 23 on the Revised Estimate is due to the improvement in goods traffic, for which allowance was made, not having set in until after the close of the year.

213 Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was a net increase in receipts of 14,32 made up of increases aggregating 29,42 and decreases 15,10. The principal increases were 1,05 on the Jodhpur-Hyderabad Railway (British Section) owing to increase in recoveries made from the Jodhpur-Bikaner Railway of the outstanding balance under 'Traffic Account', 10,54 on the Assam-Bengal Railway due to abnormal traffic in imported rice from Burma owing to scarcity in Eastern Bengal and Assam, and to development of passenger traffic 91 on the Guntakal-Mysore Frontier Railway due to improvement in train service and other facilities tending to the comfort and convenience of the travelling public and to the timely and plentiful rains 8,41 on the Agra-Delhi Chord Railway due to the more general use made of the Railway during the year, chiefly by traffic from the Punjab to the South-East Districts of the United Provinces of Agra and Oudh, the Central Provinces and Bombay, and 6,37 on the Kalka Simla Railway due partly to the inclusion of the figures for the full 12 months of the year as against only the last 3 months of the year 1905-06 and partly to general development of traffic

214 The principal decreases were 5,75 on the Warora colliery due to the colliery work having been closed from 1st May 1906 owing to the subsidence of the surface and underground area at number 3 Pit, and 5,77 on the North-East Line, Madras Railway, due to cessation of famine conditions which prevailed last year. The decrease of 3,54 on the Bengal Central Railway was only nominal being due to the amalgamation of the line with the Eastern Bengal State Railway with effect from 1st July 1905.

215. The actuals exceeded the Budget Estimate by 6,74 made up of increases 22,50 of which the principal were 1,58 on the Mysore Railway, due to improvement in train service and other facilities tending to the comfort and convenience of the travelling public, and large shipments of manganese ore to Europe, and 1,41 on the Jodhpur-Hyderabad Railway; 5,74 on the Assam-Bengal Railway; 1,53 on the Guntakal-Mysore Frontier Railway; 3,46 on the Agra-Delhi Chord Railway and 7,58 on the Kalka-Simla Railway, and of decreases to the extent of 15,76 of which the principal were 4,57, on the Warora colliery and 10,33 on the North-East line, Madras Railway, due generally to the same causes as account for the increases and decreases on these Railways as compared with the actuals of the previous year.

Gross Receipts.

218. Owing to the purchase of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway by the State with effect from January 1906, the transactions of the line for the year under review have been shown under State Railways, and the figures shown under this head represent adjustment of certain items relating to the period prior to 31st December 1905.

219. The receipts of the Madras Railway were better than those of the previous year by 7,17 due mainly to general improvement in 3rd class passenger traffic and to larger movements of grain and pulse following on the failure of the raggi crops west of Erode and also to improved traffic in coal and coke to meet the demands of the Kolar Gold Fields. The increase was to a certain extent anticipated and provided for in the Budget Estimate. The decreases of 41 and 78, respectively, on the last year's actuals and the Budget Estimate of the Madras Railway Extensions are attributable chiefly to a falling off in passenger traffic owing to outbreak of cholera and plague at Tellicherry.

Working Expenses.

220. The increase of 12,84 in the working expenses of the Madras Railway as compared with the actuals of the previous year, occurred chiefly under Maintenance due to heavier outlay on relaying, strengthening girder bridges, and repairs of stations and buildings, and under Locomotive due to the rise in the price of coal. The same causes generally account for the increase of 8,23 compared with the Budget Estimate.

221. The credits under India represent the amounts recoverable from the Mysore and Travancore Durbars, and from the Ahmedabad-Dholka Railway Company. The recovery from the Mysore Durbar is in settlement of the net charge for interest paid to the Southern Mahratta Railway Company, in connection with the Mysore Railway. The details of the amounts are as follows:—

	MYSOORE RAILWAY—
7,18	Interest on Capital	7,20	7,20	7,16
4	Less—Charge for interest borne by Government for the unexpended balance of the Capital retained in its hands	2	6	7
7,14		7,18	7,14	7,09
5,70	Net receipts	4,50	5,25	5,58
1,44	Net charge for interest recoverable from the Mysore Durbar	2,68	1,89	1,51

The recovery from the Travancore Durbar is on account of—

- (i) interest on so much of the South Indian Railway debentures as have been raised for the Native State Section of the Tinnevely-Quilon Railway, and
- (ii) interest on Government advances, i.e., on outlay in excess of the amount of debenture capital raised in respect of the section.

The recovery due from the Ahmedabad-Dholka Railway Company represents interest and dividends on the shares aggregating Rs 59,900 allotted to Government in respect of survey expenditure, and the value of famine earthwork at normal rates, which is treated as a Government share in the undertaking. No adjustment was made during the year under review on this account.

222. The credit under England represents the amount received from the Southern Punjab Railway Company, in settlement of the Government share of the surplus profits of that Railway.

An explanation of the variations compared with the actuals of the previous year and figures of the Budget Estimate is given below. Of the excess of 74,01 under Imperial, 55,88 has been sanctioned and 18,13 requires to be sanctioned. Under Provincial the excess of 13 in Eastern Bengal and Assam has been sanctioned by the Local Government.

224. Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was a net increase of 43,04 in the working expenses, due chiefly to heavier expenditure on repairs of bridges, costly repairs and renewals of engines and tenders, increased mileage run consequent on the opening of the Grand Chord line, opening of new stations and block huts, increase in number and salaries of existing staff, grant of grain compensation allowance, payment of rental of the South Behar Railway, heavier payment to Foreign Railways for hire and demurrage and to a special credit in 1905-06 on account of substantial improvements. The increase of 40,64 on the Budget Estimate is due generally to the same causes.

225. Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was an increase in working expenses of 24,45, due mainly to heavier expenditure on relaying of permanent-way, strengthening of bridges and special repairs of damages caused by floods, higher prices paid for coal and increased train mileage, employment of additional staff, increase in salaries, and grant of grain compensation allowance. The increases of 14,49 and 9,99 on the Budget and Revised Estimates, respectively, are due generally to the abovementioned causes which were anticipated only to a partial extent.

227. Compared with the actuals of the previous year the Working Expenses show an excess of 30,55. The increase which occurred mainly under Maintenance and Traffic is attributable generally to heavier renewals of way and works, increased train mileage, the opening of new lines, and appointment of additional staff. The decrease of 18,59 on the Budget Estimate was due to the late supply of sleepers and train power to carry material to site of work.

228. The working expenses show an increase of 5,49 on the actuals of the previous year, due to heavier outlay on renewals of engines and repairs to workshop machinery, larger consumption and increase in price of coal and oil, and extensive repairs to goods and coaching vehicles, counterbalanced to a certain extent by a decrease under Maintenance owing chiefly to credit afforded for released permanent-way material transferred to the Allahabad-Jaunpur Railway.

Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was an increase of 3,69 in working expenses proper due to employment of additional maintenance staff consequent on the increased length of open line, abnormal outlay on strengthening girders, higher cost of fuel, extensive repairs to goods and coaching vehicles, and generally to increased mileage run. The decrease of 1,37 in the company's share of surplus profits was due chiefly to the decrease in net earnings of 1906 as compared with 1905. The lapse of 2,51 on the Budget Estimate was due to late arrival of English materials and to the provision for extraordinary renewals of permanent-way and other special works not having been fully worked up to.

Compared with the Budget Estimate the working expenses proper show an increase of 5,24, due partly to a general increase in expenditure chiefly on renewals of line structures and rolling stock, and partly to a larger share of the total expenses having been debited to the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway under the arrangement of pooling the expenses.

237. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, there was a net increase in working expenses of 12,19 made up of increases 19,66 and decreases 7,47. The principal increases were 7,08 on the Assam-Bengal Railway and 4,46 on the Agra-Delhi Chord Railway following on increased earnings, 1,04 on the Lucknow-Bareilly Railway, due mainly to cost of relaying the main line with 50-lb. rails, and 4,21 on the Kalka-Simla Railway, due to the inclusion of the figures for the full 12 months of the year as against only the last 3 months of 1905-06. The decreases occurred 3,01 on the Warora Colliery, due to the Colliery work having been closed from 1st May 1906 owing to the subsidence of the surface and underground area at No. 5 Pit, and 1,00 on the North-East line, Madras Railway, due to an overcharge on account of interest on cost of Madras Railway Buildings from 1st January 1901 to 31st December 1905 having been adjusted in the accounts for the year under review. The decrease of 3,46 on the Bengal Central Railway was only nominal being due to the amalgamation of the line with the Eastern Bengal State Railway with effect from 1st July 1905.

242. There are no important variations in the amounts under England, which represent the interest chargeable against the companies on the advances made by the Secretary of State from funds raised under the provisions of the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway Purchase Act. The figures under India represent interest on the expenditure incurred in India on the extensions of the Bengal-Nagpur and Indian Midland Railways which is met from rupee advances and interest on advances to the other Companies in excess of capital raised. The amounts shown against the Mayavaram-Mutupet and Bezwada-Masulipatam Railways represent interest at 4 per cent. on Government loan. The excess of 59 under Imperial, India, requires the formal sanction of Government.

Surplus Profits.

245. No provision was made in the Budget Estimate for the payment of 7,80 on account of the Bombay, Baroda and Central India Railway Company's share of surplus profits as it was expected that the amount would have been adjusted in the accounts of the previous year. The payment of 1,25 on account of the Company's share of surplus profits of the Madras Railway was due to an unexpected improvement in net traffic receipts for the first half of 1906. The excess of 5,91 under Imperial requires to be sanctioned Land and Supervision.

246. The lapse of 3,13 on the Budget Estimate for land is due chiefly to credits afforded for value of "C" class lands on the Bombay, Baroda and Central India and the Great Indian Peninsula Railways and to land charges in connection with Junction works at Madras, originally debited to head "39", having now been written back to "48."

248. Compared with the actuals of the previous year there was a net decrease of 42 in the payments for and subsidy made of decreases aggregating 2,65, and increases 2,23. The principal decreases were 1,54 on the Amritsar-Patti Railway owing to the acquisition of land having been practically completed last year, and 63 on the Bengal and North-Western Railway due to credit received on account of relinquishment of land. Compared with the Budget Estimate the lapse of 5.69 under Imperial was due chiefly to the amounts provided for the Kalka-Simla, Dacca Railway extensions, Kurnool Road-Kurnool, Idar Road-Brahmakhed, Rawalpindi-Murree, Serajganj-Ullapara and Dholka-Dhandhuka-Ranpur Railways not having been utilised and to the requirements of the Bengal and North-Western Railway being over-estimated.

249. The lapse of 64 under Provincial was due to the outlay on land for the Saharanpur-Shahdara Light Railway being less than was anticipated.

No useful comparison can be made between the outlay of the two years by individual projects, as surveys are being completed and new surveys are being started every year. The excesses of 9 and 20 under Provincial and Local have been sanctioned by the Local Governments of Eastern Bengal and Assam and Madras, respectively.

254. The actuals for the year show an improvement of 10,67 as compared with the Budget Estimate, which occurs mainly in the Punjab (8,21) and the United Provinces (1,35). The increase in the Punjab is chiefly due to development of irrigation and high mill rents realised on the Sirhind canal and to no remissions having been granted for failure of irrigation on the Western Jumna canal, as was anticipated when the Budget was framed, while that in the United Provinces, is ascribed to the expansion of irrigation receipts from the Betwa canal. As compared with the previous year, there is a betterment of 22,68 which is principally due to large remissions of revenue having been granted in the Punjab on account of the failure of the cotton crop during 1905-06, and to the extension of irrigation on the Lower Jhelum Canal during the year under review.

Direct Receipts—Provincial Works.

255. As compared with the Budget Estimate, the actuals show an increase of 22,54, which occurs in the United Provinces (15,47), the Punjab (4,94), and Bengal (2,25). In the United Provinces the improvement is due to the very large increase in the area irrigated during the rabi of 1905-06, which is the largest on record, in the Punjab, to the causes explained under Imperial, and in Bengal to a larger area of kharif irrigation and improved navigation receipts on the Sone canals. Compared with the actuals of the past year, there is an advance of 48,28, the improvement occurring in the United Provinces (35,22), in the Punjab (11,97), and in Bengal (1,58). The causes leading to this increase are explained above.

256. The increase of 8,23 as compared with the Budget Estimate, occurred chiefly in Madras (3,06), and Bombay (3,29), and was due in Madras to better receipts on the Godavari and Pennar River Canal Systems, and in the case of Bombay to improved cultivation. Compared with the actuals for 1905-6 there was an improvement of 5,73 due mainly to better irrigation in the Punjab.

257. The increase of 88 as compared with the Budget Estimate, occurs chiefly in the Punjab and India (Baluchistan), and is due in the former to the development of irrigation on the Lower Sutlej, Chenab Inundation and Shahpur Canals, and in the latter to extension of cultivation and a favourable season. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, there is an improvement of 1,66, which occurs mainly in the Punjab, and India (Baluchistan), and is attributable to the causes mentioned above.

Provincial and Local Works.

258. The actuals are better than the Budget Estimate by 92, the increase occurring mainly in Burma, and being due to the growth of traffic on the Pegu Sittang Canal. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, the revenue is better to the extent of 1,39, and is due in Burma to the cause explained above, and in the United Provinces to a larger demand for water from the Dun and Rohilkhand Canals.

Imperial Works.

260. The actuals worked very closely to the Budget Estimate on the total, there was however an excess of 5,10 in the Punjab, due to heavy maintenance charges on almost all the canals.

261. The outlay of the year exceeded that of the previous year by 1,37, and is made up chiefly of an excess in the Punjab (2,53) counterbalanced by a reduction in Madras (1,40). The excess in the Punjab is mainly due to heavy maintenance charges on the Sirhind and Lower Chenab Canals consequent on increased receipts, and to development of irrigation on the Lower Jhelum Canal; the reduction in Madras is due to heavy expenditure incurred in 1905-6 on account of special plant and machinery.

Provincial Works.

262. The actuals show an increase of 6,44 as compared with the Budget Estimate, which occurs in Bengal (1,14), United Provinces (2,30), and the Punjab (3,08). In Bengal the provision in the Budget Estimate was found insufficient to meet the requirements of the year, in the United Provinces the excess was due to expansion of irrigation and additional establishment charges, and in the Punjab to heavy maintenance charges on almost all the canals. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, there is an increase of 5,66, which occurs in the same Provinces, vis., Bengal (1,71), United Provinces (2,62) and the Punjab (1,52). The increase in Bengal and the United Provinces is due to heavier maintenance and higher establishment charges, while that in the Punjab has been explained under Imperial.

Section J.—IRRIGATION—EXPENDITURE—concluded.Imperial, Provincial and Local Works.

266. The actuals fell short of those of the previous year by 7,84 due mainly, in the North-West Frontier Province (1,61), to smaller outlay on Remodelling the Kabul River Canal, consequent on the approaching completion of large works in Madras (6,32), to a smaller outlay during the year owing to a reduced grant, and in Bombay (3,40), to large outlay in 1905-6 on the Gaja Extension project and to an exceptional item of expenditure in that year on account of a suction dredger for the Indus River Commission.

267. The lapse of 18,56 as compared with the Budget Estimate was mainly due to the full amount of the special reserve of 10 lakhs not having been utilised, and to lapses in Burma (2,78), and Bombay (7,00), which resulted from the original programmes of works and repairs not being fully carried out.

The Imperial excess of 3 in India (in charge of Civil Officers) awaits sanction.

Section E.—OTHER PUBLIC WORKS—RECEIPTS—concluded

XXXI.—Civil Works—concluded.

Imperial Works

269 The revenues realised by departmental officers exceeded those of the previous year and the Budget Estimate, the increase being due in Bengal to rents of certain buildings lately acquired for the extension of Government House, Calcutta, and in the Punjab to larger rent receipts from Imperial Buildings at Simla

Provincial Works.

270 Compared with the Budget Estimate the actuals show an improvement of 3,30 under Departmental Officers, being mainly due in Eastern Bengal and Assam (58) and the Punjab (51), to an increase in the rents from Buildings in Bengal (56), to the profits from the Darjeeling Himalayan Railway being more than estimated, and in Bombay (1,14) to increased receipts from 'tolls on roads' and 'sales of old materials' The increase of 2,22 on the actuals of 1905-6 is due in Bengal (94) to a large write back from this head during the previous year and in Bombay (69), to increased toll-receipts from Local Fund roads which were provincialised

Local Works

271. The revenue realised by Civil Officers exceeded the Budget Estimate by (2,77) being due to increased receipts from sales of lands and houses in the Punjab and from tolls in Madras The improvement of 3,46 on the actuals of the previous year was due in the Punjab to increased receipts from the sales of lands, houses, and trees, in Eastern Bengal and Assam to increased canal and ferry receipts, and in Madras to increased toll and ferry receipts

272. The expenditure exceeded that of the previous year by £195,0, and was due to a larger programme of works being carried out during the year under review chiefly in the Central Provinces and Eastern Bengal and Assam. Compared with the Budget Estimate there was a lapse of £137,4 which was due mainly to short payments for land compensation and short outlay on brick manufacture in Eastern Bengal and Assam and to short outlay generally in Burma and Bengal.

274. The lapse of 34 on the Mayavaram-Mutupet Railway under Local, as compared with the Budget Estimate, was chiefly due to the non-construction of an engine turn-table and the postponement of certain works to 1907-8.

275. The excess of 10 over the Budget Estimate of the Jorhat State Railway has been sanctioned by the Local Government of Eastern Bengal and Assam.

Imperial Works.

276. The actuals have fallen short of those of the previous year by 10,70 due in the Central Provinces (9,17) to the provincialisation of Berar expenditure and to small expenditure on "Original Works," in Bengal (5,68) to very large expenditure incurred in 1905-6 on property for the extension of Government House, Calcutta, and in the North-West Frontier Province (5,99) to smaller outlay under "Original Works." These reductions were somewhat counterbalanced by small excesses in other administrations. The Budget Estimate has been exceeded by 27 only. The excess of 115 (Departmental) over the reduced grant and the excess of 42 (Civil) in India require to be sanctioned.

Provincial Works.

277. The expenditure incurred by Departmental Officers exceeded that of the previous year by 29,51. The principal increases were:—Central Provinces, (15,10), due chiefly to the amalgamation with the Berar; Eastern Bengal and Assam (7,26), due to expenditure on the transferred districts from Bengal; Madras (7,74), due to the construction of the Central Farm Institute at Coimbatore, a Central Record Office at Madras, and to increases under Establishment; Bombay (7,63), due to larger outlay on "Original Works," "Repairs," "Communications" and Establishment: these increases were counterbalanced to a certain extent by a reduction in Burma (8,89), due to smaller outlay on Original Works, Civil Buildings and Communications. Compared with the Budget Estimate, there was a lapse of 9,50, made up chiefly of lapses in Burma (9,55), Eastern Bengal and Assam (7,16) and Bengal (6,32), which were counterbalanced to a certain extent by an excess in Bombay (13,21). The lapse in Burma was due to the requirements of the year having been over-estimated, that in Eastern Bengal and Assam to the non-payment of land compensation, inability to manufacture bricks to the extent anticipated and the late receipt of English stores, and that in Bengal, to smaller outlay than was anticipated under Original Works, Civil Buildings. The excess in Bombay resulted from new works being pushed on.

278. The expenditure incurred by Civil Officers exceeded that of the previous year by 6,82, made up chiefly of increases in Eastern Bengal and Assam (2,75), due to larger outlay on new works of Miscellaneous Public Improvements, and in the United Provinces (3,79), to larger Miscellaneous outlay. Compared with the Budget Estimate there was a lapse of 4,41 made up chiefly of a lapse in Bengal (9,43), counterbalanced by an excess in the United Provinces (4,33). The lapse in Bengal occurred mainly under Miscellaneous Public Improvements, while the excess in the United Provinces resulted from larger grants-in-aid to Municipalities.

Local Works.

279. The expenditure incurred by Departmental Officers during 1906-7 was less than that of the previous year by 6,48, the reductions being chiefly in Burma (1,21), United Provinces (1,98), and Bombay (2,37). The reduction in Burma was due to smaller outlay on Civil Buildings and Miscellaneous Public Improvements, that in the United Provinces was chiefly due to the completion of certain original works on which large outlay was incurred during the previous year, and that in Bombay to short outlay on Repairs, Communications, as several Local Fund roads were taken over by Government for maintenance from Provincial funds.

280. The expenditure incurred by Civil Officers exceeded that of the previous year by 11,13, being made up chiefly of excesses under Burma (1,87), Eastern Bengal and Assam (8,85), Bengal (2,95), and Punjab (3,56), against decreases under United Provinces (1,83) and Madras (4,42). On the Budget Estimate there was a lapse of 6,99, which occurred principally in Burma (2,42), United Provinces (1,57), Punjab (2,54), Madras (2,83) and Bombay (1,63); while there was an excess in Bengal (4,09).

282. The receipts and charges of the Imperial Marine and the Military Works Departments, as well as the charges for Special Defences have been incorporated with this group in accordance with the rearrangement of heads sanctioned in Secretary of State's Despatch No. 141 (Financial), dated 11th October 1907.

283. The receipts in India fell short of the Budget Estimate by R1,26 or £8,4, but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by R15,08 or £100,5. Compared with the Budget the decrease was made up of a falling off of R2,34 or £15,6 under Army, and increases of R53 or £3,5 under Marine and of R55 or £3,7 under Military Works. The decrease under Army was due chiefly to small sales of malt liquor, provisions and stores and dairy produce, and to the final adjustment in the Home Accounts of the capitation rate payable in respect of Indian Native Regiments lent for service in the Colonies, provision for which had been made in the Indian Estimates; partly counterbalanced by large issues of ordnance stores to Native States on payment and of extensive sales of unserviceable and obsolete ordnance stores from arsenals and factories. The increase under Marine was due mainly to all recovery claims against the Royal Navy, other departments, etc., issued in 1905-06 and 1906-07, having been adjusted during the year owing to the introduction of a different system of accounting from 1st April 1907. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, there were increases of R12,53 or £83,5 under Army, R2,30 or £15,3 under Marine and R25 or £1,7 under Military Works. Under Army the excess was chiefly due to the improvement and extension of dairy farms, to the sale of a large number of transport animals, to larger issues of ordnance stores to Native States on payment, to large sales of old stores and materials from arsenals and factories and to more realisations of subscriptions to the Indian Military Service Family Pension Fund; partly counterbalanced by smaller sales of provisions and stores and malt liquor and less receipts from grass cultivation. The increase under Marine was due to the cause stated above, also to the adjustment of the previous year's expenditure incurred in the construction of launches for the Persian Government.

284. The receipts in England exceeded the Budget Estimate by £168,8 owing chiefly to receipts from the Imperial Government in respect of the capitation rate payable on account of Indian Native Regiments lent for service in the Colonies and elsewhere; to more receipts on account of Indian Troop Service; and to an increase in the value of clothing, accoutrements, etc., in possession of regiments on their transfer from the Indian to the British Establishment.

285. The following statement shows separately the ordinary and special charges included under Army charges in India :—

286. The separate division " Reorganisation " was discontinued from 1906-07, the charges on that account having been compiled under ordinary heads.

287. The total Budget provision and the actual expenditure for Special Services are shown in detail below :—

Charges for—	Budget.	1906-7. Accounts
Gilgit Agency	1,97	2,34
Tibet Mission	2,61	5,94
Aden Delimitation Commission	6,68	3,70
	11,26	11,98

288. The increase of 37 under Gilgit Agency was due to advances made during the year for supplies to be expended in the following year, and that of 3,33 under Tibet Mission to higher prices of food supplies; to feed and keep of sheep purchased for stock; and to the purchase of extra three months' supplies and of stores for issues on payment not provided for in the Budget. The decrease of 2,98 under Aden Delimitation Commission was chiefly due to the withdrawal of field service concessions.

289. The details of the saving of 16,44 in the ordinary expenditure, as compared with the Budget, are shown by the following figures :—

290. The saving under ordinary expenditure was mainly due to lapses and savings in the provision made for schedule measures, of which the more important items are :—reorganisation of Royal Horse and Field Artillery; reorganisation of the existing ammunition columns of Royal Horse and Field Artillery and formation of additional ammunition columns; addition of 350 Officers to the Indian Army; increase to the strength of Native Army Reserves of 50,000 men; Native troops' lines; additional mule corps and cadres; purchase of land for lines of Native troops; increase in reserves of Artillery ammunition; rearmament of Horse and Field Artillery; increase in Reserve of Rifles; provision of small arms ammunition columns; and working expenses of new Ordnance Factories. These savings were to some extent counterbalanced by increased expenditure on the creation of the Chief of the Staff's Divisions at Army Head Quarters; by the moiety of bounty to British soldiers for extension of their service; and by the grant of foot gear allowance and increased rate of kit-money to Native troops.

291. The grant heads under which the expenditure exceeded the Budget were:—

Administrative Staff	35
Supply and Transport	11,75
Remount and Veterinary	9,61
Clothing	3,32
Barrack Establishment	1,17
Sea Transport Charges	2,08
Family Pensions and Compassionate Allowances, etc.	25
Departmental Pensions and Gratuities	70

292. Of the excesses, 7 under Administrative Staff, 72 under Barrack Establishment, 1,06 under Sea Transport Charges, 5 under Family Pensions and Compassionate Allowances, etc., and 11 under Departmental Pensions, in comparison with the net Budget grant, still require the sanction of the Government of India. The balance under these heads and the whole of the excesses under Supply and Transport, Remount and Veterinary and Clothing have been covered by reappropriations and additional grants. The excesses, 14 under Volunteer Corps, 6 under Military Pensions to Europeans and 12 under Military Pensions to Natives, over the reduced grants, also require the sanction of the Government of India.

293. Under Marine Expenditure there was a saving in India of R1,14 or £7,6, chiefly due to a saving in the Bombay Dockyard owing to the non-utilisation of the provision for certain works of construction for the Royal Indian Marine and other works, partly counterbalanced by an excess in the Kidderpore Dockyard under wages of artificers and labourers.

294. Under Military Works Expenditure there was a saving of 10,56 in India owing to the Reserve with the Government of India not having been utilised to the full extent.

295. Under Special Defences Expenditure in India there was a lapse of 6,22 which resulted from the curtailment of funds for mounting 7.5" B. L. Guns.

296. As compared with the actuals of the previous year there was an increase in the Indian Expenditure of 5,85 under Army Charges being made up of a decrease of 68,82 under Reorganisation, the charges on that account having been compiled under different heads of Ordinary Expenditure during 1906-7, a decrease of 10,51 under Special Services and an increase of 85,18 under Ordinary Expenditure. Under Special Services the decrease was chiefly due to charges on account of Occupation of Chitral and its Communications having been compiled under ordinary heads in 1906-7; to less charges on account of Aden Delimitation Commission; and to no charges on account of Seistan Boundary Commission; partly counterbalanced by increased charges under Tibet Mission. Of the increase of 85,18 under Ordinary Expenditure, 70 under Army and Garrison Staff was chiefly due to more charges on account of Divisional and Brigade Commands, partly counterbalanced by less charges under Garrison and Station Staff; 45 under Administrative Staff was mainly due to more schedule expenditure; 16,21 under Regimental Pay was chiefly due to expenditure on construction of Native troops' lines under the reorganisation scheme; to the grant of foot gear allowance; to more charges on account of addition of 350 officers to the Indian Army; to charges for the whole year for the five colonial regiments against 11 months in the previous year; to more charges for good service and good conduct pay; and to larger payments of bounty: partly counterbalanced by short strength of British soldiers and few Supernumerary and Unattached List Officers; 42,57 under Supply and Transport was mainly due to charges on account of reorganisation and change of Administration of Supply and Transport Corps; to rise in rates of provisions and forage; to more schedule expenditure; by heavy railway charges; to improvement and extension of dairy farms; to more charges for hay and dry bedding making operations; and to more charges for supply of water and for frontier kit-allowance and kit-money; partly counterbalanced by less charges for messing allowance; by the utilisation of the reserve live-stock of the Khyber Moveable Column; and by smaller issues to China; 20,10 under Remount was chiefly due to all reorganisation charges having been compiled under ordinary heads in 1906-7 instead of under a separate division in 1905-6; partly counterbalanced by the purchase of a smaller number of animals; 4,26 under Ordnance was mainly due to the creation of the Office of Inspector General of Ordnance Factories; to large expenditure for extra labour owing to increased outturn; to large purchases of local stores and to expenditure on account of wheeled stretcher carriages, partly counterbalanced by small purchases for the Gun and Shell Factory and Ammunition Factories; and 3,74 under Sea Transport Charges was chiefly due to more charges for passage money; to the employment of the R. I. M. S. Dufferin for the conveyance of details to England, and to the purchase of Welsh coal for the S. S. Rewa. There was an increase of 49 under Marine Charges chiefly due to more works of construction for the Civil Department; to the purchase of provisions at higher rates by the R. I. M. vessels; to large supplies of stores received from the Cossipore Shell Factory; and to heavy repairs to certain flats, partly counterbalanced by savings in wages of artificers and labourers. Under Military Works, the expenditure exceeded by 3,29 chiefly due to the expansion of reorganisation measures; to large expenditure for the accommodation for Native Mounted Battery of Artillery, and British and Native troops and to the construction of Remount Department, Supply and Transport and Ordnance Works; partly counterbalanced by the postponement of certain works till the completion of the Reorganisation scheme. Under Special Defences the increase of 2,82 was due to heavier expenditure on the Break Water Pier at Bombay.

297. There were savings in the expenditure in England to the extent of £64,7 made up of savings under Army (£84,1) and under Special Defence Works (£51,7), counterbalanced by increases under Marine (£42,6) and Military Works (£28,5). Army Charges showed increases of £895,7 under Effective Charges and of £22,4 under Non-Effective Charges, counterbalanced by the non-utilisation of the special provision of £1,002,2 for Reorganisation Stores. Under Effective Charges the excess was chiefly due to an increase under furlough pay and allowances of Officers of the Indian Service; to the conveyance of a large number of troops in part from South Africa to India and the engagement of fresh ships for accelerated service; and to the inclusion of the charges under Reorganisation—Stores for India to this head. Under Non-Effective Charges the increase was mainly due to increased payments to War Office for retired pay, etc., of British Forces for service in India: and to more payments of the Indian Military Service Family Pensions. Under Marine Charges the increase of £42,6 in England was chiefly due to payments on account of vessels under construction. Larger demands for stores than were anticipated resulted in an increase of £28,5 under Military Works. The saving of £51,7 under Special Defences was due to alterations in the programme.

298. The receipts in India fell short of the Budget Estimate by 2,34. The decrease occurred chiefly under Supply and Transport and Miscellaneous Services, partly counterbalanced by increases under Clothing and Ordnance Establishments. They were mainly due to small sales of malt liquor, provisions and stores, and dairy produce; to the adjustment by deduction of the credit afforded to the Imperial Government on account of the unexpired value of Europe stores in possession of the 119th Infantry serving at Hongkong, and to the final adjustment in the Home Accounts of the credit received from the Imperial Government for the capitation rate payable in respect of Indian Native Regiments lent for service in the Colonies, provision for which credit had been made in the Indian Estimates, partly counterbalanced by large sales of clothing and materials to British and Native troops, and of necessaries to British troops; by unusually large issues of ordnance stores to Native States on payment; by extensive sales of unserviceable stores from arsenals and ordnance factories; and by the refund by the War Office of pay of Native troops during furlough which was earned while on field service in China and Somaliland and was specially granted to them on return to India. The principal variations are noted below.

299. The increase of 19 under Regimental Pay, etc., was due to a large number of soldiers having purchased their discharge, and to the sale of the cavalry lines at Bellary. Under Supply and Transport there was a decrease of 5,97 due to small sale of malt liquor, provisions and stores, and of dairy produce, partly counterbalanced by large sale of rum, by the sale of transport cattle at the Hoonsoor cattle depôt on its abolition, by the sale of surplus elephants on the reduction of the complement of unorganised transport in Burma, and by large recoveries on account of hire of transport. Under Remounts, etc., the increase of 23 was chiefly due to a large number of horses having been cast and sold from remount depôts and large recoveries for hire of horses. The increase of 2,16 under Clothing Establishments, etc., was due to large sales of clothing and materials to native troops under the new clothing scheme of 1905 and to large issues on payment to British troops; to larger sale proceeds of necessaries; and to the adjustment of the value of stores issued from stock to China. The increase of 29 under Medical Establishments, etc., was due to large issues of medical stores to cantonment hospitals and to civil institutions. Under Ordnance Establishments, etc., the increase of 8,67 was due to unusually large issues of ordnance stores to Native States on payment and to extensive sales of unserviceable and obsolete ordnance stores from arsenals and factories; partly counterbalanced by the adjustment by deduction of the credit afforded to the Imperial Government on account of the unexpired value of Europe Stores in possession of the 119th Infantry serving at Hong-Kong. Under Miscellaneous there was a decrease of 7,85 due mainly to the final adjustment in the Home Accounts of recoveries from the War Office on account of expenditure in India in connection with the five Native Infantry Regiments permanently lent to the Imperial Government for Colonial duty, partly made up by a refund by the War Office of pay of Native troops during furlough which was earned while on field service in China and Somaliland and was specially granted to them on return to India; by recoveries for provisions, stores and transport on the occasion of the visit of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan and by more receipts on account of Tibet Mission. The decrease of 16 under Family Pensions and Compassionate Allowances to Europeans was due to less recoveries on account of contributions towards Indian Military Service Family Pensions.

300. The receipts in England under Effective Services exceeded the Budget Estimate by £168,7 due to receipts from the Imperial Government in respect of the capitation rate payable on account of Indian Native Regiments lent for service in the Colonies; to more receipts on account of Indian Troop Service; and to an increase in the value of clothing, accoutrements, etc., in possession of regiments on their transfer from the Indian to the British Establishment.

301. The Indian receipts exceeded the Budget Estimate by 53 and the actuals of the previous year by 2,30. Under Dockyard Services, etc., there was an increase of 94 chiefly in consequence of recovery claims against the Royal Navy, other departments, etc., for two years 1905-06 and 1906-07, having been adjusted during the year, partly counterbalanced by less recoveries on account of hire of vessels, the budget for which was taken at a too large figure. Against this increase there were decreases of 32 under Sale proceeds of Vessels and Stores due to less sales of stores and to the sale of a vessel smaller than the one the sale of which was contemplated in the Budget; and of 9 under Other receipts due to less coal having been issued from the depôts in the Persian Gulf to Royal Navy Vessels.

302. As compared with the actuals of the previous year, the increase was mainly due to the adjustment of expenditure of the previous year for the construction of launches for the Persian Government, and to increased contribution by the Admiralty for the additional staff maintained at Bombay and to the write-back in 1905-6 of certain credits for coal supplies to the Sultan of Muscat; partly counterbalanced by less recoveries in 1906-7 owing to the Royal Indian Marine Vessels not having been largely employed on Imperial Service and less sales of vessels and stores.

304. As compared with the Budget, there was a net saving of 51 under this head, due chiefly to less tour expenses of the Lieutenant-Generals Commanding; to the absence of officers on leave; to variations in army ranks of officers; to the transfer of the appointment of Assistant Adjutant General for Finance to the Financial Department (Military Finance); to certain Station Staff Officers having drawn their pay of rank regimentally; to less charges for Hill Sanitaria; and to the abolition of the Deolali depôt and of certain rest camps. Apart from these causes there was a decrease under Quarter Master General owing to certain charges under this head having been shown under Chief of the Staff at Army Head Quarters for which there was no Budget provision. Against these decreases there were excesses under Commander-in-Chief (24) due to more tour expenses of the Commander-in-Chief in India, the tour grant having been fixed at a higher scale than was budgetted for; and under Musketry Inspection (8) owing to more travelling charges in connection with musketry instruction classes.

305. The increase of 35 as compared with the Budget, was chiefly due to more schedule expenditure (17); to change in classification of printing charges (14); to the grant of conveyance allowance to clerks of the Western Command during the prevalence of plague (7); to higher rates of pay having been drawn by certain officers (12); and to an advance of pay drawn by Colonel Williams on his proceeding on combined leave (6). These increases were to some extent made up by savings under Personal Staff of the Governor-General, etc., in pay of Aides-de-Camp to Governors and Lieutenant-Governors (14) and under Inspections, etc. (11), owing to few officers having been present for duty.

10,20,31	TOTAL	10,67,86	10,40,23	10,36,05

306. As compared with the Budget, the decrease under European Army was due chiefly to the transfer to other grants of a portion of the provision for schedule measures in connection with the reorganisation of Royal Horse and Field Artillery and of the existing columns of Royal Horse and Field Artillery and the formation of additional ammunition columns; to less charges for pay, command staff and horse allowance of regimental officers owing to the deduction made in the Budget for probable savings having proved insufficient; to short strength of British troops; and to few Supernumerary and Unattached List officers having been present; partly counterbalanced by more charges for service pay and large payments of bounty to British soldiers for extension of service. The decrease under Native Army was chiefly due to less charges for pay of officers, native commissioned and non-commissioned officers, rank and file; to few reservists having been called out for training; to a partial lapse of the special provision for an increase in the strength of the Native Army reserve; to the transfer of a portion of the provision for construction of line of Native Infantry regiments under the reorganisation scheme to the Military Works Estimate; and to the lapse of the provision for new lines for the Sappers and Miners at Bangalore. These increases were partially made up by increases for more charges for pay of Native Infantry Officers owing to the deduction made in the Budget; by the grant of foot gear allowance to Native troops from 1st October, 1906; and by more charges for good conduct pay to Natives.

307. The details of the principal sub-heads of the European Army are given below:—

1905-6. Accounts.		Budget.	1906-7. Revised.	Accounts.
1,32,35	Artillery	1,59,03	1,35,00	1,33,37

5,06,50	TOTAL	5,33,44	5,08,57	5,06,72

308. The decrease under Artillery (25,66) was chiefly due to the lapse of a portion and the transfer to Remount and Veterinary Establishment of another and larger portion of the provision for reorganisation of Royal Horse and Field Artillery and of the existing Ammunition Columns of Royal Horse and Field Artillery and for the formation of additional columns. The increase under Cavalry (39) was chiefly due to excess strength of Warrant and Non-commissioned officers, rank and file; and to more charges on account of consolidated horse lines contingent allowance partly counterbalanced by less charges for pay of officers owing to the deduction for probable savings not having been sufficient; to short strength of native artificers and followers, and to a small number of men having drawn service pay. Under Engineers, the excess (18) was mainly due to pay drawn by unemployed Royal Engineer Officers, which was not budgetted for. The saving under Infantry (4,02) was due to short strength of Warrant and Non-commissioned officers, rank and file; to less charges for good conduct pay, deferred pay and extra ad. a day to British soldiers and to a reduction in rates of stationery allowance; partly counterbalanced by more charges for grant of service pay to British soldiers and to men who extended their service on receipt of bounty. Under Officers of the Indian Army, etc., the decrease (2,02) was due to less charges for pay and exchange compensation allowance of officers owing to there being few supernumerary and unattached list officers. The increase under Other Charges was chiefly due to payments of bounty to British soldiers for extension of service; to increased rate of kit-money sanctioned during the year; and to the enlistment of drivers and expenditure on account of clothing allowance in connection with the reorganisation of Royal Horse and Field Artillery.

309. The details of the principal sub-heads under the Native Army are as follow:—

1905-6. Accounts.		Budget.	1906-7. Revised.	Accounts.
8,52	Artillery	8,66	8,66	8,65
1,08	Body-Guard	1,10	1,03	98
1,45,49	Cavalry	1,45,70	1,44,60	1,45,09
15,49	Sappers and Miners	16,16	16,44	16,44
2,85	Indian Sub-Marine Mining Corps	2,93	2,66	2,66

5,44	Kit-money for Recruits	5,75	6,25	5,75
4,48	Hutting-money	14,92	11,20	9,99
10,69	Reserve Forces	16,66	11,70	11,05
18,41	Other Charges	18,82	22,00	21,76
5,13,34	TOTAL	5,34,42	5,31,66	5,29,33

310. The excess under Sappers and Miners (28) was chiefly due to more charges for pay of Warrant and Non-commissioned officers and Native Commissioned and Non-commissioned officers, rank and file, and of Native artificers and followers, and for good conduct and good service pay of Natives, partly counterbalanced by less charges for pay of officers owing to the deduction for probable savings in the Budget having proved too high. Under Infantry the increase (3,24) was mainly due to more charges for pay and exchange compensation allowance of officers, pay of Native Commissioned and Non-commissioned officers, rank and file, command staff and horse allowances, owing to the deduction in the Budget for probable savings not having been fully realised; to the grant of Baluchistan local allowance to officers of the 106th Hazara Pioneers; to higher rates of pay of subordinate medical and fixed hospital establishments and good service and good conduct pay; partly counterbalanced by less charges for addition of 350 officers to the Indian Army, for pay of Native artificers and followers and prizes for skill-at-arms.

The increase under Other charges (2,94) was chiefly due to the grant of foot gear allowance from 1st October 1906 and to the increased rate of clothing allowance drawn by Colonial regiments; partly counter-balanced by less charges for recruiting depôts, batta and purchase of chargers in connection with the addition of 350 officers to the Indian army. Against these increases there were large savings under Hutting-money (4,93) and Reserve Forces (5,61). Under the former head the saving was due to the transfer of a portion of the allotment to the Military Works estimate for construction of lines of certain Native Infantry Regiments, to a partial lapse of the provision in connection therewith, and to the lapse of the amount provided for new lines for the Sappers and Miners at Bangalore: that under reservists was due to few reservists having been called out for training and to a partial lapse of the special provision for an increase of the Native Army reserve. Less charges for pay, exchange compensation allowance, and command staff and horse allowances of officers, warrant and Non-commissioned officers and of Native Commissioned and Non-commissioned officers, account for savings under Body-Guard (12) Cavalry (61) and Indian Sub-Marine Mining Corps (27).

311. Under Native Army the actuals exceeded those of the previous year by 15,99 due to expenditure on account of the 26th Railway Company and construction of lines of Native troops under the reorganisation scheme having been charged to this head which in the previous year was compiled under the separate "reorganisation" division; to heavy charges for Engineer and working pay and for good service and good conduct pay; to charges on account of five Colonial regiments for the whole year instead of for 11 months as in the previous year; and to the grant of foot gear allowance from 1st October 1906.

312. The increase of 11,75 in this grant occurred under all the heads except Establishment. The increases under Supplies (5,62), Services (7,47), Transport Branch (1,42) and Special Services (39) were chiefly due to rise in prices of grain and fodder in consequence of scarcity; to higher charges for conveyance of stores by rail; to charges incurred in this grant in connection with the reorganisation of royal horse and field artillery for which a lump provision was made under the grant Regimental Pay; and to more charges on account of Gilgit Agency. Against these increases the decrease under Establishment (3,15) was mainly due to less charges for salaries owing to the absence of certain officers on leave; to variations in army ranks of officers; and to short strength of transport and subordinate establishments. Compared with the actuals of the previous year, the increase was mainly due to charges in connection with the reorganisation and change of administration of the Supply and Transport Corps; to rise in rates of provisions; to the compilation of charges on account of Occupation of Chitral and its Communications under ordinary heads; to large consignments of ordnance stores than in the previous year; to improvement and extension of dairy farms; and to more charges for supply of water at certain stations.

313. The details of the expenditure under Establishment are given below:—

1905-6. Accounts.		Budget.	1906-7. Revised.	Accounts.
5,43	Supervising Staff	7,83	7,40	7,07
29,92	Executive Establishment	30,73	30,78	31,37

72,66	TOTAL	86,54	84,35	83,39

314. The decrease of 76 under Supervising Staff was due to less charges for salaries, travelling and outstation allowances; to variations in army rank of officers; to the abolition of one of the appointments of purchasing officers in the Northern Circle; and to the amalgamation of the Office of the Inspector General of Supply and Transport with that of the Quarter Master General in India; that under Transport (2,11) was mainly due to short complement of officers; to less charges for travelling and for cattle estabishments and marching allowances to short strength of reserve of mule drivers and to the discontinuance of the general working of the mechanical transport. The decreases under Subordinate Establishment (46) and Other Heads (46) were due to less charges for regimental, supply store depôt and quarter masters' establishment and to increased recoveries by the Agent, Government Consignments, on account of large quantities of stores landed for other departments. Against all these decreases there was a small increase under Executive Establishment (64) due to more charges for salaries owing to the deduction made in the Budget for probable savings not having been fully realised and to more travelling charges partly counterbalanced by more charges for salaries in consequence of the change of administration of the Supply and Transport Corps.

315 Under Supplies the details are as follow —

1905-6 Accounts		Budget	1906-7 Revised	Accounts.
1 04 77	Provisions for Europeans	1 05 88	1 03 12	1 03 12

2 04	Deduct—Value of Supplies to other Departments	20	75	1 06
1 90 27	TOTAL	1 95 12	2 01 27	2 00 74

316 Under Supplies there were increases under Provisions for Natives (1 64), Compensation to Natives for dearness of provisions (10 51) and Compensation to Natives for dearness of forage (2 35) chiefly due to rise in prices of articles of food and grain and fodder in consequence of scarcity to the supply of rice in aid to Native troops and followers at Secunderabad and Bellary and to the replacement of issues from stock to the Rohat Escort. Against these increases there were savings under all other heads. The decrease under Provisions for Europeans (2,76) was due to less charges for messing allowance owing to short strength to smaller charges for meat to the utilisation of the reserve of live stock of the Khyber Moveable Column for ordinary requirements and to less charges for ration articles other than bread and meat partly counterbalanced by more charges for hot meal allowances to men proceeding to and from the port of embarkation and from station to station owing to the abolition of rest camps. The savings under Purchase of Reserve Stock (1 07) Malt Liquor purchased locally (4 07) and Rum (11) were all due to smaller purchases. The increase in the deduction (86) for Value of Supplies etc., was due to credits for the value of stores issued from stock to Chin and Rohat Escort and to larger issues to other departments.

317 Under Services the following are the details —

1905-6 Accounts		Budget	1906-7 Revised	Accounts
4 31	Hire of Transport	5 60	4 35	4 08
4 40	Sea and Inland Water Charges	4 91	5 00	4 78
54 28	Railway Charges	54 85	58 27	56 01

11 47	Other Heads	11 68	12 00	11 86
1,39 84	TOTAL	1 45 15	1 53 79	1,52 62

318 The increase under Railway Charges (1 16) was chiefly due to conveyance of a large number of Native troops owing to an increase in the number of men proceeding on furlough and to the conveyance of more ordnance and medical stores partly counterbalanced by less charges for conveyance of supply and transport and clothing stores and of European troops owing to the abolition of the Colaba depôt and the adoption of Karachi as a port of embarkation and debarkation that under Feed of Horses, Battery Mules, etc (9 25), was due chiefly to more charges of feed of horses and ponies owing to higher rates; to purchase of fodder to supplement farm produce to charges incurred in connection with the reorganisation of horse and field artillery and to a grant made for grass operations at Bangalore; partly counterbalanced by less charges for feed of mules and yaboos. The increase under Implements, Godown Furniture, etc. (38) was mainly due to more charges for godown furniture and more miscellaneous charges; that under Other Heads (18) was attributable chiefly to more purchases of warm clothing for troops and followers to replenish stock, and to more charges for supply of water; partly counterbalanced by small purchases of baggage mule and battery bullocks and by less charges for frontier kit allowance and frontier kit money to troops and followers, and for clothing allowance to Native troops when proceeding by sea. Against these increases the savings under Hire of Transport (1,52) and Sea and Inland Water Charges (13) were due to less charges for conveyance of British and Native troops, supply and transport, clothing and ordnance stores. The decrease under Dairy Farms, Piggeries and Grass Farms (1,82) was due to less charges for hire of cattle, purchase of butter and contingencies, partly counterbalanced by more purchases of live and dead stock; and to less charges for general improvements and additions to stock owing to less purchases of plant and machinery, made up to some extent by more charges for hay and dry bedding making and grass operations.

319. The details of the charges in the Transport Branch are as follows :—

1905-6. Accounts.		Budget.	1906-7. Revised.	Accounts.
18,70	Unorganized Transport	18,41	18,49	21,41
14,18	Mule Corps	20,97	20,80	19,10
3,41	Mule Cadres	3,79	4,33	4,99
1,65	Silladar Camel Corps	1,71	1,56	1,20
28	Pony Cart Train Cadres	27	36	33
2	Service Grantee Camel Corps	1	2	2
24	Ghilzai Camel Corps
6	Mechanical Transport	16	2	11
35	Transport charges connected with Army Bearer Corps	73	38	31
38,88	TOTAL	46,05	49,96	47,47

320. The excess under Unorganised Transport (3,00) was chiefly due to more charges for feed of animals owing to rise in rates and to purchases for stock; to large purchase and repair of gear, carts and equipment owing to large condemnations; partly counterbalanced by the lapse of the provision for initial expenditure in connection with the provision of 4,000 army transport carts. The excesses under Mule Cadres (1,20) and Pony Cart Train Cadres (6) were mainly due to more charges for feed of animals owing to higher rates of articles of feed. The saving under Mule Corps (1,87) was mainly attributable to less purchases of animals; that under Silladar Camel Corps (51) to less charges for feed of animals owing to short strength of camels and to the lapse of the provision for reorganisation of the 58th Silladar Camel Corps. Less charges for purchase and repair of doolies, gear, carts and equipment owing to the introduction of wheeled stretchers brought about a saving of 42 under Transport Charges connected with Army Bearer Corps.

Remount and Veterinary—concluded.

321. The increase of 10,94 under Purchase of Remounts was due to the purchase of horses in connection with the reorganisation of horse and field artillery and ammunition columns; and to payments of bonuses to the shippers of Australian horses, partly counterbalanced by less purchases of young stock, ordnance mules and young mules; that of 11 under Supervising Staff to more charges for salaries and travelling allowances owing to frequent movements of the Director General on tours of inspection; and that of 42 under Miscellaneous to more road expenses of cattle and remounts and contingencies due partly to expenditure on account of the reorganisation of horse and field artillery and partly to increased charges for cattle gear and road expenses, counterbalanced to some extent by less extensive cultivation expenses. Under Station Veterinary Hospital the increase of 11 was chiefly due to more charges for salaries and travelling owing to the deduction for probable savings having proved too high. Against these increases there was a saving of 1,70 under Horse, Mule and Donkey Breeding Operations, chiefly due to less charges for salaries owing to the appointment of a Superintendent having been vacant for some time and the partial employment of the temporary establishment. The decrease of 12 under Depôt Establishments was due to less charges for salaries; and that of 17 under Feed of Cattle and Remounts to less strength of ordnance mules at depôts, partly counterbalanced by higher rates of grain and fodder for cattle and remounts at depôts, and of young stock.

322. The decreases of 25 under Superintending Establishments and of 7 under Manufacturing and Store Establishments were due to less charges for salaries and exchange compensation allowance owing to an Assistant Superintendent being short of complement, and to the absence of certain European Officers on furlough and to lower rates of pay of certain incumbents. The increase of 75 under Supplies and Services—Factories was chiefly due to the local purchase of socks for which funds were transferred from Home Estimates; and to the cost of warm coats supplied to Native troops on payment partly counterbalanced by less charges for making clothing, great coats, etc., and for packing materials. Under Supplies and Services—Compensation in lieu of clothing the excess of 2,88 was mainly due to increased expenditure for compensation in lieu of clothing to British troops and to the issue of white helmet covers and more allowances to British soldiers on the Unattached List for upkeep of uniform. The decrease in the deduction for Value of Stores, etc. (5) was chiefly due to a write-back of credits for the value of stores issued to China. The grant in 1905-06 to certain Native troops of compensation in lieu of special concessions which were abolished under the new clothing scheme chiefly accounted for the increase in the actuals of the previous year.

323. The increase of 1,17 in this grant was the result of excesses of 84 under Barrack Bedding and 99 under Miscellaneous, and of savings of 11 under Subordinate Establishment and 61 under Mechanical Punkha-pulling and Electric Lighting. The increases were chiefly due to more renewals and purchases of barrack bedding for stock; to higher rates of firewood for chimneys; and to large condemnations and replacements of barrack and hospital supplies, partly counterbalanced by less charges for working wells and supply of water and well gear for plunge-baths and wash-houses. The savings were due to less charges for punkha-pulling establishment; to the lapse of the schedule provision for electric installation at Lucknow; and to less debit by the Military Works Department for working expenses of mechanical punkha-pulling and electric lighting.

324. The saving of 23 in this grant was chiefly due to absence of expenditure on account of Cantonment Magistrates attached to Judge-Advocate General's Department for training; to less prison charges; and to the abolition of Military prisons at certain stations.

325. The saving of 47 under Medical Establishments—Divisions and Brigades occurred under salaries and contingencies and was chiefly due to the deduction for probable savings having proved insufficient, partly counterbalanced by more travelling charges; that of 9 under Sanitation of Cantonments to less grants-in-aid to Cantonment funds and hospitals; that of 1,28 under Army Bearer Corps to less charges for salaries and kit money owing to short strength of corps, partly counterbalanced by more charges for travelling; and that of 69 under Medical Supplies to less charges for dieting sick owing to few patients having been in hospital and to small condemnations of hospital equipments, partly counterbalanced by increased charges for hospital supplies owing chiefly to the supply of artificial teeth to British soldiers, and to large requirements of medical and surgical stores in hospitals. In the Department of Military Supply, the saving of 13 under Miscellaneous was chiefly due to the small number of military pupils under tuition at Medical Colleges, partly counterbalanced by increased expenditure for the engagement of private nurses to attend on sick officers; and that of 79 under Medical Supplies, to less demands of medical and surgical stores from civil and military hospitals; to the non-purchase of acids for plague purposes in the Secunderabad Division and to cheaper rate of quinine, made up to some extent by additional schedule expenditure for equipment of field hospitals and 500 field veterinary companions. The increase in the deduction for Issues to Other Departments was due to large supplies to civil institutions.

1,26,02	TOTAL	1,36,78	1,30,50	1,30,26

326. The savings of 76 under Establishments—Arsenals and Depôts and of 78 under Establishments—Factories were chiefly due to insufficient deductions in the Budget for probable savings; to less charges for salaries and exchange compensation allowance owing to fewer officers having been present; and to less schedule expenditure on account of the personnel of the Cordite Factory; partly counterbalanced by increased expenditure for extra temporary artificers and others and for travelling and contingencies. The decrease of 50 under Stores—Arsenals and Depôts occurred chiefly under purchases of local stores; and that of 3,22 under Stores—Factories was due to smaller demands for local stores by the Gun and Shell Factory, Cordite Factory, Rifle Factory, Gun Carriage Factory, Jubbulpore, Ammunition Factories, and the Harness and Saddlery Factory, Cawnpore, and Workshops, Perambur, due to less schedule expenditure, partly counterbalanced by increased purchase of local stores and timber for Gun Carriage Factories and the Central Gun Carriage Factory, Jubbulpore. Against these savings, there was an increase of 1,68 under Camp Equipage chiefly due to heavy purchases of standing camp tents to replenish stock; to the replacement of stores issued to China; and to more schedule expenditure. The increased credit of 1,12 under Supplies to other Departments was chiefly due to credits for work done by the Gun and Shell Factory and the Ammunition Factory, Kirkee, in connection with the rearmament of coast defences; to net credit for value of stores issued to and returned by His Majesty's Imperial Government, London, Royal Navy Reserve, and Ordnance Officer, Cairo; to large issues to civil department, and to the issue of stores to China, partly counterbalanced by the adjustment of the value of stores in possession of Native regiments serving in the Colonies. In the Army Department, the saving of 11 under Fort Armaments was chiefly due to the abolition of the fort armament at Malakand and Fort Gobindgarh; to less travelling charges, and to short complement of native establishment. The supercession of the separate allowances for line gear material, etc., by the consolidated horse lines contingent allowance, brought about a saving of 1,61 under Line Gear. The increase, compared with the actuals of the previous year, was chiefly due to the creation of the Office of Inspector General of Ordnance Factories; to heavy expenditure for extra labour in manufacturing establishments owing to increased outturn; to large purchases of local stores and timber for the Gun Carriage Factory, Jubbulpore, and to the compilation of the reorganisation schedule expenditure under the separate "reorganisation" division in 1905-06, partly counterbalanced by small purchases of local stores for the Gun and Shell Factory and Ammunition Factories.

Other Effective Charges.

327. The decrease of 37 under Ecclesiastical was chiefly due to less charges for pay of Scottish Chaplains and for allowance to Roman Catholic Chaplains, owing to vacancies and to lower rates of pay drawn by certain Chaplains. The saving of 23 under Education was mainly due to less charges for books, materials, etc., for army schools; to savings in schedule expenditure; to the lower army rank of the Deputy Adjutant General; and to leave vacancies; partly counterbalanced by more charges for maps and by additional schedule expenditure for horse allowance to officers studying at the Staff College and for the acquisition of water-mills. Under Volunteer Corps the saving of 32 was due to the deduction for probable savings having proved insufficient and to less travelling charges. Against these savings there was an increase of 2,08 under Sea Transport Charges chiefly due to more charges of passage money to officers and others proceeding to the colonies and from port to port in India; to the employment of the R. I. M. S. Dufferin for conveyance of troops to England; and to the supply of coal for the transport Rewa.

328. The figures under Miscellaneous Services may be sub-divided as follows:—

1905-6. Accounts.	Budget.	1906-7. Revised.	Accounts.
13,46 Special Charges	9,29	9,89	9,64
23,48 Other Items	23,23	22,90	22,01
36,94	TOTAL : 32,52	32,79	31,65

329. The variations under Special Charges have been explained in paragraph 288. Under Other Items the saving of 1,22 was chiefly due to less charges for moonshee allowance to officers and men for passing in Native languages, and for travelling allowances to officers and men; to less arrear charges on account of Rawalpindi concentration; to less charges on account of debit note telegrams; and to lapses and savings in the schedule provision for purchase of land and for the regrant of lapse of the previous year; partly counterbalanced by increased charges for compensation for losses to Silladar Cavalry Regiments and Silladar Camel Corps, for camps-of-exercise, manœuvres and instruction; for the concentration of troops on the occasion of the visit to India of His Majesty the Amir of Afghanistan; and for the payment of compensations connected with the cordite explosion at Hyderabad.

Non-Effective Charges.

330. There was a saving of 12 under Rewards for Military Services, and was chiefly due to less charges on account of annuities for meritorious service and Order of British India, partly counterbalanced by more charges for medals. Under Military Pensions to Europeans the decrease of 38 was due to less payments of capitalized pensions and gratuities, partly counterbalanced by increased charges for pensions to commissioned officers and to departmental officers with honorary rank. The decrease of 1,20 under Military Pensions to Natives was due to less pension charges of Native Commissioned and non-commissioned officers and soldiers owing to short strength, counteracted by increased compensation to Madras pensioners for dearness of provisions. Against these savings there were excesses of 25 under Family Pensions and Compassionate Allowances and of 50 under Departmental Pensions and Gratuities. The excess under the former head was due to more charges for Indian Military Service Family Pensions, also for pensions to widows and compassionate allowances; that under the latter to an arrear payment, to the grant of compassionate allowances and pensions to Mutiny Veterans, and to the payment of gratuities to men of the Army Bearer Corps on reduction of establishment, and of muleteers of unauthorised castes on the reorganisation of Mule Corps.

Expenditure in England.

331. As compared with the Budget, the English expenditure showed an increase of £895,7 under Effective Charges and of £22,4 under Non-Effective Charges. Under Reorganisation—Stores for India there was no charge, as the payments were included under Effective Charges—Stores for India. The increase under Effective Charges occurred in all the heads except Passage of Officers and Troops otherwise than in Troopship, where there was a saving of £9,6 owing to fewer officers having been provided with passages. The excess under Home Charges of British Forces serving in India (£18,4) was chiefly due to an increase under furlough pay (£13,3) and a net charge by the War Office (£4,2) in respect of British Forces serving in India. Under Furlough Allowances of Officers of the Indian Service the increase (£43,5) was due to there having been more officers at home than was estimated. The increase (£42,7) under Indian Troop Service was due to the engagement of two fresh ships for an accelerated service, to the conveyance of a larger number of troops in part from South Africa to India and to the voyage of the Royal Indian Marine Steamer Dufferin; that of £5,8 under Miscellaneous to increased payments on account of the Medical Service and for officers under technical instruction and studying the Japanese language. Under Stores for India the increase (£794,9) was chiefly due to the transfer of the cost of stores estimated under Reorganisation—Store for India, partly counterbalanced by a considerable decrease in the demands for metals. The increase under Non-Effective Charges was mainly due to an increase (£25,8) under Retired pay, etc., of British Forces for Service in India due partly to increased claim by the War Office and partly to a payment of £17,7 having been made in respect of 1905-06, partly set off by decreases under Miscellaneous Pensions (£2,3) and Indian Military Service Family Pensions (£1,1) owing to too large a provision having been made for the growth of these pensions.

332. The expenditure in India fell short of the Budget Estimate by 1,14, but exceeded the actuals of the previous year by 49. There were savings under all the heads except Salaries and Allowances and Victualling of Officers and men afloat, where an increase of 17 occurred chiefly on account of purchase of provisions by the Dufferin and the Hardinge outside Indian waters at an enhanced rate; partly counterbalanced by the lapse of a certain portion of the provision for outfit allowance and savings in other allowances. Under Dockyards a saving occurred (1,40) in the Bombay Dockyard due to the non-utilization of the provision for certain works of construction for the Royal Indian Marine and other works not working up to the amounts provided in the Budget and was partly counterbalanced by an excess in the Kidderpore Dockyard under wages of artificers and labourers. The decrease of 9 under Marine Survey and Establishment was due to the appointment of Surveyor in charge having been held by an officer on lower pay, and to the appointments of Assistant Surveyor and Surgeon and Naturalist having been vacant for some time.

333. As compared with the actuals of the previous year, the increase was chiefly due to larger and more works of construction having been undertaken for the Civil Department, Burma, and Eastern Bengal and Assam; to the creation of the appointment of Constructor; to the purchase of provisions at high rates by the Royal Indian Marine Vessels Dufferin and Hardinge; to large supplies of stores received from the Cossipore Shell Factory; and to heavy repairs to certain flats; partly counterbalanced by savings in wages of artificers and labourers in the Bombay Dockyard.

334. The increase in England was chiefly due to payments on account of vessels under construction.

335. The expenditure of the year exceeded that of the previous year by 3,29. The principal increases are, Military Works—Reorganisation (14,17), due to the expansion of reorganisation measures, Burma (3,53) (1,01 Reorganization, 1,82 special, and 70 Ordinary), due chiefly to larger expenditure on accommodation for a Native Mounted Battery of Artillery at Maymo (a reorganisation work), and on accommodation for British and Native troops, water supply at Mandalay and Ordnance and Supply and Transport Corps works at Rangoon, and in the Punjab (2,35), due chiefly to the construction of Remount Department works at Sargodha and Mona. These increases were counterbalanced by a reduction under Military Works, Special Demands, which resulted from the postponement of certain works till the completion of the Reorganisation Scheme. The lapse of 10,56 as compared with the Budget Estimate was due to the Reserve with the Government of India not having been utilised to its fullest extent.

337. The figures shown under this head represent the surplus or deficit of each Provincial Government in respect of the revenues and charges assigned to it, including the Incorporated Local Funds. The revenue and expenditure under the various major heads have been shown in detail in the foregoing pages, and the share of these, pertaining to the Provincial and Local sections of the accounts for the several groups, is given below separately for each Province.

(a) Differs from last year's closing balance for corrections since made.

338. The Budget provided for a reduction of Rs. 67,91 or £1,119,4 from the Provincial Balances, and an increase of Rs. 27 or £41,8 in the Local Balances, but the accounts show an improvement of Rs. 14,59 or £1,430,6 over the Budget in the Provincial Balances, and of Rs. 24,27 or £161,8 in the Local Balances, aggregating an increase of Rs. 38,86 or £1,592,4 in the Provincial and Local Balances together. The improvement was the result of increase of revenue in all provinces and decrease of expenditure in all except Burma, Bengal and the United Provinces. The initial grant of 50,00 to Burma to start the new settlement concluded with that Province with effect from the 1st April 1907, the special grants of 28,22 and 12,00 to the United Provinces and Bombay to cover famine expenditure incurred from Provincial funds during the years 1905-06 and 1906-07, in accordance with the announcement made in para. 57 of the Financial Statement for 1907-08 and the alteration of the fixed assignment of 6,23 payable by Eastern Bengal and Assam to Imperial revenues, in accordance with the settlement originally concluded, into an assignment of 4,02 from Imperial to the Provincial revenues, also contributed to the improvement.

339. The improvement was chiefly contributed by the Central Provinces (14,59), Burma (42,26), Eastern Bengal and Assam (17,03), United Provinces (38,56), Punjab (16,22), Madras (36,85) and Bombay (67,96).

340. The improvements in Burma and Eastern Bengal and Assam were mainly due to the initial grant of 50,00 and the alteration in the fixed assignment mentioned above. The special grants to the United Provinces and Bombay to recoup the famine expenditure defrayed from Provincial funds in 1905-06 and 1906-07, account for a portion of the improvement in these two provinces; the rest of it was due to higher irrigation receipts in consequence of an increase in the area under rabi cultivation in the former, and to a large lapse in the provision for famine expenditure and better receipts under the revenue heads in the latter. The betterness in Central Provinces and Eastern Bengal and Assam was due to decrease of expenditure under Civil Departments and Civil Works in the former, and under Civil Works only in the latter Province; that in the Punjab was due to increase in receipts under principal heads of revenue and irrigation; and that in Madras was caused by higher receipts under the revenue heads and decrease of expenditure under Civil Departments and Civil Works.

343. Under head 48.—State Railways there was a lapse of £82,9 or R12,43 compared with the Budget Estimate. The principal lapses were Katihar-Godagiri 15,13, Rameswaram Extension, 19,60, Shilman Branch 14 91, Rohri-Samasata Doubling 20,23, North-East Line.—Madras Railway 13,78, Great Indian Peninsula Railway 25,95, Stores and Reserve 71,90, while the more important excesses were, Dhubri-Gauhati 15,13, Khushalnagar-Kohat Railway Conversion and Indus Bridge 13,53, Baran Kotah 9,33, Lodhian-Khanewal 7,51, East Indian 55,42, Eastern Bengal 7,57, Oudh and Rohilkhand 7,55, North-Western 28,02, and Assam Bengal Railway, Part II, 7,15. The causes of these variations are explained further on.

48.—State Railways—concluded.

344. Comparing the outlay for 1906-07 with the Budget Estimate as regards lines under construction the excess of 15,13 on the Dhubri-Gauhati was due to the requirements of the line having been underestimated, the excess of 13,53 on the Khushalgarh-Kohat Railway conversion and Indus Bridge resulted principally from under-estimates under the heads "Bridgework" and "Ballast and Permanent-way," the excess of 9,33 on the Baran-Kotah was due to the debits for stores issued to the line from the Nagda-Muttra Railway, and the expenditure of 7,51 on the Lodhran-Khanewal Railway without Budget provision was due to the construction of the line having been decided on later in the year. The lapse of 15,13 on the Katihar-Godagiri Railway was due to works expenditure being less than originally estimated for, the lapse of 19,60 on the Rameswaram Extension was due to reef works not having been taken in hand during the year and to credits afforded for the transfer of surplus materials and stores, and the lapse of 14,91 on the Shilman Branch was mainly due to provision having been made for a second executive division which was not formed.

345. As regards Open Lines, the more important increases were 55,42 on the East Indian Railway due chiefly to larger outlay on works and purchase of both Indian and English stores; these excesses were counterbalanced to a certain extent by increased issues of stores to revenue; 7,57 on the Eastern Bengal Railway due to the execution of certain works for which no provision was made in the Budget Estimate, 7,55 on the Oudh and Rohilkhand Railway due to the extra cost of 33 new engines obtained for the replacement of old engines, which was not originally provided for, having been debited to capital under the new rules, 28,02 on the North Western Railway due to an excess in English expenditure, and 7,15 on the Assam-Bengal Railway (Part II) due to the inadequacy of the provision made in the Budget Estimate for the requirements of the line. The principal lapses were 20,23 on the Rohri-Samasata doubling, due to short outlay on works falling under the main heads "Bridgework" and "Ballast and Permanent-way," 1,40 on the Nilgiri Railway and 13,78 on the North East Line, Madras Railway, due to less work having been done than was originally provided for; 25,95 on the Great Indian Peninsula Railway due to the lapse on the provision for outlay on English stores and to short outlay on works, and 2,04 on the Tinnevely-Quilon (Native States Section) due to unexpected credits for large items of plant and stores sold during the year. The lapse of 71,90 under Stores and Reserve was merely a nominal one, the amount having been distributed during the year where it was most likely to be utilised.

346. The expenditure during 1906-07 exceeded that of the previous year by Rs 36,21, and was chiefly due to the vigorous prosecution of work on the new projects in the Punjab, and to larger outlay on open capital works on the Periyar Project and on the Nagavalli River and Divi pumping projects in Madras. Compared with the Budget Estimate there was a lapse of Rs 5,36, which occurred chiefly in Burma (2,24) due mainly to the requirements for the Shwebo and Yeu Canals being overestimated, United Provinces (6,79) due to the postponement of the Hathras Branch of the Mat Branch Ganges Canal and to the prevalence of sickness and consequent difficulty in securing labour, Madras (5,32) due to work not being pushed on on the Godavari Delta and Cauveri Delta Systems, Bombay (7,92) due to the projects for the Ghotki and Naulakhi Canals not being ready and to sanction for the revised Mahiwah project not having been received. These lapses were counterbalanced to a great extent by an excess of 20,89 in Punjab owing mainly to work being pushed on on the Upper Jhelum and Upper Chenab Canals.

347. As explained in former reports, these are all net sums representing excess of receipts over payments. The Indian figures represent the difference between the advances taken by the Companies and the credits received chiefly on account of stores used on Revenue account. The English figures represent the difference between the Capital deposited by the Companies with the Secretary of State and the withdrawals for expenditure on Stores, Establishment charges, etc. These figures are necessarily liable to great fluctuations, but the following general explanations are furnished:—

348. Guaranteed Companies, Madras Railway.—The decrease of £144,5 under India, was due entirely to the receipts having been smaller than anticipated and would have been augmented, but for the decrease of £51,3 in withdrawals owing to the provision for certain works not having been fully worked up to.

• 349. Under England there was a lapse of £254,1 on account of establishment and purchase of stores, while receipts on account of subscribed capital were less by £273,2 resulting in a net decrease of £19,1.

350. In India under Assisted Companies the excess of 457,3 on the Bengal-Nagpur Railway was due to large purchases of sleepers and timber required for lines under construction from the savings in the grant for outlay in England; the excess of 71,1 on the Burma Railway was due to outlay incurred on certain works not originally provided for, but subsequently found necessary; lapse of 101,7 on the Indian Midland Railway resulted from the provision in the Budget Estimate, for extension of Loco. shops at Jhansi not having been utilised in full, and the excess of 46,0 on the Southern Mahratta and Mysore Railways was chiefly due to the purchase of an additional quantity of Singareni and Bengal coal, as also to the rise in the price of the same.

351. The Branch Line Companies deposit capital in the Government Treasury and draw against these deposits for expenditure on construction according to requirements. During the year 48,3 was deposited and 40,4 withdrawn as against 35,5 and 36,1 provided in the Budget Estimate.

356. The net credits under Provincial Balances and Appropriation for Reduction or Avoidance of Debt have been explained in paragraphs 337 to 340 and 186 respectively.

357. Under Excluded Local Funds the difference of £45,8 between the Budget and actuals is the result of several variations in detail of which may be mentioned—in India, large withdrawals by the Cantonment Funds, in the Central Provinces large receipts of the Cantonment Funds, in Burma the conversion of Town Funds into Municipal Funds, the creation of new Town Funds and increased expenditure incurred by the Akyab Port Fund for the improvement of that port, in Bengal increased charges of the Marine Funds in consequence of the investment of the deposits of the Hospital Port Dues Fund, in the United Provinces high receipts under Education, Cantonment and Town Funds, in the Punjab larger withdrawals under Cantonment and Public Works Funds, in Madras large investments of the receipts of Port and Marine Funds in Government Promissory Notes, in Bombay increased receipts under Cantonment Funds from Octroi, sale of fruit, grass and manure, increased contribution and grants-in-aid to the Ahmednagar Cantonment Hospital Fund, increased net receipts under Police, and Port & Marine Funds as well as under several other Funds. Under Railway Funds the improvement was the result mainly of short withdrawals from the Madras Railway Provident Institution partly counterbalanced by excess payments from the Guarantee and Contractors Security Fund of that Railway. The credit of £4,014,4 under Gold Standard Reserve represents net profits on coinage which was heavy in the year under review, and the debit of £4,000,0 represents amount actually paid over to the Reserve Fund. The amount due to Reserve Fund from the Treasury balance at the end of the year was £301,3. The character and magnitude of the transactions under Departmental and Judicial Deposits render an accurate forecast impossible. Increased net receipts occurred in all the provinces except Burma where the result was a net expenditure of 2,59 against an estimated net receipt of 5,09. The most prominent improvements occurred in India and Bengal. In these provinces the Budget anticipated net outgoings of 1,55,78 and 4,30, but the accounts produced net receipts of 4,08 and 21,00 respectively.

358. The net figures entered against the head Advances may be divided as follows :—

	Budget.		1906-7. Revised.		Accounts.

	—3,92	—26,2	+61,87	+412,5	+82,50	+550,0

359. The net credit of 89,30 under Coinage Accounts is made up of net credits of 1,54,55 under Currency Silver in process of coinage, and 2,92 under Copper Coinage Account and net debits of 1,81 under Small Coin Depôt Balances, 59,11 under Bullion Advance for coinage and 7,25 under Bronze Coinage Account.

360. The net debit under Other Advances is the final outcome of a number of transactions; the cause of the net debit of Rs6,80 or £45,3 is, however, brought about by the following figures :—

Section Q.—DEPOSITS AND ADVANCES—concluded.

361 The net credit under Special Advances occurred in Bengal in the recoveries of Survey and Settlement charges, while the net debit under Permanent Advances occurred in the same Province in respect of payments for famine expenditure in Durbhanga. The net debit under Account Current with Foreign States occurred in the Punjab, partly in account with Kashmir State, owing to large payments to that State from its accumulated balance and partly in the account current with Chamba. Under Other Advances fluctuations occurred under Advances Recoverable, Marine and Advances Recoverable, Military the result being a net debit of 2.27 in the former and a net credit of 2.89 in the latter. There was also a net credit of 1.69 in Madras under Stock Account, Opium, and a net credit of 36 under Forest advances.

In England the worseness occurred almost entirely under Advances Repayable (£256.4)

363. The transactions in connection with Imperial Loans and Advances resulted in a net outgoing of £4.3 or ₹64 against an estimated net receipt of £56.2 or ₹8.42. This was brought about by an increase of 18.15 in the amount advanced and of 9.09 in the repayments. The excess in the amount advanced was due to an excess of 1.67 in the Advances to Cultivators, principally in India and to the grant of Loans to Native States and Presidency Corporations aggregating 45.73 against a lump provision of 30.00 only. The chief items comprising the sum 45.73 were Loans to the Calcutta Port Trust (30.00) to the Madras Harbour Trust (2.52), to the Karauli (2.52), Karwai (2.00), Kotah (4.00) and Bijawar (70) States for Famine and Administrative purposes, to the Shahpura State (50) for the construction of a storage reservoir, to the Tonk State (1.00) for financing its coinage operations, and to the Kathiawar agency States (1.38). The excess in the amount repaid occurred principally in Bombay under Loans to Native States, and was due to the adjustment of Thana circles loan accounts in Kathiawar and to the adjustment of the remission allowed to the Palanpur State, on account of the cost of the Hidmatya project (Government of India, Foreign Department, No. 2532-I. A., dated 25th June 1906).

365. Under Loans to Mofussil Municipalities, the following are the details, by provinces, of advances and repayments during the year :—

	Budget, 1906-7.		Accounts, 1906-7.		Excess (+), Deficiency (—)
	Advanced.	Repaid.	Advanced.	Repaid.	Advanced.	Repaid.

TOTAL	37,18	9,23	25,11	10,39	—12,07	+1,16

366. In the advances there were savings in all the provinces except the United Provinces, where there was an excess of 1,04. Prominent savings, however, occurred in Burma (2,91), Eastern Bengal (1,25), Bengal (3,44), Madras (3,00) and Bombay (99) owing to grants not having been fully used. The provision under Loans to Port Funds in Bombay was not required. The saving in the advances under Loans to District Committees which occurred in Madras, was caused by the lapse of a grant to the District Board, Kurnool (7,00) for the construction of Kurnool-Dhone Railway, owing to the construction having been undertaken by the Southern Mahratta Railway. On the other hand, the amount advanced for outlay on the Bezvada-Masulipatani Railway exceeded the Budget by 3,40. The increase in repayment was due to unexpected recoveries from the Dinajpur District Board (18) in Eastern Bengal, from the Bellary and the Salem District Boards (22) in Madras, and from Satara District Board (29) in Bombay. Under Loans to Landholders, etc., the decrease in the advances resulted from lapses of grants of 25 to the Bishop of Nagpur in the Central Provinces, and of 51 in Burma under the "Ywabon" tenure in the Katha District for repayment of mortgages. The fall in the receipts was attributable to short payment by the Sardhana Estate in the United Provinces. Important variations under Advances under Special Laws occurred in Bengal and the United Provinces. Increased recovery mainly on account of Rajapur Drainage advances and lapses of grants for Mogra Hat Scheme in the 24-Perganas (6,90), for the Angul circuit in Midnapur (70), and for Drainage of the Chorinacote Swamp in Nadia, were responsible for the variations in the former. Increased advances and short recovery under the Bundelkhand Encumbered Estates Act account mainly for the variations in the latter.

Section RR.—PROVINCIAL LOANS AND ADVANCES—concluded.

367. Under Advances to Cultivators, the following are the details:—

368. There were increased advances in all the provinces except the Punjab. Of these the most prominent increases occurred in Eastern Bengal, Bengal and the United Provinces and were due to prevailing distress. Increased advances in the Central Provinces were made up by increased repayments.
